April, May are most emphatically the months for taking a good blood purifler, because the system is now most in need of such a medfeine, and because it more quickly responds to medicinal qualities. In winter impurities do not pass out of the body freely, but accumulate in the blood. The best medicine

Frost, Prolic and Business,

The wind over frozen pounds and lakes, over snow-fields of plains and open country, is heavily charged with frost and fine partieles of frozen matter. It is the most pe ticles of frozen uniter. It is the most pene-trating way for chill to set in. Sudden warmth, sudden chill, and severe colds. Girls and boys skatten, driving for pleasure or lusioness, and men at work afield know the difference in temperature. Yet the youngsters skate away and with mouth open laughing take in a dose of sorethroat. Drivers and workmen throw aside wraps and all know the next day from soreness and stiff-ness what sudden chill means. Now the best thing to do when housed is to rub well at once with St. Jacobs Oil. If you do, you will not have sorethroat; or if you are stiff and sore, it will care by warming the surface to throw out the chill.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL LESSON.

STERNATIONAL LESSON FOR

Lesson Text: "Jesus the Messiah," Luke Ix., 18-27-Golden Fext: Luke Ix., 35-

Commentary.

19. "And it came to pass as He was alone praying His disciples were with Him, and He asked them, eaving, Whom say the people that let ween the has I am?" It is probable that between the last lesson and this we are to think of the feeding of both the 5009 and the 4009. His walking on the sea and His visit to the coast of Tyre and Sidon, and now He is away north near Cessres Philippi, or Dan. He had been learing from home and sending wort thither—in other words, He had been praying—and then He asks this question, not that He cared what recode thought of Him or whom they thought He was, but He was leading on to a confession from His disciples for a purpose. If we folerate a care as to what people think or say of us or have an ambition to have a name among men, we have not the sairit of Him who empired Himself for us and made Himself of no reputation, coming here "not to be ministered unto, but to minister and to give His life a runsom for many." The message of Jeremiah to Euruch is always fitting, "Seekest thou great things for thyseif, seek them not" (Phil. Hi., 7, 8; Math. xx., 28; Jer. xiv., 5).

19. "They answering said, John the Bur-18, "And it came to pass as He was alone xiv., 5).

They answering said, John the Ban-1b. They answering said, John the Bapfist, but some say Edas, and others say that one of the old prophets is risen again." Compare verses 7 and 8. To know God is the greatest thing, but we cannot know God agart from Jesus Christ (Math. xl., 27), and when we think we know Him we may well apply this word to ourselves, "If any man thinkerh that he knoweth anything, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know" (I Cor. viii., 2). At best we know but in part now, not till then shall we know ms we are known (I Cor. xiii., 9, 12). The natural man cannot know the things of God at all (I Cor.
ii., 14), but even the spiritual man is ofttimess so extract that he cannot discorn spiritual thiness.
29. "He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter, answering, said. The times so carnal that he cannot discern spiritual thines.

20. "He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter, answering, said. The Christ I am? Peter, answering, said. The Christ of God." or as in Math. xvi., 16; John vi. 62. "The Christ, the Son of the fiving God." Matthew says that Jesus replied to this, "Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but My Father which is in Heaven." It is surely blessed to be taught of God for "Who teacheth like Him?" (Job xxxvi., 22.) Before Jesus left His disciples He said that the spirit whom He would send would teach thom all things and guide them into all trath (John xiv., 25; xvi., 13).

21. "And He strattly charged them, and communded them to tell no man that thing." In Math. xvi., 23, it is written that He said that they were to tell no man that He was Jesus the Christ. In the beginning of His ministry He said very plainly to the woman of Samarin that He was the Christ (John iv., 25, 26), but now that He's the Christ will be His resurrection from the dead. We will nover know till it is too late how much we have lost by not simply believing His word. We thus grieved the spirit and hinder Him from telling us what He would like to. If, on the other hand, we are filled with the spirit, we shall hear His voice and know when to be still and when to speak.

22. "Saying, The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes and be slain, and be raised the third day." There is evidently some connection between this and His forbidding them to say that He was the Christ. On several different occasions He told them as plainly as this that He must diand rise again the third day, but they received it not. They did not believe that He meant just what He said, and they could not put any other meaning upon His words, therefore they lost it all.

23. "And He said to them all, If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take un his cross daily and fellow Me." The put any other meaning upon His words, therefore they lost it all.

23. "And He said to them all, If any man will come after Ms, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me." The true Christian life is the Christ life, the life of Jesus made manifest in our mortal flesh (II Cor. iv., 10, 11), and this means the dying unto seif, alway, the constant reckoning dead of the self life, the old man, the carnal mind which must be put off and kept offnot put off and on as we would our clothes. Christ never lived unto Himself in any way, either as to His will or His glory or His pleasure (John vt., 38; vil., 59; Rom. xv., 3). To take up the cross is not to wear some kind of a pretty cross recognized in Scripture, but it is just to die constantly to one's own will and way and pleasure. "Not I, but Christ."

Christ 2. 21. For whosever will save his life shall lose it, but whosever will lose his life for My sale, the same shall says it."

Our life may be said to be that which takes up our attention, which chiefly occupies our our lite may be sent to be take which our attention, which chiefly occupies our minds and our time, that which interests us most. We have to engage in many and varied forms of business, but even in these it may be our main thought to glorify God, and thus God and not business will be our life. We shall be able to say, "For me to less to Christ."

may be our main thought to clorify God, and thus God and not lusiness will be our life. We shall be able to say, "For me to live is Christ."

25. "For what is a man advantaged if he galp the whole world and lose himself or be cast away?" Let a man live for his business, or his home, or for pleasure, or for himself in any way and not receive Christ, and he and all his life will be truly lost, for he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. The word "castaway" in this verse is wholly different from that in I Cor. ix., 27. There it refers to service rejected (see R. V.), but here evidently to the loss of the soul.

26. "For whosoever shall be ashamed of Me and My words of him shall the Son of Man be ashamed when He shall come in His own glory and in His Father's, and of the holy angels." The one who prefers his own life to the daily dying to self certainly prefers self to Christ and may be said to be ashamed of Christ. Such can have no part in His kingdom. His coming with His saints (I These, ii., 13: Col. iii., 4), they having previously met Him on His way (I Thess. iv., 16-18) and received their rewards and positions in His kingdom.

27. "But I tell you of a truth there be some standing here which shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God." In-asmuch as in Matthew, Mark and Luke this statement is immediately followed by the record of the transflueration, that event was doubties the fulfilling of this statement. Jesus with Moses and Elijah suggest the Son of Man giorified, associated with all the saints both rises and translated, and the apostics suggest Israel in the flesh all righteous. Such will be the centre of the millennial kingdom, at the close of which satan will be loosed and then completely overthrown.—Lesson Helper.

A MOTORMAN'S LIFE.

FULL OF HARDSHIPS, EXPOSURE AND CONSTANT DANGER.

he Great Strain on a Man's Nerves Sufficient in Itself to Wreck Him in a Short Time...The Experience of a Well-Known Motorman.

From the Cincinnati, Ohio, Enquirer,

The life of a motorman is not a hed of roses. He is subjected to many hardships, especially in the winter, when he is exposed to the cold and snow. Even in the summer he must bear the intense heat which beats down upon him. Considerable nerve and self-possession is necessary in a good motorman, for the lives and limbs of his passengers are et stake, One of the best known electric motormen in this city is William Frazer, who is at present running a car on the Cumminsville electric line. He is not only well known to his fellow employes but to the people who travel changs as on the claimans like electrical line. He is not only well known to his fellow employes but to the people who travel on his car. Mr. Frazer is a young man about twenty-six years of age and resides with his wile and child at 144 Batts Street, Gineinnati, O. About a year age Mr. Frazer was taken with serious stomach troubles. He bought several kinds of medicine which were recommended to him, but none of them seemed to give him even temporary benefit. An enthusinate admirer of that famous remedy known as Dr. Williams Pink Fills for Pale People told him to try them. Frazer was almost discouraged, but took the advice. To a reporter of the Esquirer he said:

"I can most heartly recommend Dr. Williams Pink Pills. They are all that is claimed for them, in fact they advertise themselves better than any medicine I ever aw. I was soized some time ago with a bad attack of indigestion. My stomach hurt me early all the time and I could not digest my food. The pain was almost unbearable and I found nothing that would give me relief, I confess that when I bought the first box of Pink Pills I hade't much confidence in their efficacy because I had tried so many things without success that I was almost discouraged. Before I had taken one box I was deeldedly better. Two boxes cured me natirely. While I have been under the weather from other causes my indigestion has never returned. If if ever should I know just what to do. I have so much confidence in their efficacy of Pink Pills that if I ever get roat sick again with any disorder I shall use some of them. It is a pleasure for me I assure you to testify to the excellent qualities of the Pink Pills. They not only tone the stomach but regulate the bowels and act as a mild carbortie."

Mr. Frazer's testime nial means something. He speaks from personal experience and any one who doubts that he received the benefits stated can easily verify the assertion by calling of Mr. Frazer or seeing him some time wille he is on his ear.
