Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1895.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Arnold's Block.

Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

The House at Harrisburg passed a bill last Thursday making Feb. 12th, Abraham Lincoln's birthday, a legal holiday.

The White-Blair judicial contest that has been going on in Indiana county for sometime, was decided by the court Saturday in favor of Judge White. The contest cost Indiana county $8,000. Blair will take an appeal.

The House Legislature Apportionment Committee have agreed upon the bill to reapportion the state into Senatorial districts. By this reapportionment Clarion county will be added to the thirty-seventh district which heretofore has been composed of Jefferson and Indiana counties.

An exchange says: "Over one hundred base ball players have signed contracts to play this year at salaries ranging from $1,000 to $3,000 for six months' playing, and the college bred man who is keeping books for $600 a year, or minister who serves a charge for a pittance, must regret that they did not go in for athletics instead of knowledge."

Farmers are warned against wheat swindlers who are said to be working in the eastern part of the state, and who are liable to drop among you at any time. They are canvassing with a fine grade of wheat, which they allege will yield an average of 50 bushels to the acre. The grains are larger and there are more of them on the stock. You will be required to sign a contract to let the agent have half your crop, and if he doesn't get your farm you will be in great luck.

A beggar who steals a loaf of bread, to satisfy the cravings of hunger, or a suit of clothes, to cover his nakedness, is speedily punished. But a set of base, knavish rogues, who by their dishonest tricks and practices rob and cheat honest, industrious workmen out of their hard-earned savings and even steal the widow's mite in order to reside in splendid houses, wear fine raiment, and live in pampered luxury and wanton lacivious, are allowed to strut about as though they owned the earth.—Ex.

Spring has come and with the advent of warm weather look out for a host of crooks, sharpers and fakirs from the cities on their annual pilgrimages to fleece the unwary. Already our exchanges are teeming with complaints, but if all our readers adhere to the rule to pay no money to strangers for future delivery of goods, sign no papers for travelling sharpers, kick lightning rod swindlers off their premises and refuse to patronize glib-tongued peddlers, they will have nothing to fear.

An act to "encourage the use of wide tires upon wagons," now pending in the legislature is likely to pass. Should it become a law all persons using only draft wagons on the public highways with tires not less than four inches in width for hauling loads not less than two thousand pounds weight, shall receive a rebate of one fourth on their road tax. It is believed that the rebate on taxes provided in this measure will be more than made in benefits which will accrue to the roads by the use of wide tired wagons.

The postmaster general has issued an order to the effect that hand-stamped alternations or additions to price lists, invoices, catalogues, or other printed matter, converting the same into orders for goods or making any announcement of the character of a personal communication, are held to be equivalent to writing or typewriting and will therefore submit the matter upon which they may be impressed when mailed, to the letter rate of postage. Mere business cards, however, or other hand-stamped editions clearly of an advertising character may be impressed upon third class matter without subjecting it to the higher rate of postage.

The one great rule of business is that of honesty, absolute and unqualified honesty, writes Edward W. Bok in the May Ladies' Home Journal. All the rules of business are worthless if they are not founded on that one and only foundation stone to true commercial success. Honesty is not alone the policy in business; it is the one and only policy. Upon it, and upon it alone can a good reputation be built, and a man in business without a reputation for honesty might just as well stop. Any deviation from the rule of honesty in business may bring temporary gain, but it invariably means permanent loss. On the other hand, a strict adherence to honest policy may mean a temporary loss, but it is sure to result in a permanent gain.

Reduced Rates to Denver, Col., via P. R. R.

For the accommodation of persons who desire to visit Colorado on the occasion of the meeting of the National Educational Association, at Denver, Col., July 5 to 12, the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. will sell excursion tickets on July 3, 4 and 5, to Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Pueblo at the extremely low rate of $30.75 from New York, $49.25 from Philadelphia, $47.50 from Baltimore and Washington, $47.25 from Harrisburg; proportionate rates from other points.

These tickets will be good for return passage from Colorado points on July 12, 13, 14, and 15, with an extension until September 1, if desired. A special train of Pullman Buffet Sleeping cars will be run, leaving New York at 10.10 A. M., July 4, stopping at prominent intermediate points and arriving at Denver on July 6.

This affords a great opportunity for a trip to the world-renowned Rocky Mountain resorts in Colorado at a comparatively small cost.

Loudin's Fisk Jubilee Singers have returned to Chicago after an absence of years, and last evening gave a concert in Central Music Hall to a good and one of the most enthusiastic audiences that have ever assembled there. Its applause was constant, and if it could have had its own way, would have kept the singers there all night. These quaint and fervid melodies, so utterly unlike other music, they sing with a gusto and feeling white singers can never rival.—Chicago Daily Tribune. At Centennial Hall May 21st.
