The * Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, in advance C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1896.

Eravelere' Guibe.

Passenger trains arrive and leave Reyn-oldaville as follows: Allegheny Valley Railway.

Eastward.
Train 9. - 6.44 a. m. Train 6. - 7.40 a.
Train 1. - 1.00 p. m. Train 2. - 1.42 p.
Train 3. - 6.57 p. m. Train 10. - 8.48 p.

Mails arrive and leave the post-office follows: follows:

Arrive.

PROM THE WEST.

1.15 p. m. - - 7.00 p. m. 12.30 p. m. - 6.20 p. m. FOR THE EAST.

FROM THE EAST.

8.00 n. m. - - 2.00 p. m. 7.15 n. m. - - 1.15 p. m.

Arrives from Rathmel and Prescottville Arrives from Panic Tuesdays, Thurdays ad Saturdays at 2.39 p. m. Departs for Prescottville, Rathmel, Panic

00 p. m. Office hours 7.00 a. m. to 8.00 p. m. Money order office open from 7.00 a. m. to 10 p. m. Register office open from 7.00 a. m. 8.00 p. m. Legal Holidays from 7.00 to 8.00 a. m. and from 13.00 to 3.00 p. m. E. T. McGAW, P. M.

A Little of Everything.

See Deemer's line of belts at 25c.

R. and G. glove fitting corset at J. S. Morrow's.

Shoes for the whole family at Robinson's. Chas. Schultze is dangerously ill with pneumonia

Lawyer C. Mitchell claims he has the whooping cough.

The Keystone band was on the streets Saturday evening.

The new woman's and the old man's shoes at Robinson's.

How to get rich-simply buy your clothing at Millirens. Nicest line of percales outside of a wholesale house at Deemer's. At Millirens clearance sale you can get a $10.00 overcoat for $5.00. Five people will be baptised in the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. L. M. Simmons gave a tea party to a number of lady friends last evening.

We have added a full new line of shoes. Come and give us a call. J. S. Morrow. At King & Co.'s you will find baled hay, salt, flour and a full line of general merchandise. Fresh fish, oysters, fresh butter and who died two years ago. eggs at the Home Supply store opposite the postoffice. Thompson's glove fitting corset at Deemer's, the only place in town where they sell them

A good dwelling house on the corner of Bradford st. and Pleasant ave. for rent. Inquire at this office.

. The Junior Prohibition League will We an entertainment in Centennial hall Friday evening. Admission free.

Any one desiring instruction in music or the languages please communicate at once with Mr. Waldemar Metzenthin. Dr. F. H. Beck, of Brookville, preached two excellent sermons in the M. E. church at this place last Sunday.

A sled load of ladies from DuBois drove to 'Squire J. T. Coax's Valley Home near this place, Friday evening a speat a very pleasant evening Miss Maud Riston entertained about en lady and gentlemen friends at ner home on Grant street last Friday evening. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Over thirty members of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church, and a few friends, drove to DuBois Saturday afternoon and took supper at the National Hotel.

The entertainment given in Centennial hall Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Junior Prohibition League, was greeted with a good sized audience and the entertainment was a good one for the price.

William Bauer and family of this place feel very grateful to the friends and neighbors who were so kind after the death of Julia, and they hereby extend their thanks for the words of sympathy and favors received.

The W. R. C. served an excellent supper in the G. A. R. hall Saturday evening. They did not receive the patronage they should have had for the supper served at small price of 25 cents. ake walk was one of the amusements of the evening.

Katie Belle Hill, daughter of Wm. Hill of Prescottville, aged 7 months, died Saturday and was buried in the Baptist cemetery Monday afternoon. Services were held in the old Baptist church at Prescottville, conducted by Rev. H. R. Johnson.

Rev. J. C. McEntire, of this place, shed a special sermon in the Re ed church at Paradise Saturday ning for the Jr. O. U. A. M. Council dise. The members of the order ided the services in uniform. A large crowd attended the meeting.

pworth League will hold a dal in the lecture room of the M. E. charch this evening. A good program has been prepared and refreshments will be served. The Epworth League of Punxautawney has been invited and a unzautawney has been invited and a number of Leaguers from that a are expected to attend the social.

Millirens are having a clearance sale Clothing, overcoats and underwear at half price.

The West Reynoldsville band was on the streets of that borough Saturday evening discoursing some of their best selections.

Keep it in the house for coughs, colds, eroup and sore throat-Extract of Wild Cherry and Tar. For sale at the Reynolds Drug Store.

The members of Valiant Lodge No. 461, Knights of Pythias, will indulge in an oyster supper in the K. of P. hall this evening. Each member is entitled to invite a friend. The wives of the members will be in it.

H. S. Belnap has moved his wholesale liquor store into a small building of his own next door to John Thomas' barbershop. Some time in the near future Mr. Belnan expects to move the building to the rear of the lot and erect a two-story brick.

Mrs. Jas. B. Arnold has fire-irons in use in her house that were used by her ancestors one hundred and twenty-five years ago, when natural gas fires were unknown. Mrs. Arnold had the Irons cut small enough to fit a modern fireplace, has representative pieces of wood on the irons and burns gas for heat.

James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Clawson, aged 21 months and 27 days. died Thursday, February 20th, 1896, of pneumonia and was buried in Beulah cemetery Friday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the home of the parents near the public school house, conducted by Rev. J. W. Crawford, pastor of the M. E. church.

Joseph Shaffer, agent for the Adams Express Co. at this place, left a sixtypaged pamphlet at THE STAR office last Friday which contains a list of offices in the United States, Canada and Mexico that the Adams Co. will deliver goods to, and it gives the names of the roads that handle the Adams express. It is a convenient pamphlet to have

Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carr, aged five years and seven months, died on Friday of heart trouble. Funceal services were held at the home of the parents Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. W. Crawford. Remains were buried in Beulah cemetery. Mary had measles which was followed with heart trouble. She had a twin brother

The Ladies' Work Society of the Presbyterian church served a chicken and biscuit supper at the residence of Alex. Riston on Grant Street Friday evening for 25 cents. The supper was an extra good one for the price. However, the ladies of this society are experts in the culinary department and when they announce a supper the public can always feel assured of something good.

The young people of the Catholic church, who gave an entertainment in the opera house New Year's eve for the benefit of the church, went to Eleanora on Monday evening and gave an entertainment. They were well patronized at Eleanora, but the attendance was not as large as it would have been had it not been for the fact that they did not go at the right time to catch a pay day at the mines.

The air brakes on the P. R. R. passenger train that leaves DuBois at 12.05 P. M. failed to work properly when the train pulled into Falls Creek on Monday and the passenger train ran past the station and collided with a freight train that was standing on the cross over. Two freight cars were wrecked and the passenger engine considerably damaged. The train was delayed about an hour getting the track cleared and waiting for another engine.

The Williamsport Grit contained a portrait last Saturday of P. J. Gill, of Falls Creek, and an article in which it was stated that Gill was the Republican nominee of Jefferson county for Assembly. Mr. Gill was shy 2387 votes of getting the nomination. He had the smallest vote of the four candidates. Hon. W. O. Smith, the man nominated, got 2980 votes and Mr. Gill got 549. Some person was either playing a joke on Mr. Gill or the Grit.

In giving a summary of the court proceedings in last weeks' issue, the Brookville Republican says: "District Attorney Strong is entitled to great credit for the manner in which he had the business of the court prepared, requiring as it did only four days to dispose of quite a long list of cases The following is a summary of the action of the court: Cases referred to examiners, 3; cases continued, 7; cases settled, 5; ignored by the grand jury, 3; verdict of guilty, 13; not guilty, 1.' Mrs. S. B. Rumsey gave a six o'clock dinner to twenty-four ladies and gentlemen last Thursday evening. An "observation table" was the amusement of the evening. Each article on the table represented something in the musical line. Dr. W. B. Alexander won the first prize, and as he does not know one note from another, and in fact is not well acquainted with anything in the musical line, he was looked upon as a musical prodigy when the prize was awarded to him. Mrs. George Mellinger and Mrs. A. B. Weed were tie on the "booby" prize and had to cast lots

Tannery in Operation Again.

After a shut down of four months, lacking but seven days, the tannery at this place has resumed work again. When the tannery was shut down there was only half force at work and now it been sexton of Beulah cemetery for is running with a little more than half force. It will be a month before the plant will be in operation with a full force of men.

Small-pox in Brookville.

Small-pox has made its appearance in the family of a man named Taylor, a shoemaker, who lives in a small house near White street, along the branch railroad that extends from the Low Gende into Brookville. There are seven members in the family where the small-pox card was hanging out Friday. We have only heard of the one family at the county seat baving the dread

Five of Them.

Sheriff Gourley, with three deputies, took the following prisoners to the penitentiary and work house last week from Jefferson county, who had been sentenced by Judge Reed: Chas. Couch, for larceny, penitentiary one year; Chas. McCue, alias Chas. Kuhne, assault with intent to rape, penitentiary four years and six months; John D. Ward, alias W. J. Canton, larceny, penitentiary eighteen months; Frank Dixon, cruelty to animals, work house six months: Lavina Replogle, keeping a bawdy house, work house eighteen months.

Buried at Smicksburg.

William, twelve-year-old son of John Clark, of West Reynoldsville, died Friday of brain trouble. Funeral services were held at the home of the bereaved parents at eight o'clock Saturday evening conducted by Rev. E. Lewis Kelley, pastor of the Baptist church, and early Sunday morning a small funeral procession started for Smicksburg, Indiana Co., Pa., where the remains of the bright and beloved son were interred. Priester Bros., undertakers of this place, had charge of the funeral as far as Punxsutawney and an undertaker at that place took charge of the remains and went to Smicksburg with them.

D. of R. Social.

The Daughters of Rebeckah held a social in the I. O. O. F. hall and Clover Cycle Club rooms last Thursday evening. The L.O.O.F. hall was used for reception rooms. The Miller Bros. orehestra was present and discoursed some delightful music and Thos. E. Evans entertained the people with his graphophone for about one hour. There were also games of amusement in the hall for those who cared for them. At a reasonable hour the ladies of the D. of R. invited their guests to the Clover Cycle Club rooms where an excellent luncheon was spread. After the luncheon many of the guests returned to the I. O. O. F. hall, while those who wanted to trip the light fantastic remained in the Clover Cycle Club rooms and indulged in that form of amusement.

An Egg Sucking Contest.

An egg sucking contest took place in Deemer & Co's grocery store in this place a few days ago between three employees of E. W. McMillen's saw mill, named respectively Jos. Painter, foreman of the mill, Chas. Britton and James Reed. These men were reasting their shins in the grocery mentioned and the conversation drifted onto sucking eggs, each one claimed be could suck more eggs than the others. At last a banter was made and each one of the three men sucked thirteen eggs apiece, and besides that much uncooked hen fruit at one time, James Painter and Chas. Britton ate a glass of strained honey apiece and James Reed ate a can of salmon. They also ate a lot of crackers. "Skinny" Wray happened in the store while the egg sucking contest was on and he blowed about the amount of plug tobacco he could put into his mouth at one time. Some one in the party offered to pay for the tobacco and "Skinny" packed 15 cents worth of the saliva producing article into his mouth at one time.

Eleven Councilmen.

In giving a report of the borough election last week, we unintentionally omitted the names of two Republicans who were elected to serve as councilmen, Thos. C. Shields, who was a member of the old council, re-elected, and Frank S. Hoffman. One year after the first Monday in March this borough will have eleven councilmen, and after that time seven instead of six, as heretofore. This is in accordance with a new law passed by the last Legislature. The law provided that at the spring election held last week each borough having less than seven councilmen should elect three for 3 years, two for 2 years, and two for 1 year. These to serve with the old officials whose terms of office have not yet expired, which in our case is four. Annually hereafter two or three councilmen, as the case may be, will be elected for three years. The names of our town council for the next year, are as follows: Old councilmen, Scott McClelland, Jerry Heckman, Chas. Ritzie, Peter Robertson; new councilmen, Wm. Copping, Dr. B. E. Hoover, Albert Reynolds, Wm. S. Stone, Joseph Spears, Frank S. Hoff-man, Thos. C. Shields.

Almost Frozen to Death

Wm. Ferris, one of the old citizens of this borough, came very nearly freezing to death in Benlah cemetery last Thursday forenoon. Mr. Ferris, who has years, is getting well advanced in life's journey and is not as rugged as he was in other days, nor can be withstand the chilly breeze as he could in the bygones, and when he went to Beulah on Thursday morning to dig a grave, the north-pole breeze that was playing on the hill-top unmolested, was too much for him. Mr. Ferris persistently battled with the cold until he was so benumbed that he fell down two or three times and then he fully realized that he must get out of that or some one would bave to dig a grave for the sexton of Beulah. Mr. Ferris got as far as the gate on the hill above the old Hamilton shaft where he fell to one side of the road in the snow, entirely overcome by the cold. A man who was hauling coal saw the old gentleman fall and went to his assistance as soon as possible and got him into a shanty nearby and it required twenty minutes or more of active work after he was taken into the warm shanty before Mr. Ferris was able to talk. All his fingers were frozen up to the second joints. He was wrapped in blankets and hauled home. He is able to be out again and, save the frozen fingers, does not seem to feel the effects of his narrow escape from shuffling off this mundane sphere.

No Mother-in-Law There,

Several weeks ago we stated that two tourists, commonly called tramps, had taken up their abode, for an indefinite time, in an empty coke oven at this place, and that they had hung a big card over the front of the oven with the old motto, "God Bless Our Home." written in large letters on the card Some one carried a copy of THE STAR containing the article to the inhabitants of the coke oven and one of the chaps, who is somewhat of a wag, called at THE STAR office last Thursday morning to pay his respects to the office force and get some old exchanges. He had a chip basket on his arm and had come down town to do the marketing for hotel de coke oven. He invited the office force to visit the hotel just mentioned and they would give us "the best in the house." He said there was one glorious thing about their present home and that is "there is no motherin-law there." Something was said about the motto that hung on the outside of their home and he said: "The wind tore the devil out of our motto." This member of the ubiquitous army of non-workers says he and his pard will subscribe for THE STAR when they get in a little better circumstances.

Washington's Birthday at Rathmel,

The P. O. S. of A., of Rathmel, made arrangements to observe Washington's birthday by holding special services consisting of speeches, songs, recitations, &c., in the P. O. S. of A. hall at that place Saturday afternoon, and serving supper and holding a festival in the evening. Their plans were a little disarranged when the B., L. & Y. C. M. Co. issued orders for work that day. However, the program was taken up at 4.00 P. M. and carried out, though the audience was mostly composed of the gentler sex. Rev. J. W. Crawford, pas tor of the M. E. church of this place, who was the only imported speaker for the occasion, delivered an appropriate address. The balance of the program, which was made up of home talent, was well carried out, all the participants rendering their parts in a creditable and highly satisfactory manner.

Fennell's Brothers. Five brothers of Patrick Fennell, whose sudden death we mentioned in last weeks' issue, came to Reynoldsville Thursday evening and buried the remains of their deceased brother in the Catholic cemetery Friday forenoon, and then left on the noon train for their respective homes. The one brother, T. H. Fennell, is supt. of the N. Y. & N. E. R. R., and the others are engineers and prominent railroad men, and reside at the following places: Thos. Fennell, Messengerville, N. Y., Francis Fennell, Syracuse, N. Y., John Fennell, Geneva, N. Y., M. Fennell, Newark City, N. J. These gentlemen came to Bradford in Supt. Fennell's special car and traveled from there to Falls Creek on the regular passenger train and Supt. S. B. Rumsey, of the A. V. R'y, sent a special train to Falls Creek and hauled them to Reynoldsville.

Incipient Blaze, What might have been a big fire in one of the business blocks of town was nipped in the bud last Thursday forenoon. The water pipes in the cellar under Reynolds' drug store had frozen up and while trying to thaw the pipes with a home-made torch a spark or small blaze got through an auger hole in the floor into one corner of a rack filled with wall paper in the rear of the store room, and in very short order the wall paper caught fire and the blaze shot to the ceiling before the fire was extinguished. Dr. Reynolds, A. M. Woodward, Elmer Ellenberger and Mrs. Dr. Reynolds were the only persons present and by some quick and cool headed work the fire flend was knocked out without calling out the fire company and before much damage was done.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE.

E. C. Burns, Reynoldsville's First Repub-lican Nominee for Sheriff.

Ed. C. Burns, liveryman of Reynoldsville, was the winning man in the Republican primaries for the nomination for sheriff of Jefferson county. This is the first time in the history of the county that a Reynoldsville man has received the nomination for sheriff. Mr. Burns, who has filled the office of County Chairman two terms, was well acquainted with the Republican workers of the county and was given a large vote at the primaries last week. Mr. Burns' vote was surprisingly large when it is taken into consideration that he had two good opponents in the field who did not let any grass grow under their feet during the short campaign and who had good workers hustling for them. Burns has lived in Reynoldsville since early boyhood and is not a stranger to the citizens of this borough.

Official Vote.

When we went to press at 10.00 A. M. Wednesday the result of the Republi-can primaries was not definitely known, can primaries was not definitely known, but the list of the nominees as published in THE STAR was correct with the ex-ception of Hon. W. O. Smith and Hon. J. W. Foust for Assembly, Smith being the winner. Below we give the official

Congress-Weaver, 2,391; White, 3,

090. Senate—James G. Mitchell, who had Assembly—J. W. Foust, 1,463; W. M. McGarey, 606; W. O. Smith, 2,980; P. J. Gill, 594.

Sheriff-Ed. C. Burns, 3,191; E. Neff, 725; J. M. Chesnutt, 1,740.

For Register and Recorder, John S. Barr, who had no opposition, received For Prothonotary, W. D. Clarke, without opposition, received 5,555.

Treasurer—H. G. Katz, 615; Gil. C.
Reitz, 607; W. H. Lucas, 1,975; James
St. Clair, 1,049; Charles Wetzel, 252; Linus M. Lewis, 254; W. W. Crissman

Commissioner—Daniel Brewer, 619; Samuel M. Shields, 1,528; John J. Hin-terliter, 2,145; F. C. Swartzlander, 391; Newton Webster, 1,252; L. A. Hays, 1,004; Schuyler S. Jackson, 376; Samuel Ressler, 499; James Steele, 224; Val. S. Murray, 1,875; T. R. Lamison, 750, Auditor—I. B. McLaughlin, 3,421; Samuel C. Ewing, 3,018; Thomas B. Adams, 4,004.

Adams, 4,904 National Delegate-S. Ed. Wilson,

State Delegate—Henry Truman, 3, 466; J.B.Sykes, 4,327; J. Riley Smeltzer,

In Memoriam, Patrick Fennell, the subject of this sketch, who died somewhat suddenly on the 14th ult., was born in Ireland of very respectable parentage 47 years ago last June, and came to this country with his parents at a very early age. Com-ing to this part of the state, when DuBois and Reynoldsville were yet in their infancy, he became acquainted with Degnan & McDonald, lumbermen, and entered their employ. He soon rose to be their foreman, which station he held for a number of years. He was well liked by all the employees who served under him, and won the confidence and esteem of his employers. He was a generous, warm-hearted man and gave liberally to worthy, charitable ob-The writer knows whereof speaks, having worked by his side in the gloomy forest. He leaves a fond, doting mother and five brothers to weep and mourn. One brother is general superintendent of the N. Y. & N. E. R. R., another a train dispatcher, one passenger engineer and two are road masters, having worked themselves up to these positions by untiring energy and ability. A requiem mass was said for the deceased in the Catholic church of this place by the Rev. Father Brady His body was laid to rest by many sympathizing friends. Patrick Fennell had his faults—who has them not? He had one failing, known to many, for which he often expressed his sorrow, but he died a sober man. From the life and death of Patrick Fennell, moralists may deduce such conclusions as they may; the christian will in pity spare his faults and in silence veil. Requiem acternam dona ci Domine.

Obituary.

Mary Ann Robison, nee Thomas, was born Feb. 20, 1859, and died at Brock-ville, Pa., Feb. 15, 1896, aged 36 years. 11 months and 26 days. Her disease was pulmonary trouble, from which she suffered for some months. She bore her sickness with patience and resigna-tion and died in the triumphs of a saving faith. She leaves four fatherless and motherless children to the care of her friends, and in the hands of Him who is a "helper to the fatherless." She was a member of the Methodist church, but was buried in the Lutheran cemetery near Pansy, Pa., herold home, on Tuesday, Feb. 18th. She was a sis-ter of Robt. and John Thomas, barbers of this place, who, with the remainder of her family and a large concourse of friends and relatives, attended her funeral.

Card of Thanks.

Wm. Robertson and family desire to express their sincere thanks to the many friends who assisted them in their affliction and at the death of their daughter, Aldine.

New wash silks at Deemer's.

SOCIETY'S WHIRL.

Mrs. W. H. Ford visited in Big Run last week.

John C. Hirst, of Tyler, spent Sunday in this place.

G. W. Palen was in Ridgway several days last week.

C. F. Hoffman made a business trip to Clearfield yesterday.

Katie Pittsley, of Eleanora, is visiting Maggie Bone this week.

Mrs. Joseph Strauss, of Philadelphia, is visiting at N. Hanau's. R. H. Wilson and wife visited friends in Clarion county last week. Mrs. M. E. Gibson returned Saturday from a visit in Clarion county.

L. P. Seeley, of Pittsburg, was in Reynoldsville several days last week.

Miss Jennie McEntire visited relatives in DuBols during the past week.

John D. Lowther, of Tyler, spent everal days of last week in this place. Mrs. Hannah Prescott, of Punxsutawney, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Hays. Miss Lucinda Smith, of Pittsburg, is visiting her brother, Ira Smith, on Hill street W. B. Alexander, the banker, was in Butler, Pa., and Pittsburg during the past week. J. A. Welsh, ex-groceryman of this place, visited his brother at New Maysville, last week. Miss Ella Seeley, who has been in Pittsburg a few weeks, came to Reynoldsville Friday evening.

Miss Lizzie Cricks, of Allegheny county, has been a visitor at Jerry Myers' the past two weeks. John W. Stauffer, of Clayville, visited his brother, D. B. Stauffer, in West Reynoldsville over Sunday. Mrs. G. M. McDonald returned home yesterday afternoon from a two weeks' visit with her parents at Penfield. Pat Foley, of this place, a local freight engineer on the A. V. R'y, has been on the sick list the past week. Robt. J. and John E. Thomas, barbers of this place, were at Pansy, Pa., last week attending the funeral of their sister. Mrs. A. E. Hetherington, of New Maysville, at one time a milliner in this place, visited friends here last world. Geo. A. Woods and wife, of Brookville, spent Sunday with the former's uncle, C. F. Hoffman, and family at this

James Mitchell, member of the leading merchant tailoring establishment of Kane, Mitchell Bros., came home Saturday sick.

G. J. Corwin, the photographer, returned from Friendship, N. Y., last Thursday, where he had been called to attend the funeral of his father.

Scott McClelland, of this place, and his sister, Mrs. Eliza Hover, of Devils Lake, Dakota, visited friends in Punxsutawney several days last week. R. E. Clawson and Aaron Richards, of New Kensington, Pa., came to Reynoldsville last week, to attend the funeral of Holland Clawson's little son.

James McPherson, an ex-policeman of this borough, started to Scattle, Washington, yesterday where he expects to remain if he likes the country.

A. C. Quigley, who has been proprietor of the West End Hotel several years, moved to Falls Creek Monday. from whence he moved to take charge of the hotel named.

Chas. B. French, an insurance agent of Philipsburg, formerly of this place, spent Sunday with his Reynoldsville friends. Mr. French stepped into a good thing at Philipsburg. Tom Reynolds, who gained quite a reputation for "spinning yarns" while correspondent for the Punxsutawney Spirit from this place a few years ago, was in Pittsburg last week. Miss Narrie Furgeson, of Putneyville, Pa., who is well known in this place, will enter the Allegheny General Hospital training school in the near future for the purpose of becoming a trained nurse.

G. W. Wise, who was a student in Dr. B. E. Hoover's dental rooms at this place several years ago, now a student at the Philadelphia Dental College, was in town last week shaking hands with his numerous friends here.

Mrs. P. P. Womer, of Somersville, Conn., started for her home Monday via Buffalo, N. Y. Her mother, Mrs. A. T. Bing, accompanied her as far as Buffalo where Mrs. Bing will remain several weeks to visit her sister, Mrs. George Mulford.

Call and Settle.

I am in need of money and must get my outstanding accounts collected, and I hereby request all who know them-selves indebted to me to call at Frank Rodgers' cigar factory over W. D. Williams' furniture store, where I will keep my books, and make part payment on accounts if you cannot pay the full amount of your indebtedness. J. A. Welsh.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of giving ex-ression of our heart-felt thankfulness to our friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and after the death of our beloved MR. AND MRS. HOLLAND CLAWSON.

It will pay you to buy your shoes at J. S. Morrow's.