The Baptists' New Preacher.

The Baptist congregation of Reynoldsville has given Rev. J. W. Cole, of Van Etten, N. Y., a call to preach one year. Rev. Cole will begin his labors in this place the first of next month. He comes highly recommended. He will not move his wife and three children to Reynoldsville until sometime in the spring.

Marriage Licenses.

Up until Friday evening of last week there had been 4.321 marriage licenses granted in Jefferson county since September, 1885, when the law went into effect. The first license granted was to Jacob L. Pisher and Miss Carrie E. Wilson, of Puprsutawney, the 29th day of September, 1885, and the last one granted on the 8th instant was to Barney Bubert and Annie Daugherty, of Rathmel.

Fourth Commission.

In May Esquire E. Neff's fourth commission as Justice of the Peace in this borough will expire. The 17th of March, 1877, Mr. Neff was first sworn in as Justice. He has served three full commissions of five years each and one short commission-unexpired term of another person-making in all four commissions. He is well posted as to the law and duties of a Justice of the Peace. He served four years as constable of this borough. He is well known in this section of the county.

Will Help Tax Collector.

We understand that the Jefferson & Clearfield Coal & Iron Co. at this place propose to assist the tax collectors in getting taxes from the Italians and Polanders who work for the company by deducting the amount of taxes from their wages. Tax collectors have great difficulty in trying to get taxes from the class of people mentioned. It is right and proper that every one of them should pay taxes and about the only way to get it from the majority of them is to get it through their employ-

William C. Murray Appointed.

Last Wednesday Judge Reed appointed William C. Murray, son of Val. S. Murray, deceased, as county commissioner to fill the office to which his father had been elected by the people. Petitions signed by 3,000 people of the county requesting the appointment of W. C. Murray had been presented to Judge Reed. Mr. Murray is well qualified to fill the office of county commissioner and his appointment was received with general satisfaction in this section. After the appointment of Mr. Murray the board of commissioners made the following appointments: Clerk, John Davis; Solicitor, John M. White, Esq.; Jail Physician, Dr. R. S.

An Electric Light Plant.

It was mentioned in THE STAR last week that the town council had granted the right of way to the Reynoldsville Light, Heat and Power Co. to establish an electric plant and have use of streets and alleys to erect poles.

The town council will have to pass an ordinance at the next regular meeting making provisions for the rights asked by the Electric Co., and the ordinance will have to be published three times after the first reading before it becomes a law. No work will be done until the ordinance has passed second reading and entered on the statute books of the borough, which will require two mouths time. After that it is the present intention to begin work on the electric plant and get it in operation as soon as possible. It was outside capital that at first proposed to put in the plant-and may do it yet-but there is talk now of Reynoldsville capital being invested in the plant. We believe an electric light plant would be a puying investment in Revnoldsville and our people should see to it that outside capital should not be invested in the plant. Raise the money at home and start the plant. If foreign capital controls an electric light plant here our people will discover, when too late, that they allowed a good thing to go into the hands of people who are not interested in the town, only to get what money they can out of it.

Died in Baltimore.

Benjamin F. Robb, who was blacksmith for Degnan & McDonald a number of years and afterwards had a blacksmith shop in Prescottville, died at the home of relatives in Baltimore, Md., last Friday morning. Mr. Robb had not been able to work for a couple of years. About two years ago he went to a hospital in Baltimore to get treatment for his feet and ankles, which were badly swollen. The doctors then told him that the muscles had been sprained by shoeing horses and that he had stood on his feet too much, and that he would not get well of that trouble. We did not learn the immediate cause of his death. The deceased was married to Elizabeth Cochran, of this place, about fifteen years ago. His re mains were buried at Baltimore. Mr. Robb's brothers and sisters live in the "Monumental City" and he and his wife had been there sometime before he died.

The deceased was a member of Company F, Seventh Maryland Regiment. He was a native of Harford county, M. D., and at the time of his death was fifty-three years old. He had been a member of Blenheim Lodge, I. O. O. F., located at Aberdeen, Md., for more than a quarter of a century.

SENTENCED SATURDAY.

Dodsons Get Twelve Yeats in the "Pen" -Three Others to Work House.

At one o'clock last Saturday afternoon the court house at Brookville was packed by people who were anxious to hear the sentence of the Dodsons, who killed Louis Heiman near Brockwayville last September. Five prisoners received sentence by Judge Reed, as follows: Frank and William Dodson, voluntary manslaughter, twelve years aprece in the Western Penitentiary at hard labor, one dollar fine and cost of prosecution: Martin McGregor, arson, one year in Work House, one dollar fine and cost of prosecution; John Sutter, adultery, one year in Work House; Charles Holes, six months in Work House.

Sheriff Burns and four assistants will take the five prisoners down the river this morning.

Judge Reed said Saturday, while the Dodsons were before him for sentence, that the verdict in their case was an absurdity.

Sheriff Burns found a case knife. sharp enough to shave with, in the cell of one of the Dodsons Saturday afterncon. He said he was afraid of being attacked and had sharpened the knife to use in defense.

Joseph Aiello, the Italian who was convicted of murder in the first degree, has not received his sentence. Special court will be held on Monday afternoon. Jan. 25th, to make disposition of the motion for a new trial for Aiello. If the new trial is not granted he will recelve his sentence that afternoon.

February Election.

It is only a matter of a week or two until it will be necessary for the political organizations in the boroughs and townships in the county to make nominations for such offices as are to be filled at the election to be held Tuesday, February 16th. The following facts regarding the filing of papers with the County Commissioners should be kept in mind: January 26, 1897-Last day for filing nomination papers (county or city) with the County Commissioners, 21 days before the election. Jan. 29, 1897-Last day for filing certificates of nomination for township and borough offices with the County Commissioners, 18 days before the election. Feb. 1, 1897-Last day for filing nomination papers for township and borough offices with the County Commissioners, 15 days before the election.

Time for filing objections-February 4. In the case of certificates and papers designed for the borough and township officers, at least 12 days before the day of election.

Again, officers of nominating meetings should bear in mind that but one candidate for Inspector of Election can be voted for, and only one nomination for that office should be certified. Also in case of vacancies in school boards, board of Auditors or Town Councils, necessitating the election of more than the lawful number, all certificates in such cases should designate the number of years each candidate will have to serve.

The teachers of Brady township, Clearfield county, will hold an institute at Luthersburg on Saturday, Jan. 23rd. We notice that Prof. A. J. Postlethwait, principal of the Luthersburg schools, has the following subject: "The True Teacher."' Prof. Postlethwait was one of the instructors in the Reynoldsville schools a number of terms and proved himself an excellent teacher. There is no doubt but that he knows what a "true teacher" should be and will handle his subject all right.

H. E. Nichols, a contractor, who moved his family from New York to Tyler, Pa., the 24th of last month, was crushed to death by a fall of roof in No. 2 drift of the Tyler mine last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Nichols was enlarging the mine for the purpose of putting in a rope-haulage system and while he and several other men were engaged in placing timbers in position about thirty feet from mouth of the mine the roof caved in. The other men escaped but Nichols was buried under the debris. When his body was dug out life was extinct.

Out went the light of glass and Kenneth was going over the window sill backwards just as his father caught him by the feet. The light of glass, which was a large one, as there are only two lights in a window, struck on one corner and stuck in the frozen ground with a small piece broken off the corner of the pane.

Frank Leo, who worked for H. S. Belnap in the wholesale liquor store, and Peter Mancuso, who worked for the A. V. R'y Co., left this place several weeks ago to visit the land of their nativity, Italy. At New York they bought their tickets and had their U S. money exchanged for Italian money. Just as they were leaving the bank an Italian, almost breathless, met them at the door with a satchel in his hands and a ticket for Italy. He seemed greatly excited and hastily explained to Frank and Peter that the police were on his tracks and that he had to skip for the boat. He said his satchel contained $30,000 and he asked Frank and Peter to give him the Italian money they had, take the $30,000 and have it exchanged into Italian money, then take out the amount they had given him and send the balance to Italy to an address he gave them. Frank and

Peter stepped into the trap and had to sail from New York for Italy without a cent in their pockets, for when they returned to the bank and opened the satchel they found only two bags of sait in It. Frank gave the lke three hundred dollars and Peter gave him fifty dollars

Conscientious Fellow.

It may be a surprise to some people to know that a man can be found in these days who is so conscientious that he cannot sleep if he goes in debt, but there are some such men, though they are few compared to the vast number that run in debt and never pay their indebtedness. It so happens, at times, that honest people get in debt who cannot liquidate the indebtedness when they should, or would like to, but there are others who never attempt to pay their honest debts. They get trust wherever they can, never expecting to pay the amount, at least their actions would leave such an impression. We received the following letter from on of our subscribers several days ago:

"I enclose the amount due on my subscription. Please stop my paper. I get very little rent for my house and get very little rent for my house and will not go in debt for anything. Your paper is good; all it claims to be, and I am sorry to stop it, but I could not sleep if I would go in debt."

Smothered Her Baby.

The Punxsutawney papers contained the account of a distressing accident that occurred in that place last week. Mrs. Will H. Mundorff was in her home alone nursing her fourteen-month-old baby when she fainted and fell to the floor on top of her baby. When con-sciousness returned Mrs. Mundorff was borrified to find that she had smothered the infant to death

Do You Do It?

Many persons, after reading their home paper, inclose it in a wrapper and send it to their friends who have moved away and want to hear more of the news of the community than can be written in an ordinary letter. Did you ever stop to count the cost and trouble it takes to do this every week, together with the fact that you deprive yourself of the paper, and compare it with the cost of subscribing for your friends and having the paper sent direct to them from the press without any more trouble or expense on your part?-Ex.
