Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co. Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fatirness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Arnolds Block.

Lenghty communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1893.

"It is all man's arrogance, and unduly flattering to himself, to call woman the weaker vessel and then to add that she is a little lower than the angels.

Thursday, September 7th, is Pennsylvania Day at the World's Fair. This should be the greatest day of the Fair and all Pennsylvanians who expect to attend the big show should endeavor to be there on the 7th proximo.

The Pittsburg Times says: When Tanner fasted 40 days he performed what many thought would be an impossible feat, but in Philadelphia a man lived 75 days without food. Which ever way ore looks he sees progress in this country.

Carlyle says: "Cast forth thy act, thy word into the ever-living, everworking universe; it is a seed grain that cannot die. Unnourished to-day, it will be found flourishing as a banyan grove -perhaps, alas a hemlock forest-after a thousand years.

The DuBois ball team, which played with Franklin, Oil City and Titusville last week won two games out of six. The last game was won at Oil City Saturday. The Courier stood by the boys faithfully and always had good excuses to offer for each defeat.

The last legislature passed a law requiring the county commissioners to subscribe for and have bound, at the expense of the county, at least three county papers. Our county commissioners, we understand, will not make a selection of papers, but will allow the incoming commissioners to subscribe for the papers they may select. If the leading papers of the county are chosen, of course the STAR is sure of a cash sub-

Astronomers will tell you that it is very difficult to establish an observatory in a great city. Why? Because the thunder of the vehicles upon the pavement is such that there are oscillations going on all the time, slight trembles so that you can not measure with absolute accuracy. There is great danger that when men are whirled in business they cannot make clear and critical observation of important things which concern their soul.

If your friend goes wrong, even grievonsly wrong, it is base in you to desert him. Then, more than ever does he need your help, and, on the supposition that he has been your true friend, he is entitled to it. Of course, you can neither approve or condone his wrongdoing. It may become your painful duty to tell him with the utmost candor what you think of his faults, but it. They discoursed excellent music for never to kick him while everybody else is engaged in the same business. To do who listened to them, and that was a that requires no courage-nothing b a little cheap bluster.

Wear a sunny face. It is your privilege. It has the quality of mercy; it is twice blessed. It blesses its possessor, and all who come under its benign influence; it is a daily boon to him who wears it, and a constant, ever-flowing benediction to all his friends. Men, women, youth and children, seek the friendship of the sunny-faced. All doors are open to them that smile. All social circles welcome cheeriness. A sunny face is an open sesame to heart and home. By it burdens are lightened, cares dispelled, sorrows banished, and hope made to reign triumphant, where fear, doubt and despondency held high carnival. Try it.

By the way the wind blows now there are good indications of a warm time between the school directors of Brookville borough and managers of the Memorial Home about the schooling of the inmates of the Home under the act of the legislature at its last session. The management of the Home have asked the school directors to allow ten of the children of the Home to attend the borough schools this coming term, and the remainder of the inmates will be provided for at the Home. The directors say they cannot attend unless the schooling is paid for, but the law says they can. A school building was erected last year in the neighborhood of the Home to accommodate the children of that section of the Brookville school district and the children of Home, but now the management want to send the older scholars to the higher school and keep the smaller ones at the home. By this charge there are only about twenty-five children for the new school building. It looks very much now as if the matter will get into court before it is settled. An appro-priation of $1,500 was made to provide for the schooling of the Home children

Pennsylvania Day.

The World's Fair Commission having decided on Thursday, September 7th, as the day which they desire to have formally celebrated and designated as Pennsylvania Day, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in pursuance of its usual custom, takes pleasure in announcing that, for the benefit of those wishing to participate in or attend the ceremonies, the extremely low rate of one fare for the round trip will prevail from all points situated on that company's lines within the borders of the Tickets for the occasion will be good only on the special train leaving Philadelphia at 11.00 A. M., September 5th, and reaching Lancaster at 1.15, Harrisburg 3.00, Lewiston Junction 4.30, Altoona 7.00, Pittsburg 10.00 P. M. Stops will be made at principal intermediate stations, and connections may be made from points on the branches of the main line. The composition of the train will be first-class standard coaches, and ample accommodations will be provided for all who will avail themselves of the opportunity of showing their interest in an event so momemtous as the commemoration of the Keystone State at the World's Columbian Exposition.

Chicago will be reached by the special train early in the forenoon of the next | doing the sam day, September 6th, and the return coupons will be good for passage on trains leaving Chicago at 3.15 and 11.30

P. M, on or before September 13th. The inducements for this excursion and the facilities provided in the train service over the Pennslvania system, will doubtless be taken advantage of by the many Pennsylvanians who are anxious to show the pride they have for their native State.

Reynoldsville Brass Band.

[Brookville Democrat.] Last Saturday afternoon the Reynoldsville brass band drove over to Brookville, their object being recreation, and to furnish our citizens with some good music. They supposed our street was nearer paved than it proved to be, and expected a fine promenade on about two hours, to the delight of all ed which afforded a great deal of amuselarge crowd. This is, without question, the best band in the county, and it has few superiors in this section of the State. They drove back home Saturday night.

REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., July 5, 1893.

To all whom it may concern: My dwelling house on Hill street, Reynoldsville, Pa., was struck by lightning on June 25th and was insured in N. G. vicious a quadruped. Some of Reynoldsville's gentlemen must have had a Sunday picnic last Sabbath some place back in the country judging from the number of rigs that passed through here on that day. If 'Little Annie Rooney" is their sweetheart, we would advise them not to distribute the information all over the state of Pennsylvania.

The picnic at the Pine Grove school house one week ago last Friday was an entire success. A large crowd was in attendance as also was an excellent dinner. Rev. A. E. Metler was present with his tent and photographing apparatus and delighted the boys and girls with some fine specimens of their countenances. Recitations and vocal music were the order of the afternoon. Among the speakers were Rev. Jelbart, of Emerickville, Miss Weir, of DuBois, Miss Bessie Moore, of Brookville, Miss Jennie Waite, of Sandy Valley, Rev. A. E. Metler, of Schaffner's Corners, and the home talent. A large swing was erectment for the younger class of people. We extend our thanks to the people of that place for the hospitality shown us on that day.

We pity Beebe's hogs. Why? Because, after the ravages made on their cornfield by a number of town ladies, in all probability they will have to starve during the coming winter. Let us explain our meaning. Last Friday a number of ladies from Reynoldsville, including Mrs. Jno. Bartle, Mrs. E. L. Evans, Mrs. Annie Hendricks, Mrs. H. Herpel and Mrs. Joanna Anderson, arrived at the home of L. M. Beebe almost entirely unexpected. They took possession of the farm, ransacked the larder, deposited the roof of the house where the floor should be and, not content with this much, shouldered the cornfield and took it home with them on the evening train. Come again, ladies, the potatoe patch and the onion beds are left yet. You forgot those, did you not? A great deal of amusement was afforded by one of ladies asking who was the largest lady in the crowd. Their prospective measurements were taken and it was decided that Mrs. Hendricks outrivalled them
