

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance.
C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1895.

Travelers' Guide.

Passenger trains arrive and leave Reynoldsville as follows:
Allegheny Valley Railway.
Eastward. Westward.
Train 1. - 6:41 a. m. Train 6. - 7:40 a. m.
Train 2. - 1:00 p. m. Train 7. - 1:42 p. m.
Train 3. - 6:57 p. m. Train 10. - 8:45 p. m.

REYNOLDSVILLE POST-OFFICE.

Mails arrive and leave the post-office as follows:
Arrive. Depart.
FROM THE WEST. FOR THE EAST.
1:15 p. m. - 2:00 p. m. 12:30 p. m. - 6:30 p. m.
FROM THE EAST. FOR THE WEST.
8:00 a. m. - 2:00 p. m. 7:15 a. m. - 1:15 p. m.

A Little of Everything.

Some of these days all the skies will be brighter.
Some of these days all the burdens be lighter.
Some of these days hearts will be happier—souls will be whiter.
Some of these days!
Some of these days, in the deserts upspringing
Fountains shall flash, while the joy bells are ringing.
And the world—with its sweetness of birds
shall go singing—
Some of these days.
Some of these days! Let us bear with our sorrow
Faith in the future—its light we may borrow;
There will be joy, in the golden to-morrow—
Some of these days!
—Atlanta Constitution.

First day of spring.
St. Perkins March 22nd.
Advertise in THE STAR.

Easter Sunday April 14th.
Oats 42c per bushel at Swartz Bro's.
Jubilee Singers Monday, April 16th.
Corn 60c per bushel at Swartz Bro's.
The borough schools close April 8th.

St. Perkins at the opera house March 22nd.
Watch for the hayseed street parade next Friday.

Many a great man has been fooled by a bad friend.
Full line of children's underwaists at H. J. Nickle's.

It takes a rarely brave man to make an honest critic.
Cheap tinware, glassware and dishes at H. J. Nickle's.

The rural schools are all getting to the end thereof.
25 dozen men's working pants just in, at Deemer & Co's.

Milliren is giving you your initials in gold with each hat.
Jos. S. Morrow is selling off his stock at auction this week.

According to the almanac, this is the first day of spring.
Don't fail to come and see us on Friday, March 22. Deemer & Co.

We were in at Bing & Co's. It is a sight to see the fine dress goods.
Fifty cents on the dollar saved Friday, 22nd, on curtains at Deemer & Co's.

Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18.
Dan Sharp made his first round with sassafras root last Wednesday afternoon.

A good store room to rent in the opera house block. Enquire of J. S. Morrow.
We will sell during this week every day, lace curtains at reduced prices. Bing & Co.

The Guiding Star Lodge held a social in the G. A. R. hall Saturday and Monday evenings.
At King & Co's you will find haled hay, salt, flour and a full line of general merchandise.

A house and two lots for sale in West Reynoldsville. Enquire at this office for particulars.
We can save you big money if you buy chenille curtains from us. A. D. Deemer & Co.

No matter what may be said of the bald headed man it is a redeeming fact that he never dyes.
St. Perkins at the opera house next Friday evening. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of suiting we are making to order for $16. Bell, the clothier.

750 pairs of fine lace curtains will be sold at a sacrifice on Friday, March 22nd, at Deemer & Co's.

April 1st will be opening day at Glenn A. Milliren's new mammoth clothing store. Don't fail to attend this opening.

The Epworth League will hold a social at the residence of William Barkley on Jackson street next Friday evening.

Room No. 1 of the Prescottville school closed Thursday with appropriate "closing" exercises. Room No. 2 of the same school closes to-day.

The Odd Fellows will hold an anniversary at Punxsutawney April 26th. Arrangements are being made for reduced rates on railroads leading into that place.

All the elements which nature requires, to make the hair beautiful and abundant, are supplied in Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation keeps the scalp free from dandruff, prevents the hair from becoming dry and harsh, and makes it flexible and glossy.

We have got them—hundreds of pairs lace curtains for Friday, March 22nd. Deemer & Co.

It seems almost impossible to make a will that does not leave some lawyer a fat bequest.

Law sakes, think of it! Lace curtains bound all around for thirty cents a pair at Bing & Co's.

The Ram's Horn says you can't measure a man's religion by the length of his face on Sunday.

Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of suiting we are making to order for $16. Bell, the clothier.

First National bank, Ed. C. Burns, liverman, A. D. Deemer & Co. and H. S. Benlap are talking of having telephones put in their offices.

Last Wednesday afternoon the following harbingers of spring were seen on our streets: Dan Sharp and his armful of sassafras, two Italians and a bear, and boys playing marbles.

Quarterly meeting services will be held in the M. E. church next Saturday evening and Sunday. Communion after the preaching service Sunday morning. Love feast Sunday afternoon.

Builders look to your walls. "Adamant" is the perfection of wall plaster and is the result of a life devoted to scientific research. I can show you an interesting story about some of the imitation, H. Alex. Stoke, agent.

The town council was to have held a special meeting Monday evening, and met for that purpose, but did not do any business because the meeting was called illegally. The Burgess has something to say about special meetings and likely will have hereafter.

Now that the snow has gone what unsightly sights looms up before the eyes if one scans some of the back yards and alleys of this borough. It might not be out of place to hint that it would be a wise act to remove the accumulated filth of the winter.

A survey has been made for a railroad from Winterburn, twenty miles east of here on the A. V. R'y, to Anderson creek, a distance of eleven miles, to connect with the Clearfield and Mahoning railroad. It is claimed that there is valuable coal land along the proposed new railroad route.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church and Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will join the Baptist Endeavor in a union prayer meeting in the Baptist church at six o'clock P. M. next Sunday. Subject for meeting: "Pure thoughts, pure words, pure deeds." Matt. 23: 25-28; Psa. 51: 6-10.

When the licenses were granted for Jefferson county on the 16th of February, Judge Clark held over a few applications until the 15th of March, among which was three applications from this place, Hotel America, West End Hotel and Arlington House. The Judge granted the first two named last Friday, but refused license to the Arlington House.

We received a neat invitation last Friday from Dr. H. W. Slack, formerly a teacher in the schools of this place, to attend the commencement exercises of the graduating class of 1895, of the medical department of the Western University of Pennsylvania, to be held in the Alvin Theatre in Pittsburg at two P. M., March 21st. Dr. Slack is a member of the graduating class.

According to the DuBois papers the Driving Club of that place has already begun and abandoned the project of a celebration at that place on the Fourth of July. The Club is early in making both decisions. It may be the financial difficulties in that town last week, and the effects thereof, was the cause of the decision of the Club Friday night "that it was not practicable to hold a Fourth of July celebration."

Anyone can soil the reputation of an individual however pure and chaste, by uttering a suspicion that his enemies will believe, and his friends never heard of; a puff of the idle winds can shake a million seeds from the thistle and do a world of mischief which the husbandmen must labor long to undo. Such are the seed of the slanderer, so easily sown, so difficult to gather up, and yet so pernicious in their fruits.

Samuel Lewis, a miller of St. Marys, committed suicide Wednesday morning of last week. He securely fastened a rope to a beam in the second story of his grist mill, stood on a barrel, adjusted the noose about his neck, kicked the barrel from beneath him and launched his soul into eternity. He was seventy-one years old. He was addicted to the use of intoxicants, and it is supposed liquor was largely responsible for the rash act.

Among the varied features to be produced during the performance of "St. Perkins," which will be presented by the Burton-Coleman Company at the opera house next Friday evening, March 22nd, is their olio of specialties and the famous "St. Perkins" orchestra, directed by Prof. G. G. Vance, which is sure to be entertaining. Of the play itself we need only say that for laughing purposes there are no better, and this has been proven by the large audiences it always attracts, and which is sure to be in attendance next Friday evening. The parade given by the famous Pughtown farmers' band is great.

Twenty-four Shares Sold.

At the meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association on Monday evening twenty-four shares were sold. The tenth series was closed and the eleventh opened.

Big Job Finished.

Ab. Murray finished a contract Friday of putting in logs to Wheeler's mill in Beechwoods and hauling the lumber from the mill to Sandy Valley. He commenced the work last May. Fourteen hundred thousand feet was the amount hauled to Sandy Valley.

Highway Robbers.

Monday night Michael Connell and Pat Lyden, of Rathmel, were held up by three men at the junction above Prescottville and robbed when on their way home from Reynoldsville. A forty dollar gold watch was taken from Connell and 5 cents from Lyden. That section is becoming noted for foot pads. It is supposed that tramps are doing the "western act" up there.

Died on a Train.

A. J. Baxter, of Baxter, Pa., father of Mrs. Martin Phalen, of West Reynoldsville, died on an A. V. R'y passenger train at West Penn Junction Friday forenoon of last week. Mr. Baxter and Mrs. Phalen had been at Pittsburg on a three weeks' visit and were returning home when he died of heart trouble. The deceased was over seventy years old and was in apparently good health until the sudden attack which ended his life.

In the Waste Basket.

We received a communication claiming to be from a coal miner of Rathmel yesterday which was thrown into the waste basket because the writer did not sign his name to it. When people learn that all communications must be accompanied by the writer's name, there will not be so many articles consigned to the waste basket. The communication came down heavy on some of the miners of Rathmel, calling them "deceitful, two-faced hypocrites, black as satan," &c., and suggested that they be treated with a good dose of tar and feathers. The writer says the men referred to say one thing to the company officials and another thing to the men, trying to stand in well with both sides.

John K. Dunkle Dead.

John K. Dunkle, of West Reynoldsville, died suddenly at his home in that borough about one o'clock yesterday morning of heart trouble. Mr. Dunkle had been down street until after nine o'clock Monday evening. He retired and about midnight told his wife he was cold and got out of bed and sat down in front of the stove in a chair. He was not in the chair long until his head fell back. A doctor was called but before he arrived the soul and body of Mr. Dunkle had separated forever. The deceased had lived in Reynoldsville for many years and was well known in this neighborhood. His death was a great surprise because he had been on the streets on Monday in apparently good health. Funeral Thursday afternoon.

A Pleasant Affair.

The reception given by the citizens of West Reynoldsville, in honor of the teachers of the public schools, in the city hall last Wednesday evening was a very pleasant affair. Nearly all the people of that borough, old and young, attended the reception, and the hall was packed during the entire evening. The first story of the building was converted into a dining room where three large tables, at which fifty-four could be seated at one time, were loaded down with good things to eat. Supper was served about eight o'clock, after which all repaired to the second floor, where an organ had been taken to furnish music, and everything arranged for a good time. The fun for the evening ended with a cake walk about eleven o'clock.

The teachers, Prof. Lex. N. Mitchell, Jennie White and Maggie Butler, appreciated the kind act of the citizens who tendered the reception, and are very grateful for the same.

Work or Pay.

Three fellows were arrested Saturday night for being drunk and disorderly and were locked in the "cooler." A friend paid the fine for one of the men and he was given his freedom Saturday night and the other two remained in the lock-up until Sunday morning and paid five dollars apiece for their freedom. They claimed to have only three dollars apiece and wanted off for that but Burgess Lattimer refused to accept that amount and authorized the chief-of-police to lock them up again, and the street commissioner was to put them to work Monday morning in leveling off the snow along the sides of the streets. When the chaps saw the Burgess was in earnest and would not come down on the fine, they preferred to pay five dollars rather than work on the streets five days. The fellows that are "shy" the amount to pay fines had better be very careful how they conduct themselves if they don't want to work on the streets for the borough, for the Burgess will enforce the ordinance compelling those to work who cannot or will not pay their fines. If they refuse to work a chain and hall will be attached to them and they will be compelled to stand on the street ten hours of each day until the fine is paid at one dollar per day.

An Active Life.

We made mention last week of the death of Rev. Sam'l Miles, which occurred at Ansonville, Clearfield county, on the 5th inst., but were unable to get facts to give a sketch of his life last week, and as he was well known in Reynoldsville and has a son and daughter living here, we publish a short sketch of his life this week.

Rev. Samuel Miles was born in the United States Arsenal at Gray's Ferry, near Philadelphia, on the Schuylkill, Nov. 12th, 1806. He moved to Milesburg, Center county, in 1830 and in four years afterwards was ordained into the Baptist ministry and was soon afterwards married to Mary Ann Tipton, of Bellefonte, who died in 1864 and he afterward was married to Elizabeth Robinson, of Curwensville, who survives him. He was the father of thirteen children, six of whom survive him. He had fifty-two grand children and sixty-one great grand children.

In 1841 he organized Zion church, where he died, and he remained there until 1864, when he moved to Brooklyn, Iowa. From there he moved to Prescottville, and seventeen years ago moved back to the Zion church, Clearfield county, where he done his last work. Rev. Miles came of a remarkable family. For four generations back the fathers, in line of descent, had been ministers of the gospel, and the deceased was himself one of the five sons, four of whom were Baptist preachers. He had many trials and hardships in his early ministry that is unknown to the preachers of this section to-day. In those times roads were bridle paths, streams were bridgeless and the country almost a howling wilderness. Services were then held in barns, log houses or huts.

DuBois Failures.

The closing of the Bank of DuBois last Thursday morning raised quite an excitement in DuBois and surrounding community among the depositors of the bank, and was the theme of discussion in Reynoldsville Thursday afternoon, yet it was not unexpected among a number of people in DuBois and Reynoldsville. The bank has been in a delicate condition for some time for ready cash. Cashier Weis was in Reynoldsville along about the first of last month to borrow money to carry on the business. Just what the depositors will get out of the bank is one of the unknown things at present. The Courier, which let the banking institution down easy, holds out the encouragement that the depositors will be paid one hundred cents on the dollar.

H. Loeb, one of the leading business men of DuBois, made an assignment Friday. The Courier says: "Some late judgements have been entered against him which, including a previous mortgage, make a total of fifty-two thousand dollars."

Fire Co. Meeting.

Fire Company No. 1 met in the council chambers of this borough last Thursday evening, and from the minutes of that meeting we glean the following: The town council will be asked to buy a fire alarm for the borough. The fire company of Brookville will come here in the near future and produce a play entitled "Nevada, or the Lost Mine." Half the proceeds will be for the benefit of the Reynoldsville fire company.

An effort will be made to form an association of the fire companies of Jefferson, Elk, McKean, Clarion and Armstrong counties. The secretary of Fire Company No. 1 was instructed to correspond with the companies in the counties above mentioned and have a meeting in Reynoldsville early in May to organize the new association.

Farmers, Look Here.

I have the largest and best stock of large, small, medium, or Alsike clover seed, the finest grade of timothy seed, Hungarian grass seed, orchard grass seed ever brought to town, that I will sell at the lowest figures. I always furnish a glass to examine my seed. Stop and examine for yourselves both the quality and price before purchasing elsewhere. Find me at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store.
NINIAN COOPER.

Nineteen Million.

James Degnan and Pat. McDonald, the lumbermen of this place, have put in nineteen million feet of lumber during the past winter. Twelve million were put in between Reynoldsville and Falls Creek for Hopkins' big mill, and seven million were put in at Green Briar. The winter was a good one for lumbermen and Degnan and McDonald had their logs in early in January.

Special to the Ladies.

On Friday, March 22nd, we are going to have special sale day of lace curtains. Will offer some big bargains. Wait for it.
A. D. DEEMER & CO.

House cleaning will soon come and lace curtains will be needed. Do not miss seeing our line, Bing & Co.

Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18.

You will save big money by attending our curtain sale Friday, March 22. Deemer & Co.

Imitation is said to be the sincerest flattery, but you will find it expensive to use an imitation of "Adamant Plaster." A book that will tell you all about the "right kind" of H. Alex. Stoke, agent.

BOOK RECEPTION DAY.

Five Work Displayed—Two Hundred and Sixty-one Books.

Last Friday was "book reception day" in the borough schools, and the people who visited the schools were well pleased with the reception and took delight in examining the work done by the pupils that was on exhibition for the inspection of the visitors. In the hall down stairs a streamer was stretched from one wall to the other with the word "welcome" on it in large letters, and on the floor under each end of the streamer was a potted plant in bloom. In the halls on the first and second floors were tables, nicely covered with cheese-cloth, on which was piled tablets containing various kinds of work done by the pupils from the lowest to the highest grades in the school. The walls the school rooms were well covered with maps and other drawings done by the scholars. The name of the pupil who did the work was written upon each piece. All the work was certainly well executed, making allowance of course, for the grades of the pupils. On the inside wall over the front door were these words, "Thank you, come again."

This is the first time the schools of this place have ever had such a departure from the common every day routine of school life, and it was highly appreciated and enjoyed by scholars, parents and friends. A large number of people attended the reception. Two hundred and sixty-one excellent books were added to the school library as a result of the reception. One of the books given cost $12. Prof. Hillard won the prize on the guess of the number of books. His guess was two hundred and sixty books. The Professor put his guess in before one o'clock, as did all the scholars. In fact some of them handed in their guesses the day before. The visitors made their guess when they gave their book.

Prof. Hillard and his assistants have done excellent work this term and deserve great credit for the same. The school board did not miss it when Prof. Hillard was chosen as principal for the borough schools. He has proven himself capable of filling that position acceptably. Besides being a scholar he is a gentleman. It is likely that Prof. Hillard does not please all the people, he would be a remarkable man if he did so. Yet he has the ability to manage a school successfully.

Following is a list of part of the books given with the name of the giver. The others will be published next week:

Tom Brown's School Days, Verdi Daugherty; Henry Esmond, Shelly Applegate; Heart of Midlothian, Golda King; Handy Andy, Lloyd Marshall; Paradise Lost, Clarence Reynolds; Swinburn, Mrs. J. S. Hammond; A Nemesis, Willie DeHart; Amie Gelestein, Prose Writers of America, Johnnie Coleman; Averil, Merles Crusade, Maggie Butler; Who is Greatest, Peace Makers, Poor Woodcutter, Wounded Boy, Lost Children, Organ Boy, Prof. A. J. Postlethwait; Conquest of Mexico, 3 volumes, Geo. Mellinger; Life of Empress Josephine, Mrs. C. N. Lewis; Romola, Mrs. R. E. McKee; The Promised King, W. B. Stauffer; Outlines of World's History, Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Johnson; Daniel Delronda, Nellie Loftis; Swiss Family, Warren Deibie; Anne of Gelestein, Anna Trudgen; School Life, Maggie Stoke; Goldsmith, P. A. Hardman; Longfellow's Hyperion, Gertrude Hammond; Emerson's Essays, F. M. Brown; Macaulay's History of England, 5 volumes, S. B. Elliott; Michael Faraday, Maude A. Pratt; The Triumphs of Modern Engineering, Mrs. Vine R. Pratt; The Tenant House, Fred Barto; Hoods Whims and Oddities, Helen's Babies, George Donahue; Helen's Babies, Geo. Guilford; Child's History of Rome, Jessie Robinson; Robt. Browning, Dona Rhoden; Life of Col. Fremont, George A. Farrell; Stranger than Fiction, Zella Hartman; Waverly Novels, Frankie King; Kith and Kin, Effie Milliron; Waverly Novels, Maude Bush; Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, Ella Phillips; Prime Minister, Willie Loftis; Idyls of the King, Dollie Sutter; History and Poetry of a Finger Ring, Ira Richard; The Little Camp, Clara Ross; Blackbird Hill, George McDonald; Search for Ancestors; Fred Foley; Poe's Tales, Nellie Daugherty; Cottages and Farmhouses, Winifred Farrell; Ladies and Gents Etiquette, Gertrude Farrell; Other World's than Ours, Vine R. Pratt; Life of Henry Clay, Margaret E. Bone; Life of Z. Taylor, May Foust; Life of Jackson, Mark J. McGaw; Prince of India, 2 volumes, Mr. and Mrs. E. Neff; David Copperfield, Ralph Kirk; Sermon by Sam Jones, Pauline Miller; Life of Duchess of Orleans, Kith and Kin; Samantha Among the Brethrens, Allie Dunn; Last of the Mohicans, Agnes Robertson; Burns' Poetical Works, Eddie Hoover; Lorna Doone, J. S. Hammond; Vicar of Wakefield, Fannie Hartie; History of Jefferson County, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loftis; Life of Nelson, Pearl Barto; Up the Rhine, Edna Lewis; The Last Essays of Elia, Inez E. Brown; Moore's Poetical Works, C. F. Hoffman; St. Ronan's Well, Charlie King; Tennyson's Poems, Elsie Ross; Camanches and Apaches, Eva Womer; Horines History, Uncle Grandire's Watches, Elvie Coleman; Frederick the Great and Court, Jessie Smeltzer; Ivanhoe, Lizzie McPherson; A Life's Remorse, Fannie McPherson; Silas Malner, Edith Sechrist; Lily Lass, Geo. McDonald; Pilgrim's Progress, Katie Schelder; Stories of Lincoln, Harry Burns; Child's History of Rome, Lawson Reed; Pilgrim Fathers, Mrs. Iscman; Moore, Mrs. J. D. Patterson; Macaulay's Essay and Poem, 3 volumes, Dr. S. Reynolds; Our Great Benefactors, W. H. Alexander; Every Inch a Soldier, Will H. Bell, Jr.; John Halifax, Charles M. Felcht; Volcanoes, Francis Malden; Anderson's Fairy Tales, Geo. Osborn.

SOCIETY'S WHIRL.

C. B. French was in Phillipsburg over Sunday.

Dr. O. P. King, of Curwensville, was in town last week.

Alex. Riston went to Curwensville yesterday on business.

Mrs. W. C. Elliott is visiting her parents at Brookville.

Mrs. H. P. Thompson, of Portland Mills, is visiting in town.

Miss Lulu Foust assisted in the post-office several days last week.

Mrs. Alex. Riston and son, Paul, went to Pittsburg yesterday on a visit.

Mrs. A. H. Bowser returned Saturday from a visit at Walk Chalk, Pa.

Bertha McGaw, the assistant in the postoffice, was on the sick list last week.

Miss Ella Seeley will go to Pittsburg the latter part of this week on a month's visit.

N. Hanau started for Philadelphia and New York last evening to buy a new stock of goods.

Mrs. J. L. Fisher, of Punxsutawney, visited her sister, Mrs. G. F. Cant, in this place last week.

Rev. H. R. Johnson was at Penfield Monday evening assisting in a special meeting held at that place.

Mrs. George F. Cant gave a dinner party to a number of ladies and their husbands last Friday evening.

Presiding Elder F. H. Beck, of Brookville, preached in the M. E. church last Sunday, morning and evening.

Miss Carrie Weis, of St. Marys, was the guest of Misses Maggie and Susie Schultze, several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, of Johnsbury, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Schick several days the past week.

Mrs. John Beck returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit at New Bethlehem. Mr. Beck is still there on the sick list.

Mrs. Lucinda Corbett and Miss Dasie Corbett, of Driftwood, are visiting the former's daughters, Mrs. A. M. Woodward and Mrs. Truitt, at this place.

D. F. Robinson and daughter, Lois, were called to Beaver, Pa., Monday by the death of Mr. Robinson's father-in-law and Louis' grandfather, Mr. J. W. Hum, who died on Sunday.

Prof. Clarence Norris, of the Norris Bros' Railway show that nine members of the Keystons' band is to travel with this summer, is expected here to-day to see the band that he has already engaged for the season.

Mr. S. T. Dougherty and family left Reynoldsville yesterday morning. Mr. Dougherty will stop at Pittsburg on business and Mrs. Dougherty and two daughters, Nellie and Virdie, will go to Mahoningtown, Pa., to visit Mrs. C. E. Rumsey. The family will be absent until about the first of May.

Miss Emily Bennett, Edward Bennett and two brothers, left Reynoldsville Monday evening for Ticonderoga, N. Y., their former home, where they will reside. John Bennett, the father went to Ticonderoga the latter part of January. Miss Emily and Edward are well known here among the young people.

West Reynoldsville School Notes.

The following books have been contributed to the library since the book reception: Life and Work of Henry Ward Beecher, Mr. and Mrs. James Orr; Adam Bede, Agnes Gordon; A Million too Much, Miss Linnie Reynolds; Life of James A. Garfield, James Shobert; Ivanhoe, Michael Stregoff, Roland Oliver, Domanac, A. C. Quigley.

The report of the West Reynoldsville school, which was handed in for publication, is not published this week on account of not having space to give it.

Notice of Appeals.

The county commissioners are at Hotel McConnell this forenoon holding appeals from the triennial assessments of this borough for the years 1895-'96-'97. For West Reynoldsville, will be at Moore House this afternoon. For Winslow township the commissioners will be at the Burns House to-morrow forenoon and at the Ross House in the afternoon.

Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18.

Lace curtains will be sold for half value on March 22nd at A. D. Deemer & Co's.

Sixty dozen negligee shirts just marked up at Milliren's, from 24 cts. up.

Our lace curtain sale will be interesting Friday, March 22. A. D. Deemer & Co.

We will make you big money on lace curtains Friday. Deemer & Co.

Good quality of hose for men, women and children at low prices at H. J. Nickle's.

Try our Electratorzortemilitaryheel globetoe. Deemer & Co.

A partial list of the books given to the borough schools last Friday and the names of the donors will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The balance of the list will be published next week.

See our tourist suitings, they are fine and cheap. Deemer & Co.

Your parlor furnished 50 per cent. cheaper by getting your curtains from Deemer & Co.