Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1894.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co. Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Arnolds Block.

Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

The tariff bill has been passed by the Senate and now awaits the President's signature to make it a law. Sugar is to go on the free list.

The Populist conference of the twenty-first congressional district, held at Kelleysburg last week nominated R. B. Fry, of New Kensington, for congresss, J. B. Conser, of Clayville, was a candi-

Postmaster General Bissel has issued an order that hereafter appointments to positions as railway mail superintendents shall be confined to the clerks in the division of the railway mail service in which the vacancy occurs. Heretofore these appointments were made through political influence from outside the service.

Some writer sizes it up thusly: An editor works 313 days per year to get out fifty issues of a paper; that's labor. Once in a while somebody pays a year's subscription, that's capital. And once in a while some son of a gun of a dead beat takes the paper for years and vanishes without paying for it: that's anarchy. But later on justice will overtake the last named creature, for there is a place where he will get his desserts; that's hades.

Monday last Messrs. Jno. W. Reed, Chas, Corbett and Carmalt & Strong, the attorneys of the sixty-three Crenshaw coal miners, arrested several months since for unlawful assembly and confined in the Ridgway jail, and whose case came before Judge Mayer in this place for a hearing, six of the defendants being released on bail and the balance on their own recognizances, went to Ridgway, where the cases were again revived by the issue of a rule to show cause why the six defendants who are under bail should not be held for contempt of court in violating an injunction of the court. After considerable fencing on the part of the attorneys evidence was taken touching the facts in the case, and Judge Mayer took the papers under advisement, informing the attorneys that they would hear from him again and took his departure for his home. It is the general impression that this case has resolved itself into a howling farce, and that nothing more will be heard of it.-Brookville Republican.

An editor of New York in his last testament praises his wife in an unusual manner by saying: "I state and publish to the world that all the property I now possess was either received from her at the time of my intermarriage her industry and strict economy and frugality; and that all the wealth I may command during my life will be the result of her watchful care and guidance, inasmuch as I am a man of improvident habits and incapable of accumulating and saving the goods of this world." Many a man, if he were to tell the truth, would say as much in praise of his wife. It is a careless observer of human society who does not see many families where the prosperity is plainly attributable to the economy, sense, judgment, and devotion of the wife. Not all are ready to acknowledge it, nor would a wise woman require it, in word. Wendell Phillips tells of a woman who brought her husband fifty thousand dollars, and was foolish enough to put it in his hands without reserve. When he died he left it to her, "so long as she remained his widow."

The Democrats and Republicans of Elk county seem to grasp the situation this year and are trying to get the best men attainable for candidates this fall, and are after the occupants of the editorial chairs of Ridgway for material. John R. Dixon, of the Democrat, has been nominated for Assembly, and Will H. Baker, of the Advocate, is a candidate for State Senator. Heretofore Elk county has been so strongly Democratic that the man who was fortunate enough to "stand in" and get the nomination was always sure of being elected. Howsome-ever, the people do not seem to be all of one mind, politically, over there now, and, hence, the time has arrived when the victory will not be so easily obtained. Personally, we are not well acquainted with Bro. Dixon, but believe he would make a good Representative for Elk county. We are personally acquainted with Bro. Baker and know he would, if elected, be a credit to Elk county in the Senate chamber. He has the ability. Mr. Baker can rost assured that if he wins it will only be after a decidedly hot campaign. Both men are well acquainted with the wants of Elk

The Blatherskite.

(Punxsutawney Spirit.)

A female blatherskite is commonly termed a gossip, while the man who stands around talking about his neighbors is only an ordinary blatherskite. These rattleheaded people, having no conspicious merits or virtues of their own, realize it in a vague sense, and feeling that they cannot arise to the level of respectability themselves, seek to make themselves less contemptible by degrading their neighbors. No man or woman of education or refinement would think for a moment of driveling away his or her time in idle gossip. They have nobler and better things to occupy their minds. The self-constituted censure of public morals is therefore invariably a person of weak and vulgar intellect. The reputation of a human being is more valuable to him than life itself and the retailor of scandal, who makes a business of saying mean things about his fellows is morally worse than the assassin who lurks in the shadows waiting an opportunity to stab you in the back.

Ayer's Ague Cure is an antidote for malaria and all malarial diseases, whether generated by swamp or sewer. Neither quinine, arsenic, nor any other injurious drug enters into the composition of this remedy. Warranted to cure fever and ague.
