

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1896.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa. Devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Subscription price $1.50 per year, in advance. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Reynoldsville, Pa.

Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

Wm. M. Blose, of Big Run, Republican candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Jefferson county, subject to the action of the primary election in February, was in Reynoldsville last week and made THE STAR office a pleasant call. Mr. Blose is an old time Republican and also an old soldier. He did his country good service in the time of danger and trouble, having served four years in Co. A, 105th Regiment. He has been a life-long worker for the party from which he now seeks the nomination for the office of sheriff. This is the first time he has ever asked for a county office. "Squire Blose has the ability and is made of the stuff to make a good sheriff if elected."

In this issue of THE STAR will be found the announcements of John S. Barr, of Pinecreek township, for Register and Recorder, and W. D. Clarke, of Brockwayville, for Prothonotary, etc. These two gentlemen are now holding the offices which they are desirous of succeeding themselves in for another term. They are both genial, obliging and efficient officers, and as there seems to be a prevailing opinion that they should receive the nomination for a second term without opposition in the Republican ranks, no other candidates have yet announced themselves for the offices mentioned, and are not likely to. There is no doubt but that they will be conceded the nomination without a struggle for it.

Under a proper heading in this issue of THE STAR will be found a list of candidates who are seeking the nomination for the offices that are within the gift of the voters of Jefferson county. All Republicans should read the announcements and select the best man. Sheriff: E. Neff, Ed. C. Burns, Reynoldsville, Wm. M. Blose, Big Run, Jacob M. Chesnut, Brookville; Register and Recorder, John S. Barr, Pinecreek township; Prothonotary, etc., W. D. Clarke, Brockwayville; treasurer, W. W. Crissman, Clayville, W. H. Lucas, Corsica, James S. St. Clair, Punxsutawney, Linus M. Lewis, Young township, Gil. C. Reitz, Rose township; commissioners, L. A. Hays, Winslow township, Daniel Brewer, Perry township, Edward Barry, Young township, S. M. Shields, Clover township, T. R. Lamison, Young township.

Through the kindness of Scott McClelland, we have in our possession a copy of the Ulster County Gazette, published at Kingstown on the 4th of January, 1800, which contains the announcement of the death of General George Washington, who died Dec. 14th, 1799. The two inside pages of the Gazette have pie-wise column rules turned upside down and a black border over a 1/2 of an inch wide around the outside of the pages. The paper also contains a notice of Congress convening on the 10th of December, 1799. The Gazette says: "Mr. Speaker, attended by members present, proceeded to the President's house to present him their address in answer to his speech on the opening of the present session; and having returned the President's reply thereto was read." In his reply to the speaker and members of Congress, President John Adams said: "As long as we can maintain with harmony and affection the honor of our country, consistently with its peace, externally and internally, while that is attainable, or in war, when that becomes necessary, — asserts its real independence and sovereignty, and support of constitutional energies and dignity of its government — we may be perfectly sure under the smiles of Divine Providence, that we shall effectually promote and extend our national interests and happiness." In the Senate's acknowledgment of the President's speech delivered to both Houses of Congress, of which the above is an extract, was the following: "Knowing as we do, that the United States are fiercely anxious for a fair and liberal execution of the treaty of amity, commerce and navigation entered into with Great Britain; we learn with regret, that progress of adjustment has been interrupted by a difference of opinion among the commissioners. We hope, however, that the justice, the moderation, and the obvious interest of both parties will lead to satisfactory explanations, and that the business will then go forward to an amicable close of all the differences and demands between the two countries. We are fully persuaded that the Legislature of the United States will cheerfully enable you to realize your assurances of performing on our part, all engagements with punctuality and the most scrupulous good faith."

Resolutions of Respect.

In memory of our beloved brother, Daniel Norris we, the members of Paradise Grange, No. 854, submit to the public the following resolutions:

WHEREAS The Great and Supreme Ruler of the universe has, in His infinite wisdom, removed from our midst our worthy and esteemed brother, Daniel Norris, and

WHEREAS, The long and intimate relation held with him in the faithful discharge of all his duties in this Order makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore

Resolved, That the wisdom and ability he has exercised in the aid of our Order by service and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this Order, and will prove a serious loss to the community and public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved relations of the deceased brother we express our hope that even so great a loss by us all may be overruled for good by Him that doeth all things well.

Resolved, That the charter be draped in mourning for 30 days, a copy of these resolutions be recorded upon the minutes of this Order, a copy printed in the Reynoldsville STAR and one presented to the bereaved family.

Florida.

It would be hard to find any condition of human ailment that a winter visit to Florida would fail to improve, while those who enjoy good health cannot realize, without experience, what true enjoyment there is in life passed under the golden skies of the "Land of Flowers."

In order to give the public an opportunity to visit Florida at a very reasonable cost, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for a series of tours to Jacksonville. Since the system of personally-conducted tours inaugurated by that company has been in effect, none but words of commendation have been received. Its unexcelled train service, experienced Tourist Agents and chaperons, and above all, its moderate charges, leave nothing to be desired.

The tours to Jacksonville, allowing two weeks' stay in Florida, will leave New York and Philadelphia on January 28, February 4, 11, 18, and 25, and March 3, 1896. The rate, including transportation, meals en rout, and Pullman berth on special train, is $50.00 from New York, and $48.00 from Philadelphia; proportionate rates from other points. For further information apply to ticket agents or address Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, to whom application for space should also be made.

James S. St. Clair, the candidate for county treasurer, at the present time holds the position of collector and treasurer of the borough of Punxsutawney, at his re-election the last time he received a majority over his opponent of three hundred and eighty nine votes, the largest majority ever polled by any candidate in said borough; this shows the standing of this gentleman at his home, the place of his birth.

There is no Appeal.

The board of County Commissioners have requested us to explain, for the information of certain persons who have been criticizing their action relative to the decree of the Court in the appeal case of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Coal and Iron Co., that the said action of the Court is final, and that there is no appeal therefrom. When this fact is known it removes the basis upon which these complaints were raised. —Brookville Republican.
