A new line of queensware and glassware just received at H. J. Nickle's.
Gentlemen call and inspect Bell's fine wools for fall and winter suits. Why?
George W. Warnick has been wrestling with typhoid fever since our last issue.
Thomas McKernan, the drayman, is now convalescing from an attack of typhoid fever.
Bing & Co. have just received an immense line of dry goods and notions. Call and see.
At King & Co's you will find baled hay, salt, flour and a full line of general merchandise.
Fifteen hundred dollars worth of English wools just arrived at Bell's or fall suits. Why?
Geo. Burtop brought several very pretty bouquets to town Saturday and fit one at the STAR office.
A good many men will have to "foot" this winter. We wish all such had pair of Reed's $3.00 shoes.
The Baptist Bible School Convention, of the Clearfield Association, will be held at Brockwayville, Oct. 31st.
The largest, finest and cheapest line of dress goods ever brought to town can be found at Bing & Co's store.
White and Reynolds have sixteen cows and expect to buy fifteen or sixteen more and start a dairy in Reynoldsville.
The Christian Endeavor of Sandy valley will hold a box social in the church at that place Saturday evening, Oct. 7th.
The Chamois Hunter was greeted with a large crowd at the opera house at Thursday evening. The play is good one.
Marriage license has been granted to Patrick Skehan and Miss Mary Taaffe, they will not be married for several weeks yet.
The Sons of Veterans will give an oyster supper in the G. A. R. hall next Monday evening, Oct. 10th, for 25 cents. Organize the boys.
Frank Sutter went from Bing & Co's store to Hopkins Mill and return, a distance of four miles, in 15 minutes on his bicycle one day last week.
The brothers-in-law who were to have suit before Squire Ford Saturday, cause one shot at the other, settled the case, which was a wise thing to do.
It is a sign of popularity and prosperity to see a merchant adding to his stock these days. That is just what Harry A. Reed, "the shoe man," is doing.
One of the longest passenger trains run over the Low Grade was the excursion from Brookville Thursday evening. The county fair was the cause of the big train.
At the October term the Court will be to appoint a new inspector of election for west Winslow township, as Sam'l Hillhart, inspector-elect, is a citizen of west Reynoldsville borough.

The school directors have ordered a new bell. It is larger than the old one and will be ready to proclaim school time to the pupils of our public schools about the first of next week.
The agent of Dr. Eldred's Liquid Electricity will be at Hotel Dillman, Saturday, Oct. 7th, during the day and evening, where all parties afflicted would do well to call and see him.
Seventy-two new single desks will soon be put in Prof. Stamey's room, and the desks now used in that room will be put where they are needed in other rooms of the school building.
Frank Hoffman, who has been running a green grocery and confectionery store, sold his stock and fixtures to W. T. Cox. Hoffman will open a butcher shop in the room he has been using for his store.
The Pittsburg League ball club played at Brookville Monday and DuBois yesterday. Brookville club did not get a scored and Pittsburg made 8. At DuBois the score was 11 to 4, in favor of the Pittsburgers.
It is reported that over $25,000 was deposited in our banks on Tuesday morning by business men, and still some claim that the Barnum & Bailey show was an injury to the place.—DuBois Local News.
Miss M. E. Moore has returned from the city with a full line of fall and winter millinery and will have a fine display of trimmed hats on Friday and Saturday of this week, the largest stock and lowest prices in town.
The regular monthly meeting of the Reynoldsville Board of Trade will be held in the Masonic hall Friday evening, Oct. 6th. Every member of the Board should be present, as there is important business to look after.
A large black cow, with short smooth horns, is lying in the woods above West Reynoldsville, off to the right on the road to Brookville. The indications are that the cow was killed where she is now lying. The carcass is badly decomposed. Some one should bury it.
When Misses Mabel and Nellie Sutter were crossing the bridge over Soldier Run on their way home at nine o'clock Monday evening a fellow, who had followed them from the railroad, caught Mabel and gave her a good shaking and then ran down the railroad.
W. J. Weaver & Co., of Reynoldsville, publishers of "Weaver's Handy Free Textbook Records," have given the Ridgway Publishing Co. another order for 2,000 copies, this will make almost four thousand copies of this record that have been published in the past three months.
At their regular meeting last Saturday evening the Odd Fellows elected the following named officers for the ensuing term: N. G., James M. Moore; N. G., F. W. Deemer; Asst. Sec., Wilson Gross; Treas., John Benson; Trustee, Philip Koehler; Delegate to Grand Lodge, T. E. Evans.
The school directors of Winslow township held a special meeting Saturday and hired Clarence Stevenson, of Sandy Valley, to teach the Steele school. This is the school I. C. Faulk was to have taught this winter. The directors decided to buy all the books and other supplies needed for the schools this winter from H. Alex. Stoke.
Almost two weeks ago three cows, owned by A. L. Peters at Hopkins, strayed away from home and for one whole week Mr. Peters traveled through Jefferson and Clearfield counties without finding the bovines, and last Monday morning he found them at a farm house not more than two and a half miles from his home.
On a sign board near the A. V. R'y station at Falls Creek are these words, "Three minuets walk to Hotel Lamontagne." According to Webster's definition of the word minuet, it is "a slow, graceful dance" from the station to the above named hotel. It may be possible that the painter intended to make it minutes instead of minuets.
Tom Reynolds, who is always anxious to keep up with the times, is having a hydraulic ram put in at the old homestead and will have hot and cold water in his house and barn. Heretofore the house has been supplied with water from the spring, pumped there by the large wind-wheel in the yard. Hereafter the power of this wheel will be used for another purpose.
During the Erie Annual Conference at DuBois we were hospitably cared for over Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Holland, and while there Mrs. Holland told about her daughter, Adaline, a three-year-old "tot," saying grace at the table a few days before. Adaline got up to the table and said "how your head mamma," and then she offered the following petition: "Lord have mercy on this food."
Prothontary W. A. Neale was promenading up and down the A. V. R'y platform at this place very early yesterday morning. He was shipping a rooster east, and as his arrangements about the nag, which he was selling, were not complete, he was almost compelled to travel with the horse on a freight train. The air was chilly, the fog thick and riding on freight tresome transportation, therefore, Mr. Neale was taking a little exercise on the platform.

Belongs to the County.
The iron bridge that spans the Sandy Lick and connects the boroughs of Reynoldsville and West Reynoldsville, is county property. It is handy to have, but both boroughs stopped their lines just where they would have nothing to do with the bridge, but own the abutments.
New Citizen.
W. J. Leahy, ex-sheriff of Clinton county, who has been at Falls Creek most of the past summer, has bought C. H. Gordon's pretty residence at the corner of Jackson and Fourth streets. We understand the ex-sheriff has purchased the property with the intention of moving into it himself. Thirty-five hundred dollars was the consideration.
Installation of New Pastor.
Rev. H. R. Johnston, the new pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, will be installed in the church this evening. Rev. J. V. Bell, of DuBois, will preside at the meeting. Rev. J. S. Helm, of Punxsutawney, will preach the installation sermon. Rev. Dr. Conway, of Brookville, will charge the pastor, and Rev. Geo. Hill, of Beechwoods, will charge the people. Services will commence at 7.30.
Will Write them in.
The Baker Ballot law requires the nominations to be made 18 days before the election to have the tickets printed. The candidates for offices for West Reynoldsville borough, to be elected at a special election Oct. 12th, were nominated only 12 days before the election and consequently the names of the candidates will not be printed on the ticket and each voter will have to write the names on his ticket after he enters the booth.—There will be twenty-four to write on every ticket, to cast a full vote.
One Ahead.
The train for DuBois over the C. & M. road killed five cows at the cut near the old Rocky mill, last week at one clip. This is the greatest number ever killed by one train at one time.—Clearfield Kraftsmen's Journal.
Some years ago when Peter Householder was hauling passenger trains over the A. V. R'y with engine No. 2, he ran into a herd of cattle at a little bridge below Fuller's station and six of the bovines were killed. This is one ahead of the "greatest number ever killed by one train," as referred to by the Journal.
Five Viewers.
George Van Vleet, John Thompson, Isaiah Johns, David Eason and J. G. Coldwell, of Brookville, viewers appointed by the Court to assess the damage the Reynoldsville Water Company will be required to pay for taking water from the lands of the Bell, Lewis & Yates C. M. Co., Central Land and Mining Co., Tom Reynolds and C. H. Prescott, C. Z. Gordon, attorney for the C. L. and M. Co. and C. H. Prescott, was with the viewers. The attorney had something of a lawsuit air about him, which way have been an indication that there will be some trouble about the water business before a settlement is made of the matter.
Ten Dollar Thief.
Mike Grevenacki, a foreigner over six foot tall, whose upper lip was adorned with a black mustache, who has been loafing around town for sometime, engaged boarding Saturday with Paul Grusek, a native of Austria. Monday morning Mike ransacked Andrew Grusek's trunk and took therefrom ten dollars and decided to leave town. Andrew missed his money soon after Mike left the house and he and another Austrian started after the thief whom they followed at a rapid gate down the railroad below Hopkins mill and when in close quarters Mike drew a revolver out of his pocket and told the fellows following him that he had the money and for them to come and take it, but they concluded they would rather let him keep the money than give him an opportunity to use their bodies to shoot at, and they returned to Reynoldsville and Mike proceeded on his way unmolested.
Attempted Murder.
A horrible deed was committed at Cool Spring, fifteen miles south of Reynoldsville, last Saturday evening in McKinstry's store. Chas. Shaffer deliberately walked into the store where Carrier Thompson, and three or four other men were sitting talking, and threw a half pint of nitric acid, which he had in a tumbler, into Carrier Thompson's face and said "Now we are even Carrier," and walked out of the store, and in the confusion which followed made good his escape. Thompson's face and head were burned in a horrible condition. Over one hundred dollars worth of goods were destroyed, one man's coat sleeve burned up and the other men, who were near, were burned about the face. If Thompson is not already dead he will doubtless die. A mob was looking for Shaffer Saturday night to lynch him.
Thompson and Shaffer are school teachers and Shaffer was to have taught room No. 2 at Cool Spring, and was to have opened his school last Monday morning. Shaffer received a valentine last year which he blamed Thompson for sending and the acid was Shaffer's way of getting revenge.

Gold Cure Institute.
A Bichloride Gold Cure Institute has been established in Reynoldsville, and the stockholders are Solomon Shaffer, Rev. E. T. Derr, A. M. Woodward, Dr. A. H. Bowser, and the W. C. T. U. of this place. Dr. A. H. Bowser's beautiful residence on Main street will be the hospital where those desiring treatment will be entertained at reasonable rates. The stockholders met at 10.00 A. M. Monday and effected the organization and elected officers, which are as follows: Solomon Shaffer, president; Rev. E. T. Derr, secretary; A. M. Woodward, treasurer; Dr. A. H. Bowser, physician in charge and general manager; board of directors, Mrs. J. M. Hays, (representative for the W. C. T. U.), A. M. Woodward and Rev. E. T. Derr. Committees were appointed to complete the organization. The institute is now ready to treat persons addicted to the use of whiskey, tobacco or morphine.
All information concerning the cure, expense, &c., can be had by calling on Dr. A. H. Bowser.
Mr. A. Disbrow, who owns and controls the Bichloride of Gold Cure, came to Reynoldsville very highly recommended as a christian gentleman who stands high in the city from whence he came—Chicago. He also has a number of letters from men who have taken his cure that speak in flattering terms of it and express their thankfulness that they ever took the treatment. Mr. Disbrow came to Pittsburg in the interest of the G. A. R.'s and in looking over the map selected Reynoldsville as a good place to organize a Gold Cure Institute and came here for that purpose.
Jail Birds.
S. A. Wood, who sold goods in Reynoldsville about a year ago on the installment plan and neglected to turn in the money to the company from whom he bought the goods, is now in the Allegheny County Workhouse where he is to remain for one year on a charge of larceny. Ellen Woods, wife of above named Woods, was convicted for keeping a disorderly house, and she is to undergo an imprisonment of six months in the same institution with her husband.
"Red Jacket," a character well known in Reynoldsville, was convicted at the last term of court for assault and battery and for keeping a disorderly house, and Judge Clarke granted her permission to go to the Allegheny County Workhouse for a period of two years. "Red Jacket" was generally considered a tough customer when she lived in this section.
Elmer E. Milliren, one of the chaps who escaped from the Brookville jail during the summer, where he was confined for burglary, was sentenced to five years in the Western Penitentiary for burglary and one year in the same "pen" for breaking jail.
Town Council Meeting.
The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held at Thos. H. Scott's office Monday evening. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The first report was from the committee to secure a location for a hose house for Fire Co. No. 2. The committee has been unable to do anything in regard to location yet. Street Commissioner Henninger presented bills to the amount of $148.44 for work done on street by different persons. Bill of Reynoldsville Hardware Co. for spikes, tile, &c., $413.20. Note from Seelye, Alexander & Co. $100.00. Orders were drawn for above bills. Three or four citizens who live in the neighborhood of Ninth street, appeared before Council and asked that Ninth street be opened from Grant to Jackson street.
The new ordinance "for the better preservation of the public health and to prevent the spread of communicable diseases," was read before the Council, this being the second reading, and was adopted as published in the STAR, with a very few changes.
Officers Nominated.
The citizens of West Reynoldsville met at the school house last Thursday evening and nominated officers to be elected Oct. 12th, by a special election, to serve until the regular February election. Politics was not in it this time, but will be conspicuous at the February election. Those nominated were as good as elected, as there were just the number nominated to fill the bill. They are as follows:
Justice of the Peace, W. L. Johnston and David Bollinger; Burgess, Samuel Sutter; Councilmen, Henry Hoppel, James Moore, James Orr, R. D. Beer, S. E. Brewer, and Wm. Burge; school directors, M. E. Weed, R. D. Beer, Philip Koshler, W. L. Johnston, James Orr, David Bollinger; constable, James Moore; assessor, Robt. S. Williams; poor overseers, John Benson, Frank Shaner; auditors, Thos. C. McEnteer, Wm. Burris, G. M. Davis; tax collector, D. B. Stauffer; high constable, Wm. S. Barry; judge of election, S. E. Brillhart; inspectors of election, David Bollinger, J. N. Small.
Two Weddings.
Jos. Rocks and Victoria Fabis were married by Father Brady in the Catholic church Monday morning, Oct. 2nd, and on Tuesday morning Mike Martin and Annie Shaffer were married in the same church by Father Brady. The parties all live in Reynoldsville.

First National Bank.
The First National bank building, owned by Daniel Nolan, which will be ready for occupancy in a few days, is certainly a credit to our town, and Mr. Nolan deserves praise for putting up as good a building and yet that is just the kind of buildings that should be erected in an enterprising town as this. The building, which is located on the corner of Main and Fourth streets, is 80 feet deep, 21 wide, two stories high, made of red brick with rock face trimmings or finish. There are four windows on first floor each 94 feet high the lower light of glass is 5x8 feet. The second story will be used for a lodge room. The building has been put up in a modern style. The room for the First National bank is 21x60 feet, with one large window on Main street and three on Fourth street. The lobby floor is laid with Encaustic tile, the counter is made of quarter sawed white oak, antique finish. The lower part of the screen which sets on the counter is beveled chipped plate glass; the middle part is brass grille, Japanese copper finish. There will be an 8 inch marble base on the counter. The counter was purchased from the Grand Rapids, Mich. School Furnishing Co. J. W. Bottrill, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is here setting up the counter, which is a real beauty and is in keeping with the exterior of the building.
The vault is two feet thick, with an air space, and contains 20,000 brick. The shelving and private boxes are not in yet, but will soon be. The safe to be used is a Cary screw-door safe, with triple movement and time lock. The safe weighs 5,000 pounds.
A room has been fitted up for the directors of the bank. Back of the vault is a closet.
In conversation with Mr. John H. Kaucher, cashier, he said he expected to be doing business in the new building by the first of next week.
Oldest, Smallest, Latest.
M. J. Farrell, the A. V. R'y ticket agent at this place, has in his possession the oldest, smallest and latest newspapers to be found, which he prizes very highly. The oldest is The Maryland Journal of Aug. 28th, 1773. It is set in old style type. George Washington advertised 20,000 acres of land for sale in Virginia in that edition. George believed in using printer's ink when he had anything to sell to the public. He was a wise man. An insurance agent ran an "ad" in the same edition. The latter part of the notice read as follows: "For sale a pocket of good hops, a 10 inch new cable—and want to buy a negro girl about 12 years old." The paper contained a communication which was signed "Honoreronothotontologus."
The smallest paper is Forney's Philadelphia Weekly Press which has been photographed into four pages 4x7 and can be easily read, but the printing is very small.
The latest is the Boston Daily Globe dated Thursday, Jan. 1st, 1881. Among the display heads on the first page is this one, "The Irish Republic voting aid for England tenant farmers." The paper speaks of railroads about as they do to-day of canals. One item stated it was a trifle cheaper to handle coal by terrestrial than aerial transportation.
Mr. Farrell also has a copy of the Irish Volunteer published at New York Saturday, May 11, 1844.
Gold Cure Patients.
A. Disbrow, of Chicago, Ill., representing the Bichloride of Gold Cure, came to Reynoldsville the first of last week and immediately began looking around for several subjects to administer the Gold Cure to as an advertisement, and he soon found two excellent subjects to work on, "Billy" Barr, the old soldier, and Henry Feith. Mr. Disbrow began the treatment with the two men above mentioned on Wednesday and by Friday neither one of them could keep a drink of whiskey in their stomachs 10 minutes to save their lives. "Billy" has been in Reynoldsville almost two years and during that time has not drawn a sober breath unless financial embarrassment compelled him to. He took his first drink of whiskey when a soldier boy in the army and from that time on has been a slave to liquor. He has had many good positions, but lost them by drunkenness. His first wife died and two years ago he was married at Verona to Agnes McPherson, of Reynoldsville, but has not been living with her. Barr and Feith both speak in the highest praise of the Gold Cure, and both say they have no desire to touch whiskey or tobacco, don't even want to see the stuff. Mr. Feith said yesterday morning he would not be back where he was a week ago for a thousand dollars.
Lectures Closed.
The series of temperance lectures Will J. McConnell has been delivering in Centennial hall the past seventeen nights, closed last evening. A large crowd attended the meeting every night. Between seven and eight hundred persons, boys, girls, men and women, signed the pledge during that time. The proceeds of the lecture last evening, for which 25 cents admission was charged, was for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. McConnell's subject was, "Drinking Among the Upper Tens."
See Robinson's $1.25 shoe for men. A Bargain.

A. P. King is taking a trip in the eastern part of the state this week.
Will E. Black and Merrill Rumbaugh started for the World's Fair Monday.
Mrs. Fin. Roll returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit at Brookville.
J. D. Woodring and son, Will, left here Monday for a visit to the World's Fair.
W. W. Barclay, of Big Run, was among the visitors in Reynoldsville Sunday.
Mrs. Jas. Cathcart and Mrs. William H. Lucas visited relatives at Brookville last week.
John H. Schofield, superintendent of Hopkins' big mill, spent Sunday in Lock Haven.
Mrs. A. H. Hoon went to Falls Creek yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. L. D. Reareick.
James M. Marsh, conductor on Sligo Branch, was in Reynoldsville a short time Saturday.
Wm. H. Lucas, an engineer on the R. & F. C. R'y, went to the World's Fair last week.
Mrs. George J. Elliott, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Test.
Dr. D. O. O'Dell and wife, of Springville, Pa., were visitors at Jas. K. Johnston's last week.
Miss Lyda Showalter, of Brookville, visited Miss Annie Sutter in West Reynoldsville the past week.
Joseph Morrison and wife went to Grove Summit Monday to visit Mrs. Morrison's sister, Jane Smith.
Mrs. Ida Whiting, of Pittsburg, is visiting Mrs. A. M. Woodward and Mrs. Jennie Truitt at this place.
Lawyer C. Mitchell is at Pittsburg this week attending Supreme Court, where he has a case to look after.
Mrs. C. E. Andrews, of New Bethlehem, visited her daughter, Mrs. M. J. McEnteer, at this place last week.
J. C. King and wife, R. H. Wilson and wife, David Reynolds and wife and G. W. Fuller went to the World's Fair last week.
Chas. Montgomery, engineer on Sligo Branch of the A. V. R'y, visited his mother-in-law, Mrs. Wood Reynolds, at this place last week.
Vere King went to Philadelphia Saturday evening to attend the Philadelphia Dental College. This is Vere's first term at the college.
Mr. and Mrs. John Mulholland went to Bellefonte Monday morning to attend the funeral of Mr. Mulholland's brother's wife, who died on Sunday.
Herman Sindorf finds, since leaving DuBois, that it is just a pleasant once-a-week excursion to drive up here from Reynoldsville.—DuBois Courier.
M. F. Woods, one of the county commissioners, was in Reynoldsville Monday making arrangements for the special election in West Reynoldsville borough Oct. 12th.
Lawrence Rush, of Springfield, Mo., visited his aunt, Mrs. M. J. Farrell, several days last week. He is a baggage-master on the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad.
Ed. Lewis, who spends about one month every fall hunting deer and bear in the wilds near Bennetts, went over Monday to fix up the shanty and get ready for the annual hunt.
S. B. Rumsey, superintendent Low Grade Div. A. V. R'y, accompanied by his wife, left here yesterday morning to visit his home in Wisconsin. They will tarry at Chicago a fortnight enroute and visit the great Columbian Exposition.
Miss Flo Best, one of our milliners, went to Pittsburg yesterday morning to attend the fall openings this week. Miss Best will know how to trim hats and bonnets in the latest styles when she returns. She will buy a fine line of goods while in the city.
Prof. E. C. Shields, an erst while teacher in the Reynoldsville schools, was in town Saturday. Prof. has given up the work of instructing young minds along educational lines and is now looking after people's soles at DuBois. He is a partner in a shoe store at DuBois.
Chas. H. Prescott, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is not a stranger in these parts, was in town several days the past week. As he came up from the station in Hotel Belnap bus, he compared the town of to-day with what it was when he came into it forty years ago, and noted the substantial improvements that have been made since his last visit to our town. The day Mr. Prescott made his first trip to Reynoldsville the west side of what is now Main street was a vast wilderness and Wood Reynolds was having a log rolling near where John Hays' undertaking room is located.
