Emperor William of Germany says: "There is evidently something besides smartness and commercialism in the Yankee blood. Those fellows at Cavite have fought like veterans." Right you are, William.

Manning says: "There can be no real fear, or reverence, or seriousness of heart until the man has come to understand, at least in some measure, what he is—that is, to realize his own awful structure and destiny."

Commodore George Dewey, the hero of Manila, was born at Montpelier, Vt., about sixty years ago. He is a widower. He has one son, George Goodwin Dewey, who is located in New York City. Mrs. Dewey died when George Goodwin was so small that he has no recollection of his mother.

Dr. M. K. Foster, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church in Lock Haven, preached a patriotic sermon Sunday morning on "The Present War," which we had the pleasure of listening to. Dr. said, "This is the most righteous and unselfish war the world has ever known."

The difference of time between the United States and the countries involved in the present war, is as follows: Havana's time is thirty minutes earlier than ours; Madrid is four hours and forty-two minutes earlier; the Canaries are about four hours earlier, and the Philippines are eleven hours and fifty-one minutes earlier.

There are but two prisoners confined in the Elk county jail at present, a state of affairs which has not existed in that county for years. Evidently Elk is on her good behavior.—Kane Republican. The double hanging job in that county last month ought to have a good effect on the morals of the county for a couple of months at least.

Spain has a population of about 19,000,000, and of these, according to a recent report of the Spanish government, nearly 8,000,000 profess no occupation. Grandees and beggars alike disclaim the plebeian virtue of daily toil. There are nearly 100,000 registered beggars, half of them females, in this poor, little land, and one third of the entire population is entirely unlettered. The "ancient social canker" of contempt for work and workers, has eaten the life from Spain.

Some one has said, "True hospitality has its origin in the heart, and beautifies, like the sunlight upon the cloud, everything it touches." Entertainment given with genuine hospitality means more than the mere feeding of the body; it means a royal interchange of the gifts of the soul. This is the highest compensation which the intelligent mind can bestow or receive. It is pre-eminently social in its manifestations and tendencies, and wherever it strews its fruitage there you will find happy hearts and happy dwellings.

Before many weeks the school directors of this borough will elect a principal for the next term of school, and there is little doubt but that Prof. G. W. Lenkerd, who has been so successful with our schools for two terms, will be re-elected. Prof. Lenkerd has been tried and proven to be a good man for the principalship and we would suggest at the next election of the board Prof. Lenkerd be elected for a three year term. This is done in other towns where the principal has been tried and succeeds for one or two terms. It is not a wise step for a school board to take until a man has been given a trial, but if he proves a success then it is the proper thing to do, as it gives the principal a prestige with the teachers and pupils that he might not have when hired a year at a time. We believe that if this matter was put to a vote from the citizens that Prof. Lenkerd would be elected for a three year term by a big majority. Our schools have reached that standard that pupils must study to be promoted and this requires a closer application to the books than some pupils like, and they might be pleased to see a change in principalship, hoping thereby to get through school without hard work, not caring anything for the knowledge if they can get from one room to another without studying. Under the present management they must study or not be promoted. We have no "axe to grind" but honestly believe, all things considered, that it would be wisdom on the part of the school board, and for the best interests of the schools, if Prof. Lenkerd be elected for a three year term.

"The Spinsters' Return From Oklahoma."

The Young Men's Christian association, of Sharpsburg and Etna, which holds an anniversary meeting in two churches Sunday, has a most effective ladies' auxiliary. On Monday night the Spinster's Fortnightly Club, composed of members of the auxiliary, will present "The Spinsters' Return from Oklahoma." This is the third time that they have presented this amusing story this year, and it will be positively their farewell appearance. The comedy is wholly original, having been written by the women of the auxiliary, now is protected by copyright. It is a conclusion to the "Spinster's Fortnightly Club," which was presented last year with great success. There were such demands of the people to know how the spinsters fared on their trip to Oklahoma to find husbands, that the "Return" was written. It has been an immense success and letters of inquiry have come from all over the United States regarding it. Yesterday a letter of inquiry was also received from London, Ontario. The copyrighted book sells for $10 with the rights of use.

The spinsters' return tells of the experiences in Oklahoma, and the kind of husbands that were found there. The husbands are exhibited as a guarantee of good faith. Not all of the spinsters found husbands, but all returned happy.—Pittsburg Daily News.

"The Spinsters' Return from Oklahoma" will be given in Centennial hall on Tuesday evening, May 17th, under the auspices of the Ladies' Work Society of the Presbyterian church.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of John C. Conser Post 192, Dept. of Pa., Grand Army of the Republic, May 9th, 1898, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, On the 30th day of April, A. D. 1894, at the hour of 10:00 P. M., death invaded the home of our Comrade and Past Post Commander, Samuel Lattimer, and stilled the beating of his gallant heart; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of our Comrade we mourn the loss of one who was brave in battle, fearless in truth and loving and devoted to family and friends.

Resolved, That while we bow in submission to Him who mustered in and disciplined the stars, we still feel deep and poignant grief at the death of one whose name we trust has been inscribed on the muster roll of the Great Commander.

Resolved, That we lament the loss of him whose hand was ever ready to proffer aid to a distressed Comrade, and whose efforts were untiring in promoting the prosperity of the Post.

Resolved, That our heartfelt sympathies be extended to those endeared by ties of kinship, and that they may feel that death, a necessary end, must come to all, and bow in meek submission.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Post, published in THE STAR and Volunteer, and a copy transmitted to the family of our departed Comrade.

Resolved, That the charter of our Post be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days in memory of him who now bivouacs on "fame's eternal camping ground." T. C. REYNOLDS, Com. JACOB HENNINGER, JOHN DAVIS.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by H. A. Stoke, Druggist.

For Memorial Day.

Commander Stauffer, of the Pennsylvania department of the Grand Army of the Republic, has issued his annual Memorial Day general orders. He suggests as a part of the observance of the day the attendance of posts at church services on Sunday, May 29th. He also suggests that pastors be asked to select texts illustrative of these subjects: "The gain of American citizenship by the success of the Union soldier," and "The unquestioned and everlasting right of the cause of those who battled for the Union." He asks that the school children be again asked to participate in Memorial day's celebration, that everybody be interested in it, that organizations other than military be welcomed to participate, and that the sacredness of the day be observed. He says Memorial day, while not a day of sackcloth and ashes, nor mourning, nor fasting, should not be devoted to frivolous pastime. It is a day for the flag, flowers and communion with the nation's dead.
