At the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association at Bellefonte it was resolved to urge upon the next Legislature the enactment of a law extending the school term in the State to nine months, and to amend the compulsory education law as to force the attendance of pupils during the entire term.

At the next session of the Legislature the matter of revising the marriage license law is likely to be discussed. In all probability measures will be adopted to compel all applicants who appear to the marriage license clerk to be under the required age to present proof to the effect that they have attained their majority before a certificate will be granted them.

The supreme court has confirmed the decision of Judge Biddle, of Cumberland county, in a case that is of general interest throughout the state. He allowed constables 10 cents on each and every mile they traveled in performance of their official duty. Many constables were only allowed five cents, and proceedings will be instituted for back fees in many counties where they were withheld.

The war has ended. The peace protocol was signed Friday. Under the terms of the protocol, commissioners are to be appointed before next Monday who shall, within a month, meet in Havana and San Juan to arrange for the Spanish evacuation of Cuba, Porto Rico, and all other islands adjacent, once belonging to Spain, and by the first of October commissioners are to meet in Paris to negotiate a treaty of peace. The President's proclamation of suspension of hostilities will be found on an inside page of THE STAR.

Advertising is an investment, not an expense, as it is too often referred to by advertisers who are afraid to venture much. Advertising is as much an investment as your stock in trade, and if placed judiciously will yield an hundred fold. Make your arguments plain and straightforward, remembering that the plain truth always tells. Don't wrap up your arguments in a mass of unmeaning sentences of questionable length. Short and pointed paragraphs leading up to purse producing prices will effect the desired results. There's not much comfort in having a good thing on sale if the public is unaware of the fact. The right kind of advertising always brings satisfactory results. It has made others and it will make you.

If there is anything worse than the whisky traffic in a community it must be a busybody. In the bible they are classed with evil doers, thieves and murderers. Their habits are social, their manners confidential and sympathetic and their intimate acquaintance usually implies heartburnings, hatred and jealousies. They insinuate themselves by kind and friendly offices into your homes, pick up your peculiarities, get at your secrets, guess at your former history, stir facts and fancies in the kettle of their own suspicions and surmises, cover the whole with a napkin of imitation charity and send the compound around the neighborhood. Worse than potato bugs, or worms, or grasshoppers, or the Buffalo moth are these creatures. Paris green is against the law, moth ball will not keep them out; society is defenseless and fair fame, good name, home sanctity, all go down before the onslaught of the busybody.

The war, officially dating from April 21, ends August 12, has endured for three months and 21 days, or a total of 113 days. In that time we have accomplished all we set out to do, and something more. The result will fill a big and far-reaching page in the history of the closing years of the nineteenth century. It has established in the world's judgment the readiness of the United States to take up arms in a just cause, and our vast resources whether on land or sea available for the maintenance of our rights. It has again vindicated the bravery and fortitude of our soldiers, and the possession of military skill to lead them in great enterprises. The greater honors of the conflict have fallen to the American navy which has asserted for itself a leading place, if not absolute leadership, among the navies of the world, in courage, skill, mechanical and scientific attainment and daring seamanship. It has re-established the fame of our shipbuilders in the changed conditions of modern warfare as high as it stood in the old days, when with hearts of oak we maintained the supremacy of Yankee ships and crews against the sea dogs of Britain.—Pittsburgh Post.

Col. Joseph J. Young.

Ex-Sheriff Joseph J. Young, formerly of this place, but whose family now resides on a farm in Clover township, was in town last week on his way home from Bisbee, Arizona, where he has been for the past six weeks assisting Col. John A. Smith, of that city, and Col. William F. Cody, (Buffalo Bill) to organize a regiment of cow boys. The regiment is now ready for service, and has been ordered to leave for Chicago, near which city it is expected to go into camp. Buffalo Bill has the office of Chief of Scouts, ranking as Colonel, and Ex-Sheriff Young is Assistant Chief of Scouts, ranking as lieutenant-colonel, and receiving $180 a month salary. Colonel Young has already drawn one month's pay.

About two months ago Young wrote to Colonel Cody, and told him he wanted to get into the army again, and asked him to help him. Colonel Cody presented the matter to Gen. Miles, who also knew Sergeant Young, and asked that he be made his assistant. It was done, and Ex-Sheriff Young was made Assistant Chief of Scouts, with rank of lieutenant-colonel, and was ordered to Bisbee, Cochise county, Arizona, where he and Colonel John A. Smith and Buffalo Bill have organized a regiment of rough riders, composed entirely of cow boys. It did not take ten days to get the required number of men, and Colonel Young says every one of them can hit the bull's eye with their horses on the dead gallop.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Some Little Lovelets.

Kissing is unhealthy—if her father catches you at it. All is fair in love except flirtation—that is only half fair.

Man proposes, woman imposes, and the divorce court exposes. Love may be blind, but the neighbors generally have their eyes open.

Love is a sweet dream that matrimony turns into a horrible nightmare. The more a man studies love the more he will reduce his ignorance to a science.

Woman's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands die old bachelors. Love will find the way even if it is nothing better than the installment plan.

Cupid is always represented as a baby, because love never lives to grow up. After a girl passes twenty-five, she might as well marry; she will fade anyway.

A girl may forgive a man for kissing her, but never for apologizing afterward. It is always a case of love's labor lost unless it becomes a member of the union.
