

A WOMAN'S NERVES.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN TO WHOM NOISE WAS TORTURE.

Prostrated by the Least Excitement—Physicians Baffled by Her Case.

(From the Gate City, Keokuk, Iowa.)

Mrs. Helen Meyers, whose home is at 3515 Vernon avenue, Chicago, and whose visit to Keokuk, Ia., will long be remembered, was at one time afflicted with a nervous malady which at times drove her nearly to distraction. "Those terrible headaches are a thing of the past," she said the other day to a Gate City representative, "and there is quite a story in connection with it too."

"My nervous system sustained a great shock some fifteen years ago, brought on, I believe, through too much worrying over family matters, and then allowing my love for my books to get the better of my discretion when my health was concerned. Why, whenever my affairs at home did not go along just as I expected, I would invariably become prostrated from the excitement and I would consider myself fortunate indeed if the effects of the attack would not remain for a week. I was obliged to give up our pleasant home not far from the Lake shore drive, because I could not stand the noise in that locality. I could find no place in the city which I deemed suitable to one whose nervous system was always on the point of explosion. To add to my misfortunes my complexion underwent a change and I looked so yellow and sallow that I was ashamed to venture from the house at all."

"Madam," said my doctor to me soon after an unusually severe attack of the malady, "unless you leave the city and seek some place of quiet, you will never recover." So I concluded I would visit my uncle, who lives in Dallas County, Iowa, and whose farm would surely be a good place for one in my miserable condition. I picked up the Gate City one day and happened to come across an interesting recital of the recovery of some woman in New York State who was afflicted as I had been. This woman had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I thought that if Pink Pills cured that woman they might do the same for me. I began to take the pills according to directions and I began to feel better from the start. After I had taken several boxes of the pills I was ready to go back to Chicago. My nervousness was gone and my complexion was as fresh as that of any sixteen-year-old girl in Iowa, and I Pink Pills is what put the color in my cheeks. No wonder I am in such high spirits and feel like a prize fighter. And no wonder I like to come to Keokuk for if it had not been for Pink Pills brought from a Keokuk firm I would not have been alive now."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are for sale by all druggists, or may be had by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

Paris Ever Famous.

Paris was a famous and cultivated city ages before Venice. If we search for them, we may find in it historical associations that may vie with those of any city in the world, except Rome and Constantinople; and even its antiquarian and artistic remains are seldom equaled or surpassed. At Rome, Florence, or Venice, the tourist talks of old churches, palaces, and remains; at Paris he gives himself up to the boulevards, the theaters, shops, and races. The profoundly instructive history, the profuse antiquarian remains of the great city, are forgotten—careless quia vate sacro.—The Spectator.

Cataract Cannot Be Cured

With local applications, cataract cannot reach the seat of the disease. Cataract is a local constitutional disease and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Cataract cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Cataract cure is not a quick medicine. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing cataract. Send for testimonials free.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

Important Measures Considered by Our Lawmakers.

Tuesday.—Senator Flinn introduced a bill amending the act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities and to provide for the redemption of the same and impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof. Senator Steel introduced a bill providing for the incorporation of companies to construct underground passenger railways.

Wednesday.—The legislature got down to business to-day, and there was much activity both houses. Senators unburdened themselves of a big batch of bills. Mr. Flinn presented a petition from the county of Allegheny in opposition to the greater Pittsburgh bill. In the house Mr. Cotton, of Allegheny, introduced a bill for the execution of murderers by electricity, similar to the New York arrangement; also one providing for an appropriation of $45,000 for the Allegheny General Hospital, and $20,000 for a new wing to the building.

Thursday.—A new legislative apportionment bill was introduced by the House by Mr. Culbertson, of Allegheny, chairman of the Legislative Apportionment Committee. The measure gives Allegheny county four members, two instead of one in the East End district, and two instead of one in the Sixth, and an additional member in the Eighth. The Fifth is divided into two districts and is given two additional members, one each in the new districts. Philadelphia, Jefferson and Cambria are each given an additional member, while Somerset, Lawrence, Bedford, Schuylkill, Clarion, Chester, Huntingdon and Crawford each lose one. A bill was introduced by Mr. Mackrell, of Allegheny, amending the Brooks license law so as to prevent wholesale liquor dealers from selling liquor in less quantities than a gallon. Other bills were introduced as follows: Stinegar, Cambria, abolishing days of grace, and providing that notes, drafts, etc., falling due on Sundays or a legal holiday, may be due the next business day. A bill offered by Weyand, of Beaver, appropriates $15,000 for a wall and fill in the washout at Bridgewater, Beaver county, caused by the erection of a dam by the Pennsylvania Canal Company. Mr. Fow, of Philadelphia, made an aggressive fight against the bill, which was on the third reading, providing for the publication of the famous "Bird Book." The bill when passed the last two sessions of legislature was vetoed by Gov. Pattison. Mr. Fow said the publication of this book would be a useless waste of money. The members of the rural districts urge the passage of the bill, claiming that it was of as much importance as any other State publication, especially to the farmer.

Friday.—A bill was introduced by Mr. Cochran, of Armstrong, appropriating $3,000 to mark the point where the Penn purchase line intersects the Allegheny river at Kittanning. Mr. Williams presented a bill making it unlawful for any individual or corporation to prevent any employe from belonging to or joining a labor organization, and providing for a punishment by a fine not exceeding $200, or imprisonment of not less than six months, for violation of the proposed act. A resolution was introduced as follows: Mr. Baldwin, appropriating $25,000 for erecting a monument upon the battlefield of Brandywine. Mr. Young, providing for a representation on the board of trustees of State Normal schools of three members of the alumni of the school when they have been in operation five years. A resolution was offered by Mr. Lawrence, of Washington, which was adopted, requesting the State treasurer to furnish the House with a statement of all moneys paid by the State College since its existence.

KEYSTONE STATE COLLINGS

POSTMASTER ACQUITTED.

Items of Interest From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

Clearfield has a family remarkable on account of its longevity. Patrick and Elizabeth Porter, who came to this country from Ireland 45 years ago, were parents of six living children and all but one of whom are residents of this place. Their ages average 82 years. Mrs. Elizabeth Livingston, the eldest daughter, will be 90 years of age next month. Wm. Porter, the oldest son, has passed his 88th year, and his second sister, Mrs. Jane Bissett, is 84. Robert, who resides near Curwensville, and John of Clearfield, are 72 and 73 respectively, while Sarah, the youngest daughter, is 72. Patrick, the father, died at 75 and the wife at 72.

SETTLEMENT PROBLEMS.

The prospects for a speedy settlement of the coal miners' strike at DuBois, are apparently very good. The men are willing to work on short time, if their comrades who were recently discharged, are taken back. Mr. Elliott, the general manager for Bell, Lewis & Yates, the owners of the mines in which the strike is in progress, has gone to Buffalo to lay the proposition from the men before the members of the firm.

WIDENED HIS CHARGE.

George Sackett, postmaster at White Haven, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Hahn charged with violating the postal laws. Congressman Hines was the prosecutor. The postmaster was accused of destroying campaign literature sent out by Mr. Hines previous to the last election. The defendant was discharged for lack of evidence.

RAILWAY OVER ELECTRIC FIELD.

The Gettysburg electric railway, light power and heating company was sold to J. L. Murphy, of Chicago; and W. B. Kendall and John Connelly, of Philadelphia, for $250,000. The contract includes building a line over the first day's battle field, and through Little town to the Maryland line.

RAILROADS TO ADOPT ELECTRIC POWER.

The Ligonier Valley locomotive company intended to do away with its locomotive power save in the hauling of heavy freight, and substitute electric motor power. Besides this, it was decided to reduce the fare from 5 to 1 cent per mile. The road is 10 miles long, from Latrobe to Ligonier.

MUCH RELIGIOUS TERROR.

Great interest has been taken in the union special service being held by Evangelist Fort Scheverer, of Brooklyn, in Bradford. The services have been conducted for over a week and many people have been converted. The interest has extended to all classes.

NEW FRYING PAN.

A frying pan constructed on an improved principle has been invented by Inspector Ludbrooke, of the Great Western Railway, England. His pan consists of an outer plate of sheet iron and an inner one of burnished steel, and between the two is a thin layer of asbestos, the advantages claimed for it being that it cannot get overheated and burn the contents; that the fat will not splutter over the sides, and the juices of the meat are retained.

An Aitchison woman's poodle dog sports a glass eye.

All the Same.

"Many days you have lingered about my cabin door; hard times, hard times come again no more." All the same Merry Christmas and Happy New Year passed as though the land was flowing with milk and honey. Some bought one thing and some bought another, but one of the best investments for a small sum paid well. It was not for a Christmas bush, but thousands got it and thousands who had suffered long and wearily with rheumatism were made doubly happy in being cured by St. Jacobs Oil. It leaves no trace behind, and all the same, the harder times will come no more to them. The luxury of health is worth a fortune.

If the present rate keeps up, all the men will finally be lawyers, and all the women stenographers.

A Gentle Corrective

is what you need when your liver becomes inactive. It's what you get when you take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets; they're free from the violence and the griping that come with the ordinary pill. The best medical authorities agree that in regulating the bowels mild methods are preferable. For every derangement of the liver, stomach and bowels, these tiny, sugar coated pills are most effective. They go about their work in an easy and unobtrusive way, and their good lasts. Once used, they are always in favor. Being composed of the choicest, concentrated, vegetable extracts, they cost much more than other pills found in the market, yet from forty to forty-five are put up in each sealed glass vial, as sold through druggists, at the price of the cheaper made pills.

"Pleasant Pellets" cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in sealed glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. Whether as a laxative, or in larger doses, as a gently acting but searching cathartic, these little "Pellets" are unequalled.

As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve the distress arising from over-eating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets." They are tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules. Any child readily takes them. Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

A free sample (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

Greenie county seems to have the call just at present on new oil strikes. Interest aroused by the McCalmont Oil Company's strike on the McClure farm had scarcely subsided when the South Penn Oil Company entered in a new attraction in new territory, located seven miles southwest of Waynesburg, on the H. M. Spragg farm. The well was drilled into the Big Injun sand Monday and developed oil insufficient quantity to indicate that it will make a good producer.

Two burglars broke into the residence of Thomas Akins, near Dennison, and taking his double-barreled shotgun forced him to leave the house in his night clothes while they ransacked it for money and other valuables. It is not known exactly how much money was secured, but a considerable sum. Akins lived alone.

At a Hungarian christening near Wilkesbarre, Sunday night, fourteen men participated in a sanguinary fight. Revolvers and knives were freely used, and five men were badly stabbed. Two of them, Michael Falco and John Miniski, will die.

At Greensburg Judge Doty refused a new trial to John Good, who shot Mack Slaughter at Alice mines, and who was found guilty of murder in the first degree. He then sentenced him to death.

Charles Keeler, a demented man, who mysteriously disappeared from his home in Beaver Falls, six weeks ago, was brought back and taken to Hiramston insane asylum.

Harry Brennanman and John Dernaik were killed and two others injured by a boiler explosion, which occurred at the 40-inch mill in the Carnegie Steel Works at Homestead.

The Democratic city convention of Philadelphia unanimously nominated ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison as candidate for mayor.

At Sharon, the Shenango Valley street railway company's safe was blown open and ransacked of $30 in money and some valuables.

J. Linn McPherson, of Clearfield, a war veteran and wealthy lumber dealer, was accidentally killed by the premature explosion of his gun.

Samuel Todd, 6 years old, was burned to death at Greensburg, by his clothes catching fire from a grate.

Henry Minzer, a prosperous farmer living near Hadley, put an end to ill-health by sending a bullet into his heart.

Sarah Folan, a domestic in the employ of Mrs. Ellis Bailey, of Uniontown, was burned to death by a lamp explosion.

Eighty men were thrown out of work and a loss of $2,000 caused by the burning of the Gilmore coal tippie at Webster.

John Hart, of Philadelphia, was fatally injured, his two horses killed and wagon demolished by a Long Branch train.

Lewis Johnston was instantly killed at the Oil City tube works by coming in contact with the electrical apparatus.

The Mustache. It is Spain that is credited with the origin of the mustache. At a period after the Moorish invasion, when the Christian and Moslem populations became so mixed that it was hard to say which were Moors and which Spaniards, the pious Spaniards hit upon the mustache as a means of identification. They permitted the hair on the upper lip to grow, and also a tuft on the under lip, an outline of the cross being thus formed.

Vast Armaments of Europe. Thirteen million bayonets prop up the Czar's throne. That is the full strength of the Russian army on a war footing. Germany comes next, but after a long interval, with 3,700,000 soldiers; Italy has 3,155,000 and France 2,850,000, excluding 850,000 auxiliaries. Austria's fine army, which in quality is reckoned scarcely second to Kaiser Wilhelm's, contains a maximum of 1,704,175 men. England at home and in her colonies can mobilize a force of 662,000. The little martial republic of Switzerland can summon 480,000 soldiers to her banners in an emergency, and even poverty-cursed Spain boasts of 400,000. Austria, of all the powers, has the most burdensome military establishment. Her annual expenditures on her army are $255,000,000, while Russia's, with an army seven times as large, are only $185,000,000, and Germany's $115,000,000. In proportion to size, England's army is perhaps the most costly. Her 662,000 men require $89,000,000 annually for their support, or only $38,000,000 less than the amount which provides France with an enormous host of more than four times England's numbers.—Boston Journal.

The Case Altered. The sort of sentiment which the French system of marriages de convenience, or in plain English, of marriage for money, produces is well illustrated by a story which a French paper tells. Marie, a young lady, announces to her parents that she has accepted the hand of Monsieur X.

"Child, you are crazy!" exclaims Marie's mother.

"Young X will have no money for many years, because it all belongs to his grandfather, and after that comes his father, and you will be old before you get at the property."

"But, mamma—"

"No buts about it—you are a bad and ungrateful child!"

"But, mamma, it is the grandfather whom I've accepted!"

"The grandfather! Oh, you little angel!"

Chemistry of Ill-Temper. Prof. Gates, of Washington, has entered upon an almost unknown domain of psychological science. He claims to have made the discovery that the emotions produce a physical reaction which discloses itself to chemical tests, and that the benevolent sensibilities, such as kindness, cheerfulness, etc., exert a good effect on the bodily health, while the malevolent feelings exert a correspondingly bad effect.

Do Not Sleep on the Left Side.

There is little doubt that an immense number of persons habitually sleep on the left side, and those who do so can never, it is said, be strictly healthy. It is the most prolific cause of nightmare, and also of the unpleasant taste in the mouth on arising in the morning. All food enters and leaves the stomach on the left side soon after eating involves a sort of pumping operation, which is anything but conducive of sound repose. The action of the heart is also seriously interfered with and the lungs unduly compressed. Hence it is best to cultivate the habit of always sleeping on the right side, although Sandow and other strong men are said to invariably sleep on their backs.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age.

KENNEDY'S Medical Discovery.

DONALD KENNEDY, of ROXBURY, MASS.

Get this Letter day before yesterday.

Penn. Yan, N. Y., Nov. 28, 1894.

My Discovery has done so much for me I am only too glad to tell everybody about it.

When I began taking it, one year ago last July, I had DYSPEPSIA in its worst form. I was constipated, so much so as to always use injections, and I had a constant PAIN in my STOMACH and LEFT SIDE. My knees were stiff, and I could not sit down on a stool or get down to lie anything on the floor. But now I can sit, or get down on my knees, or do anything in my garden. I feel like a new person. You must know I was discouraged, as I have lost two sisters and an older brother with STOMACH TROUBLE. But I truly believe if they had known of your remedies they would be well, as I am. You can fix up my letter to suit yourself, only do publish it, that women may know what the Discovery has done for me. Yours truly,

Mrs. MARY C. AYRES.
