GUFFEY'S STRAIGHT DEMOCRACY.

The Leader Recognized by State and National Committees Expresses His Views Upon Issues and Candidates.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)
James M. Guffey has been well known in Democratic politics for years past. The last State Committee of his party declared the seat in the National Committee held by W. F. Harry to be vacant and named Mr. Guffey for the place. This choice has been to an extent confirmed by Chairman Jones. Mr. Guffey has been talked of for Governor, though his candidacy has not yet been formally announced. His letter follows:

PITTSBURG, Feb. 5.
"To the Editor of the Dispatch:
"I do not think I should for the present write in detail regarding political matters in Pennsylvania. I always have been, and am now, a member of the Democratic party, with an abiding belief in its principles, and confident that its success will be beneficial to every citizen of our State. It has always been, and is now, in favor of an honest, equal and economical administration of the public affairs of the State; for capable and faithful officials, and opposed to bosses and bossism and machine rule whenever and in whatever guise either may appear.

"I have no doubt that the assembled wisdom of the party at its next State Convention will, freed from all such malign influences as have for years controlled the Republican party, state in an aggressive and convincing manner these truths and principles, and will nominate as its candidate for Governor a clean, capable, honest man, who has heretofore been, and is now, in accord with his party; whose time will be devoted during the campaign to the propagation of these views and not taken up in attempting to explain erratic actions and inexplicable unfaithfulness to party candidates in the past; who is courageous enough to carry out, if elected, the much needed reforms in our State government.

"With such a platform and such a candidate, the party will be united in its and his support; and we may fairly hope that all good citizens of whatever political faith will, uniting with us, demonstrate even to the most cynical of bosses and his most abject followers that the people of Pennsylvania are still the rulers in our State; that they are honest, and will not brook the corruption and fraud which have been rampant and triumphant in the Republican party of the State for many years.

"When the campaign has become further advanced and the people are ready to discuss the issues at stake I shall be glad to go into the question in every detail, if it becomes necessary for me personally to do so.

J. M. GUFFEY.

How to Be Handsome.
It is a mistake to suppose that the only way to be good looking is to be born so. Good health has more to do with good looks than anything else. Such diseases as constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatism, nervous disorders, &c., not only shorten life, but spoil tempers and "looks." Bacon's Celery King for the nerves cures these troubles. H. Alex. Stoke sells it and will give you a sample package free. Large size 25c. and 50c.

Good Suggestion.
In order to furnish a little amusement for lovers of base ball, why would it not be a good idea for the base ball talent of the towns of Punxsutawney, Big Run, DuBois, Reynoldsville, Brookville, Clarion, Clearfield, Brookwayville and Ridgway to organize and form a league and play for the championship? Each of the towns named have plenty of young fellows who would make good ball players, and a lively interest could be worked up. Why not rejuvenate the defunct Mountain League?—Punxsutawney Spirit.

One is not always as swift to praise the living for deeds that merit praise as one should be. When our friend dies we stand beside the casket which contains his clay and speak high words of eulogy concerning the nobility of his life. But it may be that he starved to death because we withheld words of loving sympathy and cheer. It is a sad thing that we are so chary at praise while the friend is still among the living and it is high time that we learn the lesson that honest service to a righteous cause should be cheered and encouraged at the moment of performance. The lonely heart pines too often for the encouragement that is thoughtlessly withheld.—The Commonwealth.

Man is made of dust. Dust settles. Therefore to be in accord with nature delinquent subscribers should settle—come down with the "dust," as it were.

Rathmel.

John W. Smith was in DuBois on business last Monday.

Mrs. Mike Kalfeltz, who has been dangerously ill for the past two weeks, is getting somewhat better.

James Hyndman, of Bradford, a former resident of this place, has moved his family back to this place, where he is employed at Henry mines.

Mrs. J. C. Morris, who has been dangerously ill the past week with pleurisy of the heart, is recovering slowly.

George B. Bowser, who upon a recent date was appointed postmaster at this place, will take charge of his office on April 1st.

James Hughes, proprietor of the Central Hotel, returned last week from a trip in Ohio. Solomon Haines had charge of the hostelry during Jimmy's absence.

Fred Lucas, who has been dangerously ill of diphtheria the past week, is recovering slowly.

A birthday party was held at the home of G. B. Bowser last Thursday evening.

There will be a grand ball given in P. O. S. of A. hall on April 11th for benefit of Rathmel ball club. Good music will be furnished and the best of order will be maintained. Tickets 10 cents or 3 for 25 cents.

Picked Up.

It is noticed that in sitting on a tack a man will swear off.

One satisfaction about the woman hater—the feeling is mutual.

How happy we would be if long-winded people would only puncture their tires.

A woman can forgive a man for not loving her if he does not love some other woman.

A girl is never happier than when her dress skirts first get long enough to be held up out of the mud.

When a man forgives a woman he forgives her; when a woman forgives a man she reminds him of it afterward.

There are three problems man is destined never to solve: perpetual motion, the square of the circle, and the heart of a woman.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles was absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at H. A. Stoke's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

North Fork R. R. Extension.

There is a rumor, how true we don't know, but hope it may turn out a reality, that the branch railroad built up the North Fork last year is to be extended through to Sheffield, in Warren county, where it would connect with the P. & E. road. If there is any truth in this story, the extension is doubtless caused by the action of the B., R. & P. in extending its line so as to reach Pittsburg. This extension of the Valley road would enable it to reach a large traffic north that might otherwise go to the Rochester line.—Brookville Democrat.

The last Legislature passed the following law: "School boards shall allow each child who desires to attend a pay or select school, any time during vacation, between the regular school terms, the use of the books furnished him or her for that purpose. That the school directors or controllers shall make such regulations for the care and return of said books as they may deem necessary, and it shall be their duty to see that said books shall be used only when the pay school is held in city, borough or district school house."

The Oil City Blizzard remarks: "There are business sinners in every community, commercial Ingersolls, who while ever ready to criticize and find fault with every movement put on foot for the betterment of the community, never come forward with something better to suggest. They are the dogs in the mangers—the men who will not "saw wood" themselves nor willingly permit others to use the saw.

Our Educational Column.

"Usque William." Editor.

Address all communications relative to this department to Editor Educational Column, care of THE STAR.

Boys and girls, you have now entered upon the last lap in the scholastic race for this year and it remains with yourselves who shall be the winners. Think of it, the last lap; the time if any to put forth your best efforts and strive to be first at the goal. Some of you during the first part of this race suffered yourselves to lag behind and now, if you desire to make any showing at all, you will have to do some tall hustling and make some gigantic strides. You will now have an opportunity to see what you have lost by not heeding Uncle William's advice during the past seven months. We clip an article from the Nebraska Journal entitled "Push," which will benefit you and cause you to think if you read it carefully.

PUSH.
In travelling over the country we notice many little things. At a hotel where we stopped we observed a pair of double doors. On one of these was a tablet on which was the word "Push." I said to myself, "I know what that word means," so I pushed. The door opened, and I found myself in a commodious dining room, where the inner man could be refreshed with the "best in the land."

On finishing my dinner and returning to the same double doors the same word "Push" met my gaze, but this time it was on the other door. I "pushed," the door opened and again I passed through.

This is the talisman which wins in this world. I wish this word could be placed over every door, where every boy and girl in school could see it and be governed by it. Boys and girls, when a hard lesson is before you, "Push." When you have some work to do, "Push." Grant said to his officer in command, "Push things." It was a short order but it meant much. If you want to enter the door of knowledge, "Push." If you want to see the door of success open and swing back on its hinges to let you pass in, "Push."

Another thing that I noticed about these doors was that "Push" was on the "right" doors both when I went in and came out. That said to me, "Let the push always be on the right." Push your way by right methods. Do not try to push somebody else down. The world is big enough for all. If you have a good idea, push it. You may get somebody else to think as you do some day. Push your business or it will push you. When a man is pushing his business he is succeeding. When it is pushing him he is on the road to failure, then "Push." A

A Broken Back.

William Larson, a coal miner at Shawmut, met with an accident on Saturday which bids fair to terminate fatally. He was caught beneath a fall of coal, and when taken out it was found that his back was broken. The doctors fixed him up as comfortable as possible, but the lower part of his body was paralyzed and devoid of sensation. There is a possibility that the injury is a dislocation instead of a fracture, and that the spinal cord was not severed, in which case Larson may recover. He is a single man and of Swedish nationality.—Brookwayville Record.

The Same Here.

It is the greatest problem of the day to know why subscribers to a paper will pay everything else they owe and entirely overlook the obligation they are under to the printer. We have many persons on our list of whom we are proud, who pay their subscriptions as promptly as they pay their taxes, and then we have others who cause us to shudder every time we go over our subscription book because they pay no attention to any statements that are sent them, and it matters not how needy we may be, it gives them no concern.—Clearfield Journal.

Contract for Tunnel Let.

The contract for constructing the tunnel at Simpson hill has been awarded to Bennett & Talbot, of Greensburg, and M. H. Smith, of Altoona. The tunnel will be about half a mile long and work is expected to begin this week. The contract price is variously stated at from $300,000 to $550,000.—Punxsutawney News.

CAUTION NOTICE.

All persons are hereby warned not to interfere with, in any manner, shape or form whatsoever, by law or otherwise, any of the following personal property: Three carpets, all tables, lamps, window shades and other personal property formerly belonging to W. H. Bell, Jr., now located on second floor (formerly known as G. A. R. hall) of two-story brick building on south side of Main street, Reynoldsville, Pa. The same having been purchased by us and left in said location for the use of the several lodges and societies occupying the same and meeting therein.
