Have Your Money Ready.
The fire company committee will call on the business men of Reynoldsville this afternoon to collect the money subscribed to help meet the expenses of preparing to celebrate the 4th of July. The committee kindly requests everybody to have their money ready to give when they call.

Special Meeting.
The town council and Hose Co. No. 1 held a special meeting in the council chambers Monday evening for the purpose of selecting some place to put the fire alarm bell that arrived last Wednesday. It was decided to put the bell on the corner of Main street and the alley at the Reynoldsville Hardware Company store. Can be Arrested for Fraud.
In another column of this issue will be found an article headed "newspaper laws" which would be well for those to read who are in arrears for their subscription to this paper, for in some cases the law will be enforced before many weeks. There are a few people who owe us three years subscription and we propose to enforce the law if needs be. We have no desire to give any one trouble and hope we will not have to. The man who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it can be arrested for fraud and sent to jail.

Hunted All Night.
A Jackson st. lad of tender years was disobedient last Thursday and was punished for his naughtiness. That afternoon about five o'clock he left the parental roof, accompanied by his dog, to go anywhere to escape home. When the father came home from work the boy was still absent. After supper a search was made by the father and several other men. They hunted for the boy all night and it was not until the next morning that he was found at a log camp about four miles out of town along the Puncsutawney road.

Mr. Conser was instructed to inform the State convention that the Populists of Jefferson county are opposed to narrowing down the Omaha platform. He is also to consult the convention in regard to getting a suitable man to put up for Judge for Jefferson county. Chairman Perry resigned and J. N. Baughman, of this place, was elected county chairman, with power to appoint committeemen when vacancies occur. There was no nominations made for county offices. The convention adjourned to meet at call of county chairman.

Electrical Pranks.
During the heavy storm that visited Reynoldsville about noon on Monday two houses were struck by lightning. Jos. S. Morrow's, in this place, and R. W. Miller's, in West Reynoldsville. Neither house was much damaged. Lightning struck one of the flues in the main part of J. S. Morrow's house and knocked off a half dozen bricks and that was the only damage visible to the flue or that part of the house, but the sink in the kitchen, which is in the extreme end of the wing of the house, was torn out. Mrs. Morrow was working at the sink and had just stepped away for something when the lightning demolished the sink. Mrs. Morrow received a slight shock. The lightning struck one end of Mr. Miller's house and made the shingles and weather boarding fly and set the house afire. Men from the tannery soon put out the fire.

Polish Jubilee.
A number of Polanders were having a hilarious time at a house near the company store Saturday night drinking beer, dancing, fighting, swearing, firing revolvers, &c., until the civilized neighbors could stand the racket no longer and sent for the police. The police went to the scene of debauchery and tried to disperse the disturbers of the peace. Four of the Polanders would not keep quiet and proposed to defy the officers. One burly fellow was so unruly that the mace had to be liberally applied before he could be controlled. He took the mace from one of the policemen and tore all the buttons off his coat. The Polanders had to be taken to the doctors office and it took the doctor about one hour and a half to stitch and dress his wounds before he was put in the lock-up. One policeman would have had no business with the Polanders. The four Polanders were locked up and had to pay $12.00 apiece for defying the officers.

FOREPAUGH'S CIRCUS OUTDONE.
Reynoldsville Will Celebrate the Glorious Fourth in Grand Style.

Great preparations are being made to celebrate Independence Day in Reynoldsville in a manner becoming a live town. Full sheet posters have been posted in various places announcing some of the doings at this place. From these large posters we get the following notice: The great and only Forepaugh's circus will be outdone at Reynoldsville on the grand and glorious 4th of July. An immense program has been arranged and will be conducted under the auspices of Hose Co. No. 1. There will be a parade in the forenoon in which brass and martial bands, civic societies, hose companies, darktown fire company, etc., will participate. Bicycle, hose, foot, wheelbarrow and sack races for which liberal prizes will be offered. The display of fire works in the evening will be the grandest ever seen in the city. An elegant dinner will be served in the G. A. R. hall from 11.30 A. M. to 2.00 P. M. by the hose company. A platform for dancing will be erected near the Hose rooms where those who care to can trip the light fantastic during the afternoon and evening. No expense or trouble has been spared to make a great success of this celebration. Those who miss coming to Reynoldsville will regret it.

Miners' Mass Meeting.
The first of last week the B. L. & Y. C. M. Co. drew sixty men out of the Sprague mine and shut the Hamilton down indefinitely, throwing a number of men out of employment. Among some of those taken out at Sprague were sober, industrious, American-born citizens who have worked in the Sprague mine since it was first opened and own property at Rathmel. A large number of the miners and mine laborers held a mass meeting at the Fuller watering trough on Sunday afternoon to discuss the deplorable condition of the miners of this region and the injustice of the company toward some of their employees. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Ainsly and Rice, of DuBois, and George Harris, of Reynoldsville. The miners concede the company the right to reduce the number of their employees, and also acknowledge that there are too many men here for the amount of work, but they think it an injustice to throw intelligent and sober citizens out of employment and keep a lot of foreigners who are no credit to any community, either financially or morally. A committee was appointed to wait upon the officials to see if there was not some mistake about taking out some of the men at the Sprague.

The Bell, Lewis & Yates certainly have a right to conduct their business as they please, yet it does seem strange that they throw men out of employment who pay taxes, use their influence for right and build homes for their families, and employ men who are just the opposite. Is that justice towards true manhood?

Newspaper Laws.
If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
The Courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held by law a subscriber.
Publishers of newspapers can, under the law, arrest any man for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it.

A Deserved Promotion.
Philip Koehler, who has resided in this place for over twelve years, will move to Hyndman, Bedford county, Pa., in a few weeks. Mr. Koehler is a faithful employee and understands the tannery business thoroughly, and the Elk Tanning Co. has offered him a position as superintendent of a tannery at Hyndman, which the company recently bought, and Mr. Koehler has accepted the offer. Mr. Koehler has been one of the pillars in the M. E. church at this place the past ten years and will be greatly missed. His family are all social and pleasant and have a host of friends here who will regret to say good bye to them.
