LOCAL LAONICS.

How blithly o'er the pretty snow, The youth and maiden glide, And think how happy they will be, When wedlock's knot is tied, But when they strike the rugged road Where all is sacrifice, They'll look back on their courting days, And say, "O, weren't they nice!" - E. S.

Chaplain McCabe. The ice crop is a good one. Hear McCabe Friday night. This is the first day of Lent. Good sleighing the past week. Baby shoes 25c. at Robinson's. The boys in Reynoldsville are entirely too liberal with snow balls. Most all the ice houses in Reynoldsville are now packed with good ice. If Cleveland is prompt our new postmaster will be appointed this week. The Dublin Dan Comedy Co. showed at the Reynolds opera house last evening. The Jefferson's Columbian minstrels, of Reynoldsville, showed at Clearfield last night. Sleighing parties from other towns to Reynoldsville have been numerous the past week. Henry A. Reed is having the interior of his shoe store repapered and otherwise beautified. Work on the foundations for the new tannery are being pushed rapidly toward completion. The W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday, Feb. 8th, at 3:00 P. M., at the residence of Mrs. John M. Hays. The dancing class at this place closed last Thursday night. Eight couples from DuBois were present. The A. V. R'y Co. is cutting ice at Sabula for the Low Grade and River Divisions. The company cuts one hundred cars for its own use. The sidewalks in Reynoldsville are in a very bad condition for pedestrians. The pavements on main street should be kept clean of snow and ice. Secure your seats early for the lecture Friday night, as there will be a large crowd out to hear Chaplain McCabe. Tickets on sale at Reed's shoe store. The school directors of Winslow township met at Hotel Beulah last Saturday and paid out $920.00 to the teachers of the above mentioned township. The through coaches between Reynoldsville and Williamsport on the afternoon trains were taken off the first of this year. Passengers have to change at Driftwood now. Royal Phosphoric coffee is now on sale at L. J. McEntire's, Wm. Copping's, D. B. Stauffer's, W. W. Well's, Walter Spry's and Mrs. Jos. Spears'. Try it if you want a delicious drink. The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will hold a millinery social at the home of J. K. Johnson, Thursday evening, Feb. 8th. All members of the society are cordially invited to be present. Mrs. Mike Martin slipped and fell on her way home from church Sunday night and was so badly injured that she had to be taken home in a sleigh. The injuries sustained were in her back and left side. Emanuel Conrad, who has been conductor on the Reynolds Farm Dairy wagon for a few months, giving good measure in exchange for pint and quart tickets presented by the customers of that dairy, has resigned his position to rest awhile. In mentioning the Republican nominees for West Reynoldsville borough the type setter unintentionally omitted the names of S. B. Hall, for constable, and Geo. Riggs, for high constable. The mistake was not discovered until our attention was called to it. The DuBois Local News entered its sixth year with last Friday's issue. The Local News is a very good paper. During the five years the political shade of the paper has been changed several times. It is now the official organ of the People's Party for Clearfield and Jefferson counties.

Rev. E. Lewis Kelley, of Rochester, will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday, Feb. 11th. The pulpit committee request a full attendance of members of the church and congregation. In a will made last May, Peter Cox named A. G. Milliren, of Reynoldsville, as executor of his estate. Mr. Milliren knew nothing of it until the will was read. Mr. Cox's property is valued at about $8,000. Forty hours devotion began in the Catholic church Sunday and ended yesterday morning. Fathers Weinker, of Clayville, Desmond, of Coalport, and McGivney, of DuBois, assisted Father Brady during the forty hours devotion. Few persons know what is meant by a "size" in the matter of coats, shoes etc. A size in a coat is an inch, a size in underwear is two inches, a size in socks is an inch, in a collar one-half an inch, in a shirt one-half an inch, gloves, one-fourth an inch, and hat one-eighth of an inch. The Acorn Club, of DuBois, will drive to Reynoldsville Thursday evening. Landlord F. J. Black of Hotel McConnell is making preparations to give them an excellent meal, which he knows how to do. The visitors will trip the light fantastic in the Reynolds brick block. The DuBois Evening Express had Chaplain McCabe deliver his lecture on "The Bright Side of Life in Libby Prison" at this place last Friday evening. Our evening friend was mistaken about the date of the lecture. Chaplain will lecture in Centennial Hall next Friday evening, Feb. 9th. Mrs. Catherine Sunderland, of McGhees Mills, Clearfield Co., sister of Jacob Sutter, of this place, died Friday evening, Feb. 2nd. Seven children are now left without father or mother, the father died about a year ago. Mrs. Jacob Sutter and son, Frank, attended her funeral, Mr. Sutter was not able to go. The Republicans of Winslow township nominated the following ticket for the election this month: Tax collector, Joe C. Reynolds; supervisors, Amos Strouse, W. K. Garvin; school directors, Thomas Hutchison, O. H. Broadhead, Noah Syphrit; registers, J. L. Long, Martin Syphrit; auditor, T. J. Broadhead. The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held at John M. Hays' office Monday evening. Henry A. Reed was elected secretary pro tem for the remainder of the year, which will end with the March meeting of council. The only business of importance to transact was to order bills amounting to $312.75 to be paid. The revival in the Methodist Episcopal church is still in progress and the interest is unabated. Thirty-seven were taken into the church on probation last Sunday, making a total of ninety-three probationers since the revival began. One hundred and thirty have been at the altar for prayer. Afternoon meetings are held frequently. The Pennsylvania State Editorial Association met in Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week. H. P. Snyder, of the Conneville Courier, was elected president of the Association and R. H. Thomas of the Mechanicsburg Farmer's Friend, was re-elected secretary and treasurer. The annual summer excursion will likely be to New York City and Long Beach. Forty-six members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. lodge of Brookville came to Reynoldsville on a special train last Wednesday evening and visited the lodge of the same name at this place. The Reynoldsville lodge served a lunch in the lodge room before the visitors returned home. We understand District Attorney W. L. McCracken paid the railroad company out of his own pocket for the special train. Dr. L. Veno Howard, the English physician who has been at DuBois for several weeks, is now in Reynoldsville, stopping at Hotel McConnell. He will deliver free lectures in Centennial every evening for a week, and perhaps longer, with the exception of Friday, Chaplain McCabe will lecture in Centennial Hall that night. Dr. Veno will deliver two private lectures during his stay here, one for ladies the other for men only. Rev. Wm. H. Robinson, a young Methodist preacher who does circuit work near DuBois, was married to Miss Minnie Miles, of Ridgway, last Sunday. Rev. Robinson is a bright young minister, and he might have traveled from Dan to Beersheba and would not have found a better helpmate than the one he has selected. As they travel hand in hand towards the Celestial City we hope they will gather in a large harvest for the Lord. The United States fish Commission car passed through Reynoldsville last Saturday afternoon attached to the West bound mail train. We were shown through the car which contains ten tanks that will hold sixteen thousand fish. The water in the tanks runs into a reservoir in the car and is forced into the tanks again by a little engine stationed in one end of the car. Five men eat and sleep on the car. Only four hundred fish, two hundred trout and two hundred bass, were left along the Low Grade.

Sprained Ankle. William Priester slipped on the icy pavement near the corner of Fourth and Hill streets last Sunday morning and sprained his right ankle so badly that he is not able to walk, and will not be for some time. Old Prognosticator. If it don't rain, don't get warmer and the sun don't shine too much the weather report issued by the old time prognosticator—the ground-hog—last Friday will come true and we will have six weeks of winter, for as Old Sol was out all day his hogship certainly saw his shadow. The woodchuck, like Hicks, however, may miss his calculation a little. Will Have Electric Light. Samuel Tilton Reynolds, who has just erected a three story brick block in Reynoldsville, is getting enterprising, and we understand he will ask the town council at its next meeting to grant a right of way for an electric light plant in this place. An electric plant would be a paying investment and we are glad Mr. Reynolds has the courage to give Reynoldsville additional city airs. Don't discourage the enterprise. Heart Failure. Lewis Mays, a three score year old citizen of Sykesville died early last Wednesday morning of heart failure. He retired for the night enjoying his usual health and about midnight he awoke his wife and they both got out of bed and he took some medicine he had in the house and got better and his wife went back to bed and left a boy up with her husband with instructions to call her if he got worse. At four o'clock he got another bad spell and when his wife reached his side he was sitting in the chair dead. Knocked Unconscious. Last Thursday at noon Chas. Stitts was badly injured by a horse running away. Mr. Stitts, who was driving a spirited horse belonging to G. W. Busard, got into the sleigh in front of his house, on Jackson street, and the horse started to run before he got hold of the lines. He was thrown out of the sleigh and received two ugly cuts on his head, and was badly bruised. He was unconscious for four hours, but is improving rapidly and is able to be out again. The horse was caught before any damage was done to the sleigh. Work of Diphtheria. Eddie, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carr, died Saturday, Feb. 3rd, and was buried in Beulah cemetery Sunday. Rev. P. J. Slattery conducted the funeral services. Charles Lewis Botzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Botzer, aged ten years and seven days, died Jan. 31st, and was buried in Beulah cemetery Feb. 1st. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. R. Johnson. Frank, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Swab, of Rathmel, died Saturday afternoon, Feb. 3rd, and was buried at Shannondale on Monday afternoon. On a Circular Saw. William Barrett, a young man employed on Barrett's portable saw mill, which is now located about four miles from Reynoldsville, met with an accident Thursday afternoon that very nearly cost him his left arm. If the arm is saved it will never be as strong as it was before the accident. Mr. Barrett's arm was caught in the circular saw in some manner. All the muscles from the wrist to the elbow were stripped off and six inches of the small bone of the arm was cut out. Drs. Reynolds, King and Neale, of this place, and Dr. Byers, of Smicksburg, were called and they think the young man's arm can be saved. Vote Thoughtfully. The February election draweth nigh and as there will be four tickets to select from it is about time for the voters to decide on the men they will vote for. At such elections party should be second thought and the best men in the field should receive the support of the people. All municipal offices should be filled with the best men obtainable, and it is especially important that the best men be put in for school directors. There are people who will stick to their party no difference whom the nominee is. Let us lay aside party affiliation on this occasion and vote for the town's best interests. We have nothing to say against any candidate or party, but merely ask the voters to vote wisely on the 20th of this month. Fell Through a Window. Oscar Steves, who lost his left hand in making a coupling on the R. & F. C. R'y in January, 1893, met with a mishap Monday forenoon which will render him helpless for sometime and which might have cost him his right hand. He was at the Burns House and ran across the street, without rubbers on, to Copping's store for a piece of tobacco. The sidewalk was icy and he could not stop and ran his hand through one of the large lights of glass, which is almost one-eighth of an inch thick, and a piece of the glass 3 1/2 inches long, sharp at one end and an inch wide at the other end, entered his hand near the wrist and buried itself among the arteries, ligaments and muscles of his hand. Oscar went to Dr. Reynolds and he had to take hold of the glass with forceps to extract it from the man's hand.

VENO IS A WONDER. His Marvelous Cures Attract Deep and Widespread Interest—Happy Harrisburgers—Crutches and Canes are no use to Those who have Tried Veno's Great Remedies. Veno has performed the most remarkable and astonishing cures ever performed in Harrisburg. The subjoined affidavits prove conclusively that Veno's remedies are just what they are represented to be, and cure when all other remedies fail. HARRISBURG, July 3, 1893. I have tried Dr. Veno's wonderful medicine and have never before found a medicine like it. It has done for me what no other has done and it has relieved me of suffering and effected a cure, and I am very glad to say this that others who are suffering may know its blessing. My suffering from liver, kidney diseases and weak stomach has been for over seven years, and I have spent hundreds of dollars on medicine. I was engaged sixteen years in the ministry. J. A. McDONALD, 1256 Market street. Sworn and subscribed before me this 6th day of July, 1893. D. C. MAURER, Alderman.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, } S. S. CITY OF HARRISBURG, } S. S. Personally appeared before me, an Alderman, of the said city of Harrisburg, W. C. Bennix, Windsor House, Market street, Harrisburg, who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say that on Saturday, July 1st, 1893, he was treated by Veno for rheumatism in both legs, having suffered the same severely; was unable to walk without crutches. After the first application of Veno's Electric Fluid he was able to walk without the use of his crutches and feels like a new man and continues to improve. W. C. BENNIX. Sworn and subscribed before me this 8th day of July, 1893. D. C. MAURER, Alderman.

The son of Adam Rohrbach, 555 Tenth street, Harrisburg, who was afflicted with paralysis in the hand, was cured by Veno's fluid. Many other equally astonishing cures have been effected in Harrisburg by Veno's remedies. Among them is J. H. Greek, 1419 Eleventh-and-a-half street, was cured of rheumatism after thirteen doctors had failed. John Weidel, 1135 North Front street, was cured of sciatica when he was crippled and not able to work. After using Veno's Electric Fluid he returned to work five days ago. Veno has more sworn affidavits of extraordinary cures by his remedies than any physician in the world. Veno's Curative Syrup is the quickest cure in the world for nervousness, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney trouble, etc. Veno's Electric Fluid will certainly cure rheumatism, lumbago, paralysis, sciatic and all aches and pains.—Harrisburg Telegram. Dr. Veno Howard opened a course of free lectures at Centennial Hall last evening, (Tuesday, Feb. 6th) and will remain for a week or so. During his stay he will deliver two startling private lectures, one to ladies and one to gentlemen only. Our people should go and hear Dr. Veno Howard speak, he is said to be an original talker, plain and to the point. Result of Enterprise. G. W. Miller, who has lived on a farm about four miles out from Reynoldsville for twenty-two years and who was married in the neighborhood of six months ago, moved to Big Run two weeks ago, where he erected for himself a beautiful brick house in the latest modern style. The house is heated by steam and has hot and cold water in all the rooms. Reynoldsville having been Mr. Miller's address until his removal to Big Run, we naturally look upon him as being from Reynoldsville and wish him success in his new home. Twenty-two years ago Mr. Miller grappled the realities of life with two hundred dollars in cash, and he is now worth many thousands. This is simply evidence of what courage and enterprise will bring a man to. The panic of 1873-4 made Mr. Miller's venture—he and his brother bought a farm for over six thousand dollars on time—look anything but encouraging. By the strictest economy, however, they successfully stemmed the financial tide and are now in the banking business in Big Run. Amos Strouse has bought 137 acres of the Miller farm, which includes the buildings on the farm. G. W. expects to take life comparatively easy now. D. C. Oyster Arrested. Daniel C. Oyster, president of defunct bank at Ridgway, was arrested last Wednesday on the charge of embezzlement. The Ridgway Justice being a witness on the case, Mr. Oyster was taken to St. Marys for a hearing. Ten thousand dollars bail was given for his appearance at court. Men in high circles who defraud the people are called embezzlers, but in the lower walks of life when a man appropriates another's money to his own use he is accused of stealing. A number of people who were nipped by the financial frost when the Ridgway bank failed last June went quietly to work and the news that Mr. Oyster was arrested for embezzlement was a great surprise to many who thought the matter had been dropped.

Exhibitions of Rowdyism. The DuBois Courier of Monday morning devoted a half column to the young rowdies of Reynoldsville who are mean and devilish enough to snow ball sleighing parties that visit our town. It was our intention before the Courier article appeared to call attention to this fact and suggest that something be done to put a stop to it for the credit of the town at least, for people do not have a good impression of a place where the boys act as if they were not even civilized. If the parents of the young hoodlums of this town have no control over them, then the police should take them in hand. We are sorry that the Courier uttered the truth about the conduct of our town boys. While the Courier was wound up on the subject of rowdyism we wonder why it did not tell of the conduct of the DuBois boys not later than Saturday night. If a reporter of the Courier had been at the corner of Long and Brady avenues shortly after ten o'clock Saturday night he would have witnessed a little DuBois rowdyism similar to that referred to in Monday's Courier, only there were no girls in the case. It was a sled load of boys, we did not learn from whence they came, who were treated to a snowballing from the DuBois boys. Three Reynoldsville boys who are not able to raise a mustache yet, drove to DuBois Saturday night and they were assailed by a snow ball brigade, in which an "imp" of the Courier's night force took a hand. A sled load of ladies and gentlemen from Reynoldsville were in DuBois the night just mentioned and were greeted with volleys of snow balls from the angelic "kids" of our neighboring town. We are not defending Reynoldsville rowdyism, for we most emphatically denounce such conduct, but we mention the DuBois rowdyism so the Courier can begin at home to correct boys and then what it says about other boys will be better received. People who live in glass houses had better not throw stones. The good people of DuBois do not encourage the boys to snowball visitors, neither do the good people of our town encourage such conduct, but it should be stopped in both towns. Taken to Brookville Last Night. On Friday night, Jan. 19th, three men entered D. F. Robinson's shoe store and stole about forty dollars worth of shoes. Detective F. P. Adlesperger took the case in hand and yesterday afternoon Mike Singlebaugh and Bob Runyon were arrested and put in the cooler for committing the robbery. Singlebaugh had a pair of the stolen shoes on when he was arrested. Adlesperger got ten pair of the shoes. The men were to have had a hearing before Esq. E. Neff at seven o'clock last evening, but they waived a hearing and were taken to Brookville jail on the 8:48 p. m. train. Last Saturday morning J. C. Miller, who had been to a dance the night before, went into the City Hotel and fell asleep sitting in a chair. When he awoke his watch and chair had disappeared. Robt. Runyon had been in the hotel, but D. M. Roll, the proprietor, thought some of the boys had taken the watch for a joke, but when it was not returned the proprietor began to investigate the matter and suspected Runyon of stealing the watch. Mr. Roll gave the case into Adlesperger's hands and when Runyon was arrested he was sporting Mr. Miller's watch, but had left the chain at home, where Adlesperger got it afterwards. Runyon is not a stranger at the county jail nor the penitentiary, as he has been there before. He was recently released from the "pen" where served five years. Don't Miss It. Chaplain McCabe is a humorist; he is an orator; he is a forcible and pleasing speaker, having the power to carry his hearers from uproarious laughter into tears of sympathy and sorrow; then filling them with patriotism and love of country, will bring forth an involuntary outburst of cheers from his audience over a beautiful and eloquent reference to some historical deed, the recollections of which well up in every patriotic heart and find common response from every lip. It was thus Mr. McCabe carried his hearers last night from one state of feeling to another throughout his lecture. He studiously avoided all references to the past of a nature to kindle any unkindly feelings, and he said naught that the most sensitive individual could take exception to. Take it all in all, the occasion last night was one long to be remembered, and if Chaplain McCabe ever visits Carthage again the Opera House will not contain his audience.—Carthage (Mo.) Daily Banner. At Centennial Hall Feb. 9th. Two for One. We are making a special offer to each of our readers paying a year's subscription to the STAR in advance, and to all new subscribers paying in advance, we will give them the best local paper in Jefferson county and will give them free, either the Womankind or American Farmer, for one year. The two papers above mentioned are excellent monthly papers and the subscription price of each is 50c. a year. This offer is made only to those in Pennsylvania. At King & Co.'s you will find baled hay, salt, flour and a full line of general merchandise.

PERSONALS. Mrs. F. M. Brown was in Brookville Monday. J. L. Fugate and wife visited in DuBois a few days last week. J. Van Reed was at Rimersburg several days the past week. Mrs. J. S. Abernathy is visiting her mother at Jamestown, N. Y. Mrs. Elizabeth Stephenson, of Boechee, is visiting in town this week. Prof. W. H. Quigley, of Punxsutawney, was in Reynoldsville Saturday. John Morris, of Curwensville, visited Thos. Nichol at this place last week. Mrs. Jessie Lowther has been dangerously ill the past week with erysipelas. Alex. Riston took his son, Paul, to New York yesterday for medical treatment. S. T. Hoover, of Winslow, Pa., spent Sunday with his son, Dr. B. E. Hoover, in this place. John Phillips, of DuBois, spent a few days with his cousin, Joe Phillips, at this place the past week. M. C. Kaufman, accommodating news agent on the A. V. R'y, spent Sunday with his family at Meadville. Mrs. M. M. Cribbs, of DuBois, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Riston, at this place last week. G. M. Watson, of Wheeling, West Va., visited his brother, Joseph S. Watson, at this place, last week. S. J. Williams, who has been at Kushequa, Pa., for sometime, is visiting his parents in West Reynoldsville. Mrs. John A. Doyle and son, Joseph, of Clarion, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Watson, in this place. Rev. Jacob Booth went to Glen Richey, Clearfield county, last Friday, to conduct a series of special meetings. Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, is holding special meetings at Rathmel this week. Mrs. John W. Coax, of Pittsburg, who was called here by the death of her father, Peter Cox, returned to her home last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Isabell Broadhead, of Rathmel, has returned home after several weeks' visit with friends in Punxsutawney, Hastings and Patton. W. C. Bond, of Brookwayville, who has been at Duluth, Mich., for some time, passed through Reynoldsville Monday on his way to Brookwayville. Frank, Lehner and Misses Minnie and Lucy Lehner, of Tyrone, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Fred Schurig, at this place, returned home Monday. Miss Mary Guthmiller and Miss Kittle Heidrick, of DuBois, were the guests of Misses Maud Reynolds and Lucile Mitchell several days last week. Miss Edna Wilson, of Punxsutawney, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. F. Cant, at this place the past month, returned to her home last Saturday. Chas. E. Seeley, who is a real estate owner at Spivey, Kan., has just returned from a two weeks' trip to that place where he was looking after his property. Geo. Engle and wife, who were married the 27th of last December and went to the eastern part of the state on a wedding trip, returned to Reynoldsville last week. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Swab, of Rathmel, took the remains of their four-year-old son to Shannondale, Clarion county, Monday for burial. The boy died of diphtheritic croup. Miss Docia Miles, who makes her home with her grandfather, Rev. Sam'l Miles, at Ansonville, is visiting the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miles, at this place. Mrs. Robert L. Miles went to Altoona Saturday morning to attend the funeral of her father, Nathan Keirn, who died at that place Friday and was buried at East Ridge on Monday. Robert L. Miles and daughters, Mollie and Docia, were at DuBois Sunday to attend the funeral of Jas. Spears' child. The remains of the child were brought to Prospect cemetery for burial. John Farley, familiarly known as "Hunch," who has been a porter at the Commercial House, Brookville, for seven or eight years, came to Reynoldsville Monday and is now porter at Hotel McConnell. John Harpster, a genial old gentleman of Port Matilda, Center county, Pa., came to Reynoldsville last week to see Joseph Watson, whom he had not seen for twenty-five years. Mr. Harpster was under the impression that Reynoldsville was a small town but was agreeably surprised when he arrived and sized up the town and noted the life there is here even in the present depression. The old gentleman was so favorably impressed on his visit here that he is coming back again when the weather gets warmer. See Robinson's $1.50 fine shoes for men. It is rumored in town that a young man well known here is seriously ill from the effect of cigarette smoking. If it does not kill more of our boys it is because they are poison proof.—New Bethlehem Vindicator. Buy your felt boots at Robinson's, $1.00 per pair.
