Misses Maybel, Nellie and Lotta Sutter invited almost three hundred people to attend a picnic vesterday afternoon in the orehard of the old Sutter place, where S. M. Gourley now lives. The day was a beauty for a picnic, the baskets well filled, the crowd joyous and happy, which made the event a complete success. Hacks were run between Reynoldsville and the picnic ground to accommodate those who did not have conveyances of their own. Mrs. P. Foley was given a surprise party on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. John Stephenson and Miss Mamie Foley got up the surprise and they arranged things so nicely that it was a complete surprise to Mrs. Foley. About forty were present, all carrying with them something to satisfy a good appetite and when Mrs. Foley reached her home at six o'clock the guests were all there and the table loaded with good things to eat, which they all done justice to. It was a birthday surprise

One Dollar A Year.

From this time forth THE STAR has decided to adopt a new regulation governing the financial part of its business. And that is to make the subscription price one dollar a year to all who will pay in advance. Those who want THE STAR for that price can get it by settling all arrearages and paying an extra dollar in advance. New subscribers will also receive the advance yearly dollar rate. The price will remain the same as heretofore, $1.50 a year, but a discount of 50 cents will be given those who pay in advance. THE STAR would like all its old subscribers to avail themsolves of this offer and as many new ones as possible. Remember we will stick strictly to the $1.50 a year price when the subscription is not paid in advance. This special offer holds good until the 1st of January, 1896.

More Machine Men.

Reversed the Decision.

At argument court held in Brookville last week Judge John W. Reed reversed the decision of Burgess Herpel, of West Reynoldsville, in the case of the picture agent that was tried before the burgess of that borough last February for selling without a license.

Bonds All O. K.

We stated last week that the New York parties who are to take the school bonds of this borough were holding off on account of a law passed by the last Legislature of Pennsylvania. The law is all right, the bonds will be sold and the school house will be erected.

Fell Off a Car.

Sam'l Wray was assisting to load a car of lumber in the A. V. Ry yard at this place Friday forenoon and fell off the car on his head and breast. He was unconscious for almost five hours. The supposition is that Mr. Wray received a sunstroke. He don't know anything about how he fell off the car.

Mahoney Dead.

At 4.20 P. M. Sunday Townsend C. Mahoney, the butcher, died at his home in this place from heart trouble. Mr. Mahoney was confined to his bed from Tuesday night. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. P. J. Slattery, and remains were buried in Beulah cemetery. The deceased was born at St. Johns, New Brunswick. He has been running a butcher shop in Reynoldsville for twenty-one years and is well known in the surrounding community.

Reunion Program.

The program for the second reunion of the North-Western Reunion Association, P.O. S. of A., to be held in Reynoldsville on Thursday, August 22nd, is about as follows: Convention in P. O. S. of A. hall at 9.30 A. M.; game the iron hitching rail in front of Dunn's of base ball between members of the DuBois Camp and Reynoldsville Camp at 9.30 A. M.; parade through the principal streets at 1.30 P. M.: immediately after the parade speeches in Centennial hall by Rev. C. H. Fitzwilliams and other prominent speakers; lectures in Centennial hall in the evening by Rev. P. J. Slattery and Rev. Fitzwilliams. Arrangements have been made with the railroads so those from other places can remain for the evening meeting and get home that night.

Reynoldsville Victorious.

A ball club supposed to be composed of bar tenders of DuBols came to Reynoldsville Thursday afternoon to play a nine of the same class of people of this place, but there were only three or four bar tenders in each club. The Du-Bois players came down in three delivery wagons and brought a band with them. The wagons were profusely decorated with little flags, &c. The visitors and Reynoldsville club paraded up Main street before going to the ball grounds. Up to the third inning the game was onesided, the score stood 12-1 in favor of DuBois. After that Kirk got warmed up and began fanning the DuBois players out and at the close of the ninth inning the score was a tie at 18. The visitors did not want to play the tenth inning, but were finally persuaded to do so and they only got one run and Reynoldsville got 2, making the score 19 to 20 in favor of Reynoldsville. The Conrier says: "At the beginning of the third inning the game stood 12 to 1 in favor of DuBois when the visitors concluded they had a soft snap and began to play fast and loose, with monkeyshines for amusement." It was a friendly game and passed off nicely but the DuBois club was defeated simply because they could not help it. They made some errors in the fourth inning just as the home club had up to that time, but it was not through any "monkeyshines for amusements" that they lost the game. The readers of the Courier at this place would have been surprised had not that paper made some excuse for the DuBoisites getting defeated at Reynoldsville.

ENFORCE THE LAW.

Corner Loafing a Misdemeanor by an Act of Legislature. Ten years ago the ordinances of this borough were printed in book form and among the borough laws is one prohibiting lounging and loading on street corners and sidewalks, or using obscene language, or behaving in a disorderly manner. It is hardly necessary to tell the people who have lived here ten years that this has been a dead letter, Loading has been indulged in at the most prominent places in town ever since the ordinance was passed, especially in the evenings. Start at the iron bridge and walk to the east end of Main street some Saturday evening and see how many street corpors are crowded with leafers. The language used sometimes by these loafers is the vilest of the vile. How many arrests have been made since the ordinance was passed?

The last legislature passed an act making corner lounging a misdemeanor in this commonwealth. Before this act passed the Judges of our courts have held that it was not a criminal offense to be found guilty of lounging on street corners. The law reads thusly: "That from and after the passage of this act, if any person or persons shall wilfully make or cause to be made any loud boisterous and unseemly noise or disturbance to the annoyance of the peaceable residents near by, or shall thereby cause the assemblage of persons upon or nearby to any public highway, road, street, lane, alley, park, square or common within this commonwealth, whereby the public peace is broken or disturbed, or the traveling public annoyed, he, or she, or they shall be guilty of the offense of disorderly conduct, and upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace, alderman, mayor or burgess, shall be sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, and to forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars and in default of the payment thereof shall be committed to and imprisoned in the county jail, of the proper county for a period not exceeding thirty days."

In all probability the corner loafers in Reynoldsville will continue to hang on the street corners just the same as they did before the law makers of this commonwealth decided that it was a misdemeanor to do so. It would be a good idea to enforce the law and either break up the habit of loafing on the corner or keep filling up the exchequer of the borough.

Doan or Postlethwait.

At a meeting of the school board Saturday evening Prof. J. C. Doan, of Blossburg, Tioga county, was elected principal of the Reynoldsville schools and given until next Saturday to accept or reject the position. Prof. Doan is a candidate for superintendent of the schools at DuBois and the school board of that town will elect a superintendent this week. If Prof. Doan does not accept the principalship of the Reynoldsville school, Prof. A. J. Postlethwait, who has been a teacher in our schools for sometime, will be the principal during the ensuing term, and G. B. Whitehill will be teacher of the room to which Postlethwait was elected a few weeks ago. The term is seven months and the salary for principal $75.00 a

According to the following, clipped from the Brockwayville Record, our school board offered to increase the salary to $100 a month to get Prof. R. B. Teitrick to accept the position: "An offer from Reynoldsville was the reason why Prof. Teitrick desired to be released. The school board there made him an offer of the principalship of the publie schools at a salary of $100 a month. This was $25 a month better than the professor was doing here, besides a higher standing and more prestige in the ranks of educators, and Mr. Teitrick was inclined to accept. The board here was loth to part with him, however, and Mr. Teitrick finally consented to remain. In consideration of the sacrifice the board increased his salary $10 a month."

Pastor Installed.

Last Sunday forenoon Rev. Paul Metzenthin was installed pastor of Trinity Lutheran church. The President of the eastern conference of the Pittsburg Synod, Rev. R. G. Rosenbaum, dressed in clerical robe, opened the services according to the liturgy of the church. The officiating minister, Rev. Rosenbaum, based his sermon on two texts, I Tim. 4: 16 and 1 Thes. 5: 12 and 13, and divided it into two parts, one addressed to the pastor, the other to the congregation. After the sermon the officers of the three congregations constituting the charge, together with Rev. Metzenthin, approached the altar and the installation services proper began. The officers affirmed that Rev. Metzenthin had been regularly called, and the pastor promised to be, with the help of God, a faithful teacher and shepherd of God's people. The singing of a hymn and the pronunciation of the benediction concluded this impressive service. Many were the good wishes and congratulations addressed to Mr. Metzen-

Thomas Hutchison Sr., father of our townsman, W. J. Hutchison, died at Beechwoods Wednesday afternoon of last week, aged ninety-two years last June. Mr. Hutchison was born in Ireland and moved to the Beechwoods settlement 44 years ago. His remains were buried in the Beechwoods ceme tery Friday forenoon besides the wife who preceded him twelve years before Mr. Hutchison was blind the last eight years of his earthly existence. His bodily strength gradually weakened as the years passed and when a mild attack of cholera morbus came upon him about ten o'clock Wednesday it only took the malady a little over six hours to cause his death. The deceased lived in Snyder township, near Brockwayville, and we glean the following from the Record, the editor of that paper being acquaint ed with the deceased:

The death of Uncle Tommy, as he was familiarly called, is the final ending of a notable career in the annals of Sayder twp. Mr. Hutchison was a prominent figure in the early development of the community, and although he had passed off the stage of action some years since and was resting serenely in the vale on the borders of the close of life the consciousness that he still remained served to keep fresh the pleasant associations which bound him in tender ties to the earlier inhabitants. Like Thomas Moore, the poet, Thomas Hutchison was a true-born Irishman. He was a native of County Donegal, and of a place called Carrickmore. Heading in the mountains of the west of Ulster, with a large tributary coming down from the south of the County Tyrene. the majestic river Foyle makes its way to the Lough and to the sea. It was on the river Foyle that Mr. Hutchison passed the early part of his life. For twenty-seven years he was in the employ of one man fishing for salmon. Many a night when the moon shown softly down upon the rippling waters of the stream the young man in his canno paddled across the river bent on a tender errand. The success of his evening voyages was complete. Catherine Mc Clintick joined fortunes with him, and until her death about twelve years ago they lived a life of happiness, raising a family of eight children, all of whom are to-day living. About 1848 a relative in America urged the family to come to this country, and after a deliberation they came to New York. About a year later they arrived in Jefferson county, and shortly afterward bought from Allen Green the place which has been the old homestead ever since. For about sixteen years Mr. Hutchison was taxcollector of Snyder township, and it is to his credit that the township always presented a clean record at the treasur er's office when the returns were footed up and never a man was distressed for taxes in that time. Mr. Hutchison was a man of sterling integrity. He possessed a keen appreciation of humor a well as a kindly disposition which made him a welcome visitor everywhere. His genial traits of character will always be remembered as well as his passionate adoration of Robert Burns, the Scottish bard, whose poems he had on his tongue's end. Buffalo Bill's Great Exhibition.

The event in the amusement world this year will be the advent of Buffalo Bill's Wild West. It is over eight years since this great educational entertainment has been seen in this vicinity, and in those years it has had an experience and a career unequalled in the world's history. The magnitude of this enterprise, which travels with all the requirements of an army, is in itself a marvel. It requires two trains to transport it, and carries with it not only an army of men and horses, but the largest portable grand stand, capable of seating 20,000 people, ever constructed, and a portable electric light plant of 250,000 candle-power, which gives a "lustre of midday to objects below."

It presents the greatest series of accurate pictures of frontier life ever conceived, and it is veritably "history related by the men who made it." The many thrilling events which stir the blood in literature are re-enacted by the participants. The Indian at home: his habits, customs and manners in peace and war; his amusements and his labors are all depicted. The life of the scout, the imigrant, the pioneer, the cow-puncher, and the express rider are all fully illustrated with fascinating verisimilitude. It will be in DuBois, Pa., Friday, Aug. 16th, afternoon and evening.

Bids Wanted.

The school directors of Winslov township will receive sealed proposal up until noon of August 17th, 1895, for building a new school house. Specifications of the building can be seen at THE STAR office.
