A wave of anarchy, in whose train followed bloodshed and destruction of property passed over the Mansfield, Pa., coal region Saturday. It began with dawn and at dusk one human life and at least $100,00 worth of property had been destroyed. Made wild by fancied grievances and liquor a mob of hundreds of infuriated foreigners, Huns, Slavs, Italians and Frenchmen, swept over the country surrounding Mansfield through the Tom's Run and Painter's Run valleys, attacked mine operators and a few brave but scattered deputy sheriffs, burned tipples, wrecked cars and destroyed milroad property.

Until moon the mob met hardly any re-sistance. At that time it had reached the mines of Beadling. Bros., near Federal etation, on the Pittsburg. Chartlers and Youghiogheny Railroad. Here the rioters Youghiogheny Kalifoad. Here the rioters met determined resistance and were check-ed. Repeating Winchester rifles in the hands of Thomas and William Beadling and their nephew, Harry Beadling, opened fire, killing one rioter and wounding about a dozen. Sheriff James Richards, of Allegheny county, took prompt and determined ac-tion

At the request of several companies whose property was attacked, he hurriedly dis-patched about a dozen deputies to the scenes of disorder before noon; at 2 p.m. a special train carried 40 deputies and just as the train pulled into Beadlings the mob was retreating under the hot fire from the defenders of the mines. The train was stopped and the deputies swarmed out of the coaches and started in pursuit of the mob. Each de cuty had a revolver of heavy caliber. The riotons min-ers field up a narrow valley that leads to the north of Beadling's mines. A running fire was opened between the pursued and pursuers. Along the slippery sides of the hill the deputies ran. To rioters scattered. Three were first caught. The deputies hung to their men and finally overtook 16 of them. The deputies hung to their men and thanky overtook 16 of them. Knives, revolvers and clubs, were found on the prisoners. At the point of revolvers they were marched over the hills to Mans-field and placed in jail. On the road, the deputies were met by a posse of citizens from the deputies under command, of "Stories Bridgeville under command of 'Squire Bridgeville under command of 'Squire Mayer. jail for fear of an attempted rescue at Mansfield. The story of the defense of Beadling's mines is beroic. Three men kept a howing mob at bay. All morning the foreigners had been having their own way. Shooting tail whom they met and destroying pro-erty. They were flushed with victory. Every man had a weapon of some kinds Most had revolvers and wicked looking knives, some had hunting rifles, iron bars, staves and clubs. At 12 o'clock word was brought to the Beadling brothers that their mines were to be attacked within an hour. The mine was running and the brothers were in the pit at the time. Word was brought to the mean in the mine by a son of one of the Beadlings. The miners offered to take part in the defense. Tom Beadlings said: "We will defend this mine or die here." Rifles and annumi-tion were hastly brought to the tipp. Up the valley came the mob in strangling fishion. Each nationality seemed to keep by itself and each had a spearate leader. Then the Beadings opened fire with their winchesters. They shot fast and straight early in the fight. One of the assailants was shot clean through the body. The Tell Flirtation.

The latest "wrinkle" in the art of firtation is imported from Cairo. It is called "Le Jeu du Voile."

If the veil is dropped completely over the face before the lady leaves your sight, it indicates "I am pleased with you-but be careful."

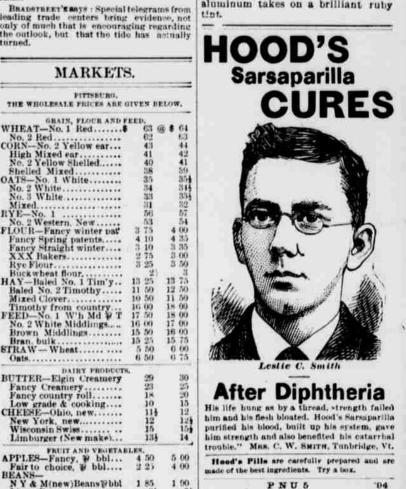

If on the contrary the veil is raised so as to expose the lips, this indicates "a kiss" in metaphor unfortunately, and if the veil is lifted entirely off the face the intention is defiance and re-sentment at the cavalier's impertinence.

Signs of Eighteen Ninety-four.

The old saying : "A green Christmas makes a fat graveyard" is often verified, and it further says, that the year will bring forth much sickness, wherein pains and aches, rheumatic complaints, soreness of joints and limbs will abound. In the olden times there were lew preventives for pain, lew cures for complaints. It is not so now. Even old Santa Claus has learned a thing or two. In many a Christmas stocking was found a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, the heat known, surest remedy for all such troubles. All years have their prophesies, and no year is without its record of surprising cures wrought by this wonderful medicine.

German Syrup"

I simply state that'I am Druggist and Postmaster here and am therefore in a position to judge. I have tried many Cough Syrups but for ten years past have found nothing equal to Boschee's German Syrup. I have given it to my baby for Croup with the most satisfactory results. Every mother should have it. J. H. HOBBS, Druggist and Postmaster, Moffat, Texas. We present facts, living facts, of to-day Boschee's German Syrup gives strength to the body. Take no substitute.

APPEAL FOR CLEMENCY.
