Your Figure

Is your peculiarity, and peculiarities must be recognized. We study the figures of our customers and we fit them with absolute exactness. Our figures also fit our customers pocket-books to a nicety. There is a style about our Suits and Overcoats that make them as fashions' own. What's more, the latest styles were never shown in better goods. These Suits and Overcoats go to show that we are the only clothiers

in the town, and what is more, our goods are not made in sweat shops, but are all hand made, and there is nothing the matter with the following prices:

Suits or Overcoats for $4.00, 5.00, 6.00, 7.00, 8.00, 9.00, 10.00 and up to $15.00. Boys' Suits from $3.00 to 10.00. Child's Suits for $1.00 to 5.00. Mothers, see the fine line of Reefers for your boys.

Dinner Party.

Last Monday was Charles Herpel's forty-second birthday anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Herpel gave a birthday dinner party to about forty lady and gentlemen friends Monday evening. It was a very pleasant gathering. An excellent dinner was served.

Bible Institute.

A Bible institute is being held in the Baptist church. The first session was held Monday afternoon. There are to be two sessions yet, at 1.30 and 7.30 P. M., to-day. The institute has been well attended and has been very interesting and profitable. A number of ministers from other towns have been in attendance.

Frank McGinnis Promoted.

Frank McGinnis, of this place, who has been in the employ of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. a few years, has been promoted to assistant superintendent of the DuBois district. Mr. McGinnis gets the promotion on account of his success as an agent. We are glad to learn that the company has recognized and awarded his labors.

Butter and Cheese Factory.

F. R. Steele, of Chicago, Ill., special agent for the Chicago Building and Manufacturing Co., is in town for the purpose of looking over this section with a view of building a butter and cheese factory in Reynoldsville. Mr. Steele thinks this a good town for such a factory, but will not decide on the matter until he has taken a trip through the farming community, which he will do this week.

Cut End of Finger Off.

Foster Whitmore was in M. M. Fisher's harness shop last Thursday afternoon and Mr. Fisher's two-year-old daughter, Clara, was playing in the shop. Foster picked up a hammer and was striking a bench with the sharpest end of the hammer, which was far from being sharp, and little Clara put her hand on the bench and Foster accidentally hit it with the hammer, cutting her little finger off at the first joint.

Thinks It a Sure Sign of War.

Over in Troutville, Clearfield county, lives a man who is three score and ten years old, that has an old-fashioned clock, an heir-loom, which has not been known to tick, strike or keep time for over forty years until a few days ago when the family was greatly surprised to hear the old clock strike four times, with an interval of ten minutes between each stroke. The old patriarch who owns the old clock thinks this is an unmistakable sign of war.

Death From Appendicitis.

Walter Wallace Doemer, aged about seven years, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Doemer, of Deemer's Cross Roads, died Tuesday night of last week, after a week of intense suffering, from appendicitis. Walter was a bright boy. The bereaved parents and relatives have the deepest sympathy of a large concourse of friends. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Emerickville Thursday forenoon, conducted by Rev. A. G. Mills, pastor of the Emerickville M. E. church.

Erection of Silk Mill Soon to Begin.

Monday morning Lawyer Mitchell received a letter from J. W. Place, of New York, in which he stated that he was arranging his business so that he could come to Reynoldsville in a few days to begin the work of building the silk mill. The deed for land to be given the American Silk Co. is ready to be handed over to the proper persons, and everything that can be done by our citizens has been done. We expect that before our next issue the work of excavating for the foundation will be started.

Projectoscope and Recitations.

On Thursday and Friday evenings of this week Prof. J. P. Roscoe will give a projectoscope entertainment in the opera house under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps of this place, proceeds to go to the Memorial Home at Brookville. It is claimed that this is the finest and highest priced projectoscope on the road. Don't fail to see the life-like pictures. Admission 20 cents. In addition to the projectoscope an attractive program, consisting of songs and recitations will be given. Delay Leitenger, the talented child elocutionist of DuBois, and best of local talent will furnish this part of the entertainment.

McConnell's Birthday.

Friday, March 4th, was the 45th anniversary of Frank A. McConnell's advent into this terrestrial lump of rotundity, and as he is a great lover of music, an orchestra consisting of the following named gentlemen rendered some appropriate airs: P. P. Kelly, first violin; Dave Reynolds, second violin; R. D. Boer, bass; Harry Nelson, cornet; John H. Reed, organ. The violin used by Mr. Kelly is 209 years of age and in the hands of that gentleman seems as young and frisky as one that is yet in its teens. When it comes to yanking the dulcet strains out of a fiddle this man Kelly, who is a miner by profession and an Irishman by permission, can do it "to the queen's taste," and don't you forget it. Frank only has one birthday a year and he makes it a rule to have a feast of music and a flow of good cheer when the natal event materializes. The inmates of the Commercial and American hotels at Brookville and Dr. Haven, of Summerville, had a treat of melody by telephone, which they enjoyed to the utmost and pronounced the best of the season. Frank's Tavern was the liveliest place in town on this occasion. This orchestra is No. 1, and its leader, Mr. Kelly, is prepared to furnish music, fresh and pure, at short notice and at living rates. No cold storage tunes, but the very latest in the market.

Death of Mrs. Lusk.

Mrs. James Lusk, after an illness of twenty weeks, died at her home on Pleasant Avenue at 5.00 A. M., Monday, March 7th, from heart disease and nervous prostration. Her maiden name was Wilhelmina Roger. She was born in Scotland, January 15th, 1845, making her 53 years old last January. December 31, 1861, she was married to James Lusk in her native land. In 1864 Mr. and Mrs. Lusk came to America. They first settled in Mercer county, Pa., then moved to Dagus Mines, Elk county, from there to DuBois and eleven years ago moved to Reynoldsville. Mrs. Lusk was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, a loving mother and kind neighbor. During the long weeks of pain and suffering she was very patient. The deceased is survived by her husband and ten children, four sons and six daughters, all of whom live in Reynoldsville but Albert Lusk, of New Kensington, and Mrs. Robt. F. Oswell, of Dagus mines. Funeral services will be held in the Presbyterian church at 2.30 this afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. F. Reber, pastor, and the interment will take place in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Two Criminal Charges.

Frank Brown alias Frank Ruth, was found guilty at Smethport, McKean Co., Friday on two criminal charges. He induced 14-year-old Grace Lee, of Bradford, to travel with him to Prescottville and there introduced her as his wife. He admitted having spent seven years in the Western Penitentiary. He was sentenced Saturday to four years and four months in the penitentiary. This is the chap who was arrested in Reynoldsville during the holidays by Constable Frank Adelsperger and confined in the town bastille a couple of days waiting for the Bradford constable to come and escort him to McKean county. At that time Ruth denied ever having been in the penitentiary and claimed to be innocent of the charges against him.

Surprise Party.

Ulysses Grant Scheafnocker, plumber for the Oil City Fuel Supply Company at this place, was given a birthday surprise party last Friday evening. Twenty-five gentlemen friends assembled at his residence on Jackson street while Mr. Scheafnocker was engaged in some business at the gas office, and as is his custom, he went home at a reasonable hour and the surprise was sprung on him. Grant was soon reconciled to the situation, and with his friends enjoyed a very pleasant evening. Refreshments were served. Mr. Scheafnocker was given a writing desk, or "secretary," and a smoking gown. Grant's friends wish him many more birthday anniversaries.

Commencement Week Program.

The program for commencement week in the schools of this borough is as follows: Sunday, April 24th—Baccalaureate sermon by John H. Harris, D. D., LL.D., president of Bucknell University. Tuesday evening, April 26th—Junior Elocutionary Contest. Wednesday evening, April 27th—Commencement exercises. Graduating address by Hon. N. C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Thursday evening, April 28th—Second Annual Alumni reunion and banquet. Alumni orator, Rev. Sylvester Womer. J. E. Welsh & Co.'s Name and "Ad" Omitted. Prof. Postlethwait requests us to state that J. E. Welsh & Co. had furnished an "ad" for the Course of Study for the West Reynoldsville schools; but for some cause the printer overlooked it.

Lost—On Sunday night, between the M. E. church and cor. Main and Tenth sts., pair of gold framed glasses. Finder will please leave at THE STAR office.

Local Institute.

The local institute held at Rathmel Feb. 25, was a success. Owing to the absence of Rev. Sibley the devotional exercises were conducted by J. M. Morris, after which the following program was rendered: Address of Welcome by C. C. Wyant to which M. L. Dempsey responded, W. J. Weaver not being present. "How to Train Pupils in the Habit of Self-control" was then opened for discussion by T. B. Mitchell in a pleasing and instructive manner. The topic was further discussed by J. H. Wagner in a few well-chosen remarks, followed by Mr. Brumbaugh in a short, spicy speech. Motion was then made to adjourn till 1.30 o'clock. The afternoon session was opened by selection from the choir, followed by Strauss Orchestra, which was highly appreciated by the audience. "Things that are a Hindrance to the Teacher's Work" was opened by W. J. Snell in an able manner. The topic was further discussed by Prof. A. J. Postlethwait, J. M. Morris, Prof. G. W. Lenkerd, W. A. London, and Wm. Marshall. The main thought brought out in this subject was, "Encourage the parents to be in sympathy with the teacher." After a selection from the choir Supt. R. B. Teltrick made an address which was both instructive and entertaining. He urged the necessity of teachers being in sympathy with the pupils, and by manner and method show the value of education, of getting in touch with the parents, and cultivating sociability. His address was appreciated by all as shown by the undivided attention of the audience. The institute was then entertained with a pleasing selection by the orchestra which could not be otherwise than enjoyed. Prof. Lenkerd then discussed the topic "Education Not all Intellectual." Prof. deserves credit for the mastery way in which he dealt with the subject. His remarks were appreciated by all, as shown by the applause. Mr. N. Bryon Madden for the next half an hour held the attention of the audience by a very instructive address. He advanced the idea of establishing "district high schools."

The people of Rathmel showed by their attention and interest that they were alive to the cause of education. Adjournment. NELLIE E. SUTTER, Sec.

Evening Session.

Evening session was called to order by the President, Cora Milliren was appointed secretary. First on the program was a song by the choir, "Welcome." Music by Strauss orchestra which was enjoyed by every one present. The first topic taken up for discussion was "How Should a Teacher's Work be Judged." Mr. Snell gave quite an interesting talk which was followed by Messrs. Brumbaugh and Postlethwait. The last topic discussed was "How to Improve Our Schools." The topic was opened by Mr. A. J. Postlethwait, who was followed by Mr. Holben, Mr. Brumbaugh, Miss Mary McKee, Mr. J. Marshall, Mr. L. Lidle and Mr. George Henry.

The institute was closed by Music, after which a short entertainment was given by pupils of the Rathmel Grammar school. MISS MILLIREN, Sec.

Five Generations Living.

At Penfield there is a family which is entitled to be photographed for a newspaper cut. The living representatives of five generations would comprise the group, and it is very probable that subjects for another like it could not be found in the county.—DuBois Courier.

About five years ago mention was made in THE STAR of a group picture that had been taken in Reynoldsville in which was represented five generations, and the parties are still living. They are: Mrs. Margaret Goodlander, of DuBois Junction, Mrs. F. K. Arnold, Mrs. W. B. Alexander, F. K. A. Alexander and W. B. Alexander, jr., of Reynoldsville.
