

THE REALM OF FASHION.

Jaunty Jacket for Misses.
This jaunty little top garment, says May Manton, is made of satin-faced cloth in the deep shade of red known as Boreaux, the decoration consisting of black silk braid. The loose fronts close at the neck only, but the back is made snug by means of a centre-seam, side-back and under-arm gores. The neck finishes with a close standing collar. The back shows the regulation coat laps and plaits and in the front useful pockets are inserted and

To make this basque for a woman of medium size will require three yards of forty-four-inch material, or two and one-half yards, with five-eighths of a yard of contrasting material for the full front.

The New Headgear.

Much of the new elaborate headgear is large in size, the hats tilted well to one side over the ear, the other side rolled high or arched in an upward direction. This model can be worn by a young and beautiful girl with an abundance of wavy hair, but there are others who have elected for the style, and as one beholds the courageous wearers one is moved to look the other way. Above a solemn-visaged face, where time has left its sad, unmistakable impress, a tip-tilted hat laden with flowers, laces and feathers is not attractive, and the wearer thereof furnishes only food for reflection to the general observer, and inspiration and delight for the artist of the funny newspaper, seeking whom he may caricature.

Fashions in Furs.

As to furs, sealskin, astrakhan, Arctic fox, Persian lamb, sable and ermine, are shown by the big furriers. Chinchilla is much more costly than it has been for seventeen years, and chinchilla of fine quality is very hard to get. The Arctic fox in blue gray is a novelty and very handsome.

Things Worth Learning.
Remember that it is a mark of good breeding to thank a person for a gift the day it arrives.
Acknowledge an invitation for dinner or luncheon the day it arrives.
Thank your hostess for your visit the day you return home.
Either leave your card or write a note to a friend as soon as you hear that friend is ill.
Keep sufficient paper and envelopes on hand, so your notes can be written at once, and remember that a dainty note is the hall-mark of good breeding.

An Indian Actress.
An Indian girl is playing Puck in Marie Wainwright's production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Her name is Ollie Heath, and she was born and raised among the Cherokee tribe. She subsequently attended a seminary and there gained her first knowledge of stage art.

Permanent Paste.
Soak an ounce of refined gelatine in cold water for an hour, then drain off and squeeze out the water as much as possible. Put the gelatine in a jelly-pot and place the pot in a pan of hot water over the fire. When the gelatine has melted stir in slowly two and one-half ounces of pure alcohol. Put in a wide-mouthed bottle and cork tightly. This glue or paste will keep indefinitely, and can be melted for use in a few minutes by setting the bottle in a basin of hot water. As it contains a very small percentage of water, it affects the gloss of the prints but little and dries almost immediately.—Harper's Round Table.

Tough on the Doctor.
Doctor—I'm surprised to see you on so soon.
Patient—Yes; the dog upset the medicine you-left for me.

There may be lots of nice men in the world, but the bill collectors don't meet them.

Preserving His Boots.
A new wrinkle may be learned from an English soldier who was noted for keeping his boots in better condition and making them last longer than any of his brother officers. When asked what he did to them to prevent the leather from cracking and keeping it soft and smooth his reply was "Mutton bone." When an explanation was demanded he said: "It is nothing, I assure you. My man asks the cook for a knuckle bone, which he cleans and then bakes. After rubbing the leather with cream, he then frots them as hard as he can with the bone. Usually my boots last me three years.—New Orleans Picayune.

Lazy People.
The laziest people on earth live on the Sandwich Islands. None of the natives do any work to speak of. Nature gives them enough to eat without any considerable labor, and they seem contented with what they thus receive.

Buried with His Money on Him.
Not long ago a miserly person, who had been tensed almost to death by his heirs, endeavored to cheat them out of his money. Before he died he left positive instructions that he should be buried in a certain suit of clothes. His wish was carried out, but after the funeral his surviving relatives could find no will and no money. Finally one of them suspected that the old man had served them a shabby trick, and suggested that the body be exhumed and the clothing examined. This was done, and the coat, waistcoat and trousers were found to be lined with Bank of England notes.—Chicago Record.

Courting after marriage—Applying for a divorce.
How to Laundry Fancy Linens.
To wash embroidered linens so as not to fade the colors, fill a tub half full of warm water, to which add a little Ivory Soap. Wash each piece through the suds carefully, rinse in blue water, to which a little thin starch is added. Hang in the shade to dry. Iron on the wrong side, pressing down heavily to bring out the stitches, thus restoring their original beauty.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running ear, or impaired hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever. Nine cases out of ten are cured by our method, which is nothing but an application of our secret process to the diseased condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

LADIES' BOLERO WAIST.
are covered with pocket laps. The sleeves are two-seamed and follow the arm closely above the elbow, standing out above in a puff of exceedingly moderate dimensions after the fashion of the day.

The mode is adapted to all manner of light-weight cloakings in covert, chevrot, serge, etc. While braid is the accepted trimming the garment may be simply finished with machine stitching. When developed in military, hussar or postman's-blue the effect is exceedingly good.

To make the jacket for a miss of fourteen years will require one and three-eighths yards of fifty-four-inch material.

A Bolero Waist.
Silver-gray cashmere and almond-taffeta silk are the materials represented in the stylish basque, depicted in the large illustration and described by May Manton. The loose portion of the bodice made of the taffeta and trimmed with lines of beige ribbon that hold to position the ruffles of cream-white lace. The foundation consists of a glove-fitted body lining that is adjusted by the usual number of seams and double bust-darts, and closes invisibly at the centre-front.

The full-fronts are gathered at the neck and at the waist, and may close invisibly at the centre front, as illustrated, or on the left shoulder, arm's-eye and under-arm seam. A distinctive feature of this design is the dressy little bolero which is included in the shoulder and under-arm seams and has the free edges decorated with ribbon in two widths. Smooth under-arm gores separate the fronts from the back, which shows two plaits on each side of the centre-back, extending from the shoulders to the waist, where they are brought closely together.

The waist is encircled by a wide black satin girdle that is deepest at the centre-front, where three chic bows form the finish. The collar consists of a plain, close band, overlaid with a stock of satin, surmounted by a full ruche of lace. The mousquetaire sleeves are mounted upon two-seamed linings and are decorated at the wrists with a deep frill of lace and bands of beige ribbon. The mode can be developed in all reasonable fabrics, and may be composed of two or even three materials, as combinations are the order of the day.

A Dressing Sacque of Spotted Dimity. outing or French styles. More elaborate sacques can be made of sarah, India, China or foulard silks.
To make this sacque for a woman of medium size will require five and one-fourth yards of 22-inch material.

A NECKLACE OF PEARLS

Is a beautiful possession. If a woman owns one, and if a single pearl drops off the string, she makes haste to find and restore it.
Good health is a more valuable possession than a necklace of the most beautiful pearls, yet one by one the jewels of health slip away, and women seem indifferent until it is almost too late, and they cannot be restored.
To die before you are really old is to suffer premature death, and that is a sin. It is a sin because it is the result of repeated violations of nature's laws.
Pain, lassitude and weariness, inability to sleep, dreadful dreams, starting violently from sleep, are all symptoms of nerve trouble.
You cannot have nerve trouble and keep your health. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the womb, the ovaries and the bladder are affected. They are not vital organs, hence they give out soonest.
Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, by building up the nerves and restoring woman's organism to its natural state, relieves all these troublesome uterine symptoms. In confirmation of this we, by permission, refer to the following women, all of whom speak from experience: MISS CELIA VAN HORN, 1923 Sharswood St., Philadelphia, Pa.; MISS GRACE COLFORD, 1434 Eastern Ave., Cincinnati, O.; MRS. NEWELL, 50 Ryerson St., Brooklyn, N. Y.; MRS. ISABEL OBERG, 229 Chestnut St., Woburn, Mass.; MRS. A. H. COLE, New Rochelle, N. Y., and many others.
For special symptoms Mrs. Pinkham has prepared a Sanative Wash, which will cure local troubles. Give these medicines a trial.
