The O. U. A. M. re-union to be held at this place June 7th promises to be big affair.

W. C. Arnold, Esq., of DuBois, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress, subject to the actions of Republicans at the primaries. Mr. Arnold is about as good a candidate as the Republicans of Clearfield county can pick up. He is a brilliant lawyer and a Brockwayville has received a costly sson this month from the result of allowing defective sidewalks in that town. Mrs. Jacob McCauley, was on her way to church on the 6th inst. when a loose plank in the walk tripped her and she sustained injuries in the fall which resulted in her death on the 12th inst. The authorities of our own borough should see to it that all sidewalks are kept in good repair all the time.

All the miners in the bituminous coal regions of this State have quit work, and there is no prospect of an early settlement of the difficulties between miners and operators. The supply of coal for feul at many of the industrial establishments in this city and vicinity is nearly exhausted and the owners will either have to burn wood or shut down soon. Preparations for using wood for fuel are being made at several of the factories and in all cases where it can be substituted for coal it will be done. The miners are many of them suffering for want of the bare necessities of life, but they are determined that success shall crown their efforts in the present strike.-Lock Haven Express.

How much depends on the way things are put! Nearly every opinion may be stated offensively or otherwise, according as certain terms and tones are used or not. An oriental monarch asked two interpreters the meaning of his dream. One said: "You will lose all your children and relations and then die yourself." The monarch ordered this prophet of evil to be beheaded. The other said: "Your majesty will survive all your family." This one was loaded with favors, though he had really said the same thing as the first. Two preschers went through a country-side delivering their gospel message. One oried, "If you don't repent, you will be damned;" and all the people were mad.
The other proclaimed in winning words,
"If you forsake your sins, you shall be saved," and they flocked around him.
Some people go through life jamming their sharp elbows into everybody's dee, bitting everybody's sores, and onder why they are so unpopular, and talk about being martyrs to the

They probably mean to do right, but they fall far short of they mark if a gentle kindliness of disposition and a desire to please rather than wound can be counted as a standard of excellence. Many a happy wo-man has had her innocent mind filled with doubts, her existence poisoned by innuendoes and her heart broken through the candor of some kind friend who thought it her duty to tell the wife eart all about something that comebody's cousin's sister heard about the husband or flance. Such women doing their duty, but they are hief-makers nevertheless. Even neigh they may not go to the extent raising a beautiful family row, what he sense of telling others the disable things we see in them or hear ut them? Can it possibly do any d to tell a woman that her gown is style when she has no means of alling it? She knows it just as well as busybody who attempts to see her buybody who attempts to see her at Hut if so one mentions it the den of wearing it is much easier to r. What seuse is there in running ut and saying, "Oh yes; I know all ut her family. She needn't put on the grandfather was a truckman,

Jesus is the way, the truth and the life; he is the door into the sheep-fold. Those that would seek to go in by any other way, the same are thieves and other way, the same are thieves and robbers.

I believe that the holiness of God is the ground for the necessity of the atonement. Just as there is a demand in our consciences that requires all ain to be punished, and a keen conscience cannot rest until restitution be made; so God who is absolutely hely must require a punishment for sin. This punishment is but the constitutional reaction of God's being against sin. It is therefore devoid of all passion. This of necessity brings out the benevolence of God in that He has devised the plan whereby men may escape this punishment. The fact that Christ was Divine made it possible for him to bear this penalty. The fact that he was human, and thus laid himself liable to all that the holiness of God demands, made it just that he should suffer.

The law of an organism is, to each part according to its need and from the holiness of God demands, made it just that he should suffer.

The law of an organism is, to each part according to its need, and from each part according to its ability. Thus Jesus as a part of the organism—the human race—is under duty bound to render all the aid within his power. And being able he is the complete savior. This atonement extends to all, as Paul said, (I Tim. 2: 5,6) "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all." And (I John 2: 2) "He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world." So that "Whosoever will may come." "God is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to Him."

I believe that Jesus Christ died and rose again, and that now He is at the right hand of God interceding for His people.

I believe that there is a union formed with Christ and the believer, so that he becomes a member and partaker of that regenerated, believing and justified humanity of which Christ is the head This union is indissoluble, (John 10: 28)
"They shall never perish and no man shall snatch them out of my hand."

I believe in the new birth. Ye must be born again. This new birth, or regeneration is the turning of the soul by God to Himself. It is an instantaneous con to filmself. It is an instantaneous change wrought by God. John speaking of those who are the sons of God says those "Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God" (John 1: 13).

As I believe in the

As I believe in the regeneration, or God turning the soul to Himself, so I believe in conversion, or the voluntary turning of the soul to God. In conversion, which is the human side of that change which viewed from the divine side we call regeneration there are inside we call regeneration, there are involved two elements, repentance, or the turning from sin, and faith, or the turning to God.

I believe that those who are in Christ are declared just by God for Christ's

I believe that those who are in Christ are declared just by God for Christ's sake.

I believe that the work begun by God in regeneration He will carry on to completion in sanctification. This is the work of the Holy Spirit and is never complete in this life: "For if we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us."

So too I believe that those who are regenerated will persevere to the end. For how shall we who are dead to sin live any longer therein? I believe in the perseverance of the saints, but mind you they must be saints. The proof that they are saints is that they will persevere. Perseverance is therefore the human side of that spiritual process which, as viewed from the Divine side, we call sanctification.

I believe that the church is an institution of Divine appointment. It is composed only of regenerated believers. I believe that the officers of the church are only two, ist bishop, presbyter, or pastor, and 2nd deacon.

I believe that the government was democratic, as seen from the numerous injunctions by Paul to the church.

I believe that there are but two ordinances prescribed in the New Testament, namely Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

I believe that only believers should ment, namely Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

I believe that only believers should be baptized, as this is the precedent established in the New Testament and is in accord with the commands to believe and be baptized.

I believe that only those who have given an outward sign of their conversion should come to the table of the Lord. For as it is but a symbol of their feeding on Christ they ought first to be born before they begin to eat.

I believe in the second coming of Christ.

Christ.

I believe in the resurrection of the just and the unjust. That after the resurrection there comes the judgment, when all shall be judged according to the deeds done in the body. Those who have done well shall enter into bits with Christ, and those who have done evil shall be banished from God into eternal punishment.
