FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

Summarized Proceedings of Our Law-Makers at Washington.

SIXTH DAY. SENATE.—In the Senate Mr. Hoar unexpectedly submitted another resolution calling upon the president for specific answers to questions which, literally complied with, would lay before the senate and country the history of the actions of the present administration on the Hawaiian matter.

HOUSE.—After some unimportant business the House devoted the balance of the day to matters pertaining to the District of Columbia.

SEVENTH DAY. SENATE.—In the senate Mr. Collier, Republican of Illinois, made a long speech against the repeal of the Federal election laws, which had to do with the election of a senator and Mr. Hill, Democrat, of New York, after which the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—In the house to-day there was an interesting and amusing debate on the bill to admit Utah. Mr. Rawlins, the delegate from Utah, said polygamy was dying from natural causes and in a short time would cease to exist altogether.

HOUSE.—A very spirited debate was carried on in the senate today, based on Mr. Hoar's resolution requesting the President of the United States to furnish to the senate certain information in regard to the appointment of Mr. Blount as Commissioner to Hawaii.

HOUSE.—The main interest in the House today centered in the bill resolution, reported by Chairman McCreary, from the Committee on Finance, calling on the President for a copy of the instructions issued to Minister Willis of Hawaii.

HOUSE.—There was but one matter of national importance in today's session of the senate. That was the introduction by Mr. Voorhees, chairman of the Finance Committee, of a bill providing for the coinage of the silver dollar.

HOUSE.—Not in session. SENATE.—In the house today the bill for the admission of Arizona was put through and the bill for the admission of New Mexico was well under way when a wrangle over what was to be done with Oklahoma intervened and the debate thus precipitated lasted until adjournment.

A HAND-TO-MOUTH BUSINESS.

Trade Still Waiting as Much as It Can. Although the Volume a Few Years Ago Would Have Been Called Large.

R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Review on Trade says: It is proof of the enormous vitality of the country that, while mills are stopping in every direction, and the army of unemployed is larger than it has been for many years, other mills are constantly starting up to answer the demand which a single year of unprecedented disaster has only diminished.
