The county executive committee of the W. C. T. U. held a business meeting in their chapel at Pancoast last Thursday afternoon. Delegates from all over the county were present, among them a number of ladies from this place. Mrs. Mary Graffius, of Punxsutawney, county president, presided over the meeting.

The postoffice and store at Olivesburg, this county, was robbed Thursday night of last week. The burglar, or burglars, secured about $300.00 in stamps, cash and merchandise. This is the second burglary at the same place within a few months. The first time an attempt was made to burn the building after it had February 8, 1896, given by the W. C. been plundered.

The chief editor of the DuBois Courier has consigned the groundhog to his little hole for the next six weeks, while that paper's celebrated poet laureate, M. M. Schaney, has him located above ground for the same length of time. The Courier is bound to be right if it has to make one false prediction in order to get there.

The Bell & Lewis company store at DuBois was burglarized last Friday night and the thieves succeeded in getting away with $500.00 worth of fine dress goods, gold-filled and silver watches and watch chains. The burglars used a wagon to haul their plunder away. They gained entrance into the store by having a key to unlock the front door.

Here's a note recently issued by hygienic authority: One of the most important rules for the preservation of facial beauty is that one should go to sleep smiling, or at least placid-looking. The person who goes to sleep with anxious or angry wrinkles on her forehead and about her mouth keeps them there while she is sleeping, and they soon become ineradicable.

We may have some weather yet. We clip the following from The Reynoldsville Paper dated April 26th, 1883: April in one forenoon isn't doing so bad. This is indeed a grand and glorious country. One day the mercury is trying to climb out of the top of the thermometer and the next it is making frantic endeavors to get into the cellar."

Denny Timbly, a lad aged nine years, was drowned in the Clarion river at Portland Mills, Elk county, while out skating with two companions last Friday afternoon. The three boys had been to school and went skating after school. The ice broke and all three were precipitated into the water and their cries for assistance brought help in time to save two of the boys but young Timbly went under the ice. His body was found Saturday forenoon about three hundred feet down the river from where the ice had broken.

It is becoming a common occurrence for parties to go to Beulah cemetery and dig graves regardless of the place or whether they own lots or not. Recently a child was buried in another man's lot, and another in one of the paths. Both of these bodies will have to be removed to other graves. We have been requested to state that to prevent any further mistakes of this kind that hereafter it will be expected that owners of lots and others will consult the sextons,

Wm. Ferris and J. C. Ferris, before any grave is dug in Beulah cemetery. In this issue of THE STAR will be found the announcement of P. J. Gill. one of Falls Creek's live business men, for the nomination for Assembly. Mr. Gill has been a stalwart Republican all his life, and, we have been informed. has done more to keep his party to-gether in Washington township the past six years than any other individual in the township. He was a delegate to the convention at Harrisburg last fall that chose M. S. Quay for State Chairman of the Republican party. He has always been a worker for the principals of his party and he and his friends think he is entitled to the nomination he is Forty hours' devotion service began in the Catholic church at this place on Sunday. Father McGiveny, of DuBois, Father Lavery, of Driftwood, Father Winker, of Punxsutawney, and Father Joseph, Polish priest of Adrian, assisted Father Brady in the services.

Ear Cut off.

An Italian who lives near G. Macro's grocery store has been minus one of his ears since last Wednesday. The organ of hearing had been partially severed and an attempt was made to heal it up again by sewing it on, but it proved unsuccessful and amputation became necessary. The Italian explained the accident by saying that a wagon had run over his ear.

Just one More.

H. G. Van Keuren, Deputy Great Commander of the K. O. T. M. lodge, has been in this place for several days in the interest of the order. A Tent of the Maccabees was organized here some time ago, but never became very strong, and Mr. Van Keuren came here to make an effort to build it up. The object of the order is to provide for death, sick, funeral, accident disability and old age, benefits to those between the ages of 18 and 51 years, and to educate the members socially, morally and intellectually.

Leap Year Party.

We stated last week that a leap year party would be held at this place in the near future. During the past week the following printed invitation has been mailed to a number of Reynoldsville young ladies: "Yourself and gentleman friend are cordially invited to attend a leap year banquet, to be held in the G. A. R. hall on Saturday evening, Banquet at 10.00 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents." If every invitation issued does not bring the ladies of the W. C. T. U. a 50c. piece we miss our

Why not Close the Schools?

We believe it would be the proper thing for the school board of this borough to close the schools for several weeks until the epidemic of measles among the children of the town is somewhat abated. As it is the schools are going on with a comparatively small attendance and the disease is continually being spread. And then, again, a large number of scholars are losing schooling that they are justly entitled to have the privilege of. The West Reynoldsville school has been closed on account of an epidemic of measles in that borough.

People's Party.

The People's Party held a caucus on Wednesday night, Jan. 29th, and nominated the following borough ticket: Council-three years, T. O. saxton, A. H. Hoon; two years, J. N. Baughman, John Burns, Daniel Solida; one year, David Heffner, Ezra Hartman, Auditor-John Robinson. School directors -A. A. Kleinhans, John McIntyre High constable-Dennis Murphy. Constable-L. D. Kleinhans. Poor overseer -David Hartman. Judge of election-1st dist., Lewis Torrenz; 2nd dist., J. W. McEntire. Inspector-1st dist., J. M. Humphrey; 2nd dist., Geo. Sheets.

A Collision.

A collision between a passenger train and freight train occurred on the B., R. & P. railroad between Ridgway and Johnsonburg last Wednesday afternoon. The two engines and several freight cars were badly wrecked. The passengers were hurled forward against seats in a promiseuous manner and some of them were considerably bruised, but no one dangerously injured. The freight train had a train order against the passenger train at Whistletown siding, but failed to reach the place before the passenger passed the siding and the trains met in a cut on a sharp curve. The engineers and firemen saw the danger in time to lesp for their lives.

Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Riston gave a six o'clock dinner party at their elegant home on Grant street last Thursday evening to a large number of ladies and gentlemen. Ninety invitations were is sued and about twenty regrets returned. An excellent repast was served. Four or five hours were pleasantly whiled away. Among the amusements of the evening was the Bishop of Oxford's Riddles. Each one present was given a card with thirty questions on one side to answer and thirty blank lines on opposite side for the answers. Four prizes were offered. There was a tie between Mrs. F. M. Brown, Mrs. G. M. McDonald and Mrs. W. C. Elliott for the ladies' prize, a pretty little fancy basket. The three ladies cast lots and Mrs. Mc-Donald carried home the basket. Mrs. Caroline Armor and Mrs. W. S. Ross were tie on the ladies' "booby" prize and they had to cast lots and Mrs. Armor carried home the "booby" prize, a china cup and saucer. The two prizes offered to the "Lords" were won by G. W. Palen, who got the first prize, a boat-shaped calendar, and V. R. Pratt the "hooby" prize, a negro baby.

Something to Remember.

Members of a family where a contagious disease exists should remain away from public gatherings of any kind, and should do all in their power to prevent the spreading of the same. At present there is an epidemic of measles in Reynoldsville, a number of children having died of that disease. In many cases the parents and other members of the family are attending church and other public meetings, while this disease is in their homes. It may not be generally known that such persons are violating a borough ordinance, and placing themselves liable to a fine. Below we quote a few lines from an ordinance enacted by the town council of this borough for the better preservation of the public health and to prevent the spread of communicable diseases: "Members of any house hold in which small-pox, diphtheria. scarlet fever or measles exists, should abstain from attending places of public amusement, worship or education, and, as far as possible, from visiting other private houses." The ordinance further states that any person violating same is liable to a fine of not less than $3.00 or more than $20.00, together with costs, for each offense.

A Pleasant Party.

Mrs. W. S. Ross and Mrs. A. P. Utter gave a large six o'clock dinner party at the Ross House last Saturday evening to about four score ladies and gentle men that was equal to any other party of a like nature, for pleasure and good things to eat, that has been given in Reynoldsville for sometime. It developed into a leap year affair when eating time arrived and the ladies had to hunt partners to assist in relieving the culinary department of the load it contained. The gentlemer were given a pink ribbon with the date and a number on it and the ladies were given a blue ribbon with the words "leap year" and a number on it and they had to hunt a gentleman whose number corresponded with theirs. Among the amusements of the evening was throwing darts at a bull's eye on the wall. Each one was given five darts to throw, Four prizes were offered. Of the ladies, Mrs. B. E. Hoover got the first prize, a silver souvenir spoon, and Mrs Anna S. Gibson got the "booby" prize. H. Alex Stoke got the first prize for the gentlemen, a silver hat marker, and Henry Herpel got the "booby" prize.

Peter Yohe Dead. Last Wednesday, Jan. 22nd, Peter Yohe, of Paradise Settlement, died of apoplexy. He was born Jan. 24, 1816, and died at the age of 79 years, 11 months and 28 days. Mr. Yohe was a member of the German Reform church. He was married on the 8th of March, 1849. His wife, three sons and three daughters survive him. Funeral services were held in the Syphritchurch on Thursday afternoon at 3.00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. W. Crawford. The remains were buried in the Syphrit cemetery.

The above death notice appeared all right in proof last week with the exception of one small correction, but in making that correction it was mutilated horribly. We have had it re-arranged so that it will appear this week as it should have appeared last week.

Too Much Rowdyism.

It is a well known fact that there i and has been too much boisterous play by the young boys on the streets in the evenings and nights and too much hoodlumism by an older element. It is high time such work was, stopped. A step was taken in that direction Monday evening when a number of prominent citizens met at Esq. Hays' office and after discussing the matter elected a committee to draw up resolutions and requests to present to the town council, asking the members to take the neces sary steps to have an immediate quietus put to such a state of affairs.

In looking over the columns of the paper lately, we found the advertise ments for various suppers, entertainments, etc., to amount to $2.65 in one issue. This is the same as money paid out of our pocket. No merchant could get the number of lines for any less amount. The newspapers are published by their owners to make money, the same as other business is carried on by the merchant, speculator or banker. This amount every week for a year would amount to $137.80. While the publisher of a newspaper does all this for the various worthy and social objects, and willingly too, sometimes we wonder how it is reciprocated. Many instances are seen almost weekly. When these parties helped by newspaper men willingly take what patronage they have and bestow it on others who could not help them any. If the newspapers are not necessary to the success of the various affairs for which their columns are solicited, why use them? If they are needed and used, why not show at least the appreciation of spending money with them when you must spend it? We suppose the question is hard to answer, is one past finding out, some day the newspaper men will sell their space and get their money for it .-Clarion Republican.

Political Advertisement.

To the Republican Voters of Jefferson County:

It is hoped that every man will turn out and cast his vote at the next primary, February 18th, for the man he feels will honorably and justly fill the office the candidate is running for. We must try and place the right man in the right office, and to do that let us look up a man's past record and if we find no careless and dishonest blotches upon it, we are safe to trust him with the office for sheriff. It would be hard to find a man better fitted in the county than E. Neff, Esq., of this place. He has lived here 23 years and in that time he served as constable four years and fourteen years as justice of the peace. He is honored and esteemed by all that know him as a gentleman of integrity and veracity. In Mr. Neff we have a man of whom the county may well feel proud. In all the business transactions I have ever had with the gentleman for many years he has proven himself honest and prompt in all his dealings. Mr. Neff was a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff at the last Republican primaries and made a good run. His friends thought to have a clear field for him this time and in view of his previous efforts are making a hustle in his behalf. I hope he will meet with success on February 18th.
