The Prescottville Baptist Sunday school will give an entertainment in the Prescottville church on Tuesday evening, March 13th. The program will consist of songs, recitations, dialogues, &c. Admission ten cents. Proceeds for benefit of Sunday school.

H. C. Taylor, a prosperous lumberman of Ridgway, kicked a man by name of McCauley to death on the main street of Ridgway last Wednesday evening. The two men had a dispute about a half day's work which led from words to blows and kicks. Taylor broke Mc-Cauley's neck.

The warm rays of the sun, the warm breeze, with its alluring effects, and the shut down of the mines Monday filled Main street all day with groups of men who were discussing the hard times that now felt from ocean to ocean, and mor especially the situation of the laboring people in Reynoldsville and vicinity.

Bro. Ryland, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Big Run and one of the publishers of the neat and newsy Weekly Echo, don't have much to do outside of the duties above mentioned but preach for and look after the spiritual welfare of Presbyterian congregations at Perry, Cool Spring, Knoxdale and we don't know where else. It is needless to add that he don't have more time than he knows what to do with. W. S. Stone, the machinist for the A. V. R'y Co. at this place, constructed a swinging bridge across the Sandy Lick creek, near where the old Soldier Run railroad bridge formerly stood, for his own convenience in getting to and from his work and also for the accommodation of any who chance to pass that way. Within the past few days ome person maliciously inclined have en tampering with the bridge and thus endangering the life of any who cross it, especially when the water is high and the creek filled with logs. It would not be well for the guilty parties if they were known. This kind of work is pure, unadulterated devilishness. It is Rumored.

It is rumored that A. D. Deemer, of Brookville, will either buy one of the dry goods stores of Reynoldsville or open up a new one here. Mr. Deemer and his partner, Mr. Shick, were in town Saturday afternoon looking after the matter.

A Race Track.

The owners of the fast horses in this place have laid out a race track on the flat across the Sandy Lick south of town and which will be fixed up as soon as the frost is out of the ground. We understand they expect to commence soon to put up a temporary bridge over Engine Blowed up.

John M. Stephenson, brother of ye editor, who is an engineer on the 4th division of the B. & O. railroad, narrowly escaped instant death last Wednesday morning by his engine blowing up. He was hauling a train of coal and coke when the accident occurred. The blowing up of the engine wrecked the train. He was blown out of the engine and buried beneath coal and coke. John was badly injured but not dangerously.

Not this time.

The election returns from the borough of Brockwayville were made out and taken to Brookville without designating what office the candidates were running for. The Record says the Reynoldsville election board made the same mistake. Yes, Bro. Niver, the Reynoldsville board made a similar mistake two years ago, but not this time. The election board of East Winslow township, however, is in the same boat this year with the Brockwayville election board.

Glad to Get Home,

George Dixon, of Prescottville, who has been at the Adrian hospital for over severteen weeks, returned home last Saturday. He went to the hospital to get treatment for his right leg which was broken and not set right. The boy says his leg has been broken twice now and re-set and he don't propose to have it broken again if he can prevent it. Although his leg is too tender to use, yet the boy thinks it will be all right this time. George says they treated him very good at the hospital, but he got tired looking at stumps and was glad to get home again.

Good Entertainment.

The Schumann Lady Quartet gave one of the best entertainments of the kind ever given in Reynoldsville at the opera house last Friday night. The ladies are excellent artists. As soloists and as a quartet they are able to please the most critical. The rendering of "Hear Dem Bells," was simply grand. Miss Jennie Shoemaker is a gifted elocutionist. She has a pretty face, lithe, graceful figure, with dark eyes. Her Delsartean exhibition showed careful training and thorough mastery of the system. If the Schumann Lady Quartet ever comes this way again they will be greeted by a much larger crowd than they were Friday night.

Our Ex-Burgess. John M. Hays, who served two years as burgess of this borough, is now on the ex-burgess list. While Mr. Hays did not please all the people of Reynoldsville as burgess, yet we believe he done his duty conscientiously. Most every man has his way of doing things and thinks every person else should do things that way or he is afraid, or partial. &c. Two things at least were accomplished during Mr. Hays' administration that is a credit to the town, and that was the tearing down of the old skating rink and paving Main street. Now that part of the street has been paved it is likely the work will be extended some distance this summer, which should be done. As above stated, we believe Mr. Hays done his duty as he thought best, and we do not hesitate to say he made an honorable burgess. As it is a thankless office we willingly give him credit for his two terms of office.

Fast Driving.

There are a number of gentlemen in town who have fast horses. One day last week seven of them were exercising their "nags," and as the paved street is a great temptation and their horses were feeling good, the drivers slackened on the reigns just sufficient to crack the borough ordinance into smithereens and them came down with a V apiece to satisfy the burgess. According to the borough ordinance six mile an hour is the speed allowed in the borough. Of course that is slow going-especially if a man is driving a good horse-and there are few people who drive through town that do not go faster than six mile an hour. This being the law it is all right for the burgess to enforce it. While we would not be in favor of turning Main street into a race track, yet we will have to confess we do like to see a good horse "step it off" occasionally. Not at a break-neck speed, however. It is not at all likely that the new burgess will "wink" at fast driving on our streets. Unless the ordinance is repealed it is not likely that much fast driving will be indulged in on Main street. One of the councilmen was heard to remark that he would be in favor of giving the sports an hour at a certain time each day to drive over six miles an hour. The Old and New

The regular monthly meeting of the town council was held at Ex-Burgess Hays' office Monday evening. The burgess reported the fines and license for February, which amounted to $47.00. The old council ordered bills to the amount of $63.85 to be paid, and voted their thanks to the Honorable Burgess as an appreciation of his work as chief magistrate of this borough. Mr. Hays responded by passing around cigars. The old council then adjourned sine die

'Squire Neff administered the oath of office to the new burgess, Sam'l Lattimer, and the councilmen elected in February, A. F. Yost, Jerry Heckman, Thomas Shields and Dr. S. Reynolds. The other two councilmen are Daniel Strouse and John D. Lowther. The council elect John D. Lowther president of the council, and Henry A. Reed town clerk: Dr. W. B. Alexander borough treasurer: Fred. Burns chief-of-police. and M. M. Davis attorney solicitor. Fred Burns gave a bond for the office of High Constable. Fred. Burns was elected street commissioner. The following committees were appointed:

Stove pipes and flues: Jerry Heckman, Dan'l Strouse.

Finance: Dr. S. Reynolds, Thos. Shields, John Lowther. Ordinances: Dr. S. Reynolds, Thos.

Shields, John Lowther. Daniel Strouse, Dr. S. Reynolds and A. F. Yost were appointed as a committee to fix up the lock-up building for a council chamber and burgess office. The wages to be paid for work on the streets this year is $3.00 per day for teams and $1.50 per day for men.

The "Beat" Remedy.

The newspapers of Jefferson county and every other county should protect themselves by adopting the cash method. Under that system people pay for their paper because they want it. do not have a paper thrust upon them that they do not want. The Express has no beats on its list. Its subscription list is a roll of honor .- DuBois Express Feb. 15, 1894.

From ten years experience we have learned that when a man owes publishers five or six years subscription on a newspapers he seldom has any use either for it or the people who trusted him. Our experience has received confirmation within the last twenty-four hours. -DuBois Express March 3rd, 1894.

Beinap Goat.

[DuBois Courier.] Master Willie Belnap came up fron Reynoldsville Wednesday and bought Ralph Mead's goat, harness and chaise. The Belnap kid owned the goat before it came to DuBois, and as spring drew near and the need of a scavenger in the back yard became apparent he yearned for it again and prevailed upon his "pap" to furnish the cash for making the purchase.

Wait and See!

The time is swiftly flying. Soon the people will be wanting spring goods and no one knows this better than do the merchants. A. T. Bing and J. J. Sutter, of the firm of Bing & Co., are in eastern cities this week buying a fine line of spring goods. It will pay you to see their stock and get their prices before you buy your spring goods.

Rev. P. J. Slattery returned home Saturday night. He was unable to preach Sunday and in conseque there was no preaching services in the M. E. church last Sunday.
