F. K. ARNOLD, EX-BANKER.

Genealogy of the Arnold Family for Many

John Arnold, born in England and dled at Hartford, Connecticut, 1664; Joseph Arnold, born in England and dled at Haddam, Conn., October 22, 1691; Samuel Arnold was born in East Haddam. 1968 and died at Haddam, March | rial that has proven itself to be right. 20th, 1739; Enoch Arnold was born Sept. 9th, 1716, died April 8th, 1795; Jonothan Arnold, born in East Haddam, Conn., May 21, 1754, died in New York, Oct. 16, 1828; his son, Jonothan, was born in Massachusetts, Oct. 29, 1792, and died in Mass., May 14, 1837; Emmons Arnold, born in Connecticut Dec. 2, 1815, died in Oregon February 11, 1878; his son, F. K. Arnold, born July 10, 1844, who is living at Portland, Oregon, is the author of the foregoing report. Some time after the year 1740 a part of Enoch Arnold's family emigrated from East Haddom, Conn., to Pennsylvania. It is in this line of generation that the subject of this sketch takes his place.

Peter Arnold was born in York county. Pa., and in April, 1837, moved to Luthersburg, Clearfield Co., Pa., with his wife, five sons and three daughters, our townsman, F. K. Arnold, being one of the sons. At that time the free schools were yet in their infancy and never were any benefit to the five boys, so that a common education was even out of reach to only those that had plenty of means. In 1841 F. K. Arnold was apprenticed to C. D. Watson in Clearfield to learn the furniture business. He afterwards started on his own hook and followed this business several years and succeeded quite well. In 1848 Re quit the furniture business and engaged in the mercantile business in connection with lumber. In 1864 he was one of the charter members of the First al Bank of Curwensville, and wa elected as one of its directors and serv ed during his connection with the bank. In 1871, in partnership with Gen. John Patton and Samuel Arnold, opened a bank in Luthersburg, Pa. with a capital of forty thousand dollars and continued with good success for nearly four years. Seeing that banking would be more permanent in Reynoldsville, F. K. Arnold bought out Gen. Patton's and S. Arnold's interest and brought his effects to Reynoldsville and opened the bank known as F. K. Arnold & Co. The stockholders of this bank consisted of F. K. Arnold, G. W. Arnold, L. P. Seeley and C. H. Gordon. In 1880 F. K. Arnold built the business house known as the Arnold Block. In 1883 he was one of the stockholders of the First National Bank of DuBois, in which he was elected President, and was re-elected from time to time, or whole time while in connection with the concern. After leaving DuBois he came back to Reynoldsville, as he said one time, "to do all he could to improve his own town." The water works struck his attention first, and when the company was organized he was its first president. At the time an effort was made to get an electric railway, which was a failure on account of the hard times, he was elected president of the affair and took an active part in trying to make it a go. After the woolen mill was burned down several years ago, he was active in soliciting stock and getting the large woolen mill stock and getting the large woolen mill built that is now a credit to the town.

During Mr. Arnold's banking business he never had a run on his bank, his depositors seemed to have confidence in his banking ability. He was in the mercantile business about twenty years. His life has certainly been an active one. He has retired from business and is taking life easy in his declining years, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold have three children living, Mrs. W. B. Alexander, Jas. B. Arnold and Miss Belle Arnold.

A Mother's Terrible Deed.

Mrs. John G. Core, of Marion Center, Indiana county, committed a horrible crime on Monday morning, which consisted in the deliberate drowning of a two-year-old child. For some time past Mrs. Core has exhibited signs of insanity, being very reticent and melancholy, but her friends thought she would be all right in the course of time and very little attention was given her. Deliberately picking up her two-yearold child she went out to the well, and in spite of the protests of an elder child. threw it into the water. The husband was informed of what had occurred and the body of the little one was recovered. A warrant was then issued for the arrest of the mother. After her arrest she made no effort to conceal her guilt, confessing to the crime.-Punxsutaw-
