Mrs. Robert Bone, sr., of Jackson street, was given a birthday surprise party Monday evening by her sons and daughters. It was a happy home gathering for all members of the family. The sons and daughter's, with their wives and husbands, remained under the parental roof until a late hour before departing for their respective homes. Did it With a Little Hatchet. Harry Fisher, eight-year-old son of M. M. Fisher, was as honest in his confession, one day last week, of the use he had made of his little hatchet as was the Immortal George Washington, the difference, however, being that George chopped the cherry-tree and Harry chopped his left hand. The end of his thumb was cut off, just a small portion of skin holding it to the stump. Dr. Murray was nearby when the accident occurred and the end of the thumb was stitched on again and in a few weeks Harry's thumb will be as good as ever it was. Business Change. Three years ago W. H. Moore and Charles A. Dickinson embarked in the grocery business in this place under the firm name of Moore & Dickinson. He will enter a dental college this fall, but has not fully decided what college to enter. S. M. Whitmore Elected. The school board has received and accepted T. B. Mitchell's resignation as teacher of Room No. 13 in the schools of this borough, and S. M. Whitmore, of Lickingville, Pa., has been elected to fill the vacancy created by Mitchell's resignation. As stated in THE STAR last week, Mr. Mitchell has been elected a teacher in the Lindsey, Pa., schools at a salary of $37.00 per month. The salary for room No. 13, of this borough, is $40.00 per month, but Lindsey is near Mr. Mitchell's home and his—his friends. If the name of the town from which Mr. Whitmore comes has any significance, the pupils of room 13 will have to conduct themselves circumspectly.

Killed on Railroad. Malcolm Averill, aged thirteen years and five months, son of Clark Averill of Meredith, four miles west of Reynoldsville, jumped on a freight train at Meredith about 8.30 A. M. Monday and in attempting to get off fell under the train and his left leg, from the knee down was mangled terribly. Drs. Neale and King, of this place, were called and they found it necessary to amputate the leg and made all preparations for the operation, but re-action did not set in and in seven hours after the accident the Death Messenger called for the crippled boy. The remains of Malcolm were buried in the M. E. cemetery at Emerickville yesterday afternoon. The parents little thought when they ate breakfast Monday morning that before supper time the next evening they would bury their beloved son. Malcolm seemed to have a mania for jumping on freight trains and just a few days before the accident he had promised his father that he would quit jumping on trains, but he continued the dangerous practice once too often. It is stated that he was a good boy around home and was obedient in all other things but the jumping on trains. He was helping his mother wash when local freight stopped at Meredith to set in a car and the boy ran out and jumped on the train and in a few minutes he was carried into the house. Mrs. Averill is a sister of Mrs. C. N. Lewis of this place. Reynolds' Were In It. There was a bicycle collision on Main street Saturday night in which Arthur Reynolds' left arm was broken at the elbow and a borough ordinance was badly fractured. Reynolds' figured conspicuously in the whole affair. Arthur Reynolds, son of Captain Charles Tilton Reynolds, and Harry Reynolds, son of Samuel Tilton Reynolds, were the participants in the bicycle collision, and Dr. Samuel Reynolds "shingled" Arthur's arm. The collision occurred about eleven o'clock. Both young men were riding without lights and were far exceeding the limit of speed allowed by ordinance. They saw each other in plenty of time to prevent a collision, and had Harry obeyed the custom of turning to the right Arthur would not now be nursing a broken arm. Just as Arthur turned to right Harry thought he was not going to turn out and he turned to left, then Arthur turned to left and Harry turned to right and a collision was the result. West Reynoldsville School. The West Reynoldsville school board has adopted the following books for that school the coming term: Brooks' Standard Arithmetic, Patterson's Elementary Grammar, Tuell and Fowler's Latin Book. School begins in West Reynoldsville two weeks from next Monday, August 29th. High School Examinations. Students of the high school who were conditioned in any branch of study at the close of the last term, and who desire to enter the next higher grade in full standing at the opening of the coming term, are hereby notified to appear for re-examination in the branches in which they were conditioned, on Tuesday, August 30, at 9.00 o'clock A. M. in the high school room. Any new students who expect to apply for admission to the high school this term may also appear at the same time and place. G. W. LENKERD, Principal. Naturalization Court. Judge Reed has fixed the first Monday in September, at 9.00 o'clock, A. M., as the time for holding the annual naturalization court. Inasmuch as Judge Reed has shown a disposition to be a little exacting as to the qualifications of those upon whom he confers the honor of American citizenship, it would be well for applicants to spend much of the time prior to the convening of the court in familiarizing themselves with our state constitution.—Brookville Republican. New Assembly Grounds. The assembly grounds at Strattonville, Clarion county, which was under the management of the Clarion District Conference of the M. E. church, has been abandoned. An amphitheater and a number of cottages had been built on the grounds, but the inconvenience of getting to the assembly made it an "elephant" on the hands of the financiers and after a number of years of worry over the lack of success, financially, the assembly at that place was given up as a failure. At the session of District Conference held in Brookville the latter part of June it was suggested by J. M. Groves that an assembly be opened near Falls Creek, where suitable grounds could be procured and the railroad accommodations would be excellent. The conference appointed a committee of thirteen, including leading men of other denominations, to look over the grounds at Falls Creek. Eight or ten members of the committee met at Falls Creek last Wednesday and were favorably impressed with 24 acres of land near Falls Creek, owned by Hon. J. P. Taylor. Mr. Taylor informed the committee that he would sell the grounds very reasonable for an assembly. The committee will meet again in a few weeks to decide on locating an assembly at Falls Creek. If the proposed scheme is carried out it will be undenominational. Washington Township Teachers. Vol., a few days ago, in which he says: "That communication in THE STAR about unstarving and having nothing to eat for two days, is not true. Of course we had pretty tough grub when we first came to Newport News, but it was no fault of our Colonel's, as the paper stated. We had all the hard tack, coffee and 'sowbelly' we wanted, and some of the boys could not eat that. I guess the person who wrote that was home sick; we have had quite a lot of homesickness in camp. Lieutenant-Col. Rickards has treated us like a man, and we have had more liberties than any other regiment here. If the boys want to they can buy most anything right on the grounds." Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by John S. Barr, Clerk of Courts of Jefferson county: H. B. Fry, of DuBois, and Maud Williams, of Oliveburg. Davis will receive bids until Saturday, Aug. 20th. MILTON COLEMAN, Committee.
