Never bear more than one kind of crouble at a time. Some people hour three kinds all they have had, all they have now and all they expect to have.

The bill directing county commissioners to take, maintain and assume control of township bridges over thirty feet long and providing for the rebuilding of any bridge which may be destroyed and the building of new bridges, was defeated in the house at Harrisburg one day last week.

Dr. Ceorge F. Shrady, one of the document physicians in this country, was recently asked what was the best form of exercise, and he replied that walking was superior to bicycling or horseback iding, as it was the most natural form in which one can get ale and sonshine. Dr. Shrady declared that very few people are hurt by over-work; the great majority are injured by worry; which is more exhausting than any work, and by falling to care for their bodies.

The opinion handed down recently by Judge Savidge, of Sunbury, interpreting the fence law, is of interest to every farmer in the State. A woman had brought suit against a neighbor for damage to her corn by his cattle. Judge Savidge charged that the law formerly required a man to fence against his neighbor's cattle but now under the statute every man must fence against his own cattle, and this he must do at all hazards, no matter if it takes a fence ten feet high. If one's cattle get out and do damage to his neighbor the owner of the cattle is liable for the damage done, unless it can be shown the cattle were let out by a trespasser, in which case the party damaged would proceed against the wrong-doer.

Is it true that christianity is only a cloak with which men may hide their nner self? Is it true that it makes no difference how a man gets rich, just so he has the cash? Is it true that it matters nothing what methods a candidate for office uses just so he manages to secure the nomination and election? Is it true that everything on the surface is a farce, and it is only possible to carry out the farce under the guise of christianity?-Kittanning Times. If all people were jugded by a few in every community the above four interrogations would have to be answered in the affirmative, but we don't judge the entire human family by the few hypocrites we meet occasionally. There are many good, true christians in the world today. True, there are some who make foud profession that are as dishonest as the devil himself. There are men who gain riches in an honorable way, and occasionally one can find a conscientious man looking after an office. Get into better company, brethren.

Notwithstanding the delightful weather we have had this spring, no one need be surprised if we have big anow storms yet. Following are a few dates of snow storms in April and May: In 1845 snow fell on the 31st of May, and the cold was so severe on the 1st of June that the growing crops were frozen to the roots. No grain crops of any sort were harvested that year, a fact that many elderly people easily recall. It was a wonderful year for snow, for June, July and August were the only months without a snow fall. On the 16th of April, 1849 and on May 3rd, 1851 there were severe snow storms. In April 1854 such a depth of snow fell and so long continued was the cold weather that the last of the white blanket still lingered in sheltered spots in the latter part of May. The month of May in 1855 saw another snow storm. On the 27th of April, 1857, snow was two feet deep on the level, and there was a further fall of "the beautiful" on the 20th of May. Over a foot of snow fell in May 1861. On the 16th of April, the 29th of the same month, 1877, and on the 8th of April, 1884, were heavy snow storms, of which the last one was the lightest and it gave us a foot deep of the genuine article.

Man's Measure.

An unknown observer correctly says that the true measure of a man is not the street, nor the church amen corner, nor the forum, nor in any public way, but at his own fireside. There he lays aside his mask and you may learn whether he is an imp or an angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I care not what the world may say of him, whether it crowns him with a jewel or pelts him bad eggs. I care never a copper what his reputation may be. If his children dread his home-coming, and his wife swallows her heart every time she asks him for anything, he's a fraud of the first water.-Ex.
