A Little of Everything.

Our Soldiers.

Pause, O nation, reunited— Pause and shed a tear today To the memory of the soldiers Dead for many and many a May! Dead and dust, perchance it may be— Dead and dust, but long ago Marched away in flash of manhood, Glory girl—this dust below. Marched away as brave men, hearing Call of country, yours and mine, From the hillside and the valley, From the tent and the pine. Hearts sleep and pulses bounding, Loyal, whether gray or blue; Loyal, whether cross or crescent; Duty—that was all they knew. Oh, the glory of their story! Oh, the graves that dot the plain! Oh, the mournful tale of battles! Oh, the partings and the pain! Years and years the grass has blossomed, Faded, died, their graves upon; Years and years, yet not forgotten, Memories such as theirs live on. And upon fame's sacred altar, Write mid' deeds of heroes, glow Names of these, our soldiers, sleeping, "Soldiers," neither "friend" nor "foe." And as soldiers weave their garlands, Rose and lily o'er them spread; Love and tears—a nation's tribute To a nation's glorious dead. Chicago Tribune.

The heavy rain Friday afternoon washed all the corn out of side-hill for some of the Paradise tillers of

The contract has been let for the memorial windows for the Presbyterian church. The Keystone band will give a concert at Hotel Imperial next Monday evening. A meeting of company now organizing for National Volunteers will be held in the borough council room at 8.30 this evening. All members are requested to be present. Michael Nugent has had a pretty monument erected on his family lot in the Catholic cemetery. E. E. Stewart, the marble dealer of this place, put up the monument. The A. V. R's excursion to Pittsburg Sunday was well patronized. It required three trains, ten coaches in each train, to accommodate the excursionists and then all the coaches were full.

A very heavy rain, hail, wind, thunder and lightning storm visited this place Monday afternoon. It was the biggest storm we have had in years. The rain came down in torrents. During a thunder storm last Friday lightning struck one of the poles of the Summersville Telephone Co.'s line near Knoxdale and shut off communication over the line in that direction a few hours. There will be a farmers' parade in this place on the 15th of June. M. C. Coleman has been selling farming machines to the farmers in this section and on that day the farmers will come to town for their machines. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at Mrs. S. Ewings on Saturday, May 28th, at 2.00 p. m. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance will be brought before the Union.

The Ladies Work Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a market in the Bee Hive store room, corner Main and Fifth street, next Saturday afternoon, May 28th. The room will be open at two o'clock. Sale begins at 2.30. The Loyal Legion of Panoeast will hold a second silver medal contest in the Chapel at Panoeast on Friday evening of this week. Two weeks ago a silver medal contest was held in the Chapel and Miss Mary McClure was awarded the medal. Hon. Wm. O. Smith, editor of the Punoeast Spirit, who so ably represented the people of Jefferson county four or five terms in the Legislature, has announced himself as a Republican candidate for Congress. Mr. Smith's past record is proof to the voters of Jefferson county that he is good material to send to Congress.

Martin Syphrit, a Paradise farmer, has a piece of land that he is clearing that is as full of stumps as some "dogs are full of flees." In trying to up-root a stump recently he found its roots so entwined with another, and the second one with the third one and so on until in place of up-rooting one stump he had to pull up five stumps together. The Ohio men who were here several weeks ago talking about locating brick works near this place, have decided to locate at New Bethlehem, where the citizens gave them $3,000 as an inducement to have them locate at that place. We don't believe the gentlemen thought seriously of starting a plant here, but used this place as a lever to bring the New Bethlehem people to the $3,000.00 mark, and it worked nicely.

The attraction on our streets Thursday forenoon was a foreigner with hand organ and monkey. The monkey performed various antics, took up a collection and then jumped on to the organ and kissed the dirty organ grinder on the lips. As the organ grinder had a bedcord around the monkey's neck it is likely the monkey kissed the man through force and not because it enjoyed the osculatory ceremony with its master. Dr. J. W. Foust, of this place, is a Republican candidate for the nomination for Assembly. Dr. Foust is well and favorably known, not only in Reynoldsville but all over Jefferson county, having served a term as Associate Judge. He has the ability to serve the people of Jefferson county creditably, and would be a good man in the Legislature. Doctor is "hustling" for the nomination and expects to be successful.

James B. Lucas, of Corsica, died at his home in that place Friday morning from consumption. He was about thirty-five years old. He leaves a wife and one daughter about five years old. The deceased, brother of County Treasurer Lucas, was a highly respected citizen of Corsica. He was postmaster and one of the store keepers of that town at the time of his demise. Funeral services were held Sunday forenoon and it was a very large funeral. A notice has been placarded in the postoffice at this place instructing those who use the mails not to mail letters or packages of value without having their addresses inscribed on the upper left-hand corners of the envelopes. The purpose of the regulation is to insure the return to the writers of all mail matter which for any cause may fail to reach the party addressed; and self-interest should approve the wisdom of an order compliance with which will greatly lessen the work of the Dead Letter Office.

Memorial Services. Memorial services will be held in Centennial hall next Sunday at 11.00 A. M. Rev. John M. Dean, pastor of the Baptist church, will deliver the sermon. It will be a union service. Didn't Want Bread. A tramp met a Reynoldsville clergyman on the street the other day and asked him for the price of a loaf of bread. When the clergyman offered to go to the bakery with the tramp and buy the bread, "Weary Willie" informed the preacher that he could go to hades. It was not the bread the tramp wanted, it was the price of a loaf in hard cash he was after. An Italian Preacher. Rev. Charles Musi, an Italian, is in Reynoldsville to do missionary work among the Italians in this section. Rev. Musi, who is a graduate of Princeton Seminary, is sent out by the Lehigh Presbytery. He is a bright, quick witted young man, and will certainly do good work among his fellow countrymen. Most of his work here will be from house to house work. Rev. Musi is rooming at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Ayres. Butter and Cheese Factory. The butter and cheese factory at this place will be ready for operation the first of next week. J. J. Treat, of Chicago, is here setting up the machinery and getting the factory in running order. He will remain a day or two after factory is started and will then go to another town to set the machinery for a factory. The factory at this place makes 173 such factories started by Mr. Treat. We will write up the factory next week. Gone to Hospital. Father Brady, pastor of the Catholic church of this place, accompanied by Dr. J. B. Neale and C. F. Hoffman, went to Pittsburg Monday to enter the Mercy Hospital to be treated for stomach trouble. Father Brady has been indisposed for a number of weeks and his friends and congregation have become somewhat alarmed about his condition. It is to be hoped that the eminent physicians of the Mercy Hospital will be able to speedily restore Father Brady to his wonted health that he may be able to again look after the spiritual wants of his congregation. Let the Eagle Loose. The Keystone band and fire companies will hold a joint meeting this evening to talk about having a big celebration in Reynoldsville on July 4th. If the boys decide to celebrate, and they certainly will, our people can rest assured it will be a celebration second to none in this section of the state. The citizens of Reynoldsville are ready for a patriotic demonstration. The young and old alike are bubbling over with patriotism. It will be an easy matter to get up enthusiasm this year. It is not necessary to dwell on this matter longer, for we feel sure we will have a celebration. Just a little over five weeks remain to get ready for the celebration, which means there is no time for delay. Two Groundhogs in One Hole. During the past few weeks Harry Bryan, of West Reynoldsville, has been spending some of his leisure time in hunting woodchucks, commonly called groundhogs, but also served at a popular Reynoldsville hotel as "possum" after one of Mr. Bryan's successful trips to the woods. On one of these groundhog hunts, probably the last, Harry was more than successful. One of the animals had been dug out of a hole, and what was supposed to be another was seen farther back in the same hole. Mr. Bryan got down on hands and knees, reached in and, catching it by the back, brought it out to find, not a groundhog, but a skunk. Just what happened in the next few minutes can be imagined better than described. Might Have Cremated Himself. Samuel Travis, alias Thompson, with another alias or two attached to his appellation, was arrested in this place Saturday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Miller on a charge of larceny and locked in the town bastle for safe keeping until the evening train when he was taken to the county jail by Sheriff Burns. About 6.30 Ed. Schultze was passing the lock-up and he noticed smoke issuing from the crevices. Some small boys were looking in at one of the windows and Ed. could hear a man inside swearing professionally. He stopped and asked the prisoner where all the smoke was coming from and the fellow answered that he was smoking. Schultze knew there was a fire somewhere in the building and when he gained an entrance he discovered that the bed clothes in the prisoner's cell were afire and Travis was standing between the fire and the door of his cage to keep Schultze from seeing where the fire was, and then the lock-up was so full of smoke it was almost suffocating. Had it not been for Schultze's timely appearance it is likely Travis would not be one of the boarders in the county jail to-day. He denied having set the clothes afire, but had he suffocated it would have been a clear case of felo-de-se. To add to the charge of larceny the borough could bring charges against him of attempted incendiary.

NAVAL BATTLE NOT YET. The Report That Sampson had Destroyed the Spanish Fleet not Correct. It was reported here yesterday afternoon that Sampson had met and destroyed Admiral Cervera's entire fleet. As we go to press this morning it is rumored that Sampson has cornered the Spanish fleet at Santiago. Patriotic Entertainment. Souvenirs presented at the door. She Answered an Advertisement. A man at Eleanora, who has faith in advertising, wanted a housekeeper and he planted a nice little advertisement in a newspaper, making known his wants to the world at large, and the "ad" blossomed and brought forth what was desired. A woman in Tennessee answered the "ad" and arrangements were made for her to come to Eleanora and in due time she arrived, accompanied by two small children, and was established as housekeeper for the advertiser. Now, as is usually the case when a woman is foolish enough to answer such advertisements, she wishes they were home again. The man went home one night last week full of "snake-killer" and proceeded to abuse the woman shamefully and finally turned her and the children out from under his roof. The woman, a stranger in a strange land, penniless, with two helpless children to look after, was in a sorry plight indeed. A kind hearted man at Eleanora took pity on the woman and children and offered them shelter for a few days until the woman could discover if the law would compel the man to give her money enough to return to Tennessee. It is not likely that she will be quick to answer such an advertisement soon again. Will Have a Good Club. A number of our base ball enthusiasts held a meeting last week to organize a base ball club for the present season. Twenty of our best ball players were picked out and as soon as the weather permits these players will be tried on the diamond and the best players will be selected for the club. Reynoldsville has the material for a team this year that will be hard to defeat. Following is the list of players from which the club is to be chosen: John Burge, Joseph Hoffman, G. A. Milliron, W. D. Williams, Frank P. Alexander, Ed. Major, John O'Donnell, Joseph Williams, Ed. Decker, Chas. McGinty, Jarvis Williams, Harry Mogle, Fred. Bohren, Daniel Nolan, jr., Albert Geisler, John Ewing, Robt. Williams, Ross Myrtle, James Butler, Mike McCullough. The following officers were elected: Robert J. Thomas, manager; Walter D. Williams, assistant manager and treasurer; Joseph Williams, secretary; Albert Geisler, official scorer, umpires, James Delaney, Harry Copping. A grand stand, with a seating capacity of 200, will be erected on the ball grounds this week. The season will be opened next Monday, May 30th. Memorial Day Program. The following program will be observed on Memorial Day, Monday, May 30th, 1898: Parade will be formed at 9.00 A. M., in order as follows, right resting on Main street, corner of Fifth: 1st, Sabbath schools of different denominations. 2nd, Keystone Cornet Band. 3d, Secret orders. 5th, Sons of Veterans. 6th, Woman's Relief Corps. 7th, G. A. R. and all old soldiers. Column will move at 9.30 and march to cemetery, where the usual memorial day services will be observed. At 2.00 p. m. special services will be held in Centennial hall. Capt. L. M. Truxel, of DuBois will deliver an oration commemorative of the occasion, and will be followed by others. Patriotic, soul stirring airs will be rendered by Reynoldsville's justly celebrated Keystone band at intervals during the ceremonies. All are invited and urged to be present on this now doubly interesting event. J. W. FOUST, J. M. HAYS, JOSEPH SHAFER, Com.

SCHOOL APPROPRIATION. An Increase in Jefferson County—Decrease in this Borough. Under the new basis of computation, Jefferson county will receive as her share of the school appropriation for 1898, $54,387.95. This amount is an increase of $5,284.53 over the appropriation of last year, which was $49,103.42. While there is an increase in the appropriation for the county, there is a decrease for the schools of this borough. Last year the appropriation for Reynoldsville was $3,037.00, this year it is $2,765.35; making a reduction of $272.28. West Reynoldsville gets an increase of $48.78 over last year. Under the new law, one-third is distributed on the number of children between six and sixteen years of age; one-third on the number of resident taxables and one-third on the number of regular paid teachers. In previous years the appropriation was distributed entirely on the number of taxables, and the result was that the cities were receiving the bulk of the money. Under the new plan the independent districts with few schools and teachers are gainers. Below will be found the correct statement of the distribution of the school appropriation for the various districts in Jefferson county for 1898: Barnett, $524.04; Beaver, $1,028.07; Bell, $1,226.40; Big Run, $968.23; Brookwayville, $1,348.77; Brookville, $2,490.07; Chaysville, $1,715.49; Clover, $538.78; Corsica, $478.68; Eldred, $1,897.23; Gaskill, $877.35; Heath, $490.67; Henderson, $1,540.87; Koox, $1,010.73; McCaimont, $3,369.65; Oliver, $1,682.56; Perry, $1,555.40; Pinecock, $1,312.99; Polk, $719.93; Porter, $708.71; Punoeast, $3,296.21; Reynoldsville, $2,765.32; Ringgold, $1,272.96; Rose, $1,756.23; Snyder, $2,210.44; Summersville, $702.60; Union, $828.12; Warsaw, $1,090.62; Washington, $3,961.85; Winslow, $445.33; West Reynoldsville, $699.27; Worthville, $193.51; Young, $4,570.94; total appropriation in county, $54,387.95. Place the brightest blooms of May Around the honored dead." Didn't Bite So Well This Time. One week ago Sunday it was reported at this place in the forenoon that a great naval battle had been fought between Sampson's fleet and the Spanish fleet, and that the entire Spanish fleet had been destroyed and two of our vessels were sunk, one, the Indiana, with all on board. Our people were greatly exercised over the report and when the Pittsburg Sunday papers arrived here in the afternoon the supply was not sufficient for the demand. But there had been no naval battle. Last Sunday forenoon a report was sent out from Pittsburg that Sampson had met the Spanish fleet and annihilated it and two of our vessels were disabled. There was little credence given to the report this time and there was not such an anxious crowd awaiting the arrival of the Sunday papers. The people had been fooled once. The newsdealers here are not responsible for these false reports. The Pittsburg Times, of Monday, which does not issue a Sunday edition, got off the following: "There were some sheets in our town They were so wondrous wise They sank a great big Spanish fleet 'Twas sunset and sunrise. But when it saw that it was sunk With all its might and main It straightway did unsink itself, And rode the waves again."
