A child four years old died at L is nring. Pa., a few days ago from n'eotine poisoning. It had smoked since it was two years of age. This is worthy of notice by some Reynoldsville parents.

A bill has been introduced into the house repealing the act that now gives the taxes assessed on dogs to school purposes. If the repeal is secured said dog taxes will be turned into the county treasury.

Dr. Parkhurst's first article to women in The Ladies' Home Journal has proved so popular that the entire huge edition of the February issue of the magazine was exhausted within ten days, and a second edition of 45,000 copies has been printed.

The bill to make Jefferson county a separate judicial district, has passed the Senate finally and is now in the House of Representatives, Jefferson county contains the necessary population to entitle her to a separate district, and it is expected the bill will pass and receive the Governor's signature.

It was an old negro who remarked he had noticed that if he pulled through February he always pulled through the rest of the year. Those who are lucky enough to pull through the present February may certainly have little apprehension of any other weather that 1895 may have in store for them.

The citizens of Johnstown want the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to tear down the historic stone bridge that spans the Conemaugh and build an iron bridge. The people are afraid of a repetition of the 1889 disaster in times of high water. Legal proceedings will be brought against the company if the bridge is not removed.

Two boys over in Westmoreland county played truant from school last Wednesday to go skating, and afterwards concluded to take a tramp, fearing to return home after playing "hookey," and were frozen to death. A few Reynoldsville boys play "hookey" but they never become conscience-smitten over it and want to run away from home.

A Pine township farmer whose name we have forgotten was surprised last Friday morning when he went to the barn to "tend the stock." In the cow shed he found three deer and in the

Don't forget the b - k r ception 22nd inst. The regular pr gram of recitatations will be carri d out until noon. At one o'clock the b 11 will ring and at half-past one the exercises in the Primary and Intermediate schools will begin; the exercises, consisting of recitations, singing, etc., will continue about an hour, at which time the pupils will be dismissed to join in the general reception.

Persons attending the reception, will be ushered, by request, either to the Primary school, to listen to the exercises there, or to the Grammar school. where work from the different rooms. such as map drawing, busy work, compositions, examination tablets, etc., will be on exhibition. Work of some kind. from every pupil in the school, will be exhibited. This will afford a good opportunity for parents to investigate the vork of their children.

Although it is customary on such occasions to present the school with a book, we extend a cordial invitation to all, who are interested in education, to attend whether they present a book to the school or not.

The following is a report of the school for the fifth month, which ended Tuesday, 12th inst:

The Executive committee of the Wee mans' Christian Temperance Uni-Jefferson county met at the here of Miss Amelia Chark, Brookville, F b. ing was enjoyed by all. The county most liberal and this cloor ray i first- officers and superintendents of digartments were rearly all present and ech union in the county was repres and, except Punxsutawney. The m ting was strictly business. Among the matters considered was the law concerning "the custody of minor childe n." A letter was prepared and signed by all present to send to our representatives asking them to use their influence and vote for the "proposed amendm nt" to the present law. We were ask d to take up the "Industrial Reform Department" but inasmuch as the 'Co-Children's Aid Scelety" is engaged n this work, we leave it to them, folling that they will have nothing undone. We are a unit so far as the onlire prohibition of the liquor traffic gee, but, under existing circumstances, we favor local option feeling it is the next best thing to do, but we will never be satisfied until the license system and the accursed traffic is swept out of existence. We very much disapprove of the bill now before the L gislature asking that the minor who purchases or attempts to purchase liquor shall be fined and imprisoned, while the vender goes free, and pray this bill may not As a union we heartily approve DASS. of the bill before the Legislature forbidding one person to treat another to intoxicants. If treating was done away with there would not be so much liquor consumed.

Our Locals are asked to pay strict attention to the "Honor Roll" and let each member of the W. C. T. U. endeavor to secure a new member during the year. As the next convention will be our tenth anniversary, there will be a special anniversary program prepared for one evening.

The Local unions are asked to keep a correct account of all the money spent in connection with the temperance work and report the same to the Co. Cor. Sec., and are advised to pay no money outside the county except State and National dues during the present vear.

Honorable V. B. Cushing is to spend one week in Jefferson county lecturing for the W. C. T. U., probably in the month of May. After closing with prayer, the Executive committee adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

The most eloquent thing on earth is a spotless Christian character. All truth is nonsonse to the man who has taken a lie into his heart. Some m n join church with no better motive than others rob a bank. The devil can always find time to rock the crad! of a sleepy Christian. The sin we hide in ourselves is the one we strike at the hardest in others. The devil loves a grumbler, no matter whether he belongs to the church or not. We need more of the kind of reform that does not go a thousand miles from home to b gin work.

The man who serves Christ for gain will betray him as soon as he can get a better price. It will not do any good to pray for ten talents if you are not improving your one talent. The door of salvation is always open but it is not God's purpose to drive any body through it.

Two for One.

We are making a special offer to each of our readers paying a year's subscription to the STAR in advance, and to all new subscribers paying in advance, we will give them the best local paper in Jefferson county and will give them free, either the Womankind or Amertcan Farmer, for one year. The two papers above mentioned are excellent monthly papers and the subscription price of each is 50c. a year. This offer is made only to those in Pennsylvania.

Judge Mayer, of Lock Haven, last week handed down the following opinions concerning constable's mileage and policemen's fees: Constables could only receive ten cents mileage direct, or one way only, when on official errands, and that one dollar only could be allowed police officers whether they committed one or more persons to jail on the same commitment. The decisions were handed down on cases regularly stated before the court to settle disputes relative to the payment of fees under the new law.

The State of Pennsylvania has been paying exorbitant prices for printing and Hon. W. O. Smith, who is taking an interest in the matter to save the State large sums of money, says the Legislature's hands are tied, according to the following clipped from Mr. Smith's paper: "The Constitution of Pennsylvania needs to be revised. It is in many of its provisions, a back number. It interferes with some wholesome and much needed legislation. We spent nearly all of last Friday in the State library with others thoroughly conversant with the State printing, obtaining information upon which to draw up a bill to establish a State printing office. We had canvassed the House on the subject, and everybody was in favor of it. After we had collected the data, and were just on the point of proceeding to the work of evolving the various sections of the bill, we accidentally stumbled onto Article 3, section 12, of the Constitution, which declares that all this work must be given out by contract. That settled it. The Legislature has no authority in the matter. Its hands are tied. We must continue to pay a quarter of a million dollars annually for work that might otherwise be done much cheaper, until the Consti-tation is amended."

Resolutions of Respects.

The following resolution were adopted by the Jr. O. U. A. M. of Deemer Cross Roads, at a meeting held February 15th, 1895:

ary 15th, 1895: WHERAS, It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst and from a world of suffering to a world of happiness, our esteemed brother, William Bush, Resolved, That by the death of Brother Bush our Council has lost a true and faithful worker, and though he will meet with us no more his influ-ence will be felt. Resolved, That while we deeply feel our loss and shall miss him in our Coun-cil chamber, we console ourselves with the thought that he has gone from us to reap his reward in Heaven. Resolved, That we tender the be-reaved family our heart felt sympathy in their deep sorrow and commend them to God in their affliction. Resolved, That our charter be draped for a period of thirty days, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bo-reaved family and a copy be sent to THE STAR of Reynoldsville for publica-tion. *F.W.
