Kicked by a Horse.

Sylvester Brennan, a young man sixteen years old, was kicked by a horse at his brother J. L. Brennan's lumber camp last Thursday morning. Sylvester went in to feed the horse and it kicked him on the right leg, knocking him down. He fell with his right hand where the horse tramped on his little finger and lacerated it so that it had to be amputated. Sylvester's right leg was badly bruised.

Fell Thirty Feet.

W. J. Hutchison, a carpenter of this place, had a narrow escape last Wednesday while at work on Wm. B. McConnell's new barn, near Allens Mills. He was engaged in hauling rafters up to the roof of the barn and lost his balance and fell to the barn floor, a distance of thirty feet. No bones were broken, but Mr. Hutchison was badly shaken up. He broke the fall by catching a scaffolding or the accident would have proven more serious with him.

Farewell Sermon.

Rev. H. R. Johnson preached his farewell sermon in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. His subject was: "Our Guardian." Text: "The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another." The hour of service was postponed until 8:00 P. M. to give some of the other congregations, who held their services a half hour earlier, an opportunity to be present to hear Rev. Johnson's farewell. The Presbyterian church was too small to accommodate the large congregation present.

Good Wool Producers.

A. T. McLure, a member of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. firm of this place, who owns as good a farm at Panoost as can be found in Winslow township, takes great pride in having good seed planted on his farm and raising good stock. He has twenty head of Lincolnshire sheep from which were clipped this year two hundred and thirty-nine pounds of wool, which averaged a little less than twelve pounds of wool for each sheep. Mr. McLure is of the opinion that there is not another flock of twenty sheep in the county that can produce as much wool at one clipping.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. Edward Windle, who has lived in Reynoldsville at least a quarter of a century, was seventy years old last Friday and the event did not pass unnoticed by a number of her friends, for the old lady was tendered a surprise party. Forty-one ladies were present who carried with them numerous presents and baskets of something good to eat. A few hours were whiled away pleasantly at the home of Mrs. Windle during which time the refreshments provided by the "surprisers" were partaken of. Mrs. Windle will not forget her seventieth birthday, even though she lives many years yet.

Weaver; Alternate, J. C. Barto. Council meets every Wednesday evening in American hall.

A Long Tramp.

Baron von Levetzow and Baron von Sark-Midyloff, two German lieutenants of the Gaurd, dressed in knee pants, sweaters and straw hats, passed through Reynoldsville Sunday on a trip around the world on foot in a given time for a large wager. They left New York City on June 10th and are to arrive in New York June 9th, 1898. They left home without a cent in their pockets, which was according to the contract of the wager, and are to earn sufficient to keep them in food and raiment while making the trip. They sell their pictures to secure the necessary money. From this section they travel into Ohio, thence to Salt Lake City, San Francisco, cross the Pacific to Japan, cross the Yellow Sea to South Siberia, then to Russia and Germany and back to New York.

In Neff's Court.

Assault and battery cases have become almost common occurrences at Esq. E. Neff tribunal during the past two weeks. The "Squire's" office was entirely too small to admit the crowd that gathered their Friday afternoon to hear two assault and battery cases furnished by denizens from "Poverty Flat." Charles Grubbs and some Italians were the participants in the assault and battery suits, Grubbs being the plaintiff in both cases. Mrs. Mary Rejno, aged 70 years, and Maggie Pirundi were charged with assaulting Grubbs' boy and girl. The old lady was discharged and Maggie Pirundi bound over to court in the sum of $100.00 ball. In the second case Pasquala Pirundi, Mrs. Pasquala Pirundi, Maggie Pirundi, Mrs. Mary Rejno and Donata Rejno were the defendants for assaulting Mrs. Susanna Grubbs. Pasquala Pirunda and wife and Donata Rejno were bound over to court in the sum of $100.00 each.

There should be some way provided to dispose of such petty cases without taking them to court to take up the time of court and put extra cost on the county. A law should be passed giving a Justice of the Peace power to decide such cases.

Formerly of Reynoldsville.

The 1:00 P. M. train yesterday brought the remains of Gustave Otto Zeitler, son of John W. Zeitler, of Pleasant avenue, to this place. Mr. Zeitler was a carpenter and was killed while at work at New Orleans on Saturday, June 27th. A brother of the deceased came with the remains from New Orleans, but he has been sick with malaria for several weeks and when he arrived was too ill to talk and the manner in which the man met his death could not be learned. Funeral services will be held at the home of John W. Zeitler this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. P. Metzenthin, pastor of the Lutheran church. Interment in the Pleasant Avenue cemetery.

Birthday Party.

Monday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jennie Truitt, a number of her friends took notice of the event by giving her a surprise party. In the afternoon Mrs. Truitt had gone out from town a few miles to get some cherries and when she returned in the evening about eight o'clock and opened her door she found about sixty lady friends in charge of the house. The ladies had taken baskets of provisions with them, also two handsome rocking chairs as presents for Mrs. Truitt. A very pleasant time was spent by all present.

Stole a Ham and Ranaway.

A gypsy woman who was doing the begging act in Reynoldsville last Wednesday, stole a sixteen pound ham out of David Jones' cellar. Mr. Jones discovered the theft and followed the woman to the A. V. R'y, but got there in time to see the noon train go round the bend at the tannery with the thief and his ham on board. Too many beggars are just that class of people; they would lift a feather with a duck hanging to it if given the opportunity.

A Break Down.

The Hopkins saw mill was to have shut down next Friday evening for three days to give the employees, many of whom live at Lock Haven, a short vacation, but just before quitting time last Saturday evening the pit shaft on the flat gang broke, which will throw the mill idle about ten days. Fifteen or sixteen of the men went to Lock Haven the same evening the mill broke down and will remain until after the Fourth of July.

Notice to Soldiers.

An Evening Wedding.

A very pretty home wedding took place at eight o'clock last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lattimer, Hill street, when their daughter Miss Margret was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Jennings. The ceremony was a beautiful one and was performed by the Rev. John Wellington Crawford, of the First Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of about 70 guests. The bridesmaid was Miss Mabel Scott, of Brookville. Thomas Jennings, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Lattimer's four sons-in-law, J. V. Young, David Postlethwait, A. F. King and John Peters.

After the nuptial knot was tied a sumptuous repast was served, four sisters of the bride and their husbands acting as waiters. At a reasonable hour the guests departed to their respective homes and Mr. and Mrs. Jennings repaired to their own home on Fourth street, which had been previously furnished and made ready for them.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, consisting of an oak side board, white iron bedstead, springs and mattress, oak rocking chair, silver tea set, silver knives and forks, set china dishes, 14 dozen linen napkins, linen table cloths, silver pie knife, silver fruit dish, silver berry spoon, &c., &c.

Those present from out of town were Mrs. Wm. J. Wasman, of Jamestown, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Schnell, of Falls Creek, Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, of East Brady.

Mr. Jennings and bride have both lived in Reynoldsville many years and are well and favorably known in the town and community. The happy pair have the best wishes of hundreds of friends.

Hero of Two Wars.

We have right here in this man's town a hero of two wars in the person of Major Epler. In the fall of 1848 he enlisted in Company B, 1st regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, under Col. Wyncoop, of Pottsville, for three years or during the war. He served eighteen months and participated in every engagement from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico where peace was declared. General McCall, of Philadelphia, was commander of the Brigade, and General Winfield S. Scott, of that wing, of the army. At the breaking out of the civil war Major Epler, then living in Union county, enlisted as a private in Company B of the 6th Pa. reserves, but before reaching Harrisburg was elected First-Lieutenant, and after the battle of South Mountain was promoted to the Captaincy of the Company. By a special act of Congress he was brevetted Major for gallant conduct at the battle of the Wilderness, commission to date from May 10th, 1864. Of the three commissions, the Major prizes this last one as most valued. It is a presidential parchment and is countersigned by Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of war. Major Epler is in his 78th year and can do as good a day's work as any man in the town. He is a member of John C. Conser Post, No. 192, G. A. R. and one of its past commanders.—Reynoldsville cor. PUNXSUTAWNEY SPIRIT.

Narrow Escape.

Joseph Baldwin, who claims Cleveland, Ohio, as his home but whose relatives reside in Reynoldsville, came near being killed by being thrown from a train he attempted to board at Falls Creek for Johnsonburg Thursday evening. His head was cut, face bruised, hips and thighs scratched, torn and cut, and he was as badly a used up man as is often seen. He was brought here and his injuries dressed by Dr. Free. By means of a resected joint in his right arm he now makes a living exhibiting the same to medical college students. He may do so to-day before the Jefferson Medical society.—DuBois Courier.
