 A man came to town last Friday with a wagon load of cherries for which he asked ten cents a quart, or three quarts for twenty-five cents. In about one hour afterwards another man followed after with a wagon load of cherries asking six cents a quart. And so it is. It is claimed that the cherry crop in this county is very large.
 Dr. H. C. Diltz, of Clayville, and Dr. B. Frank Shires, of Punxsutawney, class mates of Dr. J. H. Murray, of this place, drove over Monday afternoon to take in the banquet given to the "Hopeless Dozen" at hotel McConnell Monday evening. The gentlemen remained in town to attend the Murray-Fuller wedding this evening. Dr. Diltz is to be groomsman.
 The County Superintendent's office in the court house at Brookville is being repapered and repainted and new book cases and desks will be put into the office. Prof. Teltrick believes in having school rooms neat and clean and, therefore, don't want to set a bad example by having a dingy office into which the directors and teachers of the county would be ushered when they want to see the County Superintendent.

A woman may not have an agreeable disposition although she dresses sweetly. Think of sugar coated pills.
 James Thomas, a first-class barber formerly of Brookville, went to work in R. J. Thomas' barbershop in this place Monday morning.

 "Jack" Skehan, an employee of Hotel McConnell, went to the West Penn Hospital, Pittsburg, this week. A few months ago "Jack" let a keg of beer fall on his left ankle and it has troubled him ever since, getting worse all the time.
 The Clover Cycle Club was reorganized last Thursday evening and the following officers were elected: President, M. W. McDonald; vice-president, G. J. Corwin; secretary, Charles Kah; treasurer, Ed. Gooder. A number of new members have been taken in.
 The following officers will be installed in the Lady Winslow Degree Lodge, No. 205, Daughters of Rebekah, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday evening, June 23rd: Noble Grand, Annie Winslow; Vice Grand, Maggie Bell; Assistant Secretary, Carrie Deeter; Trustee, Lin Shick.
 Norwood G. Pinney, of Brookville, fire insurance agent, has appointed John Trudgen, of Reynoldsville, his solicitor, successor to Walter Spry, deceased. Mr. Trudgen is a step son of Walter Spry and well known in Reynoldsville, and all business will receive prompt attention entrusted to him.
 The "Hopeless Dozen" banqueted at Hotel McConnell Monday evening at the expense of Dr. J. H. Murray, who forsakes the bachelor organization this evening by taking unto himself a wife. The bill of fare was the most elaborate the "Hopeless Dozen" has ever had placed before them, so we have been informed.
 At a meeting of the West Reynoldsville school board Monday evening three teachers, all residents of West Reynoldsville, were elected: O. H. Johnston, Miss Hannah Stauffer, Miss Tacey Dempsey. A meeting will be held Friday evening of this week to elect a principal, which will either be Prof. Postlewait or Prof. Eisenhart.
 Mrs. Solomon Hollabaugh and Rachel Reitz, of West Reynoldsville, drove out into the country last Sunday and when returning in the evening their horse got frightened at a barrel, sitting by the wayside on Brown street, and upset the buggy, dumped the ladies into the ditch and made a wreck of the buggy. The ladies were not badly injured.
 Children's Day services were held in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning. "The Good Shepherd" exercise provided by the Presbyterian Board of Sunday School Work, was used. The exercises were pleasing and well rendered. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. There were two pyramids of ferns seven feet high, one on each side of the altar, and the balance of the decorations consisted of roses and cut flowers.
 On Friday next, June 19th, there is to be an ox roast, with all its attending accessories, base ball games, ice cream festival, orations, recitations, &c., at Summersville, this county. The object of the big time is to raise money for the Methodist Episcopal church organ fund of that place. There will be three bands present to enliven the day's doings, the New Bethlehem Juvenile band, Bellevue Cornet band and the Summersville Martial band. The A. V. R'y will sell excursion tickets.
 The new schedule on the A. V. R'y don't receive the approval of the business men of this place and the people who live at Hopkins, O'Donnell, Camp Run and Fullers. On the old schedule the people of those places could come to Reynoldsville on the 6:57 P. M. train and have almost two hours to do shopping, and return home on the 8:48 P. M. Scheduling the west bound train almost one hour earlier at this place reduces the time for the people who come to buy, and makes it almost impossible for them to visit the stores, buy what they want and get back to the railroad inside of sixty-six minutes. An effort will likely be made to get the railroad company to hold the train here forty-five minutes or an hour.

Trained Cat.
 Hubert Farrell has a white cat that has been trained to go to the barn at milking time, sit up on its hind legs several feet away from the cow and drink in a stream of warm milk squirted direct from the cow by the milker.

Does It Mean Matrimony?
 Prof. R. B. Teltrick, the young man who recently assumed the duties of the office of county superintendent, has purchased a $1,400.00 residence in Brookville. Who can interpret the meaning thereof? Does it mean matrimony?

Age Don't Interfere With Matrimony.
 A widower eighty-three years old has proposed to a Reynoldsville widow about half his age. The woman rejected the old gentleman and told him she thought him too old to get married, and the old lover claimed to be as youthful as some of the men of to-day are at 35 years. In pleading his case he told the woman he had four widows in view but that he would much rather marry her than any of the others.

Struck a Good Position.
 Henry A. Reed has secured a good position as traveling salesman for the National Cash register Co. of Dayton, Ohio. Henry will go to Dayton about the first of July and take a thirty day course in a school at that place which is required of all the agents for the National Cash Register Co. The company furnishes the schooling free and pay Henry's hotel bill while taking the course. The salaries of the above company's agents run from $100.00 a month to $3,000.00 a year.

Collided With Telegraph Pole.
 Seloe Mohny, an employee of the Falls Creek Herald office, came to Reynoldsville one evening last week on a freight train on the R. & F. C. R'y and in attempting to get off the train at this place before it stopped, he lost control of his body and the left side of his head and face collided with a telegraph pole. The telegraph pole was not injured by the collision, there was not even any bark knocked off the pole, —there was none on it—but it was different with Seloe's face. His mother recognized him, however, when he got home.

Let the Eagle Scream.
 Posters have been printed announcing that there will be the grandest celebration in Reynoldsville on July 4th ever known since American Liberty was proclaimed. The Sons of Veterans, who have taken hold of the matter, are leaving nothing undone to make the eagle scream loud and long. Ball games, bicycle races, foot ball games, etc., in fact an entire day of sports and pleasure will be arranged for. P. O. S. of A. Camps, Jr. and Sr. O. U. A. M. Councils, I. O. O. F., K. of P., K. G. E., S. of V. and G. A. R. lodges from various places will be represented in the grand parade, which will consist of secret societies, fire companies, industrial and fantastic representations. Don't miss it. All roads lead to Reynoldsville. Come and bring your friends, if you want to have a good time.

Lucky Runaway.
 A young horse owned by Thos. Tapper, the liveryman, raised some excitement for a few minutes Saturday forenoon by running down Main street at a reckless speed with a new buggy attached to it. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to stop the animal. When the horse turned in off Main street to Tapper's stable its front feet slipped from under it and the horse fell and slid down the small embankment without doing injury to itself or damaging the buggy. What the result would have been had the horse not fallen can only be conjectured. An employee of the livery stable had the horse out driving it for exercise and in making a turn on East Main street the driver was thrown out of the buggy and the horse ran to the barn.
 It is a very unwise act to try to stop a runaway horse by throwing a hat in front of it, as was done Saturday morning, and is often done under similar circumstances.

Democratic Primaries and Convention.
 The Democratic primaries were held in Jefferson county last Saturday and the county convention was held in Brookville Monday afternoon. The convention was called to order by County Chairman G. M. McDonald. J. P. Taylor, of Falls Creek, was elected chairman of the convention. J. W. Wilson, S. S. Long and W. D. Kane were elected secretaries. C. G. Ernst, of Punxsutawney, reading clerk. The count of the primary election resulted in the following nominations: Congress, W. M. Fairman, of Punxsutawney; State Senate, C. G. Ernst, of Punxsutawney; Assembly, A. M. Armstrong, of Brookville; Prothonotary, D. C. Gillespie, of Big Run; Register and Recorder, B. H. Whitehill, of Falls Creek; Sheriff, J. J. Young, of Punxsutawney; County Treasurer, Jas. A. Aharrah, of Heath township; Commissioners, Sam'l States, of Bell township, Al. Hawk, of Brookville; Auditors, S. R. Kelley, of Brookville, N. H. Diener, of Rose township. W. L. McCracken was elected Chairman Democratic County Committee.

Youths' ox-blood shoes $1.50 and $1.75 at Robinson's.

Court of Equity.
 An important case is being heard this week by Judge Geo. S. Crosswell, of Franklin, Pa., who is here to relieve Judge Reed because of his interest in the case as counsel. It is equity proceedings to prove title and secure possession of the church property of the Evangelical Association, and in which the present pastors and official members are respondents. Presiding Elder J. W. Domer, of the Allegheny district, and Presiding Elder B. F. Felt, of the Franklin district, and Revs. S. Milliron, L. J. Bomgardner, D. J. Herschberger and J. M. Weaver are here in the interest of the congregations now using the property in question as places of public worship. The plaintiffs claim the property on a technicality, a division in the church giving them possibly a legal claim, but not one in equity, and it appears in the cases now being heard that a great wrong is being attempted against a considerable portion of the people in several communities. There are four church properties in this county involved, that of Mount Carmel, at North Freedom, the church at Heathville, that at Brookville, and that at Worthville, Rev. B. B. Pell, the plaintiff, appearing in each separate case as pastor of said churches. Means and Clark, assisted by E. B. Esher, of Chicago, represent the plaintiffs, and Geo. A. Jenks, Esq., the defendants. A large number of witnesses are present to testify as to their knowledge of the facts relative to the title to the several properties.—Brookville Republican.

Somebody Lied.
 On Monday Amos Strouse, of McCalmont township, was seriously injured by a limb of a tree falling upon him. His skull was cracked. He was passing through the woods on his way home from Clark, Kiser & Kipp's sawmill when the limb fell on him. He lay unconscious for a long time and when he recovered he managed to walk to the railroad track where passing workmen found him. He was conveyed to his home and is lying in a precarious condition.—Punxsutawney News.
 The above is a sample of how some people lie to newspaper men. While Mr. Strouse was working in the woods near his mill a limb of a tree fell on his left arm and bruised it badly, but he resumed his work in ten minutes afterwards. Mr. Strouse was in Reynoldsville Saturday and was surprised when the News item was read to him. The News did not intentionally almost kill Mr. Strouse, it was the editor's informant.

New Railroad.
 The Brookville Railroad Co., with a capital stock of $120,000, has applied for a charter for the purpose of building a railroad from Brookville up the North Fork, thirteen miles, into large timber tract in Polk township on which it is estimated there is from 70,000,000 to 100,000,000 feet of hemlock. This road will be built ostensibly to haul timber and bark over. The Allegheny Valley Railway Co. is to construct the new road and is to commence operations at once. It is expected that the rails will be laid before snow flies. In all probability when this road is finished the traveling public will get off the cars near Bevier's hotel, in Brookville, and not be compelled to jump off at Longview, as is done now.

Not in the Contract.
 EDITOR STAR:
 DEAR SIR:—In your last issue of THE STAR I notice that you made an error in relation to my contract for carrying the mail between the postoffice and the A. V. R'y depot. The notice from post-office department says nothing regarding the time of delivery and I never entered into a contract to deliver the mail within ten minutes after arrival of train.
 JOSEPH SHAFER.
 It was Postmaster E. T. McGaw, who claims to have the authority, that issued an order that the mail be delivered within ten minutes after the arrival of the trains.
