A Little of Everything.

The street sprinkler was at work yesterday. Bicycle's for sale at Ed. Gooder's from $25.00 up. If you want nice silks, they are at Bing & Co's. India silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. Gooder's. 150 styles of silks at sacrifice prices Saturday. Deemer & Co. The weather prophets tell us that we will have a hot summer. If you have any job work to do get it done at THE STAR office. Seventeen DuBoisites came to Reynoldsville Sunday on bicycles. Ladies, you can get pretty silks for 25c per yard at Bing & Co's. It is just four weeks and one day from Reynoldsville to Decoration Day. Ladies' fine turn sole congress shoes, C, D, and E widths at Robinson's. A new front is being put in the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store room. Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18. Another car load of Italians passed through Reynoldsville last Thursday. Men's, ladies, misses', boys', youths', and children's tan shoes at Robinson's. Satins and silks—large assortment Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. Forest fires have begun looming up on the mountains hard by Reynoldsville. Pickles, yes; still a few left and they are fine. Ask Robinson & Mundorff the price. Volney B. Cushing will lecture in Reynoldsville the latter part of this month. A barefooted drunken woman was an unsightly scene on Main street Monday evening. Wash silks, China silks, exceptionally low prices Friday and Saturday. Deemer & Co. Three Italians, with two violins and a harp, made delightful music in Reynoldsville Monday. The plumber can now take a vacation and the ice man is getting ready to deliver congealed water. Before buying see Robinson's $2.50 ladies' fine shoes, needle, Berlin opera and common sense toes. Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of sutling we are making to order for $16. Bell, the clothier. Brocaded tafaty figured morie and plain silks, prices low on Friday and Saturday. Deemer & Co. Quality of goods and low prices speak right out in meeting and say Robinson & Mundorff's is the place to trade. The Tin Horn believes that some men smell of brimstone who pretend to cut the devil's acquaintance long ago. The original Fisk Jubilee Singers will give an entertainment in the Centennial hall Tuesday evening, May 21st. We will show the finest line of silks for the least money ever seen in this city on Friday and Saturday. Deemer & Co. Think of getting a nice silk on Friday and Saturday at price that you would have to pay for woolens. Deemer & Co. Oysters will enjoy a vacation until September. They are only on duty during the months that have an "r" in them. If you have not yet done so call at Robinson & Mundorff's, get acquainted, see their goods, get prices, etc. It will pay you. Don't forget to call on Ed. Gooder when your watch is out of order, as he gives you best satisfaction and warrants all work. Shiloh's cure, the great cough and croup cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses, only 25c. Sold by J. C. King & Co. Those who trade with Robinson & Mundorff march right up beside the band wagons. They get so much for their money they live well on small income.

Rev. H. G. Furbay will preach in the Presbyterian church at this place this, Wednesday evening. Miss Gheer, a returned missionary from Japan, will lecture in the M. E. church Tuesday evening, May 7th. L. M. Simmons, superintendent for the gas company at this place, got his new bicycle broken Monday evening by another wheel running into his. One trouble with trading at Robinson & Mundorff's if you take a dollar and go there you get so many goods you need a wheelbarrow to get them home. A dance was held in the Reynolds block Monday evening, and the Italian band that played on the streets Monday furnished music for the dancers. Think of getting a nice silk on Friday and Saturday at price that you would have to pay for woolens. Deemer & Co. Glenn A. Milliren traded his bicycle for a Smith Premier Typewriter. He traded because he has more use for a typewriter in his business than a bicycle. The A. V. R'y Co. will build a new brick passenger station, brick freight house large enough to run cars in to unload and an engine house at Kittanning this summer. The Reynoldsville Hardware Co's. store has a large line of samples of Brussels carpet to select from. If you want a new carpet call and see what they have to offer you. Imitations is said to be the sincerest flattery, but you will find it expensive to use an imitation of "Adamant Plaster." A book that will tell you all about the "right kind" of H. Alex. Stoke, agent. Carrie, little daughter of F. C. Snyder, of Winslow township, is carrying her right arm in a sling. She was thrown out of the hack when coming into Reynoldsville recently and received a broken arm from the fall. The Troutvinn Hotel at Troutville was burned Sunday night. With the exception of two or three pieces of furniture the household goods were all destroyed. The proprietor had $2,000 insurance on the building and furniture. H. Alex. Stoke has purchased the lot in West Reynoldsville that the Italian had his shoe shop on. Mr. Stoke will erect a two story building, sixty feet front and fifty feet long, on the lot. There will be three store rooms in the building. The fire companies of Jefferson, Elk, Clarion, McKean and Armstrong will not organize the Association at present, as mentioned in THE STAR a few weeks ago. Money stringency with some of the companies is the cause of the postponement. Jas. Bruce has resigned as superintendent of the Pittsburg division of the B., R. & P. R'y, between Punxsutawney and Bradford, and Chas. T. Gardner, formerly superintendent of the Akron and Pittsburg railroad, has taken his place. By some mistake a few copies of THE STAR of April 17th got mixed in with last week's issue. Any of our subscribers who received one of the old papers last week will know by this notice that it was a mistake. Any such can get a copy of last week's issue if they desire it. Three interesting sessions of Sunday school convention of the Clearfield Baptist Association was held in the Baptist church at this place yesterday. A number of delegates were present. The next meeting of the Association will be held in DuBois October 29th, 1895. Have you your property insured? This is the time of year for fires. If you are not insured don't wait, but call on or address C. B. French, the Reynoldsville insurance agent, at once and get his rates. The best companies represented, Office, Nolan Block, with G. M. McDonald, lawyer. John M. Hays, who was elected Justice of the Peace at the February election, will go to Brookville next Monday to get his commission and be sworn into office. 'Squire Kerr, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of W. W. Ford, deceased, will step out as Justice of the Peace. Frank W. Gowen, of Maine, an organizer of the Good Templars, lectured in the M. E. church Sunday evening. Mr. Gowen would have made a much better impression on his audience if he had known when to have concluded his lecture. A preacher or lecturer who has four or five "in conclusions" generally weary their hearers. The contract between the Bell, Lewis and Yates Coal Mining Co. and the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron Co. by which the former had the exclusive right of selling the coal produce by the latter expires on the 30th inst. after being in force for five years. The R. & P. C. & I. Co. will again handle its own coal and the old time war will soon be on again.—DuBois Express. Frank W. Gowen, of Maine, National lecturer and organizer, will lecture in Centennial Hall on Friday evening, May 3rd, at 7.30 P. M., subject "Effective Temperance Work." Mr. Gowen represents the Good Templar Order, which can reach an influence for total abstinence and prohibition that other organizations not non-partisan cannot possibly do. Mr. Gowen will organize the society on said date. Let every one be present.

Leg Broken in Three Places. Arthur three-year-old son of Chas. O'Donnell of Camp Run, had his right leg broken in three places last Wednesday. The boy was standing behind a truck on the tram road at the saw mill and the truck started back. He stepped to one side but was caught between plis projecting from the truck and a board pile with above results. Dr. Bowser, of this place, was called and plastered up the broken leg. League Organized. Geo. H. Goebel, of Philadelphia, president of the Junior Prohibition League of Pennsylvania, lectured in the Centennial hall last Friday evening to a fair sized audience and afterwards organized a Junior Prohibition League for Reynoldsville with a membership of fifty young people. The officers elected are live ones, as follows: President, Wm. B. Stauffer; vice-president, Ernest Davis; secretary, Miss Minnie Whitmore; treasurer, L. A. Stiles. Mr. Goebel is a good talker and never lacks for words to express his convictions. Lost in a City. The nine members of the Keystone band arrived at Rochester, N. Y., last Thursday evening and found the circus boarding car without any exciting experience. After supper Albert Evans and Will Scott started out to "take in" the city. After following the salvation army around for several hours the boys decided to go to the car and "turn in" for the night. Rochester is a trifle larger than Reynoldsville and the car was not as easily found as the boys had calculated on. They searched in vain for their lodging place and finally had to secure the service of a policeman who escorted them to the car at midnight. Clover Cycle Club. We mentioned last week that a bicycle club had been organized in Reynoldsville but the organization had not been named yet. Last Thursday evening the members met and christened the club, adopted by-laws, elected a captain and selected uniforms. The name of the organization is the Clover Cycle Club, three leaf clover with the letter "C" in each leaf. The club will be run under the League of American Wheelmen. John H. Schofield was elected captain of the club. The suits or uniforms selected are gray, trimmed in black. They are certainly very pretty suits. Club rooms have been secured over National bank. The by-laws forbid the playing of any games in the rooms on Sunday, and betting will not be permitted in the rooms at any time. Ab. Reynolds Not in it. Albert Reynolds, who is six feet five inches tall, is certainly an uncommonly large man, but Ab. is not in it with an Englishman named Cooper who is now visiting his mother near Elanora, this county. Cooper is seven feet eight inches tall, and in good health weighs four hundred pounds. He has been traveling as a giant with a circus for years. He has just had a hard tussle with yellow fever and has come home to visit his mother and recuperate. There is a fence in front of his mother's home that is about five feet high and the giant does not stop to open the gate but just steps over the fence. We did not see Mr. Cooper, but Elijah Trudgen, one of our grocerymen who delivers goods in the neighborhood of Elanora, has talked to the giant. Improve Your Town. If you want your town to improve, improve it. If you want to make your town lively, make it so. Don't go to sleep but get up and work for it, talk about it and talk favorably. If you have property improve it, paint your house, clean up your alleys and back yards. Make your surroundings pleasant and you will feel better and your property will be worth more in the market. If you are doing reasonably good advise your friends to come and invest near you. Work for your home interests; trade at home; help your dealers keep your money at home as much as possible and it is likely to help you in return. The successful towns have been made by property owners working together. Public improvement is an investment that pays. Don't waste your time over quarrels and hold back your aid for good objects through spite, but work for some good and you will find yourself benefitted. Will Celebrate. At a meeting of Fire Co. No. 1 held last Thursday evening the fire lads decided to celebrate the 4th of July in Reynoldsville in grand style. It will not be necessary for any of our citizens to go to hardby towns to have a good time, it will be right here in our midst, therefore, every person should decide now to remain in Reynoldsville on Independence Day, and if any of your friends ask you where you propose to spend the Fourth tell them, and from this time on use your influence to persuade people to come to our town to spend the day. There is no reason why there cannot be more real genuine pleasure in Reynoldsville that day than can be found in any other town in Jefferson or Clearfield counties. Let us all join in trying to make the Fourth of July of 1895 the biggest day ever known in this town. Will you help it along the best you can? If you will not do anything to keep our people and money at home and draw others here, please don't do what you can to oppose it.

Tendered His Resignation. Samuel Lattimer presented his resignation as Burgess of the borough of Reynoldsville to the town council at a special meeting held Monday evening. The resignation was held over. Mr. Lattimer says he will not serve any longer as Burgess and if his resignation is not accepted he will move out of the borough. He says he meets opposition from good citizens because he tries to do his duty and enforce the ordinances, and that he has grown tired of this kind of business. He cannot wink at people while they disobey the laws, nor does he want to be quarrelling with citizens who should stand up for the laws of the borough. We are a little surprised at Mr. Lattimer. A man who was so loyal to his country and faced the bullets of the enemy should have the courage to face any opposition that presents itself while performing his duty of enforcing the laws of this municipality. A man that holds a prominent position among the people, if he does his duty, no matter in what position it may be, he is an utter failure if he pleases all the people. It is an impossibility. It is certainly very discouraging for Mr. Lattimer or any other man to meet opposition where assistance should be given, but a man should do his duty. A Burgess' position is similar to that of a newspaper man. With many people the law must be enforced until it reaches them or their homes and then the officer has no business to interfere. Some people want all the news until some member of the family does something devilish and then the editor is anything but a gentleman for publishing what has occurred. As long as the law or newspapers are after some one else it is perfectly right and proper. It makes all the difference in the world whose ox is gored. Mr. Lattimer has served fourteen months as Burgess of this borough and would have twenty-two months to serve yet before his time expires. He has not succeeded in pleasing all the people, yet he has made a good officer and is improving as he understands his duties. We would rather see Mr. Lattimer serve out his time and enforce all the laws of this borough as far as possible. Seventy-sixth Anniversary. The I. O. O. F. anniversary held at Punxsutawney last Friday was no small gathering of Odd Fellows and their friends. Representatives were present from Indiana, Armstrong, Clarion, Warren, McKean, Forest, Jefferson, Elk and Clearfield counties. A special train of two coaches was run over the R. & P. C. R'y from Reynoldsville to Falls Creek where connection was made with a special train over the B., R. & P. to Punxsutawney. Fifty Odd Fellows and Rebekahs went from Reynoldsville. A long column of fine looking Odd Fellows paraded the main streets of Punxsy in the afternoon. At a business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Prof. J. L. Allison, of Punxsutawney, one of the editors of the News; vice-president, D. C. Smith, of Falls Creek; secretary, P. B. Cowan, of Brookville; treasurer, J. A. Terpe, of DuBois. Clearfield was selected as the place to hold the reunion in 1896. The first I. O. O. F. lodge in America was Washington lodge No. 1, which was instituted at Baltimore, Md., April 26th, 1819, with a membership of 5. In 1829 there were 31 lodges with 2,000 members. In 1839 there were 130 lodges with 9,351 members. In 1849 there were 1,127 lodges with 139,242 members. In 1859 there were 3,425 lodges with 177,711 members. In 1869 there were 3,473 lodges with 268,608 members. In 1879 there were 7,094 lodges with 450,238 members. In 1889 there were 8,989 lodges with 612,260 members. A Good Fellow. After eking out a measly existence during the rigors of the past winter living on corn dodgers and bacon, our stomach was made glad on last Friday by a dinner made from a large, succulent shad, a present from Mr. F. M. Arnold, Cashier of the First National Bank. It was a highly satisfactory adjunct to our spring opening, and has incited us to renewed efforts in furnishing to the needy public a first-class newspaper.—Clarion Republican. Mr. Arnold is a good fellow. Wish he lived in Reynoldsville. Dropped Dead. On Tuesday morning 13 persons called at Deemer & Co's store and asked the prices on silks. The price was so low that 7 of them dropped dead. Balance convalescent. Funerals Friday and Saturday. The top part of an extension ladder was taken from the shed of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store during the winter, which I would like to have the person return or tell me where it is. FRANK CAMPBELL. Come and see our prices on silks Friday and Saturday. You will purchase. Deemer & Co. Brussels carpet, from a cheap tapestry to velvet, at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co's store. Stick pins in all varieties and all prices at Ed. Gooder's, the jeweler. Ladies, you will have to have a silk waist. Get your pattern Saturday at cut prices. Deemer & Co. Tafaty silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. At Robinson's shoe store is the place to get the best shoes for the least money. Morie silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. Plain silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. China silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. H. J. Nickle invites everybody to call at the Reed building and examine her stock of all kinds of goods usually kept in a variety store. The goods are all good quality at reasonable prices. Jap. silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. Crinkle silks Friday and Saturday at Deemer & Co's. Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18.

K. of P. Anniversary. April 23rd, 1895, marked the fourth anniversary of the organization of Confidence Lodge No. 344, Knights of Pythias, at Rathmel, the small village adjacent to Reynoldsville. The day was observed in a manner befitting the enthusiasm lurking among the people of that town. When the citizens of Rathmel fully decide to have a good time they know how to get at it, and this was no exception to that custom, for they had an immense time, and the crowd that attended was too much for the seating capacity of the hall, and many of those present had to stand on one foot awhile then on the other one until the program that had been prepared especially for the occasion was rendered, which was a good one and the participants were all Rathmel folk with the exception of three, Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, Hon. A. C. White, one of Brookville's lawyers, and Geo. S. Rowboatham of Philadelphia. The program, which was taken up at 3.00 P. M. was as follows: Music—Opening Ode.....Choir Prayer.....Rev. H. R. Johnson Address of Welcome.....Jas. Beveridge Jr., C. C. Recitation—"An Acrostic".....Emma Hays Recitation—"Fythanian Song".....Hannah Mansell Music—Closing Ode.....Choir Music—"Faithful Unto Death".....Choir Address.....Rev. H. R. Johnson Music—Choir Recitation—"Fythanian Poem".....Alice Beveridge Recitation—"An Acrostic".....Jennie Walker Address—"Our Order".....Hon. A. C. White, P. C. Music.....Choir Recitation.....Ella Mansell Music.....Choir Recitation.....Geo. S. Rowboatham Recitation.....Jessie McHenry "Let the World Know You're a Man." Music.....Choir Recitation—"Fythanian Song".....Emma Hays Song by Jessie McHenry, accompanied by Miss Ella Brown. Music—Closing Ode.....Choir Rathmel has some ladies that are at home in the culinary department and a sample of their art in the cookery was spread before all who cared to partake, if they had the price. Supper was served from 5.00 to 8.30 P. M. While the Knights of Pythias did not realize as much "blithy lucre" from the anniversary as they had hoped to, yet they were well pleased with the way in which everything passed off. The Prottsville band was present and enlivened the occasion with some delightful music. Town Council. Council met in special session on Monday evening, April 29th, for the transaction of important and general business; members present, McClelland, Shields, Heckman, Robertson and Ritzke; absent, Reynolds; President McClelland presided. Minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted. Joseph Morrow appeared on behalf of Miss Ida Reynolds in regard to sewerage on Main street, from Third street down to the run. He said she desired to make a permanent sidewalk, but before doing so wanted the sewer laid. She proposed to furnish pipe if the borough would put it in the same as had been done for other property owners below Third street. He stated that Geo. G. Sprague and Solomon Shaffer, in conversation with him, had intimated that they would be satisfied with a similar arrangement. On motion the communication was held over until next meeting night, council, in the meantime, to ascertain if the other property owners between those mentioned and the run would be willing to enter into the same kind of an agreement. Aaron Rodgers, High Constable, presented a bill for $2.50 for one day's time serving notices to clean streets and alleys, &c. On motion it was ordered that the bill be paid as presented, and that the high constable be notified that any further work he might do in the line of serving notices would be paid for at the same rate as day laborers are paid for work on the streets. The following bills were presented and, on motion, ordered paid: J. S. Hammond, services and expenses as secretary in March, $2.31; A. M. Woodward, auditing borough accounts, $6.00; C. G. Gibson, auditing borough accounts, $6.00; J. S. Hammond, auditing borough accounts, $6.00; T. C. Shields, services as policeman in March, $14.00. W. C. Elliott presented a bill of $5.75 for printing for the Board of Health, in January. Held over. Burgess Lattimer reported amount collected for fines and permits in March $16.63, and in April $16.90. On motion both were accepted. Samuel Lattimer also tendered his resignation as Burgess, to take effect on April 29th, 1895, at 12.00 P. M. Discussion thereon followed and council not being clear as to its rights and powers in such cases, a motion was made, seconded and carried that the matter be held over for further consideration, and that the borough attorney be consulted as to the proper legal course to be pursued. Opening of Grant st., in accordance with ordinance passed Jan. 7, 1895, was considered. It was stated that the consent of property owners had been obtained from Richard Smith's to Charley Burns and that Burns would not consent to it. It was agreed that the borough attorney should be consulted relative to securing the consent in writing of the parties affected. It was reported that various parties had failed to comply with notice served on them to remove obstructions and nuisances from alleys adjoining their properties. The Burgess was instructed to take prompt and vigorous action towards having it done. A petition was presented, signed by citizens and property owners affected, asking for the opening of Fifth street, from Jackson street 170 feet toward the creek. Coal alley from said Jackson street 170 feet toward the creek, and to open up an alley 20 feet wide along the rear end of all lots between the proposed extension of said Fifth street and said Coal alley. On motion the petition was held over for further consideration. Card of Thanks. The officers and members of Confidence Lodge, No. 344 K. of P., of Rathmel, Pa., desire to return their sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen (not having any connection with the Order of K. of P.) who so kindly and generously aided and assisted in preparing and serving ice cream and supper; also those who assisted in the musical program at the entertainment on April 23d. JAMES BEVERIDGE, C. C. Attest: L. A. HAYS, K. of R. and S. Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18.
