The much talked of hard times does not seem to effect passenger traffic much on the Low Grade. One conductor says he handled more passengers in February. 1894, than he did in February, 1893. Eleanora was pulled in by the Burgess Saturday afternoon for fast riding through the town. The man was riding a balky pony that wanted to go on a jump or not at all, and he did not know there was any law for fast riding, therefore, the fellow was not fined this time.

It was announced in last week's issue of this paper that the Sunday school at Prescottville would give an entertainment in the church at that place on Tuesday evening, March 13th. The entertainment was postponed until this evening, March 14th. Ice cream and cake will be served after the entertainment.

The Burgess expects to enforce the ordinance prohibiting merchants and others piling goods, boxes, &c., on the outside portion of the sidewalk along Main street. They are allowed six feet of the walk from the building, but not the outside part of the walk. A number of the merchants have already received notices to this effect.

Will. McEntire, constable of Oakland, came to Reynoldsville last week for a young man who was working in the woods near Big Soldier. When the constable got near his man the fellow comprehended the situation and offered leg bail, which the constable refused to accept after a reckless race through the woods. Mr. McEntire returned to Oakland with his prisoner.

Carrier Thompson, the young man who was badly disfigured for life the latter part of last September by having a half pint of nitrie seid thrown into his face at Cool Spring, this county, spent Sunday in town. The heinous act was done by a young man named Chas. Shaffer who accused Thompson of sending him a valentine. Mr. Thompson first went to the Adrian Hospital and then to a Pittsburg hospital where he is still receiving treatment.

Newton Beers, the popular actor, at the opera house Friday night. From the leading dailies of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Washington, we glean the following concerning Mr. Beers: He is an actor of trained ability; intelligent and impressive; head and shoulders above many who rank as great; he has won rounds of enthusiastic applause; his portrayal of character is unquestionably fine, and true to life; he is possessed of the sacred fire that stamps the master of mimic art. A committee composed of the following gentlemen, Albert Baur, George VanVliet, Wilson R. Ramsey and Thomas S. The committee entirely exonerated the Matron of the charges of Reed, who made himself known to the people of this county in the recent campaign for Judge, has no superiors and few equals as a lawyer.

Paid His Rent. An Italian who rented a house from Esq. Neff and who was two months in arrears with his rent, had his goods loaded onto a wagon last Wednesday and was going to skip to Shawmut without liquidating the arrearage, but Mr. Neff got an inkling of what was going on and got a landlord's warrant out in time to stop the goods at the Moore House. The Italian paid his rent and the flitting moved on again. The son of Italy had the wrong man to deal

A Chicken Thief Foiled.

A. M. Woodward has a coop full of chickens and Monday evening about eight o'clock his daughter, Zoe, went to the coop to lock it for the night. Just as she was ready to put the padlock A man by name of Chaplain from into the staple the door was thrown open with great force and a man made a hasty exit from the chicken coop and ranaway. The door struck Zoe and she was knocked down and had her lip badly cut. Zoe made good use of her lung power. Had the girl remained in the house a little longer the thief would have taken a few choice chickens away with him.

The Judge Decided it.

The T. C. Reynolds and F. J. Black suit tried in the Jefferson county court last week was decided in favor of Mr. Black. The case was an interesting one on law points and it gave Geo. A. Jenks, attorney for Reynolds, and John W. Reed, of Clarion, attorney for Black, an opportunity to show their learning in the profession they follow. Reynolds & Black were proprietors of Hotel McConnell at one time and the question to be decided was whether the dissolution of partnership, under the circumstances at the time, was legal or not. The Judge decided that it was all right.

Fire at Falls Creek.

Falls Creek was visited with the largest fire Sunday morning ever put on record for that town. Numerous small blazes have been noted there, but this time six buildings went up in smoke making a loss of about $19,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. Among the property destroyed was the Falls Creek Herald. Bro. Bangert put his loss at $2,000 with $1,200 insurance. All that was saved out of the office was the safe and books it contained. The editor is an energetic fellow and, although a trifle discouraged, he will establish a new plant at Falls Creek. The Herald will be printed at the DuBois Courier office until its new home is ready.

Over the Hill.

P. J. Pisher, the man who has done more reckless driving in Revnoldsville than any other man who has driven through this town in ten years, met with a little mishap about eleven o'clock last Friday night. He is employed as a blacksmith on a lumber job three or four miles out of town and he owns a horse and cart which he uses to travel wherever he wants to go. Friday night was a trifle dark and the street lamps on Jackson street were not giving very good light and Pisher got off the road and he and his horse and cart all took a tumble down over the embankment, Pisher himself landing on the opposite side of the fence from his horse and cart. The people who live near where Pisher upset were awaken by his gentle "whoa! John;" whoa! John," and they got out of bed and several of them carried lanterns with them and soon had the old man started on his way home again.

Will You Go?

An effort is being made to get up an excursion train to go to DuBois on Saturday evening, March 31st, to hear Hon. Geo. R. Wendling lecture on "Saul of Tarsus." We received a letter from the general passenger agent of the B., R. & P. R'y last week to the effect that for a guarantee of eightysix people, or $30.00, a special train would be run from Reynoldsville to DuBois and return for 35 cents a ticket for round trip. Train to leave Reynoldsville at 7.15 P. M. and return after the lecture. All who will go on the excursion please hand your name to the editor of THE STAR or J. Van Reed. When John Temple Graves lectured here DuBois sent a large delegation to Reynoldsville, and now our people can return the compliment and at the same time hear one of the best lecturers on the platform to-day. The lecture going people would certainly enjoy a rare treat to hear a man like Wendling lecture. "Saul of Tarsus" is his best

Settled for $1,500.00. The case of Henry Garrett, of this place, and the Hamilton Coal Co., which has been pending in the Jefferson county court for sometime, was settled last week by Mr. Garrett getting $1,500.00 and the Hamilton Coal Co. to pay all costs. Mr. Garrett purchased the large tract of land now being operated as the Big Soldier mine for the Hamilton Coal Co., which cost them twenty-five dollars an acre by gaining seventeen acres on measurement and selling some top land for $1,000. Mr. Garrett got 5 per cent, on this purchase. The company afterwards gave it into Mr. Garrett's hands to sell for seventy-five dollars an acre, agreeing to allow him five per cent. on the sale. In 1890 Mr. Garrett sold the large tract to the Bell, Lewis & Yates C. M. Co. for one hundred dollars an aere. The five per cent on the sale amounted to $3,390.00. company refused or neglected to pay Mr. Garrett his commission on the sale and he attached the last $10,000 in the hands of Bell, Lewis & Yates C. M. Co. to be paid to the Hamilton Coal Co. Mr. Garrett sued the Hamilton Co. and the case was not disposed of until last week. The interest on the principal of the commission amounted to $750.00, which made a total of $4,140.00. Mr. Garrett is getting well advanced in years and not caring to prolong the suit, he settled for the amount stated-$1,500.

A Deficient Engine.

We mentioned last week that John Stephenson, brother of ye editor, had been badly injured by an engine exploding on the B. & O. R. R. in West Virginia. A number of people have inquired about the particulars of the mishap and, therefore, we quote the facts as given in a private letter written by John himself:

"Don't think I will get to work before May, and probably June. My back is hurt badly and my legs are pretty well used up. It was no fault of mine that caused the explosion. She was practically a new engine, but was deficient in stay bolts and carried 175 pounds of steam: I had 26 loads of coal and coke, and was running 35 miles per hour and using a full throttle of steam when she left go. Eleven cars of the train was piled up in a space of 50 feet; the tank was blown 20 yards from the engine and torn completely to pieces; the engine was lifted entirely off the rails. I was blown out of the front cab window, the fireman up the side of the mountain, and brakeman under back end of engine. My under coat and overcoat were in the tank box and were blown to shreads, never found anything of them."

A Surprise Party.

Mrs. Wm. Barkley, of Jackson street, was given a real birthday surprise party Monday evening. It frequently occurs that many of the surprise parties given are a surprise only in name, but Mrs. Barkley was not apprised of the party until she entered her home about nine o'clock and found it filled with lady friends to the number of sixty. The surprise was so complete that Mrs. Barkley had to sit down and cry. She went out shopping in the evening with Mrs. Annie Winslow who, unbeknown to Mrs. Barkley, was to keep her away from home until the ladies, who met at the M. E. church, took possession of the house. The ladies carried with them a very pretty ten dollar rocking chair, table cloth, towels, and baskets well filled with catables. A long table was spread and the refreshments carried there were served by the ladies who were running the house for one evening, Mrs. Barkley being their guest.

Body Found.

The latter part of November we published an article stating that Warren McWilliams, of Rockdale, had committed suicide by drowning in the Saginaw river at Saginaw, Mich. At that time Mr. McWilliams and son-in-law, W. H. Britton, went to Saginaw and when they reached that place the river was frozen over and they could not find the body of the young man. A reward of one hundred dollars was offered for the recovery of his body. Last week the body was found, near the bridge from which he is supposed to have jumped to his death, frozen in the ice. His sister went to Saginaw and found the remains to be those of her brother which were brought home and buried in the Beechwoods cemetery Friday. Considering the bad roads a large crowd attended the funeral

Court House Changes.

The new law making two separate offices out of prothonotary and register and recorder, has necessitated some changes at the county seat. The sheriff's office has been moved from the court house to the brick office in front of the iail on Main street. The room formerly occupied by the sheriff is now being nicely fitted up for Register and Recorder Clark's office. Prothonotary Barr will occupy the room formerly occupied before the two offices were divided. The room occupied by the commissioners could stand some improvements, in fact needs improvements, but the gentlemen who have charge of the county money prefer to take things as they find them rather than spend the money to make improvements in their depart-

A Good Word For The Newspapers.

At a recent business convention Governor Francis of Missouri, who is in a position to know whereof he speaks, paid tribute to the local newspapers as follows:

"Each year the local paper gives from $500 to $1,000 in free lines to the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor, in proportion to his means, does more for his town than any other ten men, and in all fairness with men he ought to be supported-not because you like him or admire his writing, but because the local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be brilliantly edited or crowded with thought, but financially it is of more benefit to the community than the teacher or preacher. Understand me. I do not mean mentally or morally, but financially, and yet on the moral question you will find the local papers majoritively on the right side. To-day the editors of the home papers do the most for the least money of any people on the face of the earth."

Reduction at Toby.

The Brockwayville Record says: When the Bell, Lewis & Yates Coal Mining company announced last week that another reduction of 5 cents a ton in the price of mining would take effect at all their collieries at Reynoldsville and DuBois it was a foregone conclusion that a similar reduction would follow in the Toby Valley. The miners of this community knew what to expect and are not surprised that steps have already been taken towards that end. At Shawmut a cut of ten cents a ton has been asked, to go into effect sometime about the middle of the month. This in itself would be a bigger reduction than that of other parts of the district, but the miners are offered net ton weight in place of gross ton weight, which they have been receiving. This about makes the reduction correspond with the others. Shawmut is working first rate now, although it has not yet begun on its Grand Trunk contract. Work will not begin upon that until about the first of April.

Missionary Entertainment.

The entertainment given in the M. E. church last Friday night by the Woman's Home Missionary Society, was well attended. The admission price was five and ten cents. The door receipts amounted to $15.55. The program was a very good one and all the participants executed their parts very nicely and to their credit. The program was as follows: Organ recital.....

Recitation—"Before the Throne" .. Elsie Ross Song—"Only Waiting" ... Miss Lizzie Binney Reading ... Mrs. C. N. Lewis

Male Quartette—D. M. Dunsmore, Sam'i Low-ther, Elijah Trudgen and Wm. Ramsey. Reading Mrs. G. A. Sheare "Widow Blake's Seventy-five Dollars." Recitation Mrs. Fremont M. Brown The Witch's Daughter.
