Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

The following bill to prohibit mining and manufacturing corporations and limited partnerships from engaging in carrying on stores known as company stores or general supply stores, passed the House a few days ago and is now in the Senate.

Sec. 1. That sixty days after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership of this Commonwealth, or the officers or stockholders, shareholders, members, agents, clerks or employees of any such corporation or limited partnership, to engage in or carry on by direct or indirect means any store known as a company store, general supply store, or store where goods and merchandise other than such as have been mined or manufactured by the mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership, of which said officers or stockholders are members, are kept or offered for sale, excepting such supplies as are actually used by the employees in carrying on the business of mining or manufacturing.

Sec. 2. That no mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership engaged in business under the laws of this Commonwealth shall lease, grant, bargain or sell to any officer or stockholder of any such corporation or limited partnership, nor to any other person or persons whatsoever, the right to keep or maintain upon the property of any such corporation or limited partnership any company, general, supply or other store in which goods other than those mined or manufactured by the corporation or limited partnership shall be kept or exposed for sale whenever such lease, grant, bargain or sale as aforesaid is intended to defeat the provisions of the first section of this act. Nor shall any such mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership through its officers, stockholders, shareholders or members, or by any rule or regulation of its business, make any contract with the keepers or owners of any store whereby the employees of such corporation or limited partnership shall be obliged to trade with such keeper or owner, and that any such contract made in violation of this act shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that such store is under the control of such mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership and in violation of this act. Nor shall any officer, stockholder, shareholder or member of any such mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership be in any way connected or related as manager, clerk, employee or proprietor of or with any supply store, general merchandise store, or mercantile establishment of any kind whatsoever, located in the same county where the business of said mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership is carried on, nor shall any officer, stockholder, shareholder, member, agent or manager of such mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership contract with any employee of such corporation or limited partnership that he shall deal with or at any particular person, place or store carrying on any mercantile business, nor shall any agent, officer, manager stockholder, shareholder, member, clerk or employee of such corporation deduct from the wages of its employees except for taxes, any moneys, orders, checks or assignment of the wages of said employee to pay any bill or account of any person or at any store engaged in the mercantile business, and any bargain, contract, order, agreement, check or assignment given by any employee of such corporation or limited partnership or secured from him operating or intended to operate to convey, assign, transfer or set over any of his wages to any person, store, company or corporation engaged or doing a mercantile business shall be entirely null and void.

Sec. 3. That any mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership as aforesaid, or any officer, stockholder, shareholder, member, agent, clerk, or employee thereof, violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 4. That it shall be the duty of the Factory Inspector and his deputies to institute prosecutions against any mining or manufacturing corporation or limited partnership, or any officer, stockholder, shareholder, member, clerk or employee thereof violating the provisions of this act upon complaint of any citizen of this Commonwealth.

Sec. 5. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
