

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Arnold's Block.

Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

Train horrors and train robbers are getting to be very common in the western states.

A snow storm that lasted over an hour and covered the ground with two inches of the "beautiful," visited Glen Summit, Pa., last Friday.

The days are shorter, but the hours are just as long to the man who is always watching the clock or listening for the quit whistle, as they were in mid-summer.

Walter Stewart, of Pittsburg, and Minnie Weller, of Allegheny, Pa., were married in the Cave of the Winds at Niagara Falls last Friday. If the place of their marriage is a criterion, they will have a roving time of it in their matrimonial career.

One hundred and twenty-five mill men, woods men and farm hands who are employed by John E. DuBois, at DuBois, had their wages reduced Monday morning from 20 cents to $1.00 on each man's wages. Mr. DuBois told his men there was no demand for lumber now and it was optional with him whether the mill continued in operation under the present condition of business or not.

A little girl in a Buffalo school wrote the following essay: "The boy is not an animal, yet they can be heard to a considerable distance. When a boy hollers, he opens his big mouth like frogs, but girls hold their tongue till they are spoken to and then they answer respectfully and tell just how it was. A boy thinks he is clever because he can wade where it is deep, but God made the dry land for every living thing and rested on the seventh day. When the boy grows up he is called a husband and then he stops and stays out at nights, but the grown-up girl is a widow and keeps house."

Samuel N. Williams, chief clerk of the Tyrone postoffice, was arrested last Friday for robbing the mails. Williams had the money pilfered, almost $800, stored away in a tin box at home, which he handed over to the officers when arrested. The young man said he did not steal the money because he was in need of it, but he had a mania for opening letters. The chief clerk was taken to Altoona for a hearing before United States Commissioner Ambrose. The charge is a very serious one and the letter-opener will be placed where he cannot satisfy his mania by trifling with other people's property. A decoy letter which was mailed by an Italian and bore the semblance of an ordinary foreign register, was the trap which caught the chief clerk. Inspector Dickson had been working on the case since the 13th of August, and had been in Tyrone since the 13th of September.

Amusement is not an end, a means—a means of refreshing the mind and replenishing the strength of the body. When it begins to be the principal thing for which one lives, or when, in pursuing it, the mental powers are enfeebled, and the bodily health impaired, it falls under just condemnation. Amusements that consume the hours which ought to be sacred to sleep are therefore censurable. Amusements that call us away from work which we are bound to do are pernicious, just to the extent to which they cause us to be neglectful or unfaithful. Amusements that rouse or stimulate morbid appetites, or that cause us to be restless or discontented, are always to be avoided. Any indulgence in amusement which has a tendency to weaken our respect for the great interests of character, or to loosen our hold on the eternal verities of the spiritual realm, is so far an injury to us.

It is often in sorrow that our lives are taught their sweetest songs, says Dr. J. R. Miller. There is a story of a German baron who stretched wires from tower to tower of his castle, to make a great Aeolian harp. Then he waited and listened to hear the music from it.

The time has come to try your soles. If you wear Reed's $4.00 shoe, your soles will stand the test well. Children's high cut shoes at Robinson's cheap. Fall underwear for ladies' and children at H. J. Nickle's.

Young Traveler. [Marionville Express.] A daughter was borne, on the Allegheny Valley afternoon passenger train near Kittanning, to Mrs. Mason, who was on her way to Pittsburg from Buffalo Friday. The little stranger is to be called Alley Valley Mason, in honor of the road on which she took her first ride.

Go to Riston's for ammunitions of all kinds. You must wear shoes if the times are close. Fit your shoes to the times and buy of Henry A. Reed, "the shoe man."

Family Re-union.
 Tuesday, Sept. 19th, was a glad day in the history of Joseph Syphrit, Esq., of the Paradise Settlement. On that day, for the first time in thirty-three years, his surviving children were all at home. At the same time, by invitation of the children, a number of the neighbors gathered at the old Syphrit homestead and a very happy day was spent.

Father Syphrit seemed very happy as he moved about among his re-united children, and doubtless his thoughts, more than ones, were of the time when all were small, playing by his hearth stone and he himself a man in his very prime. Now, however, things are changed; all of them are parents, some of them grandparents, while he is the patriarch of four score years. Fifty-two years ago Mr. Syphrit came into this county from Westmoreland county and settled on the farm on which he now lives, then, however, a dense wilderness. Here he has lived and toiled, and raised his children, and worshipped God. His broad fields are a monument to his industry, his children to his careful training, and the church on the hill to his devotion to God and his loyalty to Methodism. He bore almost the entire cost of the church building.

On the morning in question all found their way to a leafy grove below the church where tables had previously been erected. Here all engaged in friendly greeting and pleasant conversation until dinner was announced. The bill of fare was immense, but was soon put out of sight by one hundred and six hungry persons, old and young. A photographer came and performed his function, not with dispatch, but with how much neatness we are yet unable to say. This important feature of the occasion disposed of, the party gathered into the church where a program of songs and speeches was furnished. The day closed pleasantly. Some of the disappointed visited father Syphrit's cider press, drank of the newly pressed cider and then went merrily home.

The Syphrit family consisted of the parents and thirteen children; the mother and three children have crossed the boundary line between time and eternity. It now consists of the father, ten children, four sons and six daughters, forty-three grand-children (thirty-four of whom were present) and seven great-grand-children, three present at the family re-union. Mr. Syphrit has taken to himself a another wife, an estimable lady, whose care and love will help to make life pleasant for him in his old age. He is still hale and hearty and can possibly look forward to another decade of pilgrimage here on this side the grave. May his remaining years be peaceful, the ripened grain nodding gently in the breeze, waiting for the song and sickle of the reaper.

[The above article should have been published last week, but was not sent to this office in time.—Ed.]

Do unto others as you would have them do to you. Deal fairly. That is Henry A. Reed, "the shoe man's," motto.

For Sale.
 Three acres of land near Big Soldier mine, with a house and necessary out buildings on land, must be sold. The property rents well. Price $350.00; time given on part. Address, S. S. DAUBENSPECK, Oakland, Pa.

Go to W. C. Schultze & Son's for "Minnehaha" flour, the only place where it is sold in town.

Why pay rent any longer? Walter Spry has three good houses for sale, two on Jackson st. and on Worth st., at bargains.

Brighter Times.
 [St. Marys Gazette.] The hopes of brighter times which were indulged in by the inhabitants of the Toby Valley when Kaul & Hall purchased the Shawmut coal property, are fast being realized. Already from five to six hundred tons of coal are daily mined and shipped from Shawmut by this enterprising firm, and they are preparing to largely increase this output. They have just purchased from the Northwestern Mining and Exchange company, the entire plant at Mead Run, and will shortly begin operations on that side of the slope. When the St. Marys and Southwestern railroad is completed, the output of both mines will be doubled or trebled.

The time has come to try your soles. If you wear Reed's $4.00 shoe, your soles will stand the test well.

A Good Restaurant.
 J. C. Weaver, the gentleman who runs the restaurant at Falls Creek, has the knack of catering to the wants of the traveling public, and he does not charge two prices for the "stuff that filloth up the emptiness of the inner man," as is customary at railroad restaurants. The coffee he makes would please the most fastidious coffee drinker in this section. The room is entirely too small to accommodate the hungry crowds that respond to the sound of the gong when the passenger trains arrive there. The A. V. R'y Co. should build an addition onto the restaurant, not only for the accommodation of the public in general, but also for their employees. It is not necessary to allow your appetite to abuse you at Falls Creek, just step into the restaurant at the west end of the A. V. station and get a square meal cheap.

All Kinds of gum goods at Robinson's.

Have you seen Reed's $3.00 shoe? It needs no special message of the President to tell the people of Reynoldsville where Reed's shoe store is.

"Seest thou a man who is men to his wife? Satan will not be injured much by what he says in church."

Reed sells a handsome shoes at $3.00. Australia raises the only kangaroos, but Reed sells kangaroo shoes.

"Fire! Fire! Fire!"
 REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., July 5, 1893.

To all whom it may concern: My dwelling house on Hill street, Reynoldsville, Pa., was struck by lightning on June 25th and was insured in N. G. Pinney's agency, Brookville, Pa., by Walter Spry, solicitor. The loss was paid Thursday and I can recommend Pinney's agency as prompt and reliable.—10-6. JOHN WILLIAMS.

Buy your new shoes while the styles are fresh. Reed's shoes are nobby.

Buy your shoes where the dealer does as he agrees. Reed does.

The Marionville Express says: During the school days, parents should be very careful how they speak of teachers before children. If there is any fault to be found with a teacher, by parents, it should be talked of in private, and not in the hearing of children. They are wonderful imitators, and if they hear anything of the kind, they very naturally will do the same, many times injuring both the teacher and pupils but the pupils most. Teachers, as a rule, are competent, or they would not be employed. They have a great responsibility on their shoulders, and parents should do all in their power to help them, instead of to hinder. The school year has just begun, and it would be well to weigh these subjects carefully, co-operate with the teachers, visit the schools, and encourage both teachers and pupils in their work. The result will be good work and better progress.

Those laced bluchers at Reed's are easy as an old shoe.

We can't blame a man for being watchful of his dollars, but all are not watchful; if they were, they would trade at Reed's.

A Hoggish Trick.
 There are several kinds of hogs in this world of ours: the hog proper, the hog human, and the hog profit. The hog proper is all right, because he has his uses; the hog human is a nuisance, but is easily avoided; but the hog profit is the meanest hog of all, because he is invisible to the eye and hard to locate. The hog profit may be feeding from your pocket-book for years before you find him out—is he? Glenn Milliren offers his customers absolute protection against hoggish profits. He deals fair on close margins and prospers by it. Visit his establishment and examine the serviceable, seasonable, elegant and complete assortment of wearing apparel. You will find his prices ALWAYS the lowest.
