Old Parish Registers.

A vicar, John Printer of Worle, is accused in 1584 of having got so drunk "at a Taverne in London, being the howse and signe of the Swann in old Fysh Street," that he had to be "caried to his Lodgings, or some other convenient place, (he) being so drouck, not hable hym-self to goo," that is walk.
He is also charged with being "a common player at Bowles in the churchyard of Worle (his own parish), and a common haunter of Tavernes, alehouses, Bearbeatings (baiting) and Bul-beat-fngs, yea, upon the Sabbaoth daies, and an usual plaler at Tables (backgammon) & Cardes in the ale houses and Tav-ernes."

On Sept. 25, 1691, John Brock of Dundry is presented.

"For usuallie playing of the flues and oudgills in the churchyard theare on Sabbaoth daies and holle daies, as namelle hee, with others, did see uppon St. Marke's daie past, and being re-proved by the churchwarden for the same, hee gaue him a froward answer, sayinge, 'wee are at exercise to doe the kings service, & you will not suffer us, but the whiles, you cutt your neighbors throats.'

"That on Sonndae, 1 Julij, & on Sonndae 24 Junij ult., hee, Arthur Payton, and Edward Ward, tayler, did daunce in the churchyard thereof," and Richard Hulvord "played upon his instrument to those that usuallie daunce in the churchyard theare."—Academy.

Hypnotism.

An authority on hypnotism says that hysterical persons are very difficult to influence. They are so wedded to their own fancies—mental and physical—that they prove very obstinate hypnotic patients. Even if an influence is gained, it passes off very quickly.

When Edward I made a prisoner of the Countess of Buchan, he decided not to put her to death, but instead ordered a large iron cage to be made in which she was exposed, as a prisoner of war, to the execrations and abuse of the English rabble.
