One Dollar A Year.

From this time forth THE STAR has decided to adopt a new regulation governing the financial part of its business. And that is to make the subscription price one dollar a year to all who will pay in advance. Those who want THE STAR for that price can get it by settling all arrearages and paying an extra dollar in advance. New subscribers will also receive the advance yearly dollar rate. The price will remain the same as heretofore, $1.50 a year, but a discount of 50 cents will be given those who pay in advance. THE STAR would like all its old subscribers to avail themselves of this offer and as many new ones as possible. Remember we will stick strictly to the $1.50 a year price when the subscription is not paid in advance. This special offer holds good until the 1st of January, 1896.

G. Bohren, the baker, has opened a first-class oyster parlor in the room formerly used for an ice cream parlor, where stewed, fried and raw oysters will be served at any time during the day or evening. If you want a good dish of oysters go to Bohren's for them.

Willis Hoon was trying to stop a coal car in Big Soldier mine one day last week by putting his finger on the rail in front of the car, or at least he got his finger under the wheel, whether he was trying to stop the car or not, and now that finger demands special attention.

A total eclipse of the moon is on the program for the night of Sunday, November 17. The totality will begin at 7.55, and from that time the circular shadow of the earth will occupy more and more of the surface of the moon until at 11.06, when the eclipse will become total.

The DuBois papers are making unsuccessful appeals to the DuBois committee who handled the money and bread donated to the miners' relief fund at that place, during the recent suspension, to publish a statement of what distribution was made of the money and bread. The committee is certainly in a position, or should be, to give the information asked for.

In another column of this issue will be found an outline for reading the bible through in one year. A number of Reynoldsville people began the reading the first Sunday of this month. Those who intend taking up the reading will find the outline convenient to refer to from time to time, and therefore, had better clip the article and put it in their bibles so that they will have it when they want it.

The union prayer-meeting of the Epworth League and Endeavor Societies held in the Baptist church Sunday was an entertaining meeting, but not what it should have been had all been prompt in taking part in the services. The main part of the church was crowded with members of the various societies. Such meetings should be the means of uniting the young people in their efforts to do good in the town.

The B. R. & P. Ry has taken the morning and evening trains off between Punxsutawney and Falls Creek. These trains were convenient for the people of Punxsy and will be greatly missed, especially by those who have business at Brookville and want to go back home the same day. These trains were taken off a couple of years ago and were put on again at the urgent request of the Punxsy people. It is evident that the morning and evening trains between the places above named, do not pay.

The W. C. T. U. entertainment held in Centennial hall Saturday, was an excellent entertainment, but not as well attended as it would have been had it not been for the inclement weather. The entertainment will be repeated on Saturday evening of this week and those who have tickets and did not attend can go on Saturday evening and will be admitted on the tickets they now hold. The admission to this entertainment will be only ten cents. A special feature will be a scarf drill by seven little girls. The program will not be the same as it was last Saturday evening.

Postmaster McGaw found the following notice in the drop letter box last Friday morning without a name signed thereto: "Postmaster please send my mail to Kittanning, Armstrong Co., Pa." Of course the party who wrote the notice will get his or her mail forwarded to Kittanning—when the P. M. gets his or her name. This is similar to an incident that occurred in the Reynoldsville postoffice a few years ago when a gentleman who had not been long away from the Isle of the Shamrock walked into the postoffice and inquired for mail. "What is your name?" asked the P. M. "Sure I'll be on the back of the letter."

Knifed His Eye.
Charley, four-year-old son of George Roller, sr., was playing with a pen-knife last Thursday and accidentally ran the point of the blade into the pupil of his right eye and ruined the sight of the eye.

Two Old Men Gone.
Two old men of Rathmel have gone the way of all flesh since our last issue. On Wednesday Benjamin Price, aged 62 years, died and was buried in the Prospect cemetery. On Saturday morning Peter Dupont, aged 73 years, died and was buried in the Catholic cemetery Monday forenoon.

Foust Will be a Candidate.
Dr. J. W. Foust has decided to be a candidate for the nomination for Assembly, and from the Brookville Republican of last week we clip the following notice: "The many friends of Dr. J. W. Foust, of Reynoldsville, are pushing his claims as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly. The doctor is a gentleman in the fullest sense of the term, possessing all the requirements of a successful representative, and the Republicans of the county could go further and fare worse than by sending him to Harrisburg."

Mrs. Carey Dead.
Mrs. Ellen Carey, relict of Michael Carey who died May 22nd, 1894, of heart failure, died at her home on Jackson street at eleven o'clock last Wednesday night from heart trouble. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at 9.00 A. M. Friday and remains were buried beside her husband in the Catholic cemetery. The deceased's maiden name was Ellen Foley. She was 56 years old the 25th of last March. She was married to Michael Carey at Clyde, N. Y., in 1856. Mrs. Carey had lived in Reynoldsville over twenty-four years and was well known in the town and community and had many friends. Pneumonia seized her and she wrestled with it a short time and heart trouble followed which suddenly ended her earthly existence. Three sons and three daughters survive the deceased.

Buried in the Sea.
Major Henry C. Dane, a lecturer of graphic and eloquent manner, with an inexhaustible stock of information, which he poured out like a mountain torrent, who delivered two lectures in Reynoldsville under the auspices of the Reynoldsville Lecture Association in 1892-93, died week before last on a steamer on a return trip from Australia and his remains were buried in the trackless sea and covered with the billows thereof. The Reynoldsville people who heard Mr. Dane deliver his lectures, "Up the Rhine and over the Alps with a Knapsack" and "The Great Naval Battles of the Rebellion," will remember how clear and forcibly they were delivered, the vivid picturesque description, loftiness of sentiment, power of imagery and the great earnestness of the lecturer.

Typoid Fever Victim.
Thos. H. Spears, son of J. S. Spears, died Monday evening at his home on Worth st. after a short tussle with typhoid fever. Tom was out on the streets last Wednesday. He was an honest, sober and industrious young man and, having lived in this place from his boyhood days, was well known in the town. He was born January 9th, A. D., 1867, in Camborne, England, came to America with his parents in June, 1869, and they resided in Johnstown, Pa., until 1871 when they came to this place. He and was 28 years, 10 months and 2 days old. Several years ago he was married and he leaves a widow and one little daughter. The deceased was a member of the Sons of St. George and the Knights of the Golden Eagle, and was a Past Officer of each lodge. Funeral services will be held in the M. E. church at 2.00 P. M. to-day, conducted by Rev. J. W. Crawford. The Sons of St. George and Knights of the Golden Eagle will attend the funeral. Remains will be buried in Beulah cemetery.

Town Water.
Last week, editorially, we spoke of the excellent water system of Reynoldsville and that so far during the present drought, while other places were suffering for water, we have had an abundance of pure water. Some one has circulated the story that the town water is impure and unfit to drink because the cows stand in the water &c., and we have been informed that some parents of the town have forbidden their children drinking the town water while at school, fearing they will get typhoid fever or some other disease therefrom. The real truth of the matter is that about the only water that is safe to use now is the town water. The Water Company expended over one hundred dollars this summer fencing in the water works and, therefore, there must be some mistake about cows getting into the water. The company should see to it that cows do not get into the water. We made it our business to interview all the doctors of this place yesterday concerning typhoid fever cases in Reynoldsville and only learned of one case where town water was used in the family, and in that case the person had been drinking well water long away from the Isle of the Shamrock walked into the postoffice and inquired for mail. "What is your name?" asked the P. M. "Sure I'll be on the back of the letter."

"Hopeless Dozen" Ranks Busted.
Several months ago an organization was formed in this place by twelve men who were pleased to call themselves the "Hopeless Dozen." The by-laws of the "Hopeless Dozen," which by the way would make interesting reading, provided that should a member of the society be fortunate, or unfortunate, enough to get married that the remaining eleven bachelors would "chip in" and raise forty dollars for him and he, in turn, to give them a banquet. The forty dollar contribution clause, however, is not to go into effect until the first of January, 1896. George Curtin Strouse, one of the genial and accommodating proprietors of the Commercial Hotel, to-day breaks the ranks of the original "Hopeless Dozen" by skipping from singlebachelorhood to the matrimonial state. Miss Lou B. Foust, the charming daughter of Hon. J. W. Foust, is his accomplice in breaking the organization. Had Mr. Strouse waited two months he would have been entitled to the forty dollars.

The young people left Reynoldsville on the early train this morning for Union City, Pa., where they will be married at the M. E. parsonage this afternoon by Rev. W. H. Bunce, formerly pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church. Bradford, Pa., Randolph and several other places in New York state will be visited by Mr. and Mrs. Strouse before they return to Reynoldsville.

Curt and Lou are both very nice young people, who were brought up in our midst, and are well known by the people of Reynoldsville. Lou was assistant postmaster four years and by her genial and accommodating manners she won many friends. The young couple will take up their abode at the Commercial for a time, at least. THE STAR offers congratulations and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Strouse untold happiness as they travel life's pathway together.

Mr. and Mrs. Strouse will return to Reynoldsville Saturday evening or Monday and a banquet will be given to the forlorn "eleven bachelors" at the Commercial Hotel Tuesday evening, Nov. 19th.

Abner Reed Sued for Non-Support.
Last year Abner Reed, a farmer who lives near Sykesville, claimed that his wife was insane and finally the Court was asked to appoint commissioners to take testimony in the case and render a decision as to whether she was sane or insane, and in May, 1894, the commissioners came to Reynoldsville to take testimony. Lawyer C. Mitchell's office was too small to accommodate the witnesses on the case and it was tried in the opera house. It was an uncommon case and there were a large number of spectators in the opera house all the time during the three days' trial. In October the commission filed their decision which was to the effect that they considered Mrs. Reed sane.

Mrs. Reed has brought charges against Abner for neglect to support her and charges him with driving her away from home with cruel and barbarous treatment. The Court has appointed a gentleman to take testimony in the case and three days and a half was used up last week on the case and all the evidence on the Commonwealth side was not heard. An adjournment was made at noon Saturday with no set time to continue the testimony. This time Lawyer Mitchell's office seems to be large enough to hold the crowd. Much of the evidence given in when the testimony on insanity was taken has been repeated. Mrs. Reed was not allowed to testify at that time, but was put on the witness stand last week, and some of her testimony would not be considered just the thing to appear in a newspaper.

Installation Ceremonies.
The following new officers of Guiding Star Lodge No. 27, were installed in the G. A. R. Hall last Saturday evening by the National Grand Secretary, Mrs. J. D. Thomas, of Wilkesbarre: Worthy Mistress, Mrs. Joanna Anderson; Worthy D. Mistress, Mrs. Sarah Woods; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Jennie A. Barkley; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Eva Evans; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Adella Saxton; Treasurer, Mrs. Matilda Burge; Chaplain, Mrs. Mary Heemer; Conductress, Mrs. Martha Fry; Asst. Cond., Mrs. Mattie Hoffman; Inside Stewardess, Mrs. Carrie Herpel; Outside Stewardess, Mrs. Jane Sprague.

After the installation ceremonies the Degrees were conferred for the purpose of instructions in the new works of the order. After the lodge closed in the Degree work it was opened in the Official Degree when the Degree was conferred on several of the Past Mistresses of Nos. 27 and 37 by the National Grand Secretary. After the lodge closed an elegant banquet was given in honor of the occasion, which was highly enjoyed by all present. A large delegation from Shining Light Lodge No. 37 of Rathmel were in attendance.

The new officers of Shining Light Lodge at Rathmel were installed by Mrs. J. D. Thomas on Thursday evening of last week.

Card of Thanks.
We greatly appreciate the kind spirit manifested by our friends and neighbors during the illness and after the death of our mother. Our heartfelt gratitude is hereby expressed to all who were so kind. CAREY FAMILY.

Buried at Prospect Sunday.
Thos. H. Scott died at Warren Thursday, his remains were shipped by express and arrived in Reynoldsville Friday morning, were taken to Priester Bros', undertaking room, prepared for burial and were taken to his late home on Main street Friday afternoon. The lid of the casket was removed and any one who wanted to could step in to take a look at the remains. Funeral services were held at the house at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. R. Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The Knights of Pythias, of which the deceased was a member, attended the services in a body. The K. of P. had charge of the funeral.

In 1874 Thos. H. Scott moved to Reynoldsville. In a year or two afterwards his wife died leaving him with four small children, one of whom has since died. His sister, Esther Scott, took charge of his home and children and is living with them yet. Squire Scott, who was a shoemaker, was industrious and was generally found in his shop early and late. He served three terms, fifteen years, as Squire, was clerk of the town council for years and was secretary of the K. of P. twelve years, from the time the lodge was organized in this place up to two years ago. The close confinement and failing health effected his mind and two years ago this coming month his friends found it necessary to send him to Warren to be treated and cared for. He was in good standing in the K. of P. and that lodge paid his board and expenses during his two years' stay at Warren. Squire had many friends in Reynoldsville who were sorry to learn of his affliction two years ago and who had hopes that he might be cured. The deceased was about sixty-four years old.

Squire carried five hundred dollars insurance on his life in one company and his family will get two hundred and fifty dollars more from the Knights of Pythias Pennsylvania Relief Fund. The K. of P. pay the funeral expenses. The mortal remains of Squire Scott were buried in the Prospect cemetery beside the wife who preceded him to the eternal land almost a score of years.

Mrs. Sadie M. Anderson, James C. and Mamie K. Scott survive the deceased.

New Schedule.
A new schedule went into effect on the B. R. & P. and Clearfield and Mahoning railroads last Sunday, in which important changes are made, and under the new schedule fewer passenger trains will run between Falls Creek, Punxsutawney and Clearfield. From the DuBois Courier of Monday morning we glean the following concerning the change in trains: "The morning train from and evening train to Punxsutawney have been discontinued, and also the afternoon train to Clearfield. Trains will arrive and depart as follows: The Clearfield at 7.30 A. M. and 5 P. M. For Clearfield at 9.40 A. M. and 1.05 and 7.20 P. M. For Punxsutawney at 10.33 A. M., 1.45 and 4.53 P. M. From Punxsutawney at 9.55 A. M., 1.05 and 4.53 P. M. For Bradford at 9.55 A. M. and 2.15 P. M. From Bradford at 10.33 A. M. and 4.53 P. M. Under the new arrangement the train between Clearfield and DuBois will remain here over night, making the run to Clearfield in the morning and returning here at 1.05, and leaving here for Punxsutawney at 1.45, returning here at 4.53 and leaving for Clearfield at 5 o'clock. It will make a fast run to Clearfield to connect with the Beech Creek train east and return in two hours and twenty minutes. Local freight from Clearfield in the morning will carry passengers to DuBois, arriving here at 9.40 and connecting with mail for Bradford and Buffalo, at 9.55."

Educational Association.
On Friday evening Nov. 1, a number of teachers met and organized an Educational Association, having for its object the improvement of its members professionally, and the advancement of all educational interests in this vicinity. The constitution of the society provides that any person who is interested in educational matters may become a member, and it is hoped that all who are interested in the welfare of our schools will give "aid and comfort" to the enterprise. The first meeting will occur on Friday evening Nov. 15, at the school building, beginning at 7.30. The meeting is not open to the public, but to members of the Society and such friends as they may invite. The program for the meeting is as follows:
music.
Address.....Prof. Hawthorn
The Object and Needs of Our Association.
Paper.....Miss Smeltzer
"The Pollard System" of Teaching Reading.
music.
Paper.....Prof. Pesteloch
The Evils Resulting from Careless Teaching
Recitation.....Miss Dempsey
