WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1893.

There seems to be favorites in most all callings and professions, even county superintendents have been known to have favorites when certificates are issued.

It is not generally known that pedestrians have the right of way and that people driving must turn out, if necessary for them, at least so says the law. It is generally the other way, those who walk give the vehicles the whole road.

Do not be discouraged at the duties that seem so great before you. They may seem great a little way off, but somehow they always diminish or vanish altogether as we come near them. Some one has said duties and difficulties are like the nightmare—as soon as you stir, they vanish. Learn to look on the bright side, and you will be surprised at the number of things that will turn up to help you.

The commissioners of the World's Fair sacrificed their word and honor in their determination to keep the big show open on Sunday, and when they were forced, by non-attendance, to want to close it, then they are found guilty of contempt of court and will, in all probability, be compelled to keep it open every Sunday at a great expense. Greed generally gets people into trouble when it becomes their master.

The Pittsburg Times has landed its special charge of fifty-two teachers at home again from the World's Fair, and now that magnanimous sheet is looking after the "fresh air fund" of Pittsburg. The Times is deserving of the praise it gets for liberality. If there is a city on the globe where the street urchins need fresh air, it is Pittsburg. The man, woman or child who spends the summers in the "Smoky City," could stand most anything so far as heat is concerned, even the infernal regions.

The Farmers' Encampment, to be held at Mt. Greta from the 19th to the 26th inst., promises to be an event of more than usual interest to farmers than those engaged in contemporary industries. The National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, under whose auspices this summer encampment will be held, is said to be the largest organization of farmers in the world, and neither labor nor expense has been spared to make this meeting the most notable in the history of the organization.

The hour before falling asleep at night is one of the most important of the twenty-four. The reading or conversation of that hour usually takes a deeper hold on the minds than that of any other. Long passages may be easily memorized by reading them over carefully several times during the last waking hour. They appear to imbed themselves in the mind while it rests in sleep. The impressions parents leave on the minds of their children at night have much to do with the formation of their characters. Punishments inflicted at that season sometimes loosen the bonds which bind the hearts of children to their homes, while kind words and affectionate counsels given at that hour often prove a savor of life unto life.

Following are directions for making a good wife unhappy: See your wife as seldom as possible. If she is warm-hearted and cheerful in temper, or if, after a day's or a week's absence, she meets you with a smiling face and in an affectionate manner, be sure to look coldly upon her, and answer her with monosyllables. If she forges back her tears, and is resolved to look cheerful, sit down and gape in her presence, till she is fully convinced of your indifference. Never think you have anything to do to make her happy, but that her happiness is to flow from gratifying your caprices; and when she has done all a woman can do, be sure you do not appear gratified. Never take an interest in any of her pursuits; and if she asks your advice, make her feel that she is troublesome and impertinent. If she attempts to rally you good-humoredly on any of your peculiarities, never join in the laugh, but frown her into silence. If she has faults (which, without doubt, she will have, and perhaps may be ignorant of), never attempt with kindness to correct them, but continually obtrude upon her ears: "What a good wife Mr. Smith has!" "How happy Mr. Smith is with his wife!" "Any man would be happy with such a wife!" In company, never seem to know you have a wife; treat all her remarks with indifference, and be very affable to every other lady. If you follow these directions, you may be certain of an obedient and heart-broken wife.

Court Proceedings.

[Brookville Republican.] We understand that the list of civil cases for September term of Court has been withdrawn, because of a conflict in time with Jefferson county's week in the Supreme Court, and the necessary absence of a number of our attorneys.

Judge Clark has called a special term of two weeks of Court to convene on the fourth Monday in October, for the purpose of hearing civil cases.

The regular criminal court will convene on the second Monday in September, and it is probable that District Attorney McCracken will find business enough to occupy the time of the Court for one week at least.

A number of important cases from this county have been carried to the Supreme Court which convenes in Pittsburg the first Monday in October.

Dish pans for 20, 25 and 35 cents at H. J. Nickle's.

All persons having pictures at Corwin's studio will please call for them before the 15th of August, as the gallery will be closed for four or six weeks.

A Band to be Proud Of.

[Punxsutawney Spirit.] The Reynoldsville brass band, which came over Thursday evening, to attend the opening of the Hotel Whitney, gave us a nice little serenade. Frank Black, who accompanied the boys, said it was without equivocation or exaggeration easily the finest brass band in the county. And we haven't the least doubt of it. The boys play in perfect harmony, and the result is, music. And such music as we seldom hear from throats of silver and brass. Reynoldsville ought to be proud of her band, and no doubt is.

Do You Need Shoes?

We have the latest styles at popular prices. REED'S SHOE STORE.

Fourteen quart tin pails 25 cts., 10 quart pails 20 cts. and 5 quart pails 10 cents at H. J. Nickle's.

Paradise.

The farmers are about done with their haying and some are beginning to harvest their oats.

The Grangers of this place will hold a picnic in Miller's grove on the 17th of this month. All are invited to attend. A good time is expected.

The O. U. A. M. of this place, which was instituted last March and which carried away the first prize in the grand parade in DuBois on July 4th, is meeting with success and encouragement. May success be theirs.

A party of huckleberry pickers of this place, accompanied by two of Reynoldsville's charming young ladies, hid themselves to the mountains on Tuesday last week and returned on Friday night bringing with them eight bushels of berries. When asked what kind of a time he had Billy said: "Oh, gee! We had fifty-seven bushels of fun, heaped measure, too, at that."

Five Cents a Line.

All cards of thanks and resolutions are charged for at a rate of five cents per line.

The people of Reynoldsville and vicinity know when they have a good thing; that accounts for the great increase in business at Reed's shoe store. Henry is a worker and knows how to buy and sell good footwear.

See the Round Trip to the Atlantic Coast via the P. R. R.

On August 24th the last of the popular summer series of the seashore excursions will be run. A choice of four destinations allowed—whether Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, or Sea Isle City. The Rate of $10 from Pittsburg and proportionately reduced rates from other places is a most extraordinary offer when the distance covered is considered. The tickets are good for return passage within twelve days, which gives ample time for a restful vacation by the sea.

The success of the remaining excursions is assured by the patronage accorded the preceding two of the same series. Great satisfaction has been expressed on all sides at the manner of service with which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company handled the attractive trips, everything possible being done for the convenience of its patrons. The special train will leave Pittsburg at 8.50 A. M., arriving in Philadelphia a little after 7 in the evening. The night may be spent in the Quaker City and any regular train taken the next day for the shore.

The rates apply on regular trains leaving Pittsburg at 4.30, 7.00, and 8.10 P. M., or on special train leaving at 8.50 A. M. on the above mentioned date.

The special train will leave Clearfield at 9.36 A. M., tickets $8.90. For detailed information address or apply to Thos. E. Watt, Passenger Agent, 110 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg.

You'll Get There.

The work of paving Main street should be well done, judging from the number of persons who are stationed along the sidewalks overseeing it.—Brookville Democrat.

When the paving was done in Reynoldsville overseers and inspectors were exceedingly numerous, and each one always brought an opinion with him which he freely and gladly contributed until there were opinions enough to pave Main street from one end to 'tother, but they varied so that it would make a horse cross-eyed to travel over it, hence the street was paved with something more expensive.

Ladies slippers 25c. at Robinson's.

Laughter is the best medicine. A physician once prescribed a bitter dose for a very sick man, and it was diluted with syrup to make it more palatable. A pet monkey got up on the table, tasted the syrup on the edge of the glass, and swallowed the medicine. The ugly faces and funny grimaces of the monkey amused the sick man so that he laughed until he ruptured an internal abscess and immediately proceeded to get well.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Ten pin hat racks for 10 cents, at H. J. Nickle's.

Men's heavy Congress shoes $1.25 at Robinson's.

An entertainment will be given in the Mission Chapel at Pancoast on Thursday evening, August 17. The entertainment will consist of instrumental music by the band, vocal music, recitations, &c. Admission 25 cts., children 10 cts. Doors open at 7.00, entertainment will begin at 7.30. Proceeds to apply on minister's salary.

"Fire! Fire! Fire!"

REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., July 5, 1893. To all whom it may concern: My dwelling house on Hill street, Reynoldsville, Pa., was struck by lightning on June 25th and was insured in N. G. Pinney's agency, Brookville, Pa., by Walter Spry, solicitor. The loss was paid Thursday and I can recommend Pinney's agency as prompt and reliable.—10-6. JOHN WILLIAMS.

Good house for rent. Inquire of Henry A. Reed.

We are making a special offer to each of our readers paying a year's subscription to the STAR in advance, and to all new subscribers paying in advance, we will give them the best local paper in Jefferson county and will give them free, either the Womankind or American Farmer, for one year. The two papers above mentioned are excellent monthly papers and the subscription price of each is $1.00 a year. This offer is made only to those in Pennsylvania.

DIED.

DACEY—On Monday, August 7th, 1893, an infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat. Dacey of Rathmel. Remains were buried in Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Reclaiming Old Rubber.

Crude rubber is worth from 40 to 75 cents per pound, and yet a pound of hose or packing costs very much less. This would be hardly practical if it were not for the advances that have been made in the art of reclaiming or recovering rubber, which can be done at the total cost of about 8 cents per pound. There are several large factories in the country devoted solely to this purpose, and a great many manufacturers do recovering on a small scale at the seat of the production of new goods.

These old goods are placed in large tanks at the place of reclaiming. A solution of muriatic or sulphuric acid and water is poured upon the waste, and the whole set to boiling by a system of steam pipes passing through the tank. After 10 or 12 hours' boiling the cotton fiber, which is found in all rubber manufactures and which is the serious drawback in the reclaiming process, disintegrates and falls into a powder, and there is no difficulty then in the use of the waste.—New York Telegram.

Leigh Hunt's Breakfast Bouquets.

Leigh Hunt, that early day aesthete, declared breakfast to be the meal of all others when the poetic influence of a table posy was most to be desired. He would bring in a few clover heads or sprigs of grass culled from beneath the protecting bars of a park railing or city square if he could find nothing more beautiful, and with these to look at his fancy took him roaming out into boundless green fields and pastures new.—Chicago Tribune.

Narrow, but Useful.

The good lady was going around among a lot of poor people distributing all manner of old clothes which were gratefully received, when she met a newspaper man looking for a clew to a killing case.

"Charity covereth a multitude of sins," he said sarcastically. "Well, that isn't what I'm looking for," she responded. "No!" and he looked surprised. "No," she said, "my mission is a little narrower than that. We cut it down to charity covereth a multitude of skins."—Detroit Free Press.

CHILDREN'S - TEETH!

WE wish to talk to parents on the subject of Children's Teeth. Would you cause your child to be disfigured or crippled for life? No, of course, you would not, if you could prevent it. Still how many of you allow an incompetent and unthinking dentist to extract a temporary or milk tooth for your little one just because it has ached. Parents, put the mouths of your little ones under the charge of a

who will fill the teeth and stop the pain until the proper time for extraction arrives.

How many persons are disfigured for life because the teeth were neglected while young? Look around at the mouths of your acquaintances.

If your children's teeth trouble them or need attention, and we will show them and you that the dentists' office is not necessarily a torture room, but is rather an asylum of relief and comfort. Consultation and Examination Free.

BRING THEM TO US
