Me-Creight will spend the summer on his father's farm in Paradise settlement. He has not decided where he will locate in the fall.

Should be Ashamed.

We have been informed that an old man in Reynoldsville, whose hair has been whitened a number of years and whose days of usefulness are in the bygones, bought whiskey for boys on the 4th of July. Although it would be rather hard to give an old man a full dose of the law for such a trick, yet it would be but justice for him to be punished. A man who will buy whiskey for boys George said to tell his "pards" in Amer-

Jefferson Alright, Girls,

In our last issue we published an article from the Ridgway Advocate which was the substance of a letter written to that paper by Rev. J. C. McDonald, of Punxsutawney, concerning a discovery he had made about the difference of "ministerial job work" in big Jefferson and little Elk counties. The Rev. said: "Had little Elk not better hang out a sign, so all the young ladies may know where to find a sure thing," because "Elk, with only 23,000 inhabitants, has over 1,300 marriages since the new law and Jefferson, with over 40,000 inhabitants, only 1,100." We take the first opportunity to make an explanation so that all the marriageable girls of Jefferson will not want to move over into Elk. The number of licenses granted in this county since the new law has been 2,925. While Scott McClelland was prothonotary 1.757 were issued, and when W. A Neale was elected prothonotary he commenced at No. 1 again and has issued 1,168, which gives the girls a better chance than Elk offers. You are all right in Jefferson county, girls.

Lost an Eye.

July 4th the Methodist Episcopal and Winebinarian Sunday schools and P. O. S. of A., of Emerickville, held a union picnic at that place. In the morning when they were marching to the grove W. B. Shaffer, blacksmith of Iowa Mills, and several other men were stationed along the route and were firing salutes, using anvils. A piece of leather tug was used on the anvils. Shaffer was standing nearby when a charge went off and a small piece of the tug struck him in the right eye and knocked it out onto the ground. The doctor probed and found a piece of leather at the edge of the brain. Mr. Shaffer is twenty-eight years old and has a wife and one child. The picnic was a success and would have been an exceedingly pleasant affair had it not been for the sad accident in the morning, the thoughts of which cast somewhat of a gloom over the picnickers the remainder of the day.

A Surprise Party.

John Trudgen, a coal miner and one of our best citizens, was the victim of a birthday surprise party on the 2nd inst. Such parties have been numerous in Reynoldsville lately and Mr. Trudgen would have been suspicious had it not been that his birthday occurred on Sunday and for this reason he was completely thrown off the track. He and his wife came down town together Saturday evening and locked the house, and when they returned home and turned on a light and found thirty-five people there Mr. Trudgen was greatly surprised. After a pleasant evening together refreshments were served and as the clock pointed to the midnight hour the party returned home leaving for Mr. Trudgen a handsome rocking chair as a present on his 39th birthday. Mrs. Trudgen was the originator of the surprise party.

Back Broken.

George Matthews, an Englishman who worked at the old Hamilton for sometime, but returned to England about three years ago, intended to sail for America on the 28th ultimo and while at work in the mine on his last shift on the 27th had his back broken. In the letter which brought the news of the accident across the deep blue sea,

An Exciting Runaway.

One of the most exciting runaways that has ever taken place in Reynoldsville, occurred last Wednesday afternoon. J. A. Welsh & Co., grocerymen, have a spirited horse used by them for delivering goods. The animal is frisky and has taken several wild jaunts around town. On the afternoon mentioned the horse was hitched into the wagon and was standing in the alley back of the store tied to a twenty-seven pound iron weight and in some unknown way got frightened and ran off. The horse evidently preferred to run on the sidewalk. It ran onto the walk at Hotel Belnap and broke two windows and knocked beer kegs, which were on the outer edge of the walk, in all directions. The wagon was upset and come uncoupled in front of Bing & Co.'s store, put the horse sped on with the front part. It ran onto the sidewalk again at Hanau's store and knocked out an iron post from under the wooden awning, ran up the walk to the alley and knocked out another post from an awning, but it dropped the awning in front of the Reynoldsville Hardware store with a crash by knocking four iron posts from under it. Pieces of the awning went through one of the large windows and smashed the glass into smithereens and broke two or three sets of good dishes. The horse continued the mad run and just as it turned down Fifth street it was doing some lively kicking and one hind foot got caught in the wagon and the animal fell against one of the iron posts with such force that it was willing to stop its wild pranks. Fortunately no one was injured. Uncle Ed. Seeley, Ab. Reynolds and several other men were in front of the hardware store, but when they saw the horse coming up the sidewalk Ed. and Ab. ran a foot race to the rear of the long store room. Ab. said he thought the horse was coming into the store. Norman Doughit, porter at Hotel Belnap, was sitting in the front office of the Hotel and when he heard the racket he thought the horse was coming through the barroom and he got out of the house as fast as he could run. Frank Sutter ran out to stop the horse, but the bridle was broken and the attempt was unsuccessful.

Small Cyclone,

A very heavy wind and rain storm passed around Reynoldsville last Wednesday, doing some damage at Rathmel and in the neighborhood of Sandy Valley. Curt Sencor and his men were working in the woods near Sandy Valley and the trees fell fast in every direction, Mr. Sencor estimates that a thousand trees fell in the storm's path. One large maple tree which Mr. Sencor had used as a shelter for his buggy for two years, was twisted off visited their daughter, Mrs. U. G. fifteen feet from the ground and fell Scheafnocker, at this place Sunday. within two feet of his buggy. It was almost a miracle that the men and Portland Mills, visited Mrs. Thompeight horses escaped uninjured. Roads son's parents at this place last week. had to be cut before they could get the horses out of the woods. There was been enjoying his regular summer visit considerable wind here, but a very light at this place with Alex. Riston during shower.

Some of Elisha Cox's friends think he does not work hard, but when they consider the fact that he has done the work on his own farm of 30 acres, the Dean farm 60 acres, and Peter Cox's farm 100 acres and only hired twelve dollars worth of work done, they will hardly think he has been entirely idle.

Jonathan Coleman, of Oak Ridge, father of M. C. Coleman and Mrs. J. C. King, of this place, died on the 30th ultimo, at the age of three score and six years. The funeral services were held in the Salem church July 3rd, and his remains buried in the cemetery near Greenville, Clarion county. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

The Artificial Stone Paving Co., of Williamsport, have put a new pavement down in front of H. Alex. Stoke's brick block. It is an excellent pavement and will last until many of the frame buildings on Main street have tumbled down. The paving is a little expensive at first figuring, but it is cheap in the long run. The Co. will do some work for Henry Deible, Seeley, Alexander & Co., and Jas. B. Arnold.

should be ashamed of himself at least.

A Riot.

A riot occurred at Brookville last veek in which about fifteen men were interested. The policeman who attempted to perform his duty was badly used up. Some of the participants, and even some who allowed their sympathy to extend too far, may find that the law is merciless when interfered with. A few of the young men have heretofore had good reputations, but bad whiskey and bad company, in this case, may result in a trip to the penitentiary for them.

The Teachers.

The school directors met last Thursday and elected six teachers, Prof. Stamey and A. J. Postlethwait having previously been elected principal and vice-principal of the schools. Following are the teachers and their respective rooms for the ensuing term: No. 1, Prof. W. H. Stamey; No. 2, W. J. Weaver; No. 3, Miss Mollie McDowell; No. 4, A. A. Wingert; No. 5, A. J. Postlethwait; No. 6, Miss Britta Butler; No. 7, Miss Mamie Aiman; No. 8, Miss Edith Sechrist. A. A. Wingert and Miss Sechrist are new teachers this year.

A Fair Salary.

Prof. Harry Pattison, of New Whatcom, Washington, formerly principal of the Reynoldsville schools, was in town last week. Prof. Pattison is now principal of the New Whatcom high schools which pays him $1,250.00 for nine month's school. He has been promised the superintendency of the schools next year at a salary of $2,000.00. The New Whatcom schools have thirty-one teachers for about 1,000 pupils, and $65.00 per morth is the lowest salary paid teachers there. Republican Primary.

The Republicans of Jefferson county will hold a primary election on Saturday, August 12th, to nominate a candidate for prothonotary. The new law, making prothonotary, register, recorder, &c., two separate offices, was not passed in time to make announcements before the primary election of June 17, 1893. consequently the special primary will be held. John S. Barr, who was declared elected for prothonotary, &c., and, according to the opinions of some of the leading Republicans, is entitled to one of the offices, has selected that of register, recorder, &., and thus leaves the office of prothonotary to be provided

A collision occurred on the P. & E. railroad near Johnsonburg Saturday, in which an engineer, fireman and one brakeman were killed. The engineer, Edward Bradford, of St. Marys, was a cousin of Wm. C. Schultze, of this place. The collision was the result of the carelessness of an operator. Engineer Bradford leaves a wife and three children. His family will get $5,500.00

Third Anniversary.

The third anniversary of the organition of the Daughters of Rebeckah, Lady Winslow Degree, was observed in an elegant manner last evening in the I. O. O. F. hall. One of the pleasing features of the anniversary, especially for the members of the I. O. O. F. who were present, was a free basket social. A few people came down from DuBois to help celebrate the anniversary.

John Springer, Brockwayville, Allen Springer, Fairmount, Mrs. Wm. Wyant, Rimersburg, A. J. Springer, Johnstown. The deceased moved to Reynoldsville from Fairmount about two years ago.

His Heart All Right.

Alex. Whitehill, who has pitched ball Alex. Whitehill, who has pitched ball all over the country, has probably pitched his last game. The big pitcher has heart disease and the excitement is too much for him. But we will say right here, should Alex. retire from base ball, his honesty and gentlemanly con-duct will still shine as a bright star. Alex. don't play any dirty ball.—Brook-ville cor. to DuBois Course.

Alex.'s heart has been plerced several times by Cupid's arrow, but otherwise it is perfectly sound. He has not played much ball this season on account of his right arm being disabled. He pitched the game between the Pittsburg Lindens and Brookville last Saturday afternoon.

Used Knives.

One week ago last Sunday a few Italians at Prescottville, who had been imbibing freely of beer, got the "demon that lurks in the bowl" aroused and a drunken row resulted, in which knives, a pitches, &c., were used. The knives let gore out of one Ike, and the pitcher bumped another's head severely. A trial before 'Squire Ford Friday night followed, and the ultimatum was for the defendants to go free and the prosecutor to pay all costs.

Will Give More Room.
