Two females, from a nearby town, whose reputations are not as spotless as the new fallen snow, had papers issued Monday evening for the arrest of a young man of this place for assault and battery.

Frank J. Black, of Hotel McConnell, had the largest and smallest pigs killed Monday that we have heard of this fall. The largest one weighed 418 pounds and the small one 12 pounds. The little one was roasted whole.

A cold in the head is common and very uncomfortable. This is the season of the year when you may reasonably hope to have a cold, or rather live in dread of having one. It requires the best of care to escape the "sniffles."

Six suspicious characters were loitering around some of the business places of town at three o'clock Sunday morning. They managed to keep out of Watchman Adelsperger's way. However, Frank kept his eagle eye on them.

Mrs. Christian Feeley, whose maiden name was Orr, died at the home of Amos Goss, near Pancoast, Saturday night from pneumonia. Her remains were buried in Beulah cemetery Monday afternoon beside the remains of her husband.

Tony Farrell, the Irish comedian, appeared at the Reynolds opera house last Thursday evening in his new play of "Garry Owen." The opera house was not uncomfortably crowded and the play was not considered the best ever produced in the town.

John Guthrie, of Ottumwa, Iowa, brother of Squire Joseph T. Guthrie, of West Reynoldsville, dropped dead on the street at Ottumwa Wednesday of last week. He had gone down town to get some apples and hear the election returns when his spirit suddenly took its flight into the Great Beyond.

Mrs. Samuel W. Snyder, of Rathmel, died Thursday last of pneumonia and was buried in the Prospect cemetery Sunday afternoon. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Rathmel, conducted by Rev. J. V. Bell, of DuBois. Undertaker J. M. Hays, of Reynoldsville, had charge of the funeral.

Demorest's Christmas number opens with a most interesting article called "The Cradle of Christianity," being a series of sketches of the Holy Land, written by the Rev. Dr. Thomas P. Hughes, who has traveled all over that part of the world. It is copiously illustrated with several full-page and many other smaller pictures.

The tenth semi-annual convention of the Jefferson County Directors Association will be held in the court house in Brookville on Thursday, Nov. 26th, at 10.30 A. M. The following topic will be discussed: Public High Schools; Necessity for school apparatus; Length of school term; Compulsory attendance; Text books and supplies.

A picture agent, who has "traveled from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the lakes to the Gulf of Mexico," occupied a cell in the Reynoldsville bastle a short time one night last week. The fellow played "smart" on the street with the gentler sex, got a thrashing for it and was afterwards locked up and had to pay seven dollars to gain his liberty. He skipped the town on the first train the next morning.

By the tabulated returns to be found on another page of THE STAR, it will be seen that the following gentlemen will take the oath of officers the first of the coming year and will have charge of the county affairs for several years: Sheriff, E. C. Burns; Register, Recorder, &c., John S. Barr; Prothonotary, W. D. Clarke; Treasurer, W. H. Lucas; commissioners, Val. S. Murray, J. J. Hinderliter, Sam'l States.

Don't let a glib-tongued stranger talk you into paying money in advance for goods to be delivered afterwards. There are numerous schemes being worked on the people of the county today by well dressed men to get money without giving anything in return. There is no doubt but that some unsuspecting women of Reynoldsville were caught in a well baited trap of one of these oil-tongued frauds last week and are now out the cash paid him.

Annual Inspection Train.

The annual inspection train, with all the section bosses, and some of the officials of the A. V. R'y on board, will pass through this place this morning.

Official Vote in the County.

This week we give the readers of THE STAR, in supplement form, the tabulated returns of the vote polled in Jefferson county on the 3rd inst. This is the official returns.

Cremated.

William Douty, of Philadelphia, who was interested in the coal works at Pancoast some years ago and who made frequent visits to Reynoldsville when he came to pay the miners, died in the "Quaker City" last week and his body was cremated.

Arm and Hand Broken.

Martin Straitwell, of Camp Run met with an accident Monday that will cause him considerable inconvenience for some time. He was throwing what is called a back cant and broke two bones in his right hand and one bone of the right fore-arm.

Appointed Assessor.

William Copping was appointed assessor of this borough last Thursday by the county commissioners. The death of Walter Spry, the elected assessor of the borough, made the vacancy to which Mr. Copping was appointed to fill.

Office Will not go Begging.

The present indications are that Major Wm. McKinley, president-elect, will have no trouble after he is inaugurated in getting some one in Reynoldsville to become postmaster at this place. A number of ardent Republicans will see to it that the office does not go begging for a P. M.

Ratification in Reynoldsville.

The Republicans of Reynoldsville and vicinity will hold a ratification jubilee in this place this evening. The town is to be decorated with flags, illuminated with red fire, and a torch light procession will parade the streets. The Republicans expect to make the walk in ring with their ratification.

Will not Accept.

Rev. G. A. Robinson, of Clarion, who was given a unanimous call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in this place, notified the congregation the first of this week that he would not accept the call. This leaves the congregation about where it was when Rev. Johnston resigned. They will have to go through the candidate process again.

Wreck on the R. & F. C. R'y.

There was a wreck on the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek R'y Monday afternoon at the junction near Prescottville. A heavy train of cars broke in two coming down from Big Soldier and the rear end crashed into the front end of the train on the curve at the junction. Two loaded cars were a complete wreck and the track was blocked for some time. The train men all escaped without injury.

Wanted the Insurance Money.

Martin McGregor, who owns a grist mill near Lindsey, on which he carried $1,500 insurance, is now rusticated in the Brookville jail. McGregor entered into a conspiracy with a nephew to burn the property. The young man, who was to get $200.00 for starting the fire, weakened and squealed and the insurance company got "wind" of it and McGregor was arrested and given a hearing before Squire W. W. Crissman, of Lindsey, Friday afternoon and the evidence adduced was sufficient to send him to jail to await a trial before the Jefferson county tribunal.

Two Bad Boys.

There are a number of very bad boys in this town who should be looked after carefully by their parents, but there are two bad boys running our streets during the day and sleeping wherever they can find shelter at night, who have no parents to look after them, that should be brought up before the Court of the county and be sentenced to a term in the institutions established for just such boys. The way the boys are now living is only preparing them for worthless lives. If they were taken care of a few years there might be some hopes for them.

"Held Up" on a Main St.

One night last week Jacob Bitters, a young man of West Reynoldsville, was "held up" near the A. V. R'y station by three men at midnight. The highwaymen had smothered out the gas light in front of the Ross House, which left that section of the town where Bitters was stopped in darkness. One of the bold, bad men caught Bitters and another one pointed a revolver at his head and demanded his money and what ever valuables he had about him. Jacob had neither money nor anything else that the robbers wanted, but he did make use of his voice, and a man named Kunselman, who was on the bridge on his way to West Reynoldsville, answered and the robbers left in a hurry. Bitters and Kunselman came back to this borough and got Night Watchman Adelsperger and all three went to look for the highwaymen, but they could not be found.

We Want the Institute.

As the time for holding the county institute draweth nigh we want to again call the attention of the county superintendent, school directors, teachers, and all others interested, to the fact that Reynoldsville should have the county institute next year. It has been said there is no building in Reynoldsville large enough to accommodate the institute. The Assembly room in the new school building seats over five hundred and Centennial hall will seat about three hundred. True, there are over three hundred teachers and one hundred and fifty-seven directors in the county, and the directors hold one meeting during institute week, but it is not necessary that they hold their meeting in the same building where the institute is being held. We think Reynoldsville can accommodate the institute nicely and believe that it would be nothing more than just that our town be given the institute occasionally.

Prof. Teltrick is a live superintendent, who believes in getting out of the old ruts, and we think he will pass the institute around. We don't see what objections would be raised to making the change, unless Brookville howls because they think they have a cinch on the institute, which means considerable money spent in a town in one week by the teachers and others who attend the institute. The directors should give an expression on this matter at their meeting in Brookville week after next.

New Departure.

Supt. R. B. Teltrick has prepared and had printed a program for the use of teachers, directors and others attending the coming session of the Jefferson county teachers' institute. It is something new in this direction. Besides giving the names of all the instructors and lecturers engaged especially for the institute, and affording an outlined program of the weeks' work, it gives a full list of the teachers employed in the county, where they are teaching, and their postoffice address; a list of all the school directors in the county, by districts; pictures of the Reynoldsville, Brookville and Brookwayville school buildings; and a course of study for the schools of the county, including the primary, intermediate, and advanced divisions, and high schools, covering a period of 13 years, with program for daily study and recitations.

Prof. Teltrick expended much time, labor and care in preparing this program, which cannot fail to be useful to those who attend the coming institute, and of incalculable benefit to the schools throughout Jefferson county. We believe the directors of the county did a good thing in electing Prof. Teltrick county superintendent.

New Train Service.

It was stated in THE STAR two weeks ago that there would be a new train service between this place and Falls Creek, over the R. & F. C. R'y, about the middle of Nov. A new schedule goes into effect on the B. R. & P. R'y next Monday on which provision is made for a passenger train to arrive in Reynoldsville at 10.30 A. M. and leave here at 12.50 P. M. The new train is a through train between Reynoldsville and Clearfield. The train makes close connection at Falls Creek with B. R. & P. trains for Bradford, Buffalo and Punxsutawney.

There will be a new morning and evening train between Punxsutawney and Falls Creek. Train leaves Punxsy at 6.00 A. M. and arrives at Falls Creek to connect with morning trains on A. V. R'y. Evening train leaves Falls Creek for Punxsy at 7.40, making connection with the A. V. evening trains.

Political Joke.

Ed. McCroight, son of Thos. McCroight of Paradise, was in Reynoldsville Thursday afternoon to get election news and when ready to go home his greyhound had strayed away from the horse and buggy and Ed. started off without the canine. He had hardly got out of sight before the dog was looking for him at a store where Ed. does most of his loading. The proprietor of the store, knowing that Ed. had to drive to Rathmel before going home, caught the dog and tied a shipping tag around its neck on which was written a notice giving the Pittsburg Commercial Gazette credit with conceding Bryan's election. The other side of the tag gave the Commercial credit for the statement that Bryan had 87 more electoral votes than McKinley. The dog got home a half hour before Ed. did, and report sayeth that Mr. McCroight, who is a McKinley man, was somewhat worked up over the message carried by the dog when his son arrived home.

Lecture Course.

The public school lecture course is now a dead certainty, and the opening entertainment by the Torbett Concert Co. will be given on Thursday evening, Nov. 19th, in Assembly Hall. Prof. Lenkerd has spared no efforts to secure the best talent and our people should patronize it liberally, as the net proceeds will be used in procuring stage fixtures, books for the library and experimental and other necessary school apparatus. The prices are within the reach of all, being but $1.20 for a reserved seat course ticket, $1.00 for a regular course ticket and single admissions 35 and 50 cents. The Torbett Concert Company, which appears here on the 19th inst. are first-class. Following are a few testimonials:

THE LUTHERIAN SEXTETTE.

"The celebrated Swedish Male Quartette, whose leader, Mr. Letterman, has, together with his companions, several times before given concerts here with great success, has again set out for a long concert tour, and from here goes to Holland. Last Tuesday the Swedish gentleman sang in 'The Tenkuenster-Verein' in this city and obtained, through the freshness and beauty of their voices as well as through their exact singing, an extraordinary success. It is to be hoped that these gentlemen will, on their return, let us hear their charming songs once again."—From Hamburg, Germany.

MISS OLLIE TORBETT.

Miss Ollie Torbett plays with exceptional skill. She has perfect command of the bow and fairly won the audience by storm. She was repeatedly encored and rendered a number of solos during the evening to the delight of her hearers.—San Francisco Examiner.

MISS LUCILE E. MAWSON.

Her reading of Beethoven's third sonata in D major was very scholarly, indeed, and her performances of pieces by Bach, Scarlatti and Rheinberger, were at no time deficient in charm, refinement or intelligence. It was in a burlesque of Rubenstein's, however, that she was heard in her best.—N. Y. Herald.

Death's Doings.

HERPEL.

Bertha Lenora Herpel, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Herpel, died about noon Saturday, Nov. 7th, from scarlet fever. Bertha took sick Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the home of the parents Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire. Interment took place in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

WISERMAN.

James R., only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiserman, of Worth street, aged about nine years, died of diphtheritic croup at 7.00 A. M. Sunday, Nov. 8th. The boy took sick Monday before. Remains were buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery Monday afternoon.

BUTSON.

Frank, ten-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Butson, died Monday morning of pneumonia. The little remains were buried in Beulah cemetery yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Crawford.

MUMFORD.

Young son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mumford, of near Emerickville, died Saturday night and was buried in the Moore cemetery, Emerickville, Monday forenoon.

Local Institute.

Program of a local institute to be held at Sykesville Dec. 12, 1896. The meeting will be called to order at 9.00 A. M. and officers elected to take charge, after which the following subjects will be discussed: "Object of Education," to be opened by J. C. Morris; "Morals in the School Room," J. M. Holben; "Literature in the Public School," T. N. Neff; "Government Necessary in the School Room," Orpha Beer; "Home Work for Pupils—It's Character and Amount," Mary McKee; "How to Teach Arithmetic," I. R. Mohney; Query Box. Adjournment until one o'clock, when the following subjects will be taken up and discussed: "Benefit of a Teachers' Institute," W. J. Snell; "School Visitation," W. A. London; "Difference Between Teaching and Telling," C. P. Matthews; "How to Teach Geography," Ethel McCroight; "Duty of Directors," Thomas Hutchison.

All teachers, directors and patrons, especially those of Winslow township, are invited to be present and take part in the discussions. Committee—W. J. Snell, T. N. Neff, J. M. Holben, C. P. Matthews, J. C. Morris.

The persons who stole my Scotch-Coolie female dog from Hopkins Nov. 3rd are known and are hereby notified if the dog is not returned they will be arrested. JOHN L. SLIFFER.

Cartin, on Jackson street, a few days during the past week. Jhn is now an employee of a large job printing establishment in the "Smoky City."

Words of Praise.

Misses Roberta Ayres and Barbara Gene Waite, of this place, gave an entertainment in Big Run last Friday night, and the Big Run correspondent to the DuBois Express, has the following to say about the young ladies: "One of the best entertainments the people of Big Run have ever had the pleasure of enjoying was given in the Opera house last evening by Miss Ayres and Miss Waite of Reynoldsville. Miss Ayres has a sweet voice and her beautiful songs thrilled the hearts of the audience, while the recitations of Miss Waite were continuously applauded. The young ladies are both artists and should have large audiences wherever they go."
