Ohio Militia Defend a Fiend at a Fearful Cost.

Two persons killed outright, four fatally hurt, one of whom has since died and several injured are the results of an infuriated mob or eitigens who at Washington C. H., O., tried to wrest Jasper Dolby from the arms of the law and wreak summary punishment upon him for his confessed crime. The killed are:

fatally.

William Sams, shot through the bowels fatally. George Keating, aged 14, shot through both legs and groin, will die. F. L. Nitterhouse, an old and prominent citizen, shot through both ankles. A fail list of the wounded cannot be had, as they were taken away promptly. William Dolby, colored, one week ago, criminally assaulted Mrs. Mary C. Boyd, aged 65, at Parrots station, near Washington court house, was captured at Delaware, G., and brought into court at 4 o'clock Wed-needby afternoon. An augry mob gathered about the jail Wednesday afternoon after Dolby had been identified by his victim, and Sheriff Cook called to his assistance the local militia company.

which are really one building, yelling "Yoon him, "lynch him," The erowd surged closer and closer to the steps at the north and main entrance, becom-ing bolder and bolder as the darkness in-creased. Col. Colt addressed them or rather attempted to do so, but they would not listen to him. He shouled that he would have to order the soldiers to fire if they did not fall back. The mob paid no attention to the colonel's words, and, securing a battering ram, began to beat down the court house door. When the door foil and the mob start-ed to rush in Col. Colt gave the order to fire. A line of muskets leveled at the mob rang rout, a flash of light and cloud of smoke foi-lowed, and the mob field like frightened sheep, leaving the dead and wounded as the only evidence of the murderous mission than sheep, leaving the dead and wounded as the only evidence of the murderous mission than a few minutes before had packed the street it front of the court house.

Some space in the report is devoted to the contract trials of the new vessels, and parti-cularly the success attending the hazardous and original experiment of fitting cruisers with triple serves as was done with the Columbia and Minneapolis. As a result these vessels stand unrivaled to-day and un-approached in speed by any vessel afloat, except the torpedo boats.
