

IT WILL HAPPEN

the best of them and when it happens to you send your wheel to us. We know the repairing business from A to Z and put the sickest bicycle on its wheels in an incredibly short time. We feel proud of our work, but we don't charge exorbitant price for our services. Il at Hoffman's Special Bicycle Repair Department.

HOFFMAN, the Jeweler.

A Little of Everything.

There was a frost Monday morning. Snyder & Johns, fashionable tailors. Get your bicycles repaired at Gooder's.

Bicycle supplies of all kinds at Good-

It takes a very tall man to be above

All new 1898 patterns in shirts at

A. H. Cutter's driving shoes for sale only at Robinson's. Have you seen the Graphophone at Gooder's jewelry store. The Driftwood Gazette entered its twenty-second year last week. William M. Cochran has been appointed postmaster at DuBois.

You will find a bargain counter at

J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store.

Merriam shoes for children are the best on earth. Robinson's have them. Something rare, a stock of hats and neckties like that displayed at Milliren's.

Baronins in tan shoes at James K. Johnston's. See advertisement in this issue.

The brick Catholic church at Corsica was destroyed by fire on Monday of last

Miss Mary Burge has charge of Corvin's photograph gallery during his

The Winslow township school board will hire teachers the last Saturday of this month.

Miss Nellie Dougherty entertained a number of young people at her home last evening.

Eighteen inch tiling has been laid for drainage in front of the Baptist church and parsonage.

Hamblet & Swartz have reduced all $20.00 and $21.00 suits to $17.00, $18.00

Take your watches to Gooder's and have them repaired. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Lots of men's shoes on the counter at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store that you can get for a bargain. Mrs. Joseph G. Cathers was operated on since our last issue for appendicitis.

She is getting along nicely. Clarence Reynolds and Louis Mellinger returned yesterday from a week's camping in the Beechwoods. Come and hear the graphophone talk and sing and hear it play music of all kinds at Gooder's jewelry store. James K. Johnston, the shoe dealer, has cut prices on tan shoes for 15 days. See his advertisement in this issue.

Mr. George Muller delivered an address in Centennial hall Sunday afternoon. His subject was, "Harvest."

Presching services are held in the Lutheran church at this place every Sunday, conducted by Rev. Haceker.

Mrs. J. S. Morrow is selling shoes and dry goods at cost to close out. If you want bargains call at her store in opera

The merry-go-round moved to Ridg-sy the first of this week. The merry-cround took in about $200.00 on the curth of July.

to derrick on which the fire alarm was hanging, is being resed to the me to-day. The fire bell is to beng to hem tower.

Alex Riston and family, of this place, and R. S. Donaldson and family, of Pittsburg, are eamping out in the Beechwoods.

There will be a special meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Mrs. J. Shaffers' on Thursday, July 14, at 2 o'clock.

Charles B. Clark, of this place, who took a six month's course in the DuBois Business College, has graduated from that institution. At the meeting of council this evening it is expected the sewer question will be settled and that a portion of the town will be sewered. Charles Herpel has had a large flag pole raised in front of his residence in West Reynoldsville. The pole stands 70 feet out of the ground. Charles Doverspike, the restaurateur, had two fingers of his right hand lacer-ated Saturday forenoon by having them eaught on a bleyele chain. W. A. Smith, the A. V. R'y blacksmith at this place, had the nails torn off of two fingers of his left hand a few days ago on the turntable. Francis Yost and Fred Zeitler both had an ankle sprained last Friday at the silk mill by a scaffold giving way and precipitating them to the

The annual examination for teachers' certificates was held at this place on the 1st inst. by County Superintendent Teitrick. There were thirty-three in the class.

The Bee Hive store room is being remodeled and fitted up. M. J. Coyle expeets to open a general store in that room as soon as it is ready for him to move into.

Communion services will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday evening. Love feast at 6.30, preaching at 7.30 and the administration of the Lord's Supper after preaching.

Mrs. W. G. Hartwick received a telegram Monday forenoon that her mother, who resided at Paris, Maine, had died that morning. She was eighty years old.

Frank J. Black, proprietor of Hotel McConnell, who keeps up with the times, has had his hotel 'bus painted in "Old Glory" colors, red, white and blue. The 'bus is a beauty.

The soda fountain at the Reynolds drug store works like a charm. Drop a nickel in the clerk's hand and the "phiz" of the fountain is heard in a jiffy. Try it. Syrups of all kinds are served.

Some patent medicine fakirs wanted license Saturday to sell on Main street, but Mayor Stoke would not grant it. He would have granted them license on a back street. The town can get along nicely without street fakirs.

The citizens of Beechwoods celebrated the Fourth of July at Allens Mills. The amusements of the day were patriotic speeches, basket picnic and fireworks. It was a pleasant occasion for the patriotic people of Beechwoods.

Charles Evans, of Punxsutawney, aged about twenty-five years, died Monday morning from heart trouble. The deceased was a brother of John D. Evans, who assists Register and Recorder John S. Barr at Brookville.

The loyal citizens of Allens Mills, the metropolis of Beechwoods, raised a flag at that place since our last issue. Col. Black had charge of the ceremonies. Patriotism was unrestrained and the cheering of the multitude could be heard for miles.

A patriotic festival, under the auspices of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Panic, will be held at the residence of James Norris, near Eleanors, to-morrow, Thursday, evening. Supper 25 cents. Ice cream and cake will be served during the evening.

Spark's circus did not attract many country people to town. The show was as good as could be expected for the price. A large crowd gathered near the show grounds to see the balloon ascension in the evening. The ballon ascended about one hundred feet, but the man who was to go up in it stuck close to terra firma. All the children and grandchildren of Mrs. Kate Harris assembled at her home, near Prescottville, on July 4th for a family re-union. Among the num-ber present were S. K. Furman and wife, of Harrisburg, Mrs. Flick, of Du-Bois, Al. and John Harris, of Brockwayville, Gordon Harris, of Green Brier. and Will Harris and wife, of Rathmel.

The Baptist Young People's Union at this place has elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: President, Lillian Sykes; vice-president, Myrta Dean: recording secretary, George Rea; corresponding secretary. Maud Rea; treasurer, Fred Booth; organist, Mildred Hoon; assistant organist, Goldie Martin.

A valuable horse owned by the Jefferson Supply Co. was badly injured a few days ago by a runaway team of horses near Prescottville. The young nan, who was driving the horse, did not see the runaway team in time to turn out of the read and they ran on to his horse. The tongue of the wagen struck the horse in the breast and pen-strucked it to a depth of six inches. Arm Broken.

Cora, ten-year-old daughter of William Robertson, of Jackson street, fell off the front steps at her home Saturday evening and broke her left arm below the elbow.

Captain Beer.

Robert B. Beer, of Stromsburg, Neb. son of R. D. Beer, of West Reynolds ville, is captain of Company H, 3rd Nebraska Volunteer Infantry. The company has been mustered in and is now camping at Fort Omaha, Neb.

Bitten by a Black Spider.

Dr. J. C. Sayers was bitten on the right hand last Wednesday in his office by a small black spider. He paid little attention to it at the time, but in a few hours his hand began to swell and the swelling extended up to his elbow. He had a very sore hand for a few days.

Laboratory for High School.

A fine laboratory will be put in the public school building for the high school. This will be the only high school in the county that will have a laboratory. The laboratory will cost over $300,00. The school board puts in $165.00 and Prof. G. W. Lenkerd $150.00.

Contract Let.

The Winslow township school board let the contract Saturday afternoon for the erection of a two-story, four roomed school building at Big Soldier. Ed. McClarren, of Sykesville, who was the lowest bidder, got the contract. His bid was $1,544.00. The building is to be finished by the first of September.

It Was Sub-Junior.

In our last issue we stated that Misse Mary Muir and Lulu Black had passed the junior examinations at the Clarion State Normal. We were misinformed. These two ladies did not take the junior examinations. It was the sub-junior. Misses Etta Sykes and Miley Stiles also passed the sub-junior examinations at the Clarion Normal.

Home on Furlough.

Frank B. Boner, of Company F, 15th Regiment, Pa. Volunteers, arrived at the home of his parents at Sandy Valley Monday on a ten day furlough. Frank caught cold at Mt. Gretna which resulted in enlargement of the tonsils. Both tonsils were removed Sunday and the young soldier was sent home for a few days. Company F is now encamped at Sheridan Point, Virginia. The company expects to get new uniforms in a few days and be ordered to Cuba. Mr. Boner will get back in time to go to Cuba with his company.

Picnic at Falls Creek.

The following young people drove to Falls Creek to-day where they were joined by a number of DuBois young people and expect to have a picnic in the afternoon and a party in the evening: Dr. Harry King, Dr. E. F. Mescher, Vincent Reynolds, Harry Reynolds, Louis Mellinger, Joe Geisler, Frank Alexander, Howard Kaucher, F. G. Smith, Misses Winnie Farrell, Estelle Zerbe, Edith Jackson, Nellie Dougherty, Pauline Seeley, Elizabeth Davis, Minnie Priester, Julia Stoke, Nellie Sutter, Dorthy Sutter, Elizabeth Irving.

John Murphy, who has been a passenger engineer on the A. V. R'y for a quarter of a century, has given up his run on the road. Mike Montgomery, of this place, has been given Murphy's run: Pat. Foley, of this place, has been given Montgomery's local freight run with Sunday lay over at Reynoldsville; Ed. Haws, of DuBois, takes Foley's local freight run with Sunday lay over at Driftwood; L. J. Arnold, of this place, takes Haws' run on through freight, and will likely move to East Brady, and Miles Davis, of West Reynoldsville, takes Arnold's place as extra engineer at this place.

Reynoldsville vs. Pittsburg. The Soffel Athletic Club of Pittsburg and the Reynoldsville ball team played a game on the grounds at this place last Thursday afternoon. The Pittsburg boys were badly defeated, the score being 18-7. The visitors got their seven runs in the first of the game. The batteries were: Reynoldsville, Burge, McAuliff and Walter Williams; Soffel, Baker, Soffel and Kress. A large crowd witnessed the game. It was expected that the Pittsburg club would give our boys a close call, but they were too weak for our team. The home team are hard hitters and their batting paralized the visitors.

He Would Not Talk.

Last Saturday morning G. Curtis Strouse, a Winslow township farmer, found a dirty looking stranger in his barn. The fellow would not talk nor would he get out of the barn. Mr. Strouse thought the man was demented and he did not want to do him bodily injury, and therefore, Mrs. Strouse came to town and made information against the man for trespassing. 'Squire Neff prepared the warrant, which was given into the hands of Constable Samue Brilhart. The man was brought to name of John Pottlow. He would not answer any question, in fact refused to talk, although he could talk Polish and English. Mr. Strouse could not swear to any damage being done and Pottlow was given his liberty with ten minutes to leave town.

Accidents to Rathmelites.

William Penhall had his right knee badly injured by a fail of coal in Big Soldier one day last week.

Patrick McCloskey had his right an kle dislocated one night last week. George Nans, while working at his chicken coop, run a nail through his left foot. He had a plank pryed up and accidentally knocked the little propout and the plank fell on his foot, driving a rusty pall through it.

A five-year-old son of James VanCliffe was shot in the face with a big firecracker July 4th and be may lose the sight of one eye.

Clark Leech, a Rathmel butcher, while out buying cattle, met with an accident near Sykesville one day last week which sost him two broken ribs, fifty dollars in eash, a broken buggy and doctor bill. Mr. Leech's horse become unmanageable going down a steep hill and threw Mr Leech out of the Buggy, knocking him unconscious. Mr. Leech carried his pocket book in a hip pocket and when he gathered himself up he found his money-five, ten and twenty dollar bills scattered along the road. He found all the money but fifty dollars.

James Flynn Dead.

James Flynn, who had resided in this place over a quarter of a century, died at his home on Hill street on the evening of June 29th, aged 52 years. He was born in Kenmare, County Kerry, Ireland. In 1869 he migrated to America, locating at Ridgway, Pa., for one year and then came to Reynaldsville. Mr. Flynn was left a widower nine years ago with two sons and three daughters. Two of the children, son and daughter, preceded their father into the other world. Three children, Maurice, Julia and Frances, are now left alone. Mr. Flynn, who was a member of the C. M. B. A., carried $1,000 life insurance in that organization. The C. M. B. A. attended the funeral in a body. Services were held in the Catholic church and the remains of James Flynn were buried beside his wife and two children in the Catholic cemetery.

Held for Court. Two weeks ago Rev. Francis L. Sovieski, an itinerant preacher, and a woman who claimed to be his wife, were arrested in Brookville on a charge of adultery and false personation. July 11th was set for the date for a hearing and the man and woman failing to secure bail were given over to the sheriff's keeping. Rev. F. W. Reeder, of Ithica, N. Y., is the prosecutor. Monday Rev. Reeder and three witnesses were present at the hearing before 'Squire Baur, which lasted almost all day. The testimony was so strong against the couple that 'Squire Baur bound them over to court in the sum of $1,000 bail for each one. Being unable to get the required bail Sovieski and wife were returned to the Sheriff's keeping until the September term of court.

Council Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of town council was held last Wednesday evening. President Elliott being absent, J. H. Corbett was elected president pro tem. Members present, Corbett, Deible, Smith and Hoover. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved. Bills and interest amounting to $212.40 were ordered to be paid. Mayor Stoke reported receipts $22.00. On motion the president pro tem and the clerk were instructed to sign the warrant on the collector's duplicate. On motion council adjourned to meet Wednesday evening, July 13th.

Responded to President's Proclamation. In accordance with President McKinley's proclamation, thanksgiving services, commemorating the victories of the army and navy, were held in the Methodist Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist and Lutheran churches Sunday evening. The Methodist and Presbyterian churches were nicely decorated with flags and bunting. The leading national airs were sung in the three first named churches. In the midst of the patriotic services the people did not forget to return thanks to the God of Battles for victories given to our arms.

Contract for Power House Let.

J. W. Place, the New York capitalist who is president of the Reynoldsville Silk Co., was in town since our last issue. While here Mr. Place made the first payment for the erection of the silk mill. James V. Young, who has the contract of putting up the Main building, also got the contract to erect the power house. Mr. Place was well pleased with the work on the large building. It is expected that twenty-five carloads of machinery for the silk plant will be shipped to this place about the 20th of August.

Fell From a Beam.

William Barker, young son of Robert Barker who resides on Fifth street, was playing in a neighbor's barn one day last week and fell from a beam, break-ing his right arm at wrist and dislocat-ing his right elbow.

Lost—A pair of gold framed spectacles in the case. Finder will be rewarded by returning the same to Joseph T. Guth-rle, West Reynoldsville.

Handsome derbies and Alpines just received at Millirens. If you want to buy shoes go to Robin-on's where they have bargains.

Watch repairing a specialty at Good-

Flag Presentation and Ice Cream.

On the evening of July 2nd, in the McConnell Park, the Indies of the Woman's Relief Corps presented the Volunteer company of this place with a brautiful silk flag worth $75.00. The money for the flag was raised by subscription from the citizens of this place. Captain T. C. Reynolds was master of ceremonies for the ladies. Prof. G. W. Lenkerd delivered the presentation speech. After the flag had been presented in behalf of the W. R. C. and citizens of Reynoldsville, Capt. F. K. Mullen, First Lieut. W. H. Stamey and Second Sergt. Ammon Swartz stepped out of the rasks on to the platform and Captain Mullen made a short address in which he thanked the ladies, and all others, for the beautiful stars and stripes presented, and pledged bimself and company to be loyal to the colors, if called to the front. Rev. Dean delivered an appropriate and patriotic address.

After the coremonies in the park the Volunteers marched to the G. A. R. rooms where the W. R. C. ladies bad delicious ise cream and various kinds of cake, "angel," "devil," &c., ready to serve to the boys. If the boys would make as vigorous an attack on the Spanish army-and we believe they would-as they did on the ice cream and cake, Uncle Sam made a mistake by not allowing them to go to the front when they first offered their service.

Gone to be Soldiers. An examining officer is now at Punxsutawney to examine and muster in the members of the Jefferson County Volunteer Company. The following young men of this piace went to Ponxsutawney this morning to be examined and will join the company if they pass the examination: Walter Williams, Joseph Geisler, Herbert Burns, Atmore Shaffer, Jay Evans, Bruce Mitchell, James Foley, Fred. Stauffer and Roy Bartle. They are all strong and healthy looking young men and will, doubtless, pass the examination and become soldiers.

Harry Copping had made all arrange ments to go and he learned late last evening that he would not be examined because he is married. Only single men will be examined for this company.

"Mag" Bash's Evening Trip. "Mag" Bash, who is confined in the Brookville jail charged with keeping a bad house on "poverty flat," gave Sheriff Borns a little trouble on the evening of July 4th. Sheriff allowed "Mag" in the hall to look at the fireworks and she thought it a good opportunity to skip, and she skipped. When lockingup time arrived "Mag" was missed. Sheriff sent parties out the Reynoldsville road in search of her and he drove towards Sigel. He overtook "Mag" on the hill near Sigel, seven miles from Brookville. She bad walked all the way and had carried her little baby in her arms. "Mag's" dash for liberty will result in keeping her strictly behind the bars until the court decides

His Sufferings Ended.

Elmer Burkhouse, of Emerickville, son of Solomon Burkhouse, died July 4th, aged 32 years. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Emerickville last Thursday forenoon. Services were conducted by Rev. A. G. Mills. The deceased leaves a wife and two small daughters. About two years ago Elmer had his spine injured while at work with a stump machine and his bowels, bladder and limbs were paralized. Eight weeks ago he was taken to the West Penn Hospital in Pittsburg in hopes that something could be done for him, but his case was hopeless and he was brought home to await release from his sufferings by the Death Angel.

Madden Resigned-Breed Elected.

Prof. N. B. Madden, who was assistant principal of our schools two years and who was re-elected for the coming term, has resigned. He has given up teaching to study law, and will attend the Dickinson law school. Prof. Madden was an excellent teacher. We are sorry to lose him.

Last evening the school board elected Prof. F. S. Breed, of Butler, assistant principal of the schools to fill the vacancy caused by Madden's resignation. Prof. Breed comes highly recommended.

E. L. Officers.

At the last regular meeting of the Epworth League the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months: President, W. B. Stauffer: 1st vicepresident, Jessie Smeltzer: 2nd vice-president, Lizzie Koehler: 3rd vicepresident, Sadie Jones: 4th vice-president, Mary Burge; secretary, Erms dent, Mary Burge; secretary, Erma Robinson; treasurer, Clarence Henry; organist, Carrie Albright; chorister, John Reddecliff; librarians, Fred Demp-sey and John Northy; president Junior League, Orpha Beer.

A traveling fakir sold his goods on the vacant lot near the opera house Monday evening. The fakir had a snake performer with him who gave an exhibition with rattle snakes. The man had as high as seventeen snakes wrapped around his head and neck at one time. He put a snake's head into his mouth.

Fell off a Fence.

Frank, ten-year-old son of Holland Clawson, of Hill street, fell of a fence one day last week and broke his left irm below the elbow.

THE FOURTH CELEBRATED.

Parade, Base Ball, Bicycle Races, Foot Racen, &c., &c.

The glorious Fourth of July was celebrated in Reynoldsville by a multitude of people. The celebration began early in the morning and was continued until late at night. By nine o'clock Main street was crowded with men, women and children who were out for a day of sport. The "doings" of the day were under the management of Hose Co. No. I and the Keystone band. The first on the program was a street parade, which was formed on Main street at 10.30 and proceeded to the R. & F. C. R'y to await the arrival of the fire companies from DuBois. When the train arrived three companies from our neighboring town were represented-Volunteer, VanTassel and Friendship-and they. joined the parade, which started up Main street as soon as the visiting firemen got in line.

Dinner and supper were served in the Star building by the Hose Co. and Key-

In the afternoon the Keystone band gave a concert in McConnell's Park. At three o'clock the Big Run and Reynoldsville ball teams played ball. In the first two innings the game promised to be an interesting one, but after that it was plainly evident that Big Run was not in it. The score was 13-2 in favor. home team. The Big Run team scored in the first and ninth innings. Batteries, Reynoldsville, Burge and Williams; Big Run, Gourley and Blose.

There was a dance in progress all afternoon and evening in the McConnell Park.

At 4.45 the bicycle races were started. The first was a six mile road race. The prizes for this race were a gold medal. valued at $15.00, and a $5.00 umbrella. Albert Sutter, of this place, won the first prize, the medal, and Fred Weston, of DuBois, captured the umbrella.

The prizes for the slow race were $3.00, $2.00 and $1.00 in cash. Harry McEntire got first prize, Frank Bohren second and Bert Hoffman third.

The prizes for the foot race were $3.00 and $2.00 in cash. Fred Bohren won first prize and Reynolds Gibson won second. A merry-go-round, near the opera house, furnished amusement for those who did not want to dance, see ball game or bicycle races. The pyrotechnic display in the evening was a befitting climax for the days' by a large crowd that assembled on Grant street.

celebration. The fireworks were enjoyed

The Fourth at Rathmel. The Fourth of July was celebrated at Rathmel in a patriotic style. The first event of the day was a parade headed by the Rathmel cornet band. The following orders were in line: Christian Endeavor Society, P. O. S. of A. and Knights of Pythias. After the parade two flags, "Old Glory" and a Cuban flag. were raised by the citizens of Rathmel on a large pole near P. O. S. of A. hall. Joseph B. Wyse, one of Rathmel's young busines men, was the first speaker. In a neat speech, Mr. Wyse paid a glowing tribute to the heroes of 1776. The next speaker was Prof. Lex N. Mitchell, of Punxsutawney, who devered a rousing address not forget to praise the noble boys who have been doing honor to the Stars and Stripes in Cuba and on the seas. There was a large crowd present. After the speech-making at the flag raising the remainder of the celebration was under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. A picnic in the grove was one of the pleasures of the day. The small boy and the firecrackers were conspicuous from early morn until late in the evening. The people of our suburban town were pleased with the celebration at that place.

Death from Heart Trouble.

A. T. Mead died at Johnsonburg Friday morning from a rupture of a blood vessel near the heart. The deceased had been a resident of DuBois about eighteen years, having moved to Johnsonburg a year ago. The remains were brought to DuBois Saturday afternoon and taken to the residence of A. D. Mead, twin brother of the deceased, where the funeral services were held yesterday at 3.00 P. M., conducted by Rev. J. V. Bell. Mr. Mead was buried according to Masonic rites, Knapp Commandery, of Ridgway, had charge of the burial services. The deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge of DuBois, the Pittsburg Commandry of Knights of Templar, the Shrine at Erie and the Elks at Meadville, also the Knights of Pythias and A. O. U. W. A number of Reynoldsville Masons and Elks attended the funeral.

Oxfords now being sold away down in price at Robinson's.

Graphophones and records for sale at Gooder's jewelry store. Come and see them and get prices.

It is advisable for every person who is interested in their own welfare to buy at Millirens.

Call and see the bargains at J. E. Welsh & Co.'s shoe store. For neat fitting suit go to Snyder &

Happy feet in every pair of shoes bought at Robinson's.