Tan shoes are in it. THE STAR for $1.00. Oxfords 75c. at Robinson's. Saturday is Decoration Day. Men's suits $1.75 at Millirens. Shoes to fit everybody at Deemer's.

Everybody that buys from Millirens is satisfied. The foliage is now in the height of its loveliness. There was a dance in the Nolan block Monday night.

Buy your watches at C. F. Hoffman's and save money. The eagle will scream in Reynoldsville on July 4th.

You are sure to get your moneys worth at Gilblom's. Tomato and cabbage plants for sale. Call on R. D. Muir.

Hon. John G. Wooley at Centennial hall next Monday night. Everything has its ups and downs, and why not the thermometer.

Alex. Riston has made some decided improvements in his cigar store. The wild crabapple blossoms now send forth their aromatic perfume.

Gentlemen, the finest line of shirts ever shown at Bell's from 50 ct. to $3. Perfection shoe polish, for tan and black, best in the world, at Robinson's.

Frances McDonald is learning the drug business in the Reynolds drug store. The lazier a man is the greater things he is going to do when to-morrow comes.

We have added a full new line of shoes. Come and give us a call. J. S. Morrow. J. M. Minue, the optician, has returned to DuBois, Pa., and will remain one month from May 26th.

Mrs. Aaron Welsh's maiden name was Doling instead of Doney, as stated in THE STAR last week. We will save you money and sell you shoes that wear and fit your feet. Give us a call. J. S. Morrow.

Brussels and Ingrain carpets of all styles, at low prices, at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store. Judge Harry White, of Indiana Co., Pa., occupied the judicial bench of Jefferson county last week.

The National Prohibition Convention will be held in Pittsburg three days this week, beginning to-day. The school directors are besieged almost daily by applicants who want to teach in our handsome new school building.

O. H. Johnson was general manager of A. E. Dunn's hardware store last week while Mr. Dunn served his county as a juror. It was 3,000,000 instead of 300,000 feet of timber that was threatened by forest fires at Brennan's camp one week ago last Sunday.

Rev. George H. Hill began a two weeks' special service in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church Monday evening of this week. Next Saturday being a legal holiday the postoffice will only be open a few hours during the day, as follows: 7:00 to 8:00 A. M., 12:00 to 3:00 P. M., 6:00 to 7:30 P. M.

In order that the greatest possible number of people should be able to observe Decoration Day, the women of the Lutheran church will serve a children's dinner, supper, lunch and ice cream at the G. A. R. Hall on that day.

A new sidewalk has been laid in front of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store. To convince a fool against his will is on a par with arguing with a mule not to kick. Don't forget to have your eyes examined and fitted with glasses. C. F. Hoffman can do the work.

The Lutheran Sunday school held a special service in the church Sunday evening which consisted of singing and responsive reading. A car of sheep was unloaded at this place yesterday to be driven to Coal Glen, Pa., to supply the butcher's customers at that place with mutton.

The Ladies' Work Society of the Presbyterian church will serve ice cream, cake, coffee and sandwiches in the Reynolds brick block on Decoration Day. Gilblom's big store, a pronounced success! The greatest sale of shoes ever known in Reynoldsville. All the latest styles in tan, calf and patent leather.

The Jefferson and Clearfield Consolidated Coal Company is to be the name of the new company that purchased the Bell, Lewis & Yates C. M. Co. works at this place. The Peoples Party of Jefferson county will hold a county convention in Reynoldsville to-day to nominate a county ticket and elect delegates to the State convention.

Harry Reynolds has been confined to the house for a few days with an injured back which he received in trying to ride a bicycle up the hill near the school house. Hon. John G. Wooley, who will lecture on "Christian Citizenship" in Centennial hall next Monday night, is acknowledged to be a powerful, logical and brilliant orator.

A Kickapoo Indian Medicine Company came to Reynoldsville yesterday and pitched several wigwags and a large tent in the vacant lot near the opera house where the company expects to remain for two weeks. Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, G. M. McDonald, of Reynoldsville, has issued a call for the Democratic primaries to be held on Saturday, June 13th, and the County Convention on Monday, June 15th.

A small boy walked into the West Reynoldsville machine shop one day last week and asked the proprietor if that was a machine shop, and when informed that it was he asked for five cents worth of machine needles. The $100.00 reward offered for the recapture of David Trainor, who broke out of the county jail recently, was raised as follows: County $35.00, Sheriff Gourley $25.00, Brown, of Bell's Mill, whose horse Trainor stole, $25.00, County Commissioner States $15.00.

A game of ball was played between the barbers and clerks of Reynoldsville last Thursday afternoon. The score was 15 to 17 in favor of the clerks when the game ended. There was enough "chewing" done at it to supply a half dozen games with that feature of ball playing. Sam'l Lauck and wife, of Driftwood, passed through Reynoldsville yesterday on their return home after attending the funeral of Mrs. Lauck's father, Robert Bruce, aged 63 years, a highly respected farmer of Manor township, Armstrong county, who was buried at Manorville Monday afternoon.

Edward P. Elliott, the impersonator, presented "Hazel Kirke" in Centennial Hall last Friday evening to a small, but appreciative audience. Mr. Elliott certainly possesses the ability, bearing and face of the actor, and puts them all to the best of use. He should have been greeted with a packed house. R. W. Porterfield, president of the Oil City Fuel Supply Co., died at his home in Oil City about noon yesterday. Interment will take place at Oil City Friday. Mr. Porterfield has made a number of visits to Reynoldsville since the O. F. S. Co. opened an office in this place and become acquainted with many of our citizens.

Those who have purchased tickets for Hon. Wooley's lecture, to be delivered in Centennial Hall next Monday evening, can have their seats marked by calling at S. Shaffer's office, and will not have to go to the hall a half hour earlier than necessary to secure a seat and perhaps even then not be able to get a good seat. Get your tickets marked off. It is all the same price. There was a lively time among the Italians and Poles who live along Railroad street, East end of town, yesterday afternoon. The Poles were enjoying a wedding jubilee and were well filled with "bug juice" and some difficulty arose between the Poles and some Italians who live close by, and somewhat of a bloody time ensued for a few minutes. One fellow was knocked insensible and another one had the bark peeled off his proboscis and his eyes trimmed in a very black color with brown shading. Unfortunately all the participants had sought refuge in their places of abode before Frank P. Adelberger, who is on duty at night and sleeps in daylight, could get to the field of battle.

Married Sunday. Isaiah Fuller and Miss Alice Syphrit were married at the home of the bride's father, Daniel Syphrit, in Paradise, last Sunday evening by Rev. Paul Metzenthin, pastor of the Reynoldsville Trinity Lutheran church. "Bike" Ran Off. William Beveridge, a young man of Rathmel, was badly injured while riding his bicycle down a hill near Rathmel last Friday. The "bike" became unmanageable and threw William off. The right side of his face was badly cut. There was a cut on his right jaw three inches long which laid the jaw open clear in to the bone.

The Proper Encouragement. We received a letter from a subscriber several days ago in which was enclosed cash for a year's subscription and the following complimentary notice: "THE STAR is the best weekly paper I have ever taken." A few complimentary words like the above encourages an editor, but when the remarks are accompanied by hard cash for a year's subscription then the editor feels the force thereof. Don't Get in a Hurry. It is perfectly right for people to get off passenger trains as soon as possible after the train stops, but it is not wise, especially for ladies, to stand carelessly in the aisles or on the platform waiting for the train to stop. Last Saturday when train No. 1 pulled into the station at this place an old heavy-set lady was standing in the door and when the train stopped she fell in to the car on her back, but fortunately escaped without injury.

Coupling Pin Did It. "Herb" Burns, a brakeman on the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek R'y, was injured while making a coupling near Big Soldier last Friday. He had a coupling pin sticking in a drawhead so when the cars came together the pin would drop into the proper place, but instead of the pin dropping in it flew out and struck "Herb" on the forehead and nose and cut an ugly gash. After the pin struck Mr. Burns it bounded some distance above his head. Found Six Watch Chains. The borough lock-up received its annual cleaning last week and during the process it was necessary to take out the closet pipe, and in this pipe was found six gold watch chains. Some fellow, who was guilty of taking what did not belong to him, has been locked in the bastille and fearing he would be searched before he would be set free, and not caring to have an officer find six new chains in his pockets, the fellow disposed of them by sticking them down the closet pipe.

Register's Returns. C. T. Dean, assessor of East Winslow township, completed the work last week of registering the voters, school children under the ages of eight to thirteen, and number of deaths and births in the eastern division of the township since January 1st, 1896. Following is the result: Voters, 503; school children under the compulsory school law age, 306; number of births, 50; number of deaths, 20. West Winslow has 292 voters, as published in THE STAR last week, and East Winslow 503, making a total of 795 voters. Sentenced by Judge Reed. Charles Joiner, who was tried in the Jefferson county court for assault with attempt to commit rape, and was found guilty and sentenced to the Reformatory at Huntingdon for a term not to exceed five years, was taken to the Reformatory last Thursday. Yesterday Mrs. Lizzie Shea, who was found guilty of forgery, and Myron Clover, who was found guilty of larceny and house-breaking, were taken to the Allegheny Work House by Deputy Sheriff Gourley and an assistant. Mrs. Shea is to remain in the Work House 9 months and Myron Clover was given the privilege of staying there 18 months. Log Rolled on Him. Abraham Fye, of near Sykesville, a Winslow township school director, was in Reynoldsville Saturday to attend the school directors' meeting and had to hobble around by the assistance of a pair of crutches. About four weeks ago Mr. Fye was helping to put a fifty foot log on skids at his mill and the log rolled back on his legs and injured them so badly that for two weeks they were so benumbed that Mr. Fye could not tell by the feeling whether he had legs or not. He lost considerable flesh and was somewhat bleached from the effects of the accident. It may be sometime yet before he throws away his crutches. A Good Committee. The committee to solicit the funds for celebrating the fourth of July in Reynoldsville has already secured $240.00. This committee was Frank J. Black, Dr. J. H. Murray, J. C. Dillman, W. H. Bell, and John C. Conser. The same gentlemen, with the addition of H. Alex. Stoke and Dr. B. E. Hoover, have been appointed as a committee on arrangements. With such a committee the citizens of Reynoldsville can be assured that arrangements will be made for an excellent time in this place on the Great National Holiday, providing the committee is not handicapped by lack of money.

Thought it a Ghost. J. C. Hirst had a dog that was no longer a puppy and in his declining days he was inclined to be cranky and gave evidence occasionally of crankiness. The dog had a favorite in Mr. Hirst's family and that was Charley. One day last week Charley and his brother George were tussling in the dining room and Dash quietly walked out from under the table and bit George. That was the last time the dog's teeth closed on fresh meat, for Mrs. Hirst issued an edict that Dash must "bite the dust," and forthwith a young man was engaged to execute the condemned dog, and the boys saw him led out to be shot and never expected to see the old dog again. That evening Charley went up to his grandmother Butler's and about the time he reached the house he saw his old pet dog coming towards him slowly. The boy was sure the dog had been killed and he thought it was the dog's ghost that was coming towards him. The little fellow rushed into his grandmother's house frightened almost into spasms and all he could say was, "Dash is coming." No one else saw the dog and he could not be found anywhere and that only increased the boy's belief that it was the dog's ghost. The next morning, however, the dog was found under Mr. Hirst's porch and was dispatched by a bullet from a rifle. The man who shot the dog the afternoon before made a failure of it and the dog had crawled home.

Memorial Day Sermon. It has been the custom for years to have a memorial sermon preached in this place the Sunday before Decoration Day in turn by the pastors of the town. This year Rev. H. R. Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached the sermon in his church at 11:00 A. M. Sunday. Rev. Johnson's subject was: "The Armies of the Living God." The sermon was an able and eloquent one and was listened to attentively by the large audience present. The church was taxed to its utmost seating capacity, and yet many were compelled to return home because they were unable to get seats. The members of John C. Conser Post, G. A. R., Phil. Kearney Camp, S. of V. and the W. R. C. occupied seats in the central portion of the house. There was no services in the M. E. and Baptist churches and Revs. J. W. Crawford and E. Lewis Kelley were in the pulpit with Rev. Johnson. The services opened with a short prayer by Rev. Crawford. Rev. Kelley read the initial hymn, which was sung by the congregation, and Rev. Kelley offered prayer. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. Crawford. The Presbyterian choir furnished the music. The service was a pleasing and profitable one.

Saturday's Program. The following is the program arranged for conducting the usual Decoration Day exercises at this place: Order of march—Parade will form on Main street at 9:00 A. M., right resting on corner at Fifth street, in the following order: Methodist Sunday school; Baptist Sunday school; any other church organizations; brass band; Washington Camp, P. O. S. of A.; Knights of the Golden Eagle; any other orders that wish to participate; Woman's Relief Corps; Sons of Veterans; firing squad; Grand Army of the Republic; ambulances. Column will move promptly at 9:15 and march to Beulah cemetery where the usual impressive ceremonies will be observed, after which the graves in Baptist, Pleasant Avenue and Catholic cemeteries will be decorated. At 2:30 P. M. the firing squad will proceed to Prospect and bedeck with flowers the graves in that place. JOSEPH SHAFER, Marshal. T. C. REYNOLDS, Ass't Marshal.

Death of Winfield Horn. Winfield Horn, aged about 37 years, son of George Horn, died at his home in the Horn Settlement at 3:00 P. M. Monday, of cancerous trouble of the liver and stomach. Winfield has had poor health for four years and has been seriously ill eight or nine months. Last fall he went to the Adrian Hospital for treatment, but did not receive the benefit hoped for and in March he went to the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia. Funeral services will be held in the church at Sandy Valley at 10:00 A. M. to-day, conducted by Rev. J. G. Harshaw, M. E. pastor of the Emerickville charge. Interment will take place at the Chestnut Grove cemetery. A wife and five children survive the deceased. Rev. Kelley's Last Sunday. Rev. E. Lewis Kelley, who has been pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church a little over two years, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday evening. He will store his household goods in Reynoldsville and will go to Rochester, N. Y., for a short visit and will then go west. Rev. Kelley expects to do supply work during the summer and will probably locate in the west. Rev. Kelley and wife have made many warm friends during their two years' stay in Reynoldsville who will be sorry to see them leave the place. Rev. Kelley is a bright young minister who will have no trouble in getting a good appointment in the Master's vineyard. Shoes the best, prices the least, at Robinson's.

Decoration Day. Following is part of general orders No. 17, issued from the Headquarters Department of Pennsylvania Grand Army of the Republic at Philadelphia: Memorial Day, with its fragrant flowers, its sweet music and its sad memories is approaching, when soldier and sailor living will pay tribute to soldier and sailor dead. Though the little mound may be high on the hilltop, or down low in the valley, or the resting place be deep in the fathomless sea, yet shall every Comrade who has gone to the great beyond, be remembered in the sweetly solemn ceremony of the floral festival. With flags and flowers and music shall we greet them again, and again shall we in memory march side by side, touching elbows with our Comrades, as of yore. Songs of praise shall swell the breeze, story of sacrifices, defeat and victory shall be told, loving hands shall strew the graves of loved ones with ivy and with myrtle, with spring's fairest flowers and garlands—patriots will plant on patriotic dead, the flag they loved so well, and sacred Benediction will be chanted. "Yes! Our ranks are growing thinner with the coming of each May." Regiments of our Comrades are marching down the hill of life to the music of the rippling waters of the dark river, and ships-crew of blue jackets are sailing their last voyage, soon "eight bells" will strike for them to go "off watch" forever. "How dear to our hearts are the days when we soldiered, As fond recollections present them to view." But still dearer to our hearts are the remembrances of Comrades who are "sleeping the dreamless sleep in the windowless palace of death." Join the people with you in your sacred services of Memorial Day—bring church and school, man and woman, boy and girl to your ceremonies; make the impress on citizen and civic society that this symbolizes America's greatest patriotism, and have all the people learn that they who honor the memories of the "dead who died that the nation might live" honor themselves and their country.

David Trainor Recaptured. David Trainor, the noted character who has served a number of terms in the penitentiary and who broke out of the Jefferson county jail on the evening of the 5th inst., was recaptured in a log camp near the Kinzua bridge on Monday morning of this week by the constable of Mt. Jewett, Sheriff Gourley was notified of the capture and the sheriff and Commissioner Sam'l States went to Mt. Jewett Monday and passed through Reynoldsville on the A. V. R'y westbound train yesterday afternoon with David, who was securely handcuffed. A fellow sinner who was in the "pen" when Trainor was sojourning there saw David in the lumber camp and "blowed" on him to the Mt. Jewett constable. The ex-convict accompanied the officer to the camp and pointed out the man wanted. There was a reward of $100.00 offered for the recapture of Trainor, and that, no doubt, induced the ex-convict to give Trainor into the hands of the law. Trainor's absence at the May term of court made it necessary to postpone his trial until such time as he could be present to hear it. He will now languish in jail until the September term of court.

Their Work Appreciated. It was stated in THE STAR last week that the firemen of this place worked hard at the Hopkins mill and Brennan's camp in fighting forest fires one week ago last Sunday. The following letter will give evidence of how Hon. A. C. Hopkins appreciated the work done by our firemen: LOCK HAVEN, PA., May 20, 1896. FRANK J. BLACK, ESQ., Foreman Reynoldsville Co. No. 1. MY DEAR SIR:—I herewith enclose my check for your Fire Company for $125, because of their generous and gallant work at my mill last Sunday. Tell them and the citizens of your place that I fully appreciate their kindness to me upon the occasion and I wish you to take off your hat to each and every one of them. I will soon see you in person and will then better express my thanks than I can do in this manner. With kindest regards I am very sincerely yours. A. C. HOPKINS. The firemen are very thankful to Mr. Hopkins for the liberal manner by which he expressed his appreciation of services rendered.

Church Notices. Under this heading will be found the subjects and texts of the pastors of the various churches of Reynoldsville for the following Sunday: BAPTIST. Rev. E. Lewis Kelley, pastor. Morning: "A Farewell Exhortation." Eph. 6:10. Evening: "The Commendation of God's Love." TRINITY LUTHERAN. Rev. P. W. Metzenthin, pastor. Morning: "The Necessity of Regeneration." John 3:3. Evening: "A Royal Declaration, Command and Promise." Mat. 28:16-20. Special Request. I request all who owe me to be kind enough to pay 50 cents or a $1.00 on their accounts every two weeks. I am in need of money and hope those whom I have trusted will help me out. J. A. WELSH. Latest style straw hats at Millirens.
