The * Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, MAY 22, 1895.

A Little of Everything.

Circus next Tuesday. Robinson's is the shoe house of Reynoldsville.

Bicycle's for sale at Ed. Gooder's from $25.00 up.

Has any one a small boy to loan for circus day?

If you want nice silks, they are at Bing & Co.'s.

This is sentence day in the Jefferson county court.

Bell, the clothier and merchant tailor, is making a fine all wool clay for $18.

Mrs. John Williams, of Hill street, died last evening from heart trouble.

Genuine York State potatoes, just the kind for seed, at Robinson & Mundorff's.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers gave an excellent entertainment in Centennial hall last evening.

Brussells carpet, from a cheap tapestry to velvet, at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co's, store.

Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of suiting we are making to order for $16. Bell, the clothier.

Call at Robinson's shoe store and judge for yourself who has the largest, best and cheapest stock of shoes.

The P. O. S. of A. at Rathmel is making preparations to observe Decoration Day at that place in grand style.

Albert Schwenning had his left hand badly bruised while at work in Sprague mine last week by coal falling upon it.

Don't forget to call on Ed. Gooder when your watch is out of order, as he gives you best satisfaction and warrants all work.

New telephones were put into Tapper's livery stable, Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store and Esq. M. M. Davis' office this week.

The W. R. C. will serve dinner in G. A. R. hall on Decoration Day for 25c., and will serve ice cream and cake in the afternoon.

Westward the tide of emigration takes its way-to the Centennial building where you get the best groceries for the least money.

John Nolan and Thomas Carey are playing ball with the St. Vincent College club. Nolan is playing third base and Carey first base.

With last week's issue the Volunteer entered its 17th year. Bro. Elliott has had charge of the plant for eight years. He publishes a neat paper.

Two arrests were made Saturday night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Both men were from Rathmel. They paid their fines and costs.

Judge Biddle, of Cumberland county, has made a decision that newspaper men are not permitted to publish the marriage licenses granted to that county.

Don't imagine that every little squib with a stinger in it is meant for you. It is altogether likely when the item was written no one was in the mind of the

The members of the Clover Cycle Club will enjoy the first "club run" next Friday evening. They will leave Reynoldsville at five o'clock and go to DuBois.

Imitations is said to be the sincerest flattery, but you will find it expensive to use an imitation of "Adamant Plaster." A book that will tell you all about the "right kind" of H. Alex. Stoke, agent. At a meeting of the school board of

New Whatcom, Washington, held on the 10th inst., Prof. Harry Pattison was re-elected city superintendent. Twenty-seven teachers are employed in the schools of that city.

The petit jurors that served the county last week were notified on Saturday to appear before the Honorable Court Monday morning of this week, but their services were not needed Monday and they were all discharged.

Harry M. Schaney, one of the proprietors of the National Hotel at Du-Bals, has disposed of his interest in that hosteley to his father-in-law, J. L. Schofield, and he will take charge of the Penfield Hotel, at Penfield, Pa., June Int.

On the eighth page of this issue will he found a call for a county convention to be held in Centennial hall on Friday of this week by the Prohibitionista. Hon. H. D. Patton, State Chairman, will be present and deliver an address in the evening. Mr. Patton is a good talker.

The first annual convention of the DuBois Sub-District Enworth League will be held in the M. E. church at Falls Creek on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 4th and 5th. The sub-district is composed of Big Run, DuBois, Luthersburg, Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville, Sabula and Walston Leagues.

Chas. Lee's Great London Shows, elre is, museum, menagerie and midway plaisance will pitch its acres of canvas in Levnoldsville on Tuesday, May 28th. giving two performances afternoon and evening. Admission 25 cents. There will be a grand street parade at noon, the finest ever given by any traveling exhibition.

Clinton S. Hartman, who follows railroading as a business, attemped to do a little carpenter work one day last week and has since been nursing a very sore hand. Clint was manipulating a chisel on a small piece of wood which he was holding in his left hand and the chisel slipped and plowed into the fleshy part of his hand.

Within the borough limits of DuBois there is a piece of humanity that has a handle to its name-"Professor"-who "struts" around under a silk hat, who has been indebted to this office for about a year for advertising. The amount is small but we may get an opportunity to give him the worth of it in free advertising some time.

The third annual reunion of the West Middle District Jr. O. U. A. M. Reunion Association was held at East Brady last Friday. The fourth reunion will be held at Brookville. New Bethlehem won both prizes offered, for best appearance and largest attendance. All the old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year.

Henry Shields was coming down the hill near the Presbyterian church Saturday and the wind raised his hat. He let loose of one of the handle bars of his bicycle to catch his hat and just then his bicycle struck a small stone. It was not necessary for Henry to be carried to a doctor's office for repairs but it was necessary to send his bicycle away for repairs.

Fell on a Sharp Piece of Iron.

John, two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Montgomery, of Sligo, and grandson of Mrs. Woodward Reynolds, of this place, fell on a sharp piece of iron while out playing last week and ran the iron into his eye. The little boy lost the eye and is likely to lose the sight of the other eye.

Thrown Off

Frank and Fred Alexander were indulging in a "spurt" on their bleycles on Main street last Wednesday evening and a little boy started across the street from behind a hack and Frank's bleyele collided with the boy. The boy escaped without injury but Frank was thrown off his bike so violently that he was confined to the house for a day or two. Racing on Main street is dangerous business.

On a Wager.

Harry Moyer, of Chleago, Ill., stopped at Hotel McConnell Sunday night. Mr. Moyer is driving from Chicago to Mahanoy City, Schuylkill county, Pa., with one horse in a given time for a wager of $5,000. He has until Friday evening to reach his destination, but he expects to get to Mahanoy City Thursday evening. Mr. Moyer and his horse were both showing the effects of the trip upon them when they arrived in Reynoldsville Sunday evening.

Unexpected Rain Caught Them.

Sunday morning six bicyclists of Reynoldsville rode to Brookville expecting to return home in the evening, but they did not get home until Monday morning. The rain at noon made the roads impassable on bleycles and for that reason the boys were compelled to stay at the county seat all night. A number of sports came down from Du-Bois on their wheels Sunday morning and after dinner they hired teams to haul them home on account of the ## muddy condition of the roads.

J. S. Watson Dead.

very reasonable at THE STAR office. Please ask for prices before sending your work to some out of town printing office. THE STAR booms Reynoldsville and should be patronized in preference to out of town offices. When you want printing done let us know about it. Joseph S. Watson died at the Warren Asylum on Wednesday, May 15th, aged 57 years, 5 months and 21 days. His remains were brought to Reynoldsville the following day and interred in Beulah cometery beside the remains of his wife Friday afternoon. Six old soldiers acted as pall-bearers for their departed comrade. The same six were pall-bear-All members were present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved; bills amounting to $16.88 were accepted and ordered to be ers at Mrs. Watson's funeral. The deceased served two years during the late war. Rev. H. R. Johnson conducted the funeral services at the home of Elmer Watson. Five of Mr. Watson's brothers, William, George, Armstrong, Alexander and Simon Watson, all of Clearfield, attended the funeral.

At Hymen's Altar.

At eight o'clock this morning. May 22nd, Luther M. Weitzel, manager of the company store at Beechtree, and Miss Josephine M. Stephenson, youngest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Stephenson of West Reynoldsville, and sister of ye editor, were united in matrimony at the home of the bride's mother in the presence of a few friends. Rev. P. J. Slattery, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, tied the nuptial knot. Immediately after the marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Weltzel started for Indiana county to visit the groom's parents, where they will remain for a few days and then go to Beechtree where a house is already furnished awaiting their coming. Of course we wish them success as they meander life's pathway together.

The Way They All Talk,

A Pensioner Gone.

Seven or eight years ago the old man woed, won and married a Mrs. Snyder word, won and married a Mrs. Snyder of Reynoldsville, who was also well ad-vanced in life's journey. Mr. Hipple served Uncle Sam for a time in some capacity during the late war and has been drawing a pension of $72.00 per month for sometime. The deceased moved into the Beechwoods 55 years are the 10th of last Echemany and was ago the 10th of last February, and was, therefore, one of the old settlers of that section. His remains were buried in the Beechwoods cemetery yesterday

Get it at Home.

Postmaster McGaw has four or five notices posted in the postoffice which are signed by Frank H. Jones, First Assistant Postmaster General, which reads as follows: "Don't mail your letter or valuable package without having your own address written or printed upon the upper lefthand corner. This will insure its return to you if not delivered, and will prevent its being delivered, and will prevent its being sent to and opened at the Dead Letter

Such work can be done neatly and West Reynoldsville Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the West Reynoldsville town council was held in the council chamber of that borough on Tuesday night of last week.

Following is the millage laid by Coun-ell for 1895: Borough tax six mills; bond tax three mills.

The street committee was instructed to put the street commissioner to work on the streets as soon as possible.

Company Store Bill.

In another column of this issue will afternoon.

Office

paid.

THE OLDEST INHABITANT. MRS. AMELIA REYNOLDS HAS LIVED HERE 57 YEARS.

> Short Sketch of Her Life and Early Experience in Reynoldsvill spectacle. The afternoon and evening spectacle. The afternoon and evening performances were both excellent. The acrobatic feats were particularly well performed. The many fine feat-ures brought forth frequent bursts of applause. No discontented remarks were heard at the close of either per-formance, for the public had more than received its money's worth. Any time the Big London visits us again, it can do so with the assurance that all its seats, reserved or otherwise, will be taken at an early hour."-Chromate, Wappinger's Falls N. Y. At Reyn-oldsville Tuesday May 28th, afternoon and evening. Admission only 25c. Nathaniel B. Hipple, a Beechwoods farmer, died at his home at four o'clock on Monday morning, May 20th, aged 82 years. Twelve or fourteen years ago his first wife died by whom he was father of fourteen or fifteen children.

A half century has transformed a wild-erness into the beautiful place called Reynoldsville. Mrs. Amelia Reyn-olds, reliet of Woodward Reynolds. came to this place with her busband fifty-seven years ago the first of last month. Below we publish a short sketch of her life and first experiences sketch of her life and first experiences in Reynoldsville. Amelia Ross, daughter of John Ross, was born in Philadelphia January 23, 1817. Two years afterward her parents moved to Worthington, Armstrong county, six miles from Kittanning, where Amelia spent her girlhood days, where Amelia spent her girlhood days. where Amelia spent her girlhood days. She was a plump, rosy, fair-to-behold maiden. David Reynolds, of Kittan-ning, father of Woodward Reynolds, was married the second time and his second wife was a cousin of Amelia Ross, of Worthington. Miss Amelia visited her cousin occasionally and the result of it was that she cantivated visited her cousin occasionally and the result of it was that she captivated Woodward and he got so tangled up in the meshes of love that he "popped" the question to the Worthington lassie and she promptly acquiesced. The last day of March, 1838, Woodward Reyn-olds and Miss Amelia Ross were mar-ried. David Reynolds, father of the groom, owned three hundred acres of land in the then called Wilderness, where Reynoldsville now stands, which he offered to his son as a wedding pres-ent if he would live on the land. The following morning after the und. The following morning after the wedding the young people started for their new home. At that time there was only one house between Reynoldsville and one house between Reynoldsville and Punxsutawney. The only building here at that time was an old log house, situated where Ab. Reynolds' house now stands, with two rooms upstairs and three down, used for a hotel. "Wilderness" was not a misnomer for the place, as there was not a half lot cleared around the house. The Water-ford turnpike was the only road. There were numerous paths through the will. were numerous paths through the wil-derness that had been made by the Indians who had previously roamed the forest, a few of whom were still in this section when Mrs. Reynolds came here. David Reynolds, oldest son of the above mentioned couple, who now resides here mentioned couple, who now resides here, has the distinction of being the first white child born in this section. In those early days "Muz," as she is now called, did not have neighbors nearby to drop in to visit. The postbe found a bill regarding company stores, which has passed the House and is now in the Senate, that will be of is now in the Senate, that will be of interest to a large number of the readers of THE STAR. Representative Wyatt gets credit for it but Hon. W. O. Smith, of this county, is father of the bill. Mr. Wyatt had a bill on second reading re-garding company stores. This one was pronounced a much better bill, but Wyatt was determined to have his bill on the output and was only willing to nearby to drop in to visit. The post-office was located at Luthersburg, and office was located at Luthersburg, and the grocery store was a four horse wagon from Philadelphia which made monthly trips through this section. The proprietor, or clerk, of that gro-cery was an Irishman named Joe Mor-row, no relation, however, to "Muz's" son-in-law, Joseph S. Morrow. Meat shops were not needed, for when meat was wanted it was a small matter to step out of the house and kill a deer or go through and was only willing to substitute Smith's bill by having the measure presented as Wyatt's. step out of the house and kill a deer or get some other kind of game. Besides the three hundred acres given him by his father, Woodward Reynolds bought eight hundred acres, so that his land was eleven hundred acres is all. Me hundred acres in all. Mr Reynolds had three or four men working for him most of the time. Mrs. Reynfor him most of the time. Mrs. Reyn olds would get dinner ready and carry it to the men when they worked as fai down as Hopkins. She walked a parrow path through the woods and thought nothing of it, although bears, were plenty in this section at that time. It was a common occurrence for porcupines to come into her house and get into the salt barrel. The wild animals made the forest echo every night as they roamed about. Mrs. Reynolds visited the home of her parents about once a year on horse back and carried a baby in her arms. It took and carried a baby in her arms. It took her four days to make the trip, two days each way. It was a lonely ride. Several years after moving to the place Mrs. Reynolds had an experience with an Indian named Blackhawk, which is very vivid in her memory to-day. The Indian called at the house, asked for something to eat and was given bread and meat. He was mad because she did not give him tea. He because she did not give him tea. He gave the lunch to a big dog lying be-hind the stove and left the house. Towards evening he returned for the express purpose, Mrs. Reynolds be-lieves, to murder her, but several of the men were in the house and he left. Two or three days afterwards the same Indian murdered a woman and five children by beating their brains out with a stone. In those days people from the neigh-borhood of Brookville and Luthersburg borhood of Brookville and Luthersburg would come to this place to enjoy a "ho down," and Mrs. Reynolds would pre-pare an extra bill of fare of ham and eggs for the occasion. Fifty cents paid for supper, lodging, breakfast and two drinks of whiskey at the old log inn. Mr. Reynolds built the brick hotel, known as the Commercial House, in 1850, which they moved into. which they moved into. Mrs. Reynolds was left a widow in 1861 with one dozen was left a widow in 1861 with one dozen children, four boys and eight girls. Of these, four have long since been placed beneath the sod. Those living are: David, Albert, Mrs. C. C. Gibson, Mrs. J. S. Morrow, Mrs. Frank Miller and Miss Ida, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Chas. Montgomery, of Sligo, and Mrs. L. L. Seeley, of Spivey, Kan. Among a few of the surving acquaint-ances of Mrs. Reynolds' younger days in this place are Daniel Sharp. Ephraim Murray, Isaac Cochran, Mike Best, Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Mrs. Hull. "Muz," who is over 78 years old, is getting feeble now and has to be wheeled around in a chair. She united with the Presbyterian church thirty with the Presbyterian church thirty years ago.

SOCIETY'S WHIRL.

Lawyer G. M. McDonald spent Sun-day at Penfield.

Mrs. Sam'l Jane left Reynoldsville Monday for England.

Mrs. E. M. Gibson is visiting at Reids-burg, Clarlon county. George Harris is in Harrisburg and Philadelphia this week.

Mr. Sam'l Himes, of Brookville, spent Sunday at Robt. Waite's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mellinger spent Sunday in Punxsutawney. Mrs. A. Boyd Thorn, of Clearfield, is visiting in Reynoldsville.

Mrs. W. C. Elliott visited her parents in Brookville the past week. Mrs. E. Conrad, of Curwensville, visited in Reynoldsville last week.

Irvin Winslow and Albert Harris were in Westville, Pa., last week.

Mrs. George Kline visited Rev. J. H. Jelbart's family at Stanton last week.

Mrs. Wesley Motter returned Monday from a visit with her daughter in Du-Pols

Mrs. Jos. Strams, of Brockwayville, visited Mrs. N. Hanau at this place last week

Dr. R. E. Harbison is visiting the home of his parents at Indiana, Pa., this week

Jos. S. Morrow and daughter, Amelia, re visiting Mr. Morrow's mother in Pittsburg.

Daniel Coyle, of Wheeling, West Va., is visiting his brother, M. J. Coyle, at City Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Elder, of Beech-tree, attended the Weitzel-Stephenson wedding this morning.

W. C. Helmbold, of Curwensville, was the guest of Dr. W. B. Alexander several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagner, of Worthville, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. S. V. Shick.

Mrs. Fred A. Alexander and sons started for East Liverpool, Ohio, this morning to visit her parents.

Mrs. Wm. Rosenburger, of Helvetia, visited her brother, John T. Stiver, in West Reynoldsville last week.

Mrs. Martin McCarty is in Philadelphia this week to consult one eminent physicians of that city. one of the Mrs. J. C. Noble, of Punxsutawney, visited her mother, Mrs. Harriet Rep-sher, ou Jackson street this week.

Vere King, who has been a student two years in the Philadelphia Dental College, is at home on a vacation.

Mrs. John Doyle, of Clarion, came to Reynoldsville last week to attend th funeral of her father, Joseph Watson.

Mrs. G. M. McDonald and young son went to Penfield last week to visit the youngster's grandparents for a short time.

Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Canisteo, N. Y., and Mrs. J. B. Nichol, of Eleanora, were visitors at Dr. J. B. Neale's last week

E. Sherman Vosburg and family, who have been at Cario, Oregon, for almost three years, returned to Reynoldsville last week.

Mrs. James Orr, a member of the Rebekah lodge of this place, is in Philadelphia attending the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge.

William Marshall is in Philadelphia this week as a delegate from the I. O. O. F. lodge of Reynoldsville to the Grand Lodge.

Dr. B. E. Hoover and wife went to Findley, Ohio, last week where Mrs. Hoover expects to remain for sometime visiting her sister.

Miss Ella Sykes went to New York last week, and to-day she sails from that city in a steamer for a pleasure trip to England, Paris and France.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Bangert, of Falls Creek, were in town Monday. Mr. Bangert expects to issue the Herald again about the last of next month.

B. F. Robb, who has been troubled with swelling in his feet for sometime, went to Baltimore, Md., last week to consult an eminent physician of that city. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Riston went to Pittsburg Monday to attend the funeral of a nephew, and from Pittsburg they will go to Brooklyn, N. Y., to visit their daughter, Mrs. M. E. Hayden. Rev. E. Lewis Kelley was at Patton, Pa., last week as a delegate from the Clearfield Baptist Association assisting to organize a new Baptist church at that place. Rev. Kelley preached in the evening. Mrs. Joseph H. Nickols, of Lock Haven, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Chas. Rumbaugh, in West Reynolds-ville. This is Mrs. Nickols' first visit to this place since she become a bride six months ago. Ellijah Trudgen, who has been in the business in Reynoldsville for years, sold out most all his grocery several goods at auction on Saturday. He will move to Mt. Jewett, Pa. Mr. Trudgen is a pleasant and accommodating gentle man. D. W. Atwater left Reynoldsville last Thursday for Hornellsville, N.Y., where he takes charge of a steam carousal, or in other words, a merry-go-round, which he will travel with during the summer. Mr. Atwater is a hustler and will, no doubt, gather in a good supply of the "coin of the realm" during the season. Dr. Harry King, son of Dr. J. C. King of Reynoldsville, graduated at the Jeffer-son Medical College in Philadelphia last week and is now the possessor of a first-class M. D. "sheepskin." Harry is a young gentleman that will be a credit to the profession he has chosen. Out of sixty applicants who were examined for a position as resident physician in the St. Marys Hospital at Philadelphia, Harry was one of the three successful ones, and has taken up his work in that institution. This is another Reynoldsville young man who another Reynoldsville young man who has entered a successful career.

"Chas. Lee's famous London Circuss visited town Wednesday, pitching its six tents on Warren ave. The noon pa-rade, with two bands of music, beauti-ful caparisoned horses and diminutive ponies, the gaily attired riders, golden wagons, cages and chariots, donkeys, clowns, etc., formed a most fascinating construct.

Thirty-four hundred dollars were sold at the meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening at an average premium of eighteen cents.

Ice cream, cake and coffee will be served Friday next May 24, at the home of Mrs. Henry Herpel, West Reynoldsville, for the benefit of the Presbyterian ladies work society.

Our people who have money to invest should remember that the school board is ready to receive offers for the school bonds to be issued. The board has already received offers.

There will be no services in the Baptist church Sunday morning. In the evening the Pastor will preach a sermon on the death of B. J. Wells, addressed especially to the young people.

Dr. S. Reynolds and W. B. Alexander resigned as directors for the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association and L. J. McEntire and Chas. Herpel were elected to fill the vacancy.

The DuBois Sunday Dispatch has suspended publication and a new daily paper, called the Evening Gossip, has taken its place. The new paper was issued Monday evening for the first time.

Builders look to your walls. "Adamant" is the perfection of wall plaster and is the result of a life devoted to scientific research. I can show you an interesting story about some of the imitation, H. Alex. Stoke, agent.

We neglected to mention last week that Judge Christ Miller, of Punxsutawney, has resigned the office of Associate Judge of Jefferson county. Edward Henderson, of Brookville, was appointed to fill Judge Miller's unexpired term.

Have you your property insured? This is the time of year for fires. If you are not insured don't wait, but call on or address C. B. French, the Reynoldsville insurance agent, at once and get his The best companies represented. Office, Nolan Block, with G. M. Mc-Donald, lawyer.

Ira Beebe, one of the overseers of the poor of this borough, says the poor business is dull now, he has only made one day in two weeks. There are eleven depending on the borough for the necessaries of life. One old fellow, who wandered in here a few months ago. got miffed at the poor overseers and left town because they would not allow him to board where he wanted to.

Will J. Weaver, of the Reynoldsville Novelty Company, presented this office with one of "Weaver's Non-Such Dustless Blackboard Eraser" last week. This eraser was patented August 8th. 1893. It is perfectly dustless and guaranteed to leave a cleaner surface and wear longer than any other eraser on the market. It is certainly an excellent thing in the blackboard eraser Hine.

Two young fellows raised quite a common on Main street Monday evening by swearing and wanting to fight, and finally did have a "scrap" and then ran down an alley to escape arrest. Such scenes are shameful and a disgrace to common decency. The names of these two disturbers of the peace could easily be obtained by the officers and they should have been sent for the following morning and taught a lesson. J. M. Richey, a young man from Smicksburg, Pa., had the back of his right hand severely cut with a doublebitted axe last Saturday morning on Lo Moore and John Burtop's log job in Beechwoods. Richey "tackled" a hemlock log without calks in his shoes and he slipped off the log. Richey came to Reynoldsville and had his hand dressed and then went to his home to nurse it. The young man had not done a stroke of work for Moore & Burtop before the accident happened.

Even Coming from N. Y.

Through the columns of THE STAR the news has reached New York that there is to be a grand celebration in Reynoldsville on the Glorious Fourth and people of that city have already arranged for their summer vacations so that they can spend the Fourth in this place. New York may have a few more people on Broadway every day than we have in Reynoldsville on Saturday nights, but it can not hold all its citizens there when Reynoldsville decides to have a big time, at least we were so informed while in New York last week. Reynoldsville will lead the van on this occasion. It will hardly be worth while for any of the towns within twenty-five miles of this place to try to get attractions to draw the people. Have all your friends far and near posted on this being the place for them to come on Independence Day.

"Worked" Ab for a V.

"Our Country Cousin" was billed to appear at the Reynolds opera house last Thursday evening, but the company failed to materialize, much to the disappointment of the manager of the opera house and those holding complimentary tickets. The whyfore of the non-appearance of the company was that the exchequer of the concern had become depleted and the public patronage was not sufficient to replenish it. The advance agent borrowed five dollars from Mr. Reynolds and gave him an order on the proprietor of the show for the amount. Ab. had dealings with the proprietor before and thought he would get the "fiver" again until he received word Tuesday night that the company had become financially embarrassed. It is very likely the advance agent knew when he was here that the company would soon run ashore and for that reason he "worked" Ab for the five dollars.

Following is the programme of G. A. A. Memorial services to be held in the I. E. church Sunday, May 26, 1895: M. E. Church Subday, May 25, 1890; Singing—Battle Hym of Republic". Cong. Invocation. Rev. H. R. Johnson Singing—No. 20i in Triumphant Songs. Cong. Prayer. Rev. H. R. Johnson Scripture Lesson. Rev. E. Lewis Kelley Singing—No. 207 in Triumphant Songs. Cong. Solo. The Triumphant Songs. Cong. Solo. The Church Schlad Song Solo.

Memorial Sunday.

Agreeably Surprised.

G. W. Childs, of Ridgway, president G. W. Childs, of Ridgway, president of the Elk Tanning Co., was in Reyn-oldsville a few days ago and agreeably surprised J. W. Dempsey and Sam'l Young by giving the former $120.00 and the latter $75.00. Mr. Dempsey fell into a vat of hot liquor January 12th and has not worked since. Mr. Young mot the same fac in the same set for met the same fate in the same vat five weeks later. It was certainly a kind act for the corporation to pay the men while they were unable to work. these

An Advance in Leather.

Leather has advanced in price and the natural consequences are that foot wear will also go up in price. We read a letter yesterday that Mr. Robinson received from a Massachusetts firm, from whom he buys shoes, which stated that on account of the advance in stock they were compelled to raise the price on all shoes fifteen cents a pair.

Not Guilty.

George Johnston, of Rathmel, who accidently shot Thomas Kuntz in the Sprague mine the latter part of March, was tried in the Jefferson county court last week for "carrying concealed weapons" and "playfully pointing fire-arms," and was found not guilty but to pay two-thirds of the costs

A broken drum cannot be beaten. Neither can Robinson's shoes.

Four rooms on Jackson st. to let. Enquire of E. DeHaven.

If you want Brussells carpet go to the Reynoldsville Hardware Co's. store.

White goods, laces and embroideries —a fine assortment at Bing & Co.'s. Ladies, you can get pretty silks for 25c. per yard at Bing & Co.'s.

Shoes at old prices at Robinson's, egardless the advance.

Collarett buckles-the finest line at Ed. Gooder's. Best $2.00 bicycle shoes the country affords at Robinson's.

An eye-opener to the public-the amount of goods you buy for $1.00 at Robinson & Mundorff's.

Link cuff buttons and blouse sets for ladies at Ed. Gooder's.

No bad accounts to make up off present customers at Robinson & Mun-dorff's. The best of goods at lowest prices, strictly for cash, our motto. ROBINSON & MUNDORFF.

Gentlemen, call and see the fine line of suiting we are making to order for $16. Bell, the clothier.

Do not forget to look at the silks at Bing & Co.'s before buying elsewhere.