WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1893.

Mothers must be watchful in these days of multiplied organizations lest their devotion to certain "causes" cause them to rob their families of the time and attention they need, and of sacred right ought to receive.

Charles O. Wilson, Republican candidate for nomination for sheriff of Jefferson county, was in Reynoldsville on Monday. Mr. Wilson is a Punsutawneyite. The Spirit says: Charles O. Wilson, of this place, is making an active canvass for the office of sheriff. He carries a beaming countenance always, and his constant good nature and big-hearted geniality attracts voters to his standard even as the bumble-bee is attracted by the clover blossoms.

Have you ever noticed what a peculiar thing this Sunday sickness is? The indisposition comes on suddenly. The victims retire on Saturday night in their usual health, but on awakening on Sunday morning somehow "they do not feel very well," and they "guess they went to church to-day." But fortunately, it never proves fatal or very serious. On Monday morning the afflicted ones awake in their usual health, and are as ready for business as ever. People suffering from this malady never take much medicine.

John Waite, of Winslow township, whom we mentioned at the beginning of the primary campaign had a hankering after the office of county treasurer, has not lost any of the desire he had at that time to serve the people, in fact he is very anxious for the Republicans of the county to at least give him the nomination. John Waite has been elected tax collector of Winslow township twice and that is the only office he has asked from the party of his choice. Here, where John is well known, he is highly respected and will, no doubt, be well supported at the primary on the 17th inst. Mr. Waite would make a candidate the party need not be ashamed of.

No woman will love a man better for his being renowned or prominent. Though he be the greatest among men, she will be prouder not fonder; as is often the case, she will not even be proud. But give her love, appreciation, kindness, and there is no sacrifice she will not make for his content and comfort. The man who loves her well is hero and king—no less a hero to her though he is not to any other, no less a king though his only kingdom is her heart and home. In nine cases out of ten it is a man's own fault if he is unhappy with his wife. It is a very exceptional woman who will not be all she can to an attentive husband, and a very exceptional one who will not be very disagreeable if she finds herself willfully neglected.

There are eight Republican candidates for the office of county commissioner, among whom is W. T. Cox, of Sandy Valley, who, until recently, was the postmaster, a merchant, farmer and a general business man of the town above mentioned. Mr. Cox has successfully managed his own business affairs for years, which is evidence, if nominated and elected, that he could discharge the duties that would be required of him in serving the county as a commissioner. It is hardly necessary to arise and make many remarks about Mr. Cox, for the reason that he is pretty generally known all over the county. If the people are as liberal with their support on the 17th inst. as they are with words now, he is sure to receive the nomination as one of the candidates for county commissioner.

Esq. E. Neff, who has been identified with the business interests of Reynoldsville for over twenty years, is now a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Jefferson county, subject to the support he gets at the Republican primary June 17th. The "Squire" served his country in the late unpleasantness. His first public position in Reynoldsville was serving the people as constable and deputy sheriff. In 1877 he was elected Justice of the Peace, which office he held for ten consecutive years. He embarked in the grocery business in 1888 and built up a good trade. He continued in the grocery business until 1892 and was then re-elected as Justice of the Peace. Mr. Neff is certainly making an active canvass for the office of sheriff, and if he does not "get there" it will not be because he has not worked hard with that end in view. He was well known in the county before the opening of the present campaign, but he is more widely known now. The "Squire" is capable of making a good sheriff.
