The grounds in front of the new school house have been graded and two terraces made and sodded along the sides. It is too expensive to sod the entire grounds, and, therefore, good soil will be put on and seed sown. A temporary fence is now being put up around the grounds to keep the cattle off.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Simmons went to Olean, N. Y., on the 13th of this month on account of the serious illness of Mr. Simmons' father, whose death was then expected hourly. The old gentleman lingered on until Monday forenoon of this week, when he passed over into the Great Beyond. Funeral services will be held to-day and Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will return to Reynoldsville to-morrow.

Mrs. Lawyer C. Mitchell and daughter, Miss Lucille, were out driving Saturday in their cart and in trying to make a short turn too quick at Rathmel the horse fell and the ladies took a sudden tumble from the cart to terra firma. As the ladies and horse were not injured and the cart not damaged, it was only a matter of a few minutes until they were speeding towards Reynoldsville again.

It is on the Way.

The Fourth of July is scheduled for Reynoldsville one week from Saturday. Don't fail to arrive here the same day if you want to have an immense time.

Caught Between Cars.

John Nolan of this place, flagman on the A. V. R'y. gravel train, was caught between two cars last Thursday while making a coupling and had his right shoulder badly squeezed.

Marching Club.

A McKinley and Hobart marching club will be organized at this place this evening with a large membership. High white hats and tin canes will be the paraphernalia of the club.

Water Will be Turned Off.

At noon to-morrow, Thursday, the town water will be turned off a few hours. All those depending upon this source for water are hereby notified to supply themselves with enough to last three hours.

Three Weddings at One Time.

Father Brady married three couples in the Catholic church at 7:30 A. M. yesterday, June 23rd. T. J. Connelly and Miss Anna Bonner, J. C. Connelly and Miss Lizzie Bonner, two brothers and two sisters, all of Penfield, and Henry Holman and Miss Mary Hergangraden, of near Rathmel, were the contracting parties.

Two New Pensions.

Esq. E. Neff received notice last week that the pensions for Edward O'Donnell and David M. Hillis, for which he was Attorney, had been granted. Mr. Hillis is to get $12.00 per month. His pension dates from Aug. 11th, 1894. Mr. O'Donnell is to get $6.00 per month. His pension dates from Aug. 16th, 1892. Squire Neff seems to handle the pension business very satisfactorily and successfully for all who place their applications in his hands.

Thrombosis in Right Arm.

W. C. Bond, of Brookwayville, who has figured conspicuously in Jefferson county politics the past four or five years, passed through this place on the east bound, A. V. R'y. train Saturday noon on his way home from a trip into Ohio. Mr. Bond had his right arm in a sling. While in the Buckeye State he was leading a frisky horse and had the hitching strap wrapped around his right wrist. The animal became unmanageable and broke a blood vessel in Mr. Bond's right arm. A thrombosis formed in the arm, which is as bad as a broken arm, if not worse. Mr. Bond was in a hospital in Pittsburg a week or ten days.

Quiet Wedding.

Walter C. Henry, of Hamilton, Pa., who taught school in this borough two terms, and Miss N. Monora Wheeler, daughter of David Wheeler, the lumber dealer, will be married at the home of Mr. Wheeler at six o'clock this evening by Rev. Hubert Rex Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of the families of the contracting parties. The young couple will leave on the 6:56 train this evening for Atlantic City, where they will remain a fortnight. Mr. Henry and Miss Wheeler are classed among the best young people of Reynoldsville. Where they will reside is yet undecided. THE STAR extends congratulations and wishes the young couple peace, happiness and prosperity as they travel down life's pathway together.

Killed in the Woods.

George Moore, aged twenty-five years, son of Jacob Moore of Horn Settlement, was instantly killed Monday morning in the woods while at work on the Burtop track in Beechwoods. George and several other men were working close together when he was suddenly hurled into eternity. A hemlock tree was cut down and when the tree fell the top of a maple tree, that is supposed was broken and leaning on the hemlock, quietly dropped down on the young man with fatal results. His head, shoulders and breast were badly crushed. The funeral services were held at the home of his parents at 10:00 A. M. yesterday and his remains were interred in the Beechwoods cemetery. The young man was unmarried but expected to be married the Fourth of July, or a little later.

Prof. Mitchell Elected.

It was stated in THE STAR last week that the West Reynoldsville school board would elect a principal for the schools of that borough on Friday night and that Prof. Postlewait and Eisenhart were the applicants. The election was held over until Monday night and the applicants were Profs. Henry, Postlewait, Eisenhart and Mitchell. Prof. Lex N. Mitchell was elected principal at a salary of $65.00 per month. A petition was circulated in West Reynoldsville Friday, to which the signatures of at least two-thirds of the voters were attached, asking the school board to increase the school tax sufficiently to be able to pay Prof. Mitchell a salary of $75.00 a month and to hire him as principal. The school board did not consider the request to increase the school millage, and they could not have increased it even if they had made the attempt. Prof. Mitchell was principal of the West Reynoldsville schools year before last.

HAPPY PAIR MATED FOR LIFE.

Blushing Bride and Gallant Groom at Hymen's Altar.

The grandest home wedding that has taken place in this neck o' woods for many moons, occurred at the large residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Fuller, in Winslow township, nigh unto two miles east of Reynoldsville, on Wednesday at 8:00 P. M., June 17th, when their daughter, Miss Mildred M. and Dr. John Holmes Murray joined heart and hand on the front porch of the home in the presence of about 140 invited guests, who occupied the beautiful green lawn in front of the mansion. Promptly at eight o'clock the Miller Bros' orchestra, which was stationed on one corner of the porch, began playing a suitable march and the wedding party, composed of John Fuller, brother of the bride, and Vincent Reynolds, Miss Angus Warnick, bridesmaid, dressed in white, Dr. H. C. Diltz, of Lindsay, best man, Miss Fuller, dressed in a handsome cream silk crape dress, and Dr. Murray, made their appearance on the porch, where Rev. Hubert Rex Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, solemnized the nuptials. It was a pretty and impressive scene in the quiet eventide. A photograph of the scene would present the following beautiful picture: In the middle of the porch stood the happy couple who were plighting the most solemn of vows, in front of them was the Divine who had been ordained and given authority to perform such binding ceremonies, on the lawn were the invited guests almost breathlessly watching the ceremony, the ladies, all dressed in fine apparel, most of them in pure white, sitting on chairs in a semicircle, with the gentlemen, most all dressed in black, standing behind the general sex, the porch handsomely illuminated with Chinese lanterns, while to the right was a sloping green hill, to the left well laden fruit trees, and over and above all was the blue heavens with a beautiful silvery moon, half full, on its bosom. After the congratulatory excitement subsided, two large rooms, the porch and lawn were filled with small tables around which the guests assembled and partook of the good things from the culinary department that had been prepared to tickle the palates of the witesses of the matrimonial alliance.

About 10:30 Dr. Murray and wife, Dr. Diltz and Miss Warnick started to DuBois in a carriage, which was well bedecked—unknown to the bridal party—for the occasion, even to a string of sleigh bells on the horses. On Thursday morning Doctor and wife left DuBois on a ten day wedding trip in Canada. When they return to Reynoldsville they will room in the Sprague house and take their meals at Hotel McConnell until their new home on Main street, on which work will begin in a few weeks, is ready for occupancy.

Dr. Murray is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Val. S. Murray, of Gaskill township, this county. He is a graduate of the Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia. About one year ago he located in Reynoldsville where he has built up a good practice and made many warm friends. He is not only a scholar but is also a gentleman.

Miss Mildred M. Fuller, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fuller, was born on the farm where she was married. She is a graduate of the Clarion State Normal, has taught several very successful terms of school in this borough, and is a perfect lady in every sense of the word. She is held in high esteem in the community.

Frank J. Black, J. C. Swartz, Miss Maggie Stoke and Miss Ella Seely were the ushers for the occasion and handled the large party very nicely. While the refreshments were being served the Reynoldsville Keystone band marched up in front of the illuminated mansion and discoursed some delightful music.

Following is a list of the presents: Oak side board, oak bed room suite, oak hall tree, or rack, oak rocking chair, silver water set, two silver cake baskets, silver butter dish, silver spoon holder, silver salver, silver oyster fork, two silver berry spoons, silver salad fork, silver cake fork, silver soup ladle, two silver butter knives, two silver sugar spoons, silver orange spoon, beautiful cracker jar, china ice cream set, china berry set, half dozen ice cream plates, hand painted china fowl dinner set, paper weight, two water colored pictures, two steel engravings, silver bon bon dish, china salad set, china clock, half dozen butter dollies, sofa pillow, fancy drapery and mat, white silk fan, fancy center piece, one dozen silver knives and forks, half dozen silver table spoons, half dozen after dinner coffee spoons, four dozen linen napkins' five linen table cloths, and a number of fine linen towels.

The guests from out of town were as follows: Miss Grace McLaughlin, of Clearfield, Mrs. Wm. Denlinger, of Philipsburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Moore, of Brookville, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Middleton, of Mahaffey, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of Kane, Dr. Cochran, of Big Run, Miss Bertha Barclay, of Big Run, Miss Grace Dougherty, of Clarion, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Boyle, Dr. Grube and Dr. Shires, of Punxsutawney, Val. S. Murray and family of Gaskill township.

A Home Wedding.

A. Z. Snyder and Miss Nettie Spare, both of Brookville, were married at the home of the bride's parents on Jefferson street, at 4 P. M. on Wednesday, June 17th, 1896. Only the members of the immediate families of the bride and groom were present. Dr. R. M. Warren, pastor of the Brookville M. E. church, performed the marriage ceremony and Miss Mary Spare, sister of the bride, and Master Clyde Snyder, nephew of the groom, were the attendants. After an elegant and sumptuous dinner, served by Mr. and Mrs. Spare, the happy couple left at 5 o'clock for Reynoldsville, being driven to that place by Mr. and Mrs. Q. S. Snyder. The young people will make their home at Reynoldsville for some time. The very best wishes of many friends are extended to Azie and Nettie. May they live long and prosper.—Brookville Democrat.

Mr. Snyder, who is a tailor by trade and who has been working in J. C. Froehlich's tailor shop several months, is comparatively a stranger here, however, THE STAR welcomes the newly wedded pair to Reynoldsville and extends best wishes for clear sailing on the matrimonial sea.

Has a Big Heart.

John Goodwill, who for many years has conducted a dairy and sold milk to the people of Reynoldsville, is a remarkable man. Almost seventy-two years of age—he is younger than most men of fifty. He can get out and into his milk wagon with the ease and agility of a sixteen-year-old. His heart is as large as a yearling calf and he is never so happy as when he can do a neighbor a good turn. He is overflowing with good deeds, and if there were more Jack Goodwills in the world, it would be better for the world.—Reynoldsville Cor. to Punxsutawney Spirit.
