

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance.
C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1896.

Travelers' Guide.

Passenger trains arrive and leave Reynoldsville as follows:
Allegheny Valley Railway.
Eastward. Westward.
Train 1. - 8:44 a. m. Train 5. - 7:40 a. m.
Train 2. - 1:00 p. m. Train 6. - 1:42 p. m.
Train 3. - 6:57 p. m. Train 10. - 8:48 p. m.

REYNOLDSVILLE POST-OFFICE.
Mails arrive and leave the post-office as follows:
Arrive. Depart.
FROM THE WEST. FOR THE EAST.
1:15 p. m. - 7:00 p. m. 12:30 p. m. - 5:30 p. m.
FROM THE EAST. FOR THE WEST.
8:00 a. m. - 2:00 p. m. 7:15 a. m. - 1:15 p. m.

A Little of Everything.

Weather are we drifting?
Ladies' fine shoes at Deemer's.
Go to J. S. Morrow for shoes.
Hi Henry's $60,000 minstrel Jan. 27.
The base ball season will open April 16th.
Attend the entertainment Saturday night.
All woolen underwear reduced at Deemer's.
Millirens are giving you $2.00 for $1.00 this week.
There is only one shoe house in town and that is Gilblom's.
Deemer's have the most complete line of corsets in town.
Large assortment of children's rubbers at Gilblom's for 25c.
The best family cough medicine is Extract of Wild Cherry and Tar.
The Hopeless Dozen banquet at Hotel McConnell last Thursday evening.
Millirens are having a clearance sale. Clothing, overcoats and underwear at half price.
A few ladies' coats left. If you need one they are yours at any price. Deemer's.
Is it fresh oysters, fish, &c., you want? Go to the Home Supply, opposite the postoffice.
At King & Co.'s you will find baled hay, salt, flour and a full line of general merchandise.
Puck sayeth: "The mind of man runneth not to the contrary so much as that of woman."
At the meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday night $4,000 was sold.
Girls, take due advantage of your opportunities, for there will not be another leap year until 1904.
Gilblom, the live shoe man, gives more for the money than any other so-called cheap shoe house in town.
If the egotism were taken out of some people there wouldn't be enough left of them to hang clothes on.—Tin Horn.
If you want shoes of any kind call at J. S. Morrow's. New fall stock, larger than ever. Come and get prices.
Attend the entertainment to be given in the opera house Saturday evening for the benefit of the West Reynoldsville cornet band.
You will see on Monday next the swiftest parade ever made by any minstrel organization when Hi Henry's champion band parades at noon.
Don't take any risks. A little cough may get to be a big one. Get a bottle of Extract of Wild Cherry and Tar. For sale at the Reynolds Drug Store.
The most active, but unsuccessful, business man is the man who attends to everybody's business but his own. There are business women of the same kind.
The Woman's Aid Society of the Lutheran church desire to express their thankfulness to the public for their liberal patronage at the supper Saturday night.
An excellent entertainment will be given in the opera house Saturday evening for the benefit of the West Reynoldsville band. Reserved seats 25 cents, general admission 15 cents.
A section boss on the A. V. R'y at Penfield was warning a stick of dynamite several days ago and about the time he got it warm the pesky thing exploded. The section boss is still alive.
The Woman's Aid Society of the Lutheran church took in over seventy dollars at their chicken and oyster supper in the G. A. R. hall Saturday evening. Their expenses amounted to about twenty dollars, leaving over fifty dollars profit.
We mentioned last week that Postmaster E. T. McGaw had been called to Junius county by the serious illness of a sister. On Friday of last week Mr. McGaw sent his family a message that his sister had died and that he would be home on Tuesday.

An entertainment will be given in the opera house on Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, for the benefit of the West Reynoldsville band.

Francis J. Weakley, Esq., the young attorney who will locate here, has taken two rooms in the Mahoney building on Main street. They are now being made ready and will make handsome and suitable offices for the purpose.

No freight from Pittsburg for four or five days the past week, which was caused by the burning of the Mahoning bridge on the A. V. R'y, cut some of our grocerymen short on certain lines of supplies they were expecting from the "Smoky City."

On Monday morning at about 8.00 o'clock the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCreight died of catarrhal pneumonia. Funeral services will be held this, Wednesday, morning at 10.00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. R. Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The whole number of pupils enrolled in the Reynoldsville schools up to close of the fourth month, Jan. 6th, was 820. The epidemic of measles and whooping cough has seriously interfered with school work during the last month and at the present time many are absent from school on that account.

An electric clock is being put in the office of the tannery with wires extending through the entire plant, for the use of the watchman. Ten stations are placed in different sections of the tannery and as the watchman visits each and presses a button the time and place is registered at the clock in the office.

Hi Henry's Minstrels, who appear at Reynolds opera house next Monday night, number nearly a half hundred people and is the same big company that made such a big hit at Philadelphia for two weeks. The reason for appearing here is to fill in an off date on route to Pittsburg, where they appear the following week.

The stockholders of the First National bank met in the bank on Tuesday afternoon of last week and elected the following officers: President, C. Mitchell; vice-president, Scott McClelland; cashier, John H. Kaucher; directors: C. Mitchell, Scott McClelland, John H. Kaucher, J. C. King, G. W. Fuller, G. E. Brown, John H. Corbett.

The Republicans of Indiana and Jefferson county were promised three candidates to select from for Senator at the coming primaries, but M. C. Watson, Esq., of Indiana county has withdrawn as a candidate for State Senator and that leaves two candidates in the field, Senator Mitchell of this county, and Mr. Langham, of Indiana county.

We have been requested to state that we were in error last week in mentioning that Hon. W. O. Smith had only filled a Representative's chair two terms at Harrisburg. Smith served three full terms and was elected to fill the unexpired term of F. A. Weaver, which was only a complimentary honor. William Orlando is well acquainted with the members of the Senate and House.

Samuel M. Shields, of Clover township, candidate for Republican nomination for county commissioner, was in Reynoldsville last week looking after his political interest in this place. Mr. Shields, who is one of the present commissioners of Jefferson county, is somewhat handicapped and cannot get out to hustle for the nomination. The auditors are settling the county accounts and it is necessary for Mr. Shields to be in the office most of the time.

George Hughes, familiarly known as "Doc" Hughes, has moved into and taken charge of the Reynolds homestead on East Main street, which has been converted into a hotel, of which mention was made in THE STAR a few weeks ago. The new hotel will be known as the Arlington House. Mr. Hughes has been in the hotel business with a brother of his at Rathmel a few years, and, therefore, has had considerable experience in catering to the wants of the people.

Val S. Murray, of Gaskill township, is announced in this issue of THE STAR for the nomination for county commissioner. Mr. Murray, who is father of our townsman, Dr. J. H. Murray, is a Republican well known in Jefferson county and who has a host of friends in the county. Mr. Murray did not fully decide until Monday of last week to be a candidate, although he has had a hankering after the office for several months. His friends will have to decide by their ballots whether he will serve as county commissioner or not.

Luther A. Hays, Esq., of Rathmel, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner. We have known "Squire" Hays for a number of years and have had business dealings with him and always found him to be a gentleman. He has the ability to fill the office he is seeking the nomination for. The Republicans of Jefferson county would have no reason to regret it if they nominated and elected L. A. Hays to the position of county commissioner. Mr. Hays has been checkweighman at the Sprague mines for years and will certainly get a large vote from the miners of Jefferson county.

Business Change.
There has been a change in the proprietorship of the woolen mill at this place. Dr. W. B. Alexander, who owned a third interest in the mill, has sold his interest to his son, Fred. K. Alexander. We mentioned several weeks ago that this plant has all the work it can turn out during 1896.

Arm Broken.
Lennie Moore, a boy of West Reynoldsville, had one of the bones of his right arm broken about two weeks ago by striking it against another boy's head. His arm was quite sore, but he did not know it was broken and gave it no attention until last Thursday, when the bone was set. It had already begun to mend and had to be broken over again to be properly set.

Two in One Grave.
On Friday, Jan. 17th, death invaded the home of Philip Schneider, on Pleasant Ave., and took away a two-year-old daughter, Maria Anna Della. Measles followed by pneumonia was the cause of the death. On Sunday morning another daughter, Caroline Elizabeth, aged four years, 8 months and 20 days, died of the same disease, and one more child has been hovering between life and death for several days. Nine children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Schneider, four of whom have been taken away by the hand of death. The funeral services of the two children were held at the house Monday morning at 10.00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. P. W. Metzenthin, pastor of the Lutheran church.

Quiet Wedding.
P. T. Walsh, a groceryman of this place, and Miss Mollie Glenn, of Butler county, who has been visiting at Thomas Black's several months, were married in the Catholic church at 9.00 P. M. last Wednesday by Father Brady. Miss Glenn visited in this place five or six years ago and at that time the wooing began which culminated in a marriage ceremony at the time above mentioned. Mr. Walsh is a sober, industrious gentleman and will make a good husband for the woman of his choice. We were not acquainted with Miss Glenn, but understand she is a nice lady and will make an excellent wife for Mr. Walsh. We wish them success in life's battles. The wedding was a quiet one on account of the poor health of Mrs. Walsh, the grocer's mother.

Citizens' Ticket.
It was announced in the last issue of THE STAR that a meeting would be held in the Centennial hall on Friday evening, Jan. 17th, to discuss the propriety of placing before the voters of this borough a citizens' ticket, to be voted at the coming election of borough officers. A number of voters were present at the meeting on the above date, and the following ticket was the result of their deliberations: Council, A. G. Milliren, H. C. Deible, J. S. Morrow, H. A. Stoke, M. C. Coleman, S. Shaffer, A. H. Hoon; school directors, Dr. J. B. Neale, D. F. Robinson; overseer of poor, David Hartman; tax collector, W. T. Cox; high constable, L. A. Stiles; constable, F. P. Adlesperger; auditor, L. J. McEntire; judge of election, dist. No. 1, C. J. Kerr, dist. No. 2, Jno. H. Corbett.

Six Run In.
Frank P. Adlesperger, night watchman in this place, "run in" six suspicious characters last Friday evening who were loitering on the streets and gave them a free night's lodging in the lock-up. Harry Mincer was in the Seeley, Alexander & Co. bank Friday evening keeping a protective eye on the money to be paid to the B. L. & Y. C. M. Co. employees on Saturday, which had been put in the bank for safe keeping, and he overheard a conversation between two of the strangers who were outside of the bank. He could hear them but they could not see him. They were planning to plunder the town that night and seemed to be of the opinion that they would have a snap of it. This conversation was early in the evening and Mincer got word to Adlesperger and he picked up all the suspicious looking chaps he could find, which was six.

Heart Party.
Mrs. George Mellinger and Mrs. Ira Smith gave a "heart party" at Mrs. Mellinger's on Saturday evening at which over fifty invited lady guests were present. A large piece of muslin with a red heart in the center and a white heart in the center of the red one, was pinned upon the wall and each guest was given a pasteboard dagger and were blind-folded and the one who could stick her dagger into, or nearest, the white heart was to receive a prize, and the owner of the dagger farthest away from the white heart was to get a "booby" prize. Mrs. John H. Corbett got the first prize, which was a silver heart handkerchief holder, and Mrs. S. S. Robinson received the "booby" prize, which was a bronzed heart handkerchief holder. Ida Reynolds made herculean efforts to carry off the "booby" prize, after Mrs. Corbett had daggered the white heart, but her efforts were in vain. The ladies had a "peck of fun" in trying to stab the heart. It was a very pleasant party and the preparations that had been made to tickle the female palates accomplished the purpose for which the good things were intended.

Hemorrhage of Stomach.
The editor of THE STAR had a hemorrhage of the stomach at the American House at Brookville last Saturday forenoon and has since been confined to bed at his home in this place. The attending physician has given us the encouraging information that we will be compelled to stay in bed a week or ten days and will be given no nourishment but a small quantity of malted milk, oyster soup, without crackers, milk and lime water, gelatine, ice cream and "sich" likes, which is all right for a starter or finishing touch for a square meal, but it falls far short of appeasing a No. 1 appetite. However, as the treatment depends on whether we shall remain on this mundane sphere or shuffle off to the City with Golden Streets, where all editors will certainly go,—if their transportation is all right—we try to console our appetite by promises of good things in the sweet bye and bye. THE STAR has been partly edited this week in a position that is not the most convenient in the world in which to write, although it might suit some of the individuals who have been so unfortunate as to be born tired. Our worthy foreman, Roman E. Koehler, has charge of the office while we are resting, but people having any special business with the editor will find him at his home on Grant street.
After the hemorrhage in Brookville we were kindly cared for by Clarence H. Patterson, the accommodating clerk at the American House, and Dr. A. F. Balmer, and then Samuel States, one of the present efficient county commissioners, kindly helped us to the station and looked after our wants until we reached Reynoldsville, and to these gentlemen we are very, very grateful.

Lost in Beechwoods.
Last Tuesday T. C. Reynolds, L. S. McClelland, Henry Herpel and Frank S. Hoffman, members of the Masonic lodge of this place, drove over to Brockwayville to assist in taking the body of Joseph Strauss from his late home to the Ridgway and Clearfield railroad station for the evening train to Philadelphia. The Reynoldsville gentlemen wanted to get home Tuesday night, and that was their reason for driving in place of going on the cars. They got home in time for dinner on Wednesday. The evening shadows had enveloped Brockwayville before they were ready to leave that village. They had been informed that a different road from the one on which they traveled to Brockwayville was a much better road. They were given a verbal chart that would have landed them safe at home, but they failed to follow the directions given and got lost. They awakened a farmer near Harvey's Run and were directed to Falls Creek, the nearest way home. Another homeward start was made and it is hardly necessary to state that the Reynoldsvilleites were surprised when they drove into Brockwayville again about the midnight hour. They put up for the balance of the night and started home after daylight the next morning.

Died Suddenly.
Last Saturday morning James Hoeking, a shoemaker of Rathmel, died very suddenly at the home of his brother, Benjamin Hoeking. He was unmarried and made his home with his brother. On Friday night he retired about nine o'clock feeling as well as usual, and about 3.00 o'clock his relatives were awakened by hearing him cough violently, and, in a few minutes after they entered his room, he expired. The cause of his death was hemorrhage of the lungs. He was aged 50 years, 5 months and 5 days. Funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Rathmel Sunday afternoon, at 2.00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Buzza, of Falls Creek, who is also pastor of the Rathmel M. E. church. Deceased was a member of the I. O. O. F. and the brethren at this place attended the funeral in a body.
Mr. Hoeking was born in St. Just, Cornwall, England, Aug. 13, 1845, and came to this country in 1872. He moved to Rathmel in 1891, where he has since resided. He had many friends in this place, who were surprised and grieved to hear of his sudden death.

Second Night.
The musical entertainment given in the opera house Wednesday evening by Mrs. Erdice's class was better than it was on Tuesday, as the participants were over their "stage fright" and performed their parts with more ease. Last week we published the names of those on the program, but a number of pupils took part in the "greeting" and "parting" whose names did not appear, and that they may not feel slighted, we publish the names of all this week: Katie Smith, Emma Smith, Lottie Foster, Tacey Dempsey, Myrtle Shober, Maud Shober, Nana Wynkup, Ollie Dunn, Joseph Dunn, Kittle Shick, Etta Shaffer, Amy Bollinger, Elva and Dela Belnap, Lois Robinson, Lydia Mellinger, Dollie Sutter, Amelia Morrow, Joseph Silver, Chester Belnap, Jennie White, Elva Coleman, Nolan Warden, Goldie Martin, Katie Nolan, Josie Gibson, Gertrude Deible, Cornie Deible.
Best grade men's rubbers at Gilblom's. All styles and shapes 50c.
At Millirens clearance sale you can get a $10.00 overcoat for $5.00.

An Interesting Meeting.
The meeting of the Educational Association was well attended. The program, consisting of music and the discussion of professional subjects, was well rendered.
Miss Fuller's paper on "Hygiene in the School Room" was a discussion of and a remedy for the evils of bad ventilation, heating, lighting, and arrangement of seats of a school room. Much home study is usually injurious to children as parents give little attention to the placing of the light, position of the child, or the amount prepared. Children under ten years of age should not be permitted to study at home.
As a cause for most hygienic evils Prof. Doane assigned the ignorance of the persons who control the building of the school room, as these persons give little thought to these matters in the building.
Misses White and Butler and Messrs. Mitchell and Dempsey rendered a selection of music which was highly appreciated.

The paper on "The Difficulties Encountered in Teaching Reading and Spelling," by Prof. Hawthorne, was well prepared.
The question box contained the following questions: "To what extent should teachers assist pupils in solving difficult problems?" "What is the teachers duty to himself?" "Does zero have no value?" "Is a teacher ever justified in using sarcasm or ridicule?" Answers were given by Prof. Doane, Mr. Postlewait, Miss Fuller, Miss Whitmore, Mr. Mitchell, and Prof. Hawthorne.
It was decided to hold the next meeting in the West Reynoldsville school building, Feb. 8, at 7.00 o'clock P. M.
The following program will be given: Music; Vertical system of Writing, Miss Myrtle Deane; "What shall Young People Read?" Miss Myrtle Gelst; Music; Current Events, Miss Hannah Stauffer; Select Reading, Mr. Clarence Henry; Question box. SECRETARY.

Narrow Escape.
Ed. McCreight, son of Thomas S. McCreight of Paradise, had a narrow escape from serious injury or sudden death last Friday morning. He was driving down Main street in a wagon and his horses were trotting along at a good gait and when near Dr. Bowser's residence one of the single-trees became unfastened and dropped onto one of the horse's legs and it jumped forward and that let the tongue drop out of the neck-yoke. The lock would not hold the wagon and the horses ran off, but Ed. stuck to his post of duty. When they got to the corner of Main and Fifth streets the people watching the runaway were horrified for it looked very much as if the team would run into the Bee Hive building and Ed. would be killed. The horses turned into Fifth street, the wagon slid on the icy street, the hind wheel struck the iron hitching post and did not even up set the wagon, although the wagon slid around quickly and with great force. Ed. was thrown off the spring seat but was not injured and did not even seem to be as much excited about the affair as some of the on-lookers were. Half the kingdom would not have induced the editor of THE STAR to have been in Ed's place a half second before he was thrown from the wagon. Everything looked favorable for a terrible accident.

List of Jurors.
Following is a list of jurors drawn from Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville, Winslow and Washington townships for the February term of court, which convenes the second Monday in February:
GRAND JURORS.
Reynoldsville—Robt. Bone sr.; Winslow township—Winfield Horn, Al Stewart; Washington township—John McCurdy.
PETTIT JURORS.
Reynoldsville—Ed. Gooder, Edwin Hoare; Winslow twp.—John Hindman, G. W. Mohney, L. G. Lidle, Levi Beebe, Edward Frank; Washington twp.—Wm. Cooper, Joseph Hunter, Andrew Ross, A. W. Smith.
TRAVESER JURORS.
Reynoldsville—Jos. S. Hammond, D. F. Robinson, George Roller; West Reynoldsville—James Orr; Winslow twp.—Jacob Shaffer; Washington twp.—George Burkett, John Zimmerman, Robert Stevenson, William McConnell Jr., Lawrence Pickleman.

In the person of E. C. Burns, who is a candidate for the nomination of sheriff, we have a man of whom the county may well feel proud. From boyhood up to man's estate he has ever been honest and upright and, above all, temperate. Two consecutive terms he filled the office of county chairman with honor to the party and himself. There is no blemish on the character of Mr. Burns, and you will make no mistake in giving him your support at the primary election, February 18th.
* * *
We have a few hundred pounds of California prunes at 5c a pound. Don't miss this chance for prunes.
ROBINSON & MUNDORFF.
Buy from a reliable shoe house like Gilblom's and you will not be deceived.
Men's overcoats reduced way down at Deemer's.
Clothing, overcoats and underwear at half price at Millirens.
Get a pair of men's rubbers at Gilblom's. Best quality for 50c.

SOCIETY'S WHIRL.
Mrs. W. C. Elliott visited in Clearfield last week.

Mrs. A. W. Adams, of Prescottville, is visiting in DuBois.
Esq. M. M. Davis was in Pittsburg several days last week.

Misses Effie and Forest Clover, of Brookville, are visiting in Reynoldsville.

Dr. J. E. Grube and Geo. C. Brown, of Punxsutawney, were in Reynoldsville Thursday.

Miss Agnes Majer, of Punxsutawney, is the guest of Mrs. John O'Hara at the City Hotel.

A. Strauss, of Oberlin, O., spent several days with his sister, Mrs. N. Hanau, at this place.

Miss Rebecca Braden, of Brookville, was the guest of J. K. Johnston's family during the past week.

Rev. P. W. Metzenthin is in Philadelphia, called there by the illness and death of some friends.

Thos. W. Jenkins, of Punxsutawney, was circulating among his Reynoldsville friends this week.

Mrs. Maggie Williams, of Clarion county, visited at R. D. Beer's, in West Reynoldsville, last week.

W. C. Helmbold, of Curwensville, visited Dr. W. B. Alexander at this place Friday of last week.

F. K. Alexander and G. W. Sykes, members of the Woolen Mill Co., are in Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. W. H. Karns, of Verona, Pa., is spending a few days at the home of A. B. Weed, in West Reynoldsville.

O. N. Wilson and wife, of Kittanning, are visiting friends at this place. Mr. Wilson was at one time a Reynoldsville merchant.

Mrs. Wm. Adams, of Glen Riehey, who has been visiting at the home of A. W. Adams, in Prescottville, for some time, returned home Monday.

"Judge" Kaufman, who was news agent on the Low Grade almost a score of years, is now a commercial tourist. He is traveling for a large tobacco establishment.

F. M. Flynn, son of P. F. Flynn, of this place, who is now a student in the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., visited his parents here during the past ten days.

Mrs. N. Hanau, who was at the Jefferson Hospital over six weeks, where she had a critical operation performed, returned to her home at this place last Thursday evening.

V. L. Moore, of Sheffield, Pa., who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Moore in Beechwoods for sometime, was in Reynoldsville several days during the past week.

Dennis Driscoll, who is employed at the Pittsburg Locomotive Works, is spending a few days in Reynoldsville. He received an injury while at work which compelled him to rest for a short time.

Samuel Ressler, of Beaver township, who is seeking the Republican nomination for county commissioner, was in this section several days last week and dropped into THE STAR office to have his name announced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ewing, who have been in Virginia about ten months with their daughter, Mrs. Anderson, returned to Reynoldsville last week. During that time Mr. Ewing was in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

W. H. Lucas, of Corsica, candidate for county treasurer, was in Reynoldsville last Thursday. He is a one-armed man and a real bright fellow, perfectly competent to fill the office of treasurer if nominated and elected.

Mr. Lucas was a candidate in the primaries two years ago for the same office he is now aspiring to and at that time got good support, but John Waite knocked the persimmon. Mr. Lucas has some good workers at this place who are hustling for him.

Among our announcements this week will be found the name of E. Neff, Esq., of Reynoldsville, as a candidate for sheriff. Mr. Neff is well qualified for the position, having had a great deal of experience as constable, and is, from what we can learn, a gentleman above reproach in any way. Besides this he represents a section of the county that has not been represented in the sheriff's office for many years; nearly all the former sheriffs having been chosen either from Brookville borough, or the south end of the county.—Lindsay Press.

Church Notices.
Under this heading will be found the subjects and texts of the pastors of the various churches of Reynoldsville for the following Sunday:
PRESBYTERIAN.
Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor. Morning: "Bad Bargains." Mark 8: 36, 37. Evening: "Public Roads." Isa. 35: 8.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.
Rev. J. W. Crawford, pastor. Morning: "The Old Time Religion." Jer. 6: 16. Evening: "The Eagle Stirring up Her Nest." Deut. 32: 10-11.

Card of Thanks.
I hereby express my thankfulness to the sympathizing friends who were so kind and helpful to me during the time of my bereavement.
BENJAMIN HOCKING.