If everyone was just like you, or just just as you wanted them to be, wouldn't this be a lovely world to live in?

"It's all right for a man to make a name for himself," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "but he should be careful not to make it on the back of another man's check."

Base insinuations, groundless and unprovoked, should never be employed by a good citizen to injure the standing and business of a neighbor.

The editor of the Punksutawney Spirit, who is in a position to know, says: "Do as you think right, and take the consequences," ought to be the maxim of every honest legislator.

Washington, D. C., is perhaps the most beautiful city in the world, especially when nature puts on her spring attire.

Men may question the authenticity of this or that book of the Bible; they may flout the story of Jonah and the whale; they may evade the questions of faith and doctrine; they may refuse to assent to gospel narratives; they may hide themselves in metaphysical maze until the existence of God becomes uncertain to them.

"The most subtle and deceitful hope which ever existed, and one which wrecks the happiness of many a young girl's life," writes Evangelist Dwight L. Moody, in the June Ladies' Home Journal, "is the common delusion that a woman can best reform a man by marrying him.

"The jury is one of the most important departments of justice," says the Pittsburg Advocate. "That it should be made up of good men, goes without the saying. That it is often composed in part or in whole of men not the best fitted for such duty, is well known.

Annual Convention.

The annual convention of the Jefferson County Sunday School Association was held at this place Thursday and Friday of this week and was a success in every particular.

The program for Thursday afternoon consisted of devotional exercises conducted by Rev. W. R. Buzza, greeting by the county president, the transaction of business, and the teachers' meeting and its importance, discussed by Hon. S. A. Craig and Rev. E. M. Lightfoot.

In the evening session the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. F. S. Grover. Rev. C. J. Kophart, State Secretary, was expected to be present, but in his absence a very interesting and instructive blackboard exercise was given by Hon. S. A. Craig, and Mrs. J. W. Barnes addressed the meeting on the importance of right beginning.

Old People. Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters.

The printing press has made presidents, killed poets, furnished bustles for beauties, and polished genius with criticisms. It has made worlds get up at roll-call every morning, given the pulpit lungs of iron and a voice of steam.

Reduced Rates to Milwaukee. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that on account of the meeting of the National Educational Association, at Milwaukee, Wis., July 6 to 9, it will sell continuous passage tickets from all points on its line east of Pittsburgh and Erie to Milwaukee at rate of single fare for the round trip, plus $2.00 membership fee.

Reduced Rates to San Francisco. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that, for the Christian Endeavor convention to be held in San Francisco, July 7 to 12, it will sell special tickets from all points on its system at greatly reduced rates. These tickets will be sold June 27 to July 2, and will permit of stop over at Denver and points West.

Executors Notice. Estate Peter Cox, late of Washington Township, deceased. I will expose to public sale on Monday, June 29th, 1897, the following property of Peter Cox, deceased: Two farms in Washington township, one containing 100 acres, the other 8 acres; four houses and lots situated in the east end of the borough of Reynoldsville. The property in Reynoldsville will be sold at 10 A. M., and the farms in Washington township at 3:00 P. M.

Big Gondola.

The B. R. & P. company is always looking after the best equipment possible for their road. The latest idea is a new gondola car, capacity 80,000, a sample of which is now standing in the yard at this place. This is the largest car for carrying coal ever rolled over the road and is as deep as a box car.

Something to Depend On. Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her.

Single Fare for Round Trip. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that for the Eighteenth National Sengerfest, to be held in Philadelphia, June 21st to 24th, 1897, it will sell excursion tickets to Philadelphia from all points on its line June 19th to 23rd inclusive, good to return until June 26th, 1897, inclusive, at a single fare for the round trip.

Wall Paper. Undoubtedly the handsomest line of wall paper ever shown in Reynoldsville is now on exhibition at Stoke's. Prices lower than ever. The public are invited to come and see the display.

One reason why the people never pay attention to signs and advertisements daubed on old fences, stables and bridges is because they do not know whether they are reading the advertisement of some firm that is still in business, or one that has been dead for years.

Ordinance No. 42.

Section 1. Be it ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the borough of Reynoldsville, &c.: That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to permit any of the following named animals to be at large within the limits of the borough of Reynoldsville. Viz: Horses, mules, jacks, cows, or other cattle, swine, sheep, geese, or goats, and any violation of this ordinance shall subject the owner or owners of any such animals to the following penalties, which shall be collected as herein after specified for use of said borough. Viz: For each horse, mule or jack $5.00. For each hog, sheep, goose or goat $2.00. For each cow or other cattle $2.00.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the high constable of the said borough, and he is hereby empowered and directed, without any further authority than this ordinance, to seize and impound any of the animals named in the first section of this ordinance, when running at large as aforesaid in violation thereof, and to sell the same at public sale after giving five days public notice in the following manner, in case the owner or owners thereof do not redeem the same before the day of sale, to-wit: When the owner or owners of any such animal or animals shall be known to such high constable, written or printed personal notice describing the number and kind of animal or animals, and the time and place of sale, and in all cases whether the owner or owners shall be known or not, five days notice to the public by at least six written or printed hand-bills describing the number and kind of stock, and the time and place and terms of sale, affixed in at least six of the most public places in said borough.

Section 3. In case the owner or owners of any such stock shall at any time before the sale actually takes place, appear and satisfy the said high constable that he, she or they owned such stock and pay in full to the high constable the penalty or penalties incurred by the violation of this ordinance together with all costs and expense incurred in the keeping and feeding such stock while impounded, it shall be the duty of the high constable to deliver such stock to the owner or owners.

Section 4. Of all penalties collected one-half shall be paid into the borough treasury, and the other half thereof and the costs and expenses of keeping and feeding while impounded shall belong to the high constable, and in case of a sale of any stock under this ordinance the surplus, if any, after paying the costs and expenses shall be paid into the borough treasury there to be held in trust for the owner or owners of such stock, but shall not bear interest.

Section 5. Upon notice from any citizen of said borough of any trespass upon his premises by any such stock to the high constable he shall, upon request, impound and deal with such stock in the manner herein before prescribed.

Section 6. Stock belonging to non-residents of said borough, when that fact is known to the high constable, shall be impounded and dealt with as directed by the estray laws of this commonwealth.

Section 7. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to leave any horse or horses, mule or mules standing on any street, lane or alley within the limits of this borough of Reynoldsville without being tied to a hitching post, rail or ring, and any person or persons violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a penalty of not less than one nor more than five dollars for each offense to be recovered for use of said borough as fines are now collectable.

Section 8. That any ordinance or part of ordinance conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same is hereby repealed so far as the same effects this ordinance.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Council this 7th day of June A. D. 1897. Attest: W. S. STOKES, Pres. Town Council. L. J. MCENTIRE, Sec. Town Council. Clerk of Town Council. Approved this 8th day of June A. D. 1897. H. ALEX. STOKES, Chief Burgess.
