Scrofula is one of the most fatal among the scourges which afflict mankind. Chronic sores, cancerous humors, emaciation, and consumption, are the result of scrofula. Ayer's Sarsaparilla eradicates this poison, and restores, to the blood, the elements of life and health.

Several of the teachers in the Reynolds block tried to make their rooms appear cosy and home-like by having potted plants in the windows and a few pictures on the walls. While the teachers were at the county institute, so we have been informed, that the man who owns the building, entered the rooms and took down the pictures and burned them.

When the work train from Big Soldier was drawing near Prescottville Monday evening a big fight occurred on the train. An American and Italian started the fight and four or five other men took part in the fracas. One Italian was knocked off the train, but as the train was running slow he escaped serious injury. The excitement was great for a short time.

Greteno Macro, the Italian groceryman, asked a fellow countryman for a bill of thirty dollars one day last week and the debtor "punched" the creditor for asking for money. After being incarcerated in the Reynoldsville bastle for a time the Italian repented of his naughty trick and was willing to pay all costs and liquidate the indebtedness if given his liberty.

Henry A. Reed, the shoe man, has rented his store room to Mrs. S. B. Gilbloom, of Punxsutawney, Pa., who intends opening up a clothing store on January 1st, 1895. Every shoe must be sold in order to vacate said rooms. Money saved by all who buy shoes of Henry A. Reed. Dedication will be public and all friends of patriotism are cordially invited to be present. Meeting both afternoon and evening at which good speakers, prominent in the order, will be present and deliver public addresses. Dinner and supper will be served in the hall by members of the camp.

The clown band connected with F. D. Straffin's "Bates Bros." new up to date Humpty Dumpty company, which appears at the opera house to-night, will parade the principal streets only at noon to-day. As this is one of the strongest musical organizations traveling, besides making things lively in their roles as clowns, it is worth coming miles to see. Don't forget to bring the children to see Carmanca, the $2,000 trick donkey.

We do not believe in waiting until after a crime is committed before giving the warning notice. Reynoldsville has within her borders a fellow who deserves to have notice served on him so emphatic that he will not soon forget it, that should he ever make another vile proposition to a little girl of Reynoldsville, as he did recently, and then attempt to entice the girl into the trap set for her by offering her a poke of candy, that he will be dealt with roughly.

Five and Costs.

Six boys were tried before Esq. Neff Monday afternoon for trespassing on the property of F. Luderer, in Prescottville, and carrying boards from his barn to build for themselves a shanty to rendezvous in. The plaintiff claimed five dollars damage which, after hearing the evidence, the honorable court granted and the boys, or their parents, will liquidate that amount.

No, with Big Letters.

Some person started the report that C. Mitchell was talking up a clay pipe factory for Reynoldsville. A representative of THE STAR entered Mr. Mitchell's office Monday afternoon and inquired if there was any truth in the report. The law expounder whirled around in his easy chair to face the inquirer and emphatically ejaculated: "Clay pipe factory!" The look and tone of the gentleman settled the question. As the reporter was making a hasty exit through the hole made by the carpenter, Mitchell yelled, NO!

Miners Sentenced.

The seven miners who were tried in the Elk county court last week for burning tipples and placing bombs under buildings at the Kaul & Hall coal works near Centerville during the strike last June, were sentenced last Friday by Judge Mayer as follows: Frank Myers, Ludwig Rosenbeck and Wm. Geitner, seven years of separate and solitary confinement, and hard labor, in Allegheny penitentiary; Joe Kreidler and Wessel Swinter, five years of separate and solitary confinement in the Allegheny penitentiary; Ed. Fox and Leo Wurm, three years of separate and solitary confinement, and hard labor, in the states prison.

New Firm.

The dissolution notice of Sykes, Allis & Moorhouse was published in this paper last week, the two last named gentlemen retiring from the woolen mill firm. On Monday of this week W. B. Alexander, the banker, and James B. Arnold, who for years has been a merchant of Reynoldsville, each one bought a third interest in the woolen mill. The firm now is Sykes, Alexander & Arnold, and the name of the firm will be the Reynoldsville Woolen Co. The new firm proposes to double the capacity of the plant and put more push in it than ever before. There is no reason why it should not become a big industry.

Thanksgiving Services.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Presbyterian church to-morrow at 10:30 A. M. The sermon will be preached by Rev. E. Lewis Kelley. His text will be from the 72 Psalm and 15 verse: "And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba; prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised." Heretofore a small number, comparatively, have been attending the Thanksgiving services. When three or four churches join in a Thanksgiving service the attendance should be so large that no church in town would accommodate the congregation. It is to be hoped the professed christians will feel they have something to be thankful for and that they will show evidence of their gratitude by being found among the worshippers in the Presbyterian church to-morrow morning.

Too Much Strong Drink.

A specimen of what results from imbibing too often and lingering too long over the intoxicating cup, meandered the streets of Reynoldsville last week clad in the apparel of a tourist, commonly called tramp. The man had a red nose and his left eye was trimmed in black as a result of running against some other fellow's fist. The man was certainly a tough looking customer. His vocabulary was well stocked with fine language, and yet he could be as profane as any street arab that ever tread the marts of a large city. The man claimed to be a graduate of Yale College, and yet the appetite for an indulgence in strong drink has made him a companion of tramps and vagabonds. John Barley Corn has knocked many a brilliant man into a total wreck, and the man who wrestles too long with the demon is bound to find himself under some day.

Novelty Works.

The novelty works for Reynoldsville are now an assured thing. Forty-five of the fifty shares at $50.00 a share were taken up to noon yesterday and the other five shares will soon be disposed of, if they have not already been taken. The works will be started on a capital of $2,500. The stockholders will meet in Dr. Hoover's dental rooms next Tuesday night and elect officers and get ready to do business. It is likely that the works for the present will occupy the store rooms in Centennial Hall. Among the articles to be manufactured will be the dustless eraser and the lodge ballot box patented by W. J. Weaver of this place. We are pleased to note that we are to have novelty works in Reynoldsville. All such establishments are a benefit to our town and increase the valuation of property. We hope the spirit of enterprise manifested may leave the whole town until the place resounds with the hum of industry. There is no reason why the novelty works, or any other kind of works, will not pay in Reynoldsville.

Train Discontinued.

It was mentioned in THE STAR last week that the B. R. & P. R'y would issue a new schedule to take effect on the 25th inst. and that the company proposed to discontinue the morning and evening passenger trains between Reynoldsville and Falls Creek. Two of our business men took a petition to Rochester the first of last week and interviewed Mr. Merchant, vice-president of the B. R. & P. R'y. Mr. Merchant used the committee very nicely, and said the train was paying the company, but that he thought it would be better to run the train to Punxsutawney, and also said Punxsutawney was more in need of the train than Reynoldsville, because the people of the latter place had a morning and evening train on the A. V. R'y, while the Punxsutawney people had no early and late trains. Of course it is an undeniable fact that Punxsy was more in need of the train, so far as that goes, than Reynoldsville, but the people of this place are looking after the interests of our own town and not Punxsy's, hence, they were loath to see the train discontinued. Tuesday afternoon Mr. Merchant told the committee the train would not be taken off for the present at least. The very next day a message was received at this place that the train would be discontinued after the 24th inst.

Methodist Election.

An election was held in room No. 1 of the M. E. church last evening. Five years ago the members of this church voted on whether women should be delegates to the General Conference of the church. By action of the General Conference in that women are ineligible to membership in the Lay Electoral and General Conference. The General Conference resolved to submit to the annual conferences the proposition to amend the Second Restrictive Rule of the Discipline by adding the words "and said delegates must be male members" after the words "two lay delegates for an annual conference," so that it will read: "Nor of more than two lay delegates for an annual conference, and said delegates must be male members." All members of the church over twenty-one years old were entitled to vote.

Not Guilty.

It will be remembered by the readers of THE STAR that over a half hundred of Crenshaw miners were arrested at Shawmut last June on a charge of unlawful assembly and riot, and were taken to Ridgway and packed into jail where they were compelled to remain for a number of days, and afterwards all but six were released on their own recognizance. The six being placed under $1,000 bail. These men were tried in the Elk county court last week. The grand jury found a true bill against them. Judge Mayer took the case away from the jury and acquitted all the men but eight who forfeited their recognizance some weeks ago and departed for Italy. These the Judge found guilty as indicated as a sort of vindication of the court for the action taken.

Too Abusive.

Wm. Fairman, the strawberry blonde lawyer of Punxsutawney, will likely be his own attorney in a case of assault which he is tangled in. According to a statement in the Spirit of last week, Fairman was trying a case before a Squire of Punxsutawney when a witness said something that Fairman construed as a misstatement of facts and he called the witness a liar and the witness returned the compliment, whereupon Fairman struck the man and knocked him over. Fairman may have been in the right this time, but he is entirely too free with abusive language when trying cases in the Jefferson county court and it is high time that Judge Clarke requests William to desist from abusing people simply because he has them in his power.

Humpty Dumpty.

Bates Bros. new up to date pantomime company presented the acceptable pantomime of Humpty Dumpty to big audiences afternoon and evening yesterday in Opera House. The tricks, novel and ludicrous situations and specialties introduced, kept up an incessant ripple of merriment throughout the performances. Each one of the company was an artist and delineated the character taken to perfection. The clown band and orchestra with the company were superior to most of the musical organizations which accompany traveling troupes, and entertained the audiences with some fine music.—Norwich Conn., Bulletin. At the opera house to-night, Nov. 28th. Tickets on sale at Stoke's.

W. E. Lenney is having such an increase in his business that he intends staying two weeks longer, closing Dec. 8th, and he guarantees his pictures at $1.00 per doz.

Don't forget that all the ladies will be presented with a beautiful souvenir at C. F. Hoffman's opening Dec. 5th.

Boys' suits from $1.00 up at the People's Bargain Store.

Save money by buying your boots and shoes at Arnold's, below coat.

Church members who never smile will some day find out how much harm they have done.

Phonographical.

Wonderful and highly entertaining was the phonograph concert given by Prof. Lyman H. Howe at Plymouth church Thursday, under the auspices of Y. P. S. C. E. The good-sized audience evinced its gratification by the demonstrations of approval of the various numbers on the programme as they were rendered by the wonderful machine. Enlivening marches and other pieces, as rendered by the famous Twenty-third Regiment and United States Marine bands were reproduced with pleasing effect. Two cornet solos were excellent, while the piccolo solo—"Bobolink Schottische"—to the whistling solo of a Washington artist, imitating the bobolink and other birds, were simply incomparable. Considerable of a humorous variety was furnished by the Professor, notably "A Pathetic Vocal Record," introducing the midnight wailing of an infant; "A Barnyard episode," "Darkey Tickled," several comic songs, etc., not the least comical being the remarks of Rev. Dr. Packard and Mr. Jones, which were immediately reproduced by the phonograph, to the delight of the audience and the evident pleasure of the gentlemen themselves.—Syracuse Daily Journal, Nov. 3rd, 1894.

Prof. Howe will be at Centennial Hall with his phonograph Dec. 5th.

Turned the Joke.

Treasurer John Waite is not a large man, physically speaking, and he is not sensitive on that point either, enjoying a joke about his diminutiveness as well as any body. Perhaps it is this fact that makes it more noticeable, as he is not at all remarkable for his smallness. A visitor at a dime museum, looking at an alleged giant said to the manager, "why that is no giant. That fellow is below the medium height." "That's it—that's it," replied the manager, "that is the curious thing about him. That, sir, is the smallest giant on earth." But, as we were saying, some of the school teachers were amusing themselves at Mr. Waite's expense last week at institute by getting divers and sundry strangers to go to the Treasurer's office and inquire of that official if his father was in, pretending that they thought Johnny was the Treasurer's son. But Mr. Waite soon caught onto the game, and when a farmer would come in and ask him where his father was Mr. Waite would tell the gentleman just to sit down and wait until he came in.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Beechwoods Tragedies.

Miss Mary R. Niver, of Brockwayville, had an article in the Pittsburg Dispatch of recent date in which the tragedies which have occurred on the old Billy McDonald farm in the Beechwoods are graphically recited. The first was the suicide of old Tommy Moore, who blew his brains out with his rifle. The second was the suicide of Billy McDonald himself, who cut his throat with a razor. The third and last was the murder of his wife "Betty" by Dean Graves and Charles Chase, who robbed her of several hundred dollars which she kept in a wooden box. Chase was hanged at Brookville, August 23, 1867, the first and only judicial execution in the history of Jefferson county. Dean Graves was arrested in Michigan in October following, and brought to Brookville for trial. He was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to eleven years and eight months in the penitentiary.

Beautiful Monuments.

E. E. Stewart spent last week in Summerville setting cemetery work for the Baldwin Brothers and Mrs. Jack. Mr. David Baldwin got a large family monument of dark quincy granite of the Sarcophagus style, and Mr. James Baldwin and Mrs. Jack one of square design, of gray granite, jointly, for their two families. The two brothers and sister united in erecting a monument of light quincy granite to the memory of their father and mother, Alonzo Baldwin and wife, who were among the first settlers of that section of Jefferson Co. These, with neat marble markers to the graves of their five brothers and the deceased members of their own families, completed the work, amounting in all in the neighborhood of one thousand dollars, and added very much to the appearance of the Summerville cemetery.

He comes from Indiana county where he taught school for eight years.

G. Allen Prescott, Senator-elect of Michigan state, and an old school-mate of ye editor, made us a pleasant call one day last week. Senator Prescott is not a thoroughbred politician, this being the first office he ever aspired to. The Senators of Michigan state are paid at the rate of three dollars per day during the time they are in session. About all there is in it to occupy a seat in the Senate chamber of that state is the honor connected with it. In Pennsylvania Senators get ten dollars a day. Mr. Prescott can ably look after the interest of his constituents.

Blasts from Ram's Horn

Do you ever pray for people you talk about?

The devil joins church somewhere every Sunday.

People who hunt for faults seldom find anything else.

A starving man will not find fault with the table cloth.

There are some very good people who love to tell bad news.

It is much easier to be contented without wealth than it is with it.

Some people stop praying the minute they put their hands on money.

A lie is the meanest thing the devil ever turned loose among men.

The surest way to get a man to pay right is to get him to pray right.

The devil seldom puts on mourning when a stingy man joins the church.

Whenever a lazy man looks towards Heaven the angels close the windows.

You can't keep people from wanting water by throwing stones at the pump.

Egotism always looks at his "neighbor" through the wrong end of the telescope.

There is now and then a man in the church who is afraid the devil is being slandered.

It is remarkable how many different kinds of fish the devil can catch when he baits his hook with money.
