The semi-annual convention of the Washington Township Sunday School Association was held in the Union church at Beechtree last Friday. There were three sessions, forenoon, afternoon and evening. All sessions were attended by a full house. The aisles were filled at the evening session by people who could only get standing room. An excellent program had been prepared and was carried out as arranged, with a very few exceptions. It was an interesting convention.

An Englishman named Gearhart, of Eleanor, was knocked insensible by falling out of a spring wagon near the A. V. Ry crossing last Friday afternoon. The man had been to the A. V. baggage room for a trunk and climbed on to the trunk to use it for a seat. He started his nag on a trot and made a quick turn coming out from the station on to Pike street and was spilled out of the vehicle, struck his head on the hard frozen ground. The man was taken to the Ross House where he soon recovered sufficiently to make the second start for home.

Sixteen New Rifles.
 Phil. Kearney Camp No. 38, Sons of Veterans of Reynoldsville, received sixteen new rifles last week.

Served Him Right.
 A Falls Creek man was arraigned before Squire Neff one day last week for cruelty to a horse. The man plead guilty and had to pay ten dollars and costs for abusing the animal.

S. of V. Officers Installed.
 The following officers were installed in Phil. Kearney Camp, Sons of Veterans, in this place last Monday evening: Captain, Earl Sutter; 1st Lt., W. P. Woodring; 2nd Lt., Clark Wells; Camp Council, H. Alex. Stoke, G. W. Stoke, jr. and D. W. Atwater.

Nose Skinned.
 A. M. Woodward, druggist in the Reynolds Drug Store, had a generous supply of bark peeled off his proboscis yesterday afternoon. Woodward and Benjamin Kline were unloading a large piece of ice when Kline's ice hooks slipped and struck Woodward's nose.

Moved to Brookville.
 Meeker Bros., who opened a large flour and feed store in Reynoldsville a year ago, moved their stock to Brookville last week, where they have a flour and feed store and own a grist mill. Newell Meeker, who had charge of the store in this place, made many friends during his stay here.

Exciting Runaway.
 Jim Cox's horse ran off last evening, throwing Jim off the wagon and dragging him over the ground a short distance. The horse made a circle around the A. V. Ry station, coming down the platform in front of the station just as the passengers were getting on and off the 7:50 train. Several men narrowly escaped being run over by the horse and front part of the wagon that was still attached to the animal.

"The Hopeless Dozen."
 "The Hopeless Dozen" held their semi-annual meeting and a banquet at Hotel McConnell last Thursday evening. Mine Hose Black gave them a bill of fare that would have pleased the most fastidious epicurean. Charles A. Dickinson was initiated to fill the vacancy created in the organization by the resignation of Glenn A. Milliren. The members of "The Hopeless Dozen" are: Frank J. Black, Chas. Kah, M. J. Coyle, John H. Schofield, John L. Sliffer, Philip Loos, Dr. R. E. Harbison, G. J. Corwin, J. C. Swartz, F. J. Weakley, I. M. Swartz, Charles A. Dickinson.

Plain Talk on Vice and Immorality.
 The meeting exclusively for men, as advertised in THE STAR last week, was held in the M. E. church Sunday afternoon and was attended by a large crowd. Evangelist Heath delivered a very forcible address on the vices and immoralities of the present times. He handled the truth with unglazed hands. While some of the charges he brought against the male portion of the human race were terrible, yet they are facts that no one can gainsay. Many in the large audience were, apparently, greatly impressed with the statements made by the Evangelist.

Moving Back to Reynoldsville.
 Frank A. McConnell, formerly proprietor of Hotel McConnell, who has been one of the proprietors of Hotel Pantall, Punxsutawney, five years, severed his connections with that hotel the first of last week and will retire from business for a time. Mr. McConnell will move his family to Reynoldsville, furnish rooms over the Hotel McConnell billiard room and board at Hotel McConnell. Mr. McConnell is an excellent hotel man and a very genial fellow. He has a host of old-time, warm friends in Reynoldsville who will extend him a cordial welcome as he returns to reside in this place.

The Andrews Raid.
 W. J. Knight, the famous engineer of the Confederacy, gave his illustrated lecture in Centennial Hall last Friday evening to a small but appreciative audience. The pictures related to the capturing of a locomotive and a train of cars from a camp of 10,000 rebels, the escape, pursuit, capture and suffering in rebel prison, accompanied by a thrilling history of this daring raid, the most dard-devil and romantic act of modern or ancient warfare. Mr. Knight was one of the principal actors in the raid. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the John C. Conser G. A. R. Post of this place.

Located With X-Rays.
 Alex. McKay, a blacksmith who lives at Westville, this county, has been troubled for a number of years from a bullet that was accidentally shot into his leg. The bullet was aimed at a dog, but missed the mark and lodged in Mr. McKay's leg. Doctors have probed for the bullet different times, but were never able to locate it. Recently the leg swelled badly and gave Mr. McKay so much trouble that he decided to go to Buffalo, N. Y., to see if the X-rays could locate the bullet. The X-rays showed the exact location of the piece of lead that had been buried in human flesh so many years, and on Saturday the bullet was removed.

Mrs. Meeker Died Suddenly.
 Mrs. Florence Meeker, wife of Martin Meeker, traveling salesman for the Freeman Milling Co. of West Superior, Wis., died suddenly about 9:00 A. M. Monday, Jan. 18th, of neuralgia of the heart, at the residence of Geo. Sprague, where she had been rooming during her stay of almost one year in Reynoldsville. Mrs. Meeker had not been enjoying good health for several months and had been confined to her room, and to her bed part of the time, ten days previous to her death, but no one dreamed that the silken thread of life would be snapped asunder so soon and suddenly, hence her numerous friends in Reynoldsville were shocked when it was announced that she had died. There were none of the family but the eleven-year-old daughter, Louisa, with her when she died. Her two sons were in Brookville and when telephoned that their mother was dangerously ill, started at once, but while they were traveling to Reynoldsville her spirit took its flight.

Martin Meeker and Florence Corning were married at Fort Anne, N. Y., about thirty years ago. Mrs. Meeker was then about eighteen years old, making her in the neighborhood of forty-eight at time of death. Four children, two boys and two girls, were born unto them. M. C. Meeker, who is married and lives in Brookville, Mrs. J. P. Gilman, of Rosemont, Minn., G. Newell and Louisa Florence Meeker, who have been in Reynoldsville the past year.

Mr. Meeker and sons started to-day for Batavia, Ill., with the remains of Mrs. Meeker, where the interment will take place. Mrs. Meeker's father and a sister are buried at Batavia.

An Intellectual Woman Dead.
 Mrs. L. C. Shirley, of near Panie, departed this life on the 12th inst., aged 76 years. Funeral services were conducted at her late home on Thursday afternoon by Rev. Teagarden, pastor of the United Brethren church, and her mortal remains were lowered into a new made grave in the United Brethren cemetery. Rev. Teagarden, who was personally acquainted with the deceased, said she was the most intellectual woman in that section and also the richest, if not in worldly possessions, in grace.

Mrs. Shirley was the mother of Mrs. Sam'l Bloom, formerly of this place. Her husband and a number of children survive her.

Resolutions Fire Co. No. 1.
 At a meeting of Fire Co. No. 1, January 14th, 1897, the following resolutions were adopted:
 Resolved, That it is with the utmost regret and greatest reluctance that we accept the resignation of Ed. Burns, as chief of our fire department, made necessary by his election to high office and removal to Brookville. Our department has been wisely, ably and bravely conducted under his directions, and we realize that we not only lose a faithful comrade, but a firm friend.
 Resolved, That which has been our loss will be Brookville's gain.
 Resolved, That these resolutions be placed on the minutes of the company and published in the Reynoldsville papers.

Township Republican Ticket.
 The Republicans of Winslow township held their primary at Prescottville last Saturday and nominated the following ticket:
 School Directors—O. H. Broadhead, A. L. Long.
 Overseer Poor—G. W. Mohney.
 Collector—Charles Dean.
 Auditor—A. W. Scott.
 Supervisors—Amos Strouse, Sam'l Eye.
 Register—East—William Eye; West—W. F. Hutchison.
 Judge of Election—East—J. L. Long; West—W. K. Garvin.
 Inspector—East—George Bowser; West—A. T. McClure.

Meeting for Women Only.
 All women and girls over fourteen are invited to a women's meeting at the Methodist church Sabbath afternoon at half past two o'clock to be addressed by Evangelist Heath on "God's Plan for Woman as Daughter, Wife and Mother." The address will be nonsectarian and full of information to all. At its close an opportunity will be given to make a free will offering to the speaker by those who feel that it has been a benefit to them or to the community.

An Evangelist from Kalamazoo.
 About the first of February a series of meetings will begin in the Baptist church under the directions of the new pastor, Rev. J. W. Cole, and Evangelist J. W. Dean, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Men's, youths' and boys' suits go in Deemer's clearance sale.

Woman's Relief Corps.
 In 1883 the Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, was organized and commenced the holy mission of relieving and lessening pain, befriending and lending a helping hand to those who had given their best for their country. The organization was started with forty-four true hearted, earnest women and at the present time aggregates 113,000. Pennsylvania has 147 Corps, 4,700 members, and has raised $76,504.57.

John C. Conser Relief Corps, No. 75, of this place, was organized February 22, 1887, with a membership of fifteen. Homer B. Leach called the meeting to order and Mrs. Sam'l Wisor, who is with us at the present time, was elected secretary of the meeting. During this time we have gained and lost a number of members. We have lost four by death, Mrs. Montgomery, our first president, Mrs. Hauck, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Dunsmore. Several have moved away and a few have dropped out. At present we have a membership of about forty. In our different efforts, since our organization, we have raised $1,400 in money, besides clothing, quilts, &c. We have expended about $600.00 of this for relief. This year we raised $73.00 in money and expended $58.00.

In closing this year I wish to thank our secretary and treasurer, Mrs. G. C. Strouse and Mrs. Edith Philippi, who have performed their respective duties faithfully and uncomplainingly, and all others who helped to make the year a successful one, not only financially, but harmoniously.

We have only a few years left in which to aid the G. A. R., then let us avail ourselves of the present opportunity to brighten the pathway of those who so willingly gave up the pleasures of home that we might enjoy our country and our flag. May the Great Commander of us all keep our hearts and minds ever true to the pledge we have taken, and may our motto always be Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty.

The above was written and read by the retiring president of the Corps, Mrs. A. H. Reynolds, at the close of the year, 1896. The Corps voted that it be published.

Are Safe in the "Pen."
 Sheriff Burns lauded the Dodsons at the Western Penitentiary last Wednesday afternoon without the least trouble. By good behavior they can shorten their term over three years, and they entered the "pen" with the intention of being on their good behavior during the time they have to stay there. It is claimed that William Dodson has consumption and there is doubt as to whether he will serve out his sentence. Their sentence was "hard labor," but as there are about one hundred more criminals in the "pen" ahead of them who were sentenced to hard labor and are idle on account of no work for them, all the works being already over-crowded, they will simply have to put in their time waiting for a job, however the pay is the same. The Ridgway Democrat gives the Dodsons the following complimentary notice:
 "Although the Dodsons were residents of this county, their actions from the time they came here were not calculated to win friends and it is a relief to know that the people of Spring Creek will not be bothered by their presence for some time again.
 Of their guilt there can be no question. It is to be hoped that their almost miraculous escape from death and the imprisonment they will be compelled to undergo will be a lesson to them, and at the end of their term they will realize the truth of the scriptural adage which Will Dodson wrote on the walls of the Elk county jail, 'that the way of the transgressor is hard, and he better man.' The sympathy of all will go out to the wife of Will Dodson in her sorrow than widowhood, in indigent circumstances and several little ones to provide for. Her case is a pitiful one and excites much sympathy."
