

East Lynne.

The five act drama, entitled "East Lynne," which is to be produced by home talent under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps for the benefit of the G. A. R., was rehearsed last night and from a critic, who was present, we get the following account of the leading characters:

Lady Isabel, the wife of Mr. Carlyle and one of the leading casts, will be presented by Miss Whitehill, of Brookville, who has a reputation as an elocutionist, exceeds the sanguine expectations of her friends in the role of Isabel. Another female character of note is Barbara Hare, which will be portrayed by Mrs. Quinlan, nee McCreight. Mrs. Quinlan is a good actress and, as we believe the public is familiar with her ability and accomplishments, we will pass to the next character of note, Miss Carlyle is an eccentric maiden lady of uncertain age and the most comical character in the play. Mrs. Margaret R. Gorsline will fill this role to perfection. The important male characters are assumed by E. Will Black, as Archibald Carlyle, Francis J. Wackley, Esq., as Sir Francis Levison, and Chas. B. Clark, as Richard Hare. Mr. Black, who will make his appearance here as a player, has considerable ability as an actor. His voice, appearance and movements are what would naturally be looked for in the character of Carlyle. The character of Levison, which is that of a gentlemanly villain, is carried by Mr. Wackley in a first class style. His manner is free and easy. Mr. Clark is a born actor, and as Richard Hare he does extraordinarily well.

The minor parts are carried by strong players and we are sorry we cannot speak more fully of them, but space will not permit. If you wish to see a good play, don't miss this. The full casts of characters are as follows:

Sir Francis Levison, (A fashionable roue) - Francis J. Wackley
 Archibald Carlyle, - E. Will Black
 Lord Mount Severn, - B. G. Woodward
 Justice Hare, - Frank Reynolds
 Richard Hare, - Charles B. Clark
 Mr. Dill, - Joe B. Mitchell
 Little Willie, - Annie Harding
 Lady Isabel, - Miss Madalyn Whitehill
 Madam Vinc, -
 Barbara Hare, - Miss Lillian McCreight
 Miss Carlyle, - Margaret R. Gorsline
 Joyce, - Miss Sophia L. Harding
 Wilson, - Miss Catharine Dunkle

The Coming Woman.

Who goes to the club while her husband tends the baby, as well as the good old-fashioned woman who looks after her home, will both at times get run down in health. They will be troubled with loss of appetite, headaches, sleeplessness, fainting or dizzy spells. The most wonderful remedy for these women is Electric Bitters. Thousands of sufferers from Lame Back and Weak Kidneys rise up and call it blessed. It is a medicine for women. Female Complaints and Nervous troubles of all kinds are soon relieved by the use of Electric Bitters. Delicate women should keep this remedy on hand to build up the system. Only 50 cents per bottle. Criminal Court.

The December term of criminal court was held in Brookville last week, occupying four days. There were 53 cases on the docket for trial. Of these 17 were continued and 8 plead guilty, which helped expedite court considerably. Following are some of the cases and sentences pronounced by Judge Reed.

Joseph Shirey, larceny, a fine of $1.00, costs of prosecution and 1 year and 9 months in the penitentiary.

John Baughman, larceny; verdict not guilty but to pay one third the costs, and prosecutor two-thirds.

Louis Lavalli, illegal liquor selling; verdict guilty; sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000, and be imprisoned in county jail 90 days.

Ira L. Murphy, horse stealing; 2 years and 3 months in penitentiary.

Daniel Sullivan, larceny, 1 year and 3 months in penitentiary.

Tilden Deemer, larceny, $1.00 fine and imprisonment in county jail 30 days.

Theodore Koenig, age 19 years, horse stealing, 3 indictments; sentenced to the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon. Koenig was sentenced from Forest county to the Huntingdon Reformatory and Sheriff Burns had to go to Huntingdon last week to bring young Koenig to Brookville for trial. He was taken back to the Reformatory Friday.

Joseph Donahue, James Donahue and William H. Pomroy, for disturbing public meeting; to pay fine of $1.00 and cost of prosecution.

COME EARLY!

We want to forewarn the Christmas shoppers this year, in time. Last year a multitude of people waited until a few days before Christmas to do their buying at our store, and then found us busy waiting on bargain-seekers, and went away disappointed. Therefore we say, come early.

You may say you have not got the money. Don't let that bother you. Pay part on the article; we will deliver it free to any part of town, when you want it.

We do not recall any Christmas season when we carried so large a line. We have everything that is late and new, in the Clothing and Furnishing Goods Line. Our store is now in its Christmas garb. We would like you to come and see us. We would appreciate the favor if you would bring your friends. We refer to Ladies and Gentlemen, both.
